

InsuranceQA 1000 - RAG Text Corpus

Source file: data_insuranceqa_1000.jsonl

Entries: 1000 question-answer pairs

This PDF is generated as selectable, searchable text. It is intended as a clean RAG knowledge corpus. Test labels such as expected behavior/decision are intentionally not included in the body text, to avoid leaking evaluation labels into retrieval.

Entry 0001

Question:

Is Single Premium Life Insurance A Good Investment?

Answer:

Interest rate crediting single premium life insurance with a low death benefit cost maybe a good play for death benefit , but neither as an investment nor a savings option in a low interest rate environment . When and until the guaranteed interest rate on these contracts rise to 3 % or better , they are not economically viable as a savings plan to overcome the policy expenses .

Entry 0002

Question:

How Much Is Health Insurance Out Of Pocket?

Answer:

This depends on a number of factors in your plan including , your premium is , your deductible , coinsurance , copayments , maximum out-of-pocket - these amounts will vary by plan so you want to make sure of what you have and that it 's a plan that is suitable to your needs and budget . It 's not always best to just buy what 's cheapest or the most comprehensive . There are many moving parts to health insurance and it 's always helpful to consult with an experienced broker to make sure that the plan you have/want to apply for is going to best serve your needs . Please let me know if I can be of further assistance . Thanks very much .

Entry 0003

Question:

Why Variable Annuities Are Good?

Answer:

A non-qualified variable annuity accumulates tax deferred with access to the market . High tax bracket individuals could benefit from the tax deferral aspects of variable annuities . A variable annuity is a security and insurance product that needs to be deemed suitable for the buyer before moving forward with the purchase . Once you 've determined your risk tolerance and product suitability you can rank variable annuities by expense loads and policy provisions that best fit your financial goals . You could lose money in variable annuities . Variable annuities have differing embedded policy provisions and additional riders , usually , for an addition price . Expense loads may dictate the value of the variable annuity as does the portfolio of separate sub accounts . Variable annuities have performance records and risk assessments published through Morning Star .

Entry 0004

Question:

How Long Does Renters Insurance Last?

Answer:

Like many other residential property policies these days such as Homeowners or Condominium Unit Owners ' , Renters Insurance policies are generally issued on an annual basis . Policies like this are commonly referred to as " continuous renewal " contracts meaning that so long as premiums are paid and the insured continues to meet a company 's underwriting standards and guidelines , the policy will be continuously offered to the insured at each annual renewal date .

Entry 0005

Question:

How Much Does A Good Health Insurance Plan Cost?

Answer:

It varies from person to person . Your age , where you live , if you use tobacco products , and if you qualify for a subsidy to reduce your premium will determine how much a good policy is going to cost . Under the Affordable Care Act , you have the options for bronze , silver , gold , and platinum level plans -LRB- as you go up in metal , the price goes up , but provides better benefits -RRB- - some areas also have a catastrophic plan available . In addition , your age is a big factor as well . The younger you are , the cheaper your premium - the older you are , the higher your premium . Also , if you use tobacco products , your premium can be increased up to 50 % as well . All of the plans offer good coverage . A silver or gold plan are your middle of the road type of plans because they provide strong coverage at an affordable price . I always recommend consulting with an experienced health insurance broker before you apply for anything . We can help you determine the plan that 's going to be most suitable for your specific needs and budget . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for help and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0006

Question:

Is There Life Insurance That Does Not Require Medical Exam?

Answer:

There are life insurance policies that do not require an exam for every age of applicant . There are options for every type of health . There are term policies , universal life policies , and whole life policies that do not require an exam . No Exam life insurance can be purchased in face amounts up to $ 500,000 . Some agents say that you will pay more if you buy nonmed life insurance , but that is not always the case . If your health is very poor , No Exam life insurance may be the only option available to you . If you think you are healthy but not sure , life insurance that does not require an exam might cost less than if you took an exam and found out your cholesterol was over 300 .

Entry 0007

Question:

How Much Is Car Insurance For A 20 Year Old?

Answer:

Car insurance rates for a 20-year old will depend upon many factors including your driving record , the type of vehicle you have , where you live , and your grades -LRB- if you are a student -RRB- . Monthly rates could vary between approximately $ 40 and quite a bit more . Naturally , just basic liability protection will cost the least while full coverage on a financed car will be more expensive .

Entry 0008

Question:

Who Sells And Services Medigap Insurance?

Answer:

There are several of the "A" rated insurance carriers that offer Medigap Insurance such as Mutual of Omaha , AARP United Healthcare , Humana and Aetna to name a few . However , the best place to buy Medigap Insurance is through an independent agent that specializes in Medigap . The agent will be able to show you plans from all the major carriers and help match your needs to the plan that will best fit your situation . It will make the process so much easier for you plus it is much easier to get in touch with the agent if there is an issue rather than sitting on a customer service line all day . There is no fee to you to use an independent agent . I would be happy to answer any other questions you have .

Entry 0009

Question:

Can I Have Multiple Disability Insurance Policies?

Answer:

You can have multiple disability policies as long as the total benefit amount can be validated with tax returns and/or W2 information . Keep in mid that you can add retirement contributions to the total earnings amount to increase coverage . And if you 're a business you may be able to add disability overhead insurance as well .

Entry 0010

Question:

How To Select Home Insurance?

Answer:

Home insurance is not something to take for granted . Unfortunately , most people do because it 's the last thing they need to close on a house . There are several variables that come into play with Home insurance and selecting the cheapest policy can cost you thousands down the road . The best way to select home insurance is to work with an independent agent . Independent agents are not held to any one company . They can review several different plans and compare rates to make sure you are getting the best policy based on your needs , not the insurance company .

Entry 0011

Question:

I Have A Qualified Variable Annuity. What Is That Exactly?

Answer:

That is a great question ! I 'd strongly advise that you check with your annuity 's agent or your tax adviser before doing anything . You mentioned that you were willing to pay penalties and taxes , so I 'm assuming that there is a pressing need for cash , or a great dislike for the policy/agent/company that has caused you to decide to gut your annuity ? If so , I 'd again advise caution . If you surrender your annuity , and it was meant to fuel your retirement , what is your plan to replace it ? Will you end up suffering for many years for a temporary hardship if you surrender the annuity ? Maybe it might be wiser to see what cash withdrawal you can make from the annuity without fees -LRB- you are allowed a certain amount without penalties or fees , and more if you are willing to pay any surrender fees that may still be applicable -RRB- and leave the annuity intact ; you may also want to look at borrowing from a cash value of any whole life policy that you may have , as that also is a quick and relatively painless way to get cash . If your heart is set upon surrendering it , please bear in mind that there will be a 10 % penalty , possible surrender fees , and a major tax bite from the amount that you might expect to get . Please assume that if you are lucky , you will recieve roughly half of what you are expecting to receive , depending upon your tax bracket . This type of investment is designed specifically for saving , and stopping the process is very costly . To start the process , contact your agent who sold you the annuity , or the plan administrator , and tell them of your intentions . If you would like to discuss this further , please do not hesitate to contact me , okay ? I 'd be happy to help . Good luck , and thank you for asking !

Entry 0012

Question:

How To Plan For A Good Retirement?

Answer:

Financial planning , Retirement planning and Estate planning are all integrated . What you do with one often affects the other . The first step in planning for a Good Retirement is to start saving regularly as early as you can . The challenge often is that retirement seems so far away that it is easy to put off . Now that you have started saving , what are you saving for ? Deciding what a successful retirement means to you can be quite challenging . What do you want to do for the rest of your life ? A lifestyle planner can help . There is additional information on this topic under retirement on my website www.jpw.ca if you are interested . Now that you have a basic idea of what your successful retirement means , the numbers can be `` crunched " . Your retirement or financial planner can fine tune your retirement planning to make what you want to happen , happen . What particular investment vehicles you should use , depends on your individual situation . Be sure to take advantage of retirement plans that are tax deferred -LRB- in Canada , RRSPs and TFSAs -RRB- . Tax deferral allows you to get the full effect of compound growth . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me . If you would like to work with a local Retirement Planner , you could start with a Google search . For example if you search for : retirement planner Halifax or retirement planning Halifax , my name along with several others will come up . You can use the same method to find Retirement Planners in your community .

Entry 0013

Question:

When Can You Borrow Against Life Insurance?

Answer:

Assuming you have cash values and the surrender charge provisions allow policy loans during the surrender period , access to cash values are fairly straight forward . Whats not straight forward nor is there any real industry standard in the charges for borrowing your money from your policy . The following current company practice of policy loan charges may be in your contract : -LRB- These are basic explanations . Each policy uses different language to express its provisions -RRB- Zero net cost loans the charging and crediting of the same rate 31 days apart Wash loans the charging and crediting of the same rate 365 day apart Spread loans the charging and crediting of a different rate 365 days apart Direct recognition loans - the charging and crediting of a different rate 365 days apart as well as lower of the dividend credited to borrowed cash values . Participating loans - the charging and crediting of a different rate 365 days apart where the policy earnings are greater than the policy loans .

Entry 0014

Question:

What Are Average Auto Insurance Rates?

Answer:

According to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners -LRB- NAIC -RRB- the national average annual auto insurance premiums is around $ 795 . Unfortunately this statistic does not disclose any assumptions or methodology so we do not know what coverage amounts were used to determine averages . This was most likely data taken from in force policies .

Entry 0015

Question:

Does Life Insurance Cover Alcoholism?

Answer:

That is a great question ! The answer is yes , unless the answer on the application about drinking was falsified , -LRB- generally along the lines of `` have been told they have , been treated for , or prescribed medication for alcohol abuse/dependency or addiction ? " , or `` been asked to reduce the intake of or discontinue use of drugs or alcohol ? " -RRB- or the death occurred as a result of a crime committed while under the influence . Many policies will not pay if the death occurs because of criminal activity , and drunk driving would fall under that category . If the death occurs from long term chronic abuse , the policy should pay , but I 'd have your agent confirm that for you . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0016

Question:

What Is Covered By Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

What is covered by Long Term Care Insurance depends on what type of policy you get . It is very important to review the features before you buy your policy , and to compare plans that have similar features when making your selection . Some Long Term Care Insurance plans cover everything from hiring a relative to help you in your home , to residing in a nursing home , and all the care options in between .

Entry 0017

Question:

What'S Medicare And Medicaid?

Answer:

Very good question ! Medicaid is medical coverage provided by the government for people who can not afford it and they fall into the income bracket that the government has chosen . Medicare is provided by social security for the elderly or retired and you are eligible when you turn 65 years of age .

Entry 0018

Question:

Why Do You Need A Retirement Plan?

Answer:

Someday youre going to retire and youll need more than your Social Security benefits and Medicare . Youre going to be living longer and youll need more than your Social Security benefits and Medicare . You need to supplement your Social Security benefits and Medicare with another retirement plan because Social Security benefits and Medicare wont be enough . How you plan for your retirement today will determine your lifestyle tomorrow .

Entry 0019

Question:

Who Sells The Best Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

Getting the best term life insurance involves using a reliable agency , getting matched with the best company for your health , getting the lowest price , getting good guarantees , and using a life insurance carrier with a high rating . Your agent can help you with all these . However , if you want to do some sleuthing ahead of time , you can go to websites that offer term quote engines to see what policies you might qualify for . Then go to the home page of the carriers that come up , to find their ratings . That way you will be a knowledgeable consumer who can help your agent get you set up with the best term life insurance for YOU .

Entry 0020

Question:

Can I Decline Part A Medicare?

Answer:

You can decline Medicare part A with several restrictions . You can not get Medicare part B without having part A. Additionally , you will face a significant penalty for signing up after age 65 if you do decline Medicare part A . The one time individuals should decline Medicare part A is if they continue to work beyond age 65 and have employer provided health insurance . In that circumstance , the individual can sign up for Medicare when they retire , leave the company , or lose employer coverage with no penalty . Contact your company HR or local Social Security office for details . The company will normally provide a document to the Social Security Administration that the individual have employer coverage up until a certain date . It is important to start the process at least three months prior to your retirement .

Entry 0021

Question:

How To Make A Claim With Renters Insurance?

Answer:

To make a claim on your renters insurance , you would contact the claims phone number of your renters insurance carrier . The phone number is typically listed within your policy documents or you can call your local agent to have them help you with the claims process . Your local agent is there to assist you during the claims process .

Entry 0022

Question:

How Much Life Insurance Do I Need?

Answer:

Video Transcript : Today 's question is , `` How much life insurance do I need ? " Well , you need to take all your financial obligations in indebtedness , all your future obligations like college , retirement , other areas that you think that you want to talk about or even charitable intent . You need to take all those totals , plus the loss of income . Because if I 'm not there to generate income , what happens to my spouse or my family ? I need to be able to generate income for them to live on . So what I 'm looking at , all the ideas of `` How much do I need ? " I want to take all these areas into consideration ; financial indebtedness , future obligations , maybe some charitable intent , and to replace the income from the person who 's died . Well , that 's our consumer question for today . If you have any questions , just submit them to www.insurancelibrary.com .

Entry 0023

Question:

What Does A Life Insurance Mouth Swab Test For?

Answer:

A mouth swab test generally tests for drugs and tobacco . It can also test for other things but this is what the insurance company is usually looking for . Many companies are doing this instead of having a paramedic come out and take blood . It is less expensive and the agent is able to do it when he does the application in many cases .

Entry 0024

Question:

What Renters Insurance Covers Bed Bugs?

Answer:

The nature of a renters policy is to compensate you for damages that you suffer . An infestation of bed bugs might not meet the criteria of damages . The policy pays these damages for specified perils and insect infestation is either excluded or not included in the list of most policies . The renters policy is not designed to address routine maintenance issues .

Entry 0025

Question:

What Are The Best Auto Insurance Companies?

Answer:

There are many factors to consider when weighing your choice for an auto insurance carrier . Obviously an agent can give you several options along with their opinions but being a former claim manager and having experienced a couple of claims of my own over 50 + years , I do my own checking into the claim service histories of the respective carriers . Ask your agent for some suggested sources for carrier customer service evaluation .

Entry 0026

Question:

If I Have Carried Insurance All Year, How Can They Penalize Me For $200?

Answer:

All insurance policies are legal contracts . The policy must give a reason that the company could use to charge you additional premium beyond the contracted amount . This sounds like a highly unusual situation and probably involves the addition of an inexperienced driver or modification of the vehicle . It could also occur if the company determined that the car was being used differently

Entry 0027

Question:

Can I Get Car Insurance With An Open Claim?

Answer:

Yes , this happens all the time as insured customers find the claim settlement process of a carrier as adequate , they look purchase a policy form a different insurer . Be up front with your agent . Tell him/her why you want a new policy and if claim settlement has or is expected to be an issue . An independent agent can typically 4 or 5 other choices and eliminate your current carrier form the selection process .

Entry 0028

Question:

Does Insurance Cover Mold Removal From Home?

Answer:

That is a great question ! You will need to look at your policy to see . Some insurers will include mold damage , others will not . Here in the hot and humid south , mold insurance is a rider , or a separate coverage as a rule , since mold is so prevalent . Contact your agent , and find out whether yours does . Good luck , and thanks for asking !

Entry 0029

Question:

Can My Car Insurance Company Drop Me?

Answer:

Great Question for the auto insurance policy . Most car insurance companies have qualification to stay insured with them . So let say you get a DUI on your driving record and insurance company can and may drop and cancel your insurance policy . Please check with your particular company on that question or call your insurance agent .

Entry 0030

Question:

How To Notify Medicare Of Address Change?

Answer:

To notify Medicare of an address change , you can call Social Security at 1-800-772-1213 -LRB- TTY 1-800-325-0778 -RRB- . Or you can visit your local Social Security Office and fill out a change of address form there . Finally , you can go to the socialsecurity.gov website and set up or access `` my account " to make your address change online .

Entry 0031

Question:

Who Owns United Healthcare Insurance?

Answer:

United Healthcare is part of the United Health Group . They are the largest health insurer is the country . I always recommend consulting with an experienced broker - we can help you compare plans from multiple carriers to make sure the plan you 're applying for is the one that is most suitable for your needs and your budget . Please let me know if I can be of further assistance . Thanks very much .

Entry 0032

Question:

How Do I Estimate My Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

The easiest way to estimate the premium for a homeowners policy is to either contact an agent and get a price , or ask neighbors whose homes are similar to yours . Ultimately a homeowners policy is tailored to your unique home so getting a quote from an agent is the most precise way .

Entry 0033

Question:

How Much Is Car Insurance For A 18 Year Old In South Carolina?

Answer:

There are many insurers who are willing to offer an 18 year old in South Carolina auto insurance . Each insurer will price it 's product differently , so it 's best to talk to an agent who is licensed to sell auto insurance in your state to compare several policies to find out which one is best for you .

Entry 0034

Question:

Can An Auto Insurance Company Drop You?

Answer:

If you provided fraudulent or misleading information during the application process or fail to pay your premiums the carrier may provide notice of cancellation -LRB- typically 15 days notice -RRB- or may provide notice of non-renewal . If you have had any major accidents , tickets , suspensions , pay late , or motor vehicle incidents a carrier may chose to non renew your policy . Please remember every carrier sets it own standards on the risks that it considers acceptable and every state has it own regulations that also guide the carrier on the risks that they must accept .

Entry 0035

Question:

Does Home Insurance Cover Death?

Answer:

Only if you were liable for an accidental death would there possibly be coverage. While 300,000 is the minimum liability protection coverage I recommend for a homeowner, should your personal assets exceed this amount I highly recommend a personal umbrella policy be obtained. Umbrella policies can give you 1-10 million dollars in additional liability protection and will extend not only above and beyond your homeowners coverage but auto and rental properties as well. Consult your local agent about your liability protection needs.

Entry 0036

Question:

What Is The Number One Life Insurance Company?

Answer:

MetLife and its related companies have the most assets and life insurance in force than any other U.S. Company .
John Hancock has the best five year net investment yield of U.S. carriers. There are life insurance companies who are the number one in several critical balance sheet items .

Entry 0037

Question:

What Kind Of Life Insurance Should I Buy?

Answer:

There are many choices of life insurance available to you . The main stream life insurance products are term life , universal life , variable life and whole life . Each one has a specific purpose . Term life insurance is meant to coverage a specific period of time . The common terms are 1-5-10-15-20-25-30-35 years . This means the rate or premium you purchase is guaranteed level for that period of time regardless of change in health , life style or occupation . Term life is commonly used for younger people starting out in life , covering a large debt , life a mortgage on a home or business debt , or covering for a young child 's education . term life insurance allows for the largest face amount for the smallest premium payments . Universal life and variable life are permanent life insurance solutions that build cash value . Typically the premiums are more expensive and the face amounts are less because part of the premium is going into a cash value fund that can be invested with numerous options . The cash value can later be used for retirement , college funds , critical or chronic illness or even to purchase a large asset like a home . The universal and variable options are typically more aggressive with the cash value funds . The last option , whole life insurance , is very similar to the previous universal life insurance options . However , the cash value funds are typically a fixed percentage of growth . Whole life as it 's name suggests is primarily meant to cover you for your entire life . I recommend using an experienced independent life insurance broker with numerous carriers to shop the market and find you the best product at the best price for your unique situation . Good luck .

Entry 0038

Question:

When Was The First Health Insurance Policy Written?

Answer:

The first health insurance policy was probably written in the 20th century . Many of the current health insurance companies are more than 40 years old although it is hard to determine who was the very first carrier to issue coverage . However , this is certain : The rates were incredibly low -LRB- perhaps $ 10 per month ? -RRB- and benefits were probably very basic .

Entry 0039

Question:

How Can I Compare Life Insurance Quotes In Connecticut?

Answer:

To compare life insurance quotes in Connecticut , use a website that offers instant quotes . That way you can put in different face amounts and term lengths so that you can compare the prices of the different policies right then and there , without waiting for an agent to contact you .

Entry 0040

Question:

Do Life Insurance Exams Test For Valium?

Answer:

It is best to disclose this to the paramedical examiner if you are concerned . It may or may not show up on a lab . If it shows up , more forms and possibly a closer look because a drug showed up in your labs and you did n't mention it . It is far better to disclose something small like this to keep it small . Honestly , not a big deal as you 've explained it . Just explain it the same way to the medical examiner and should n't be a problem .

Entry 0041

Question:

What Is Group Universal Life Insurance?

Answer:

Group Universal Life insurance is a flexible , permanent type of life insurance policy offered by employers to employees at group rates . Universal Life should be a portable plan , because the purpose of Universal Life is to last beyond a few years , and keep for the rest of your life , if possible . It can offer employees death benefit protection along with the opportunity to grow cash values tax deferred .

Entry 0042

Question:

How Many Chiropractic Visits Did Medicare Pay For In 2014?

Answer:

To clarify your question - are you asking for a statistical figure as to how many specific claims were made for chiropractic services ? Or are you asking if chiropractic services are covered by Medicare ? If you 're looking for statistical data , I would suggest contacting CMS -LRB- the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services -RRB- or Medicare for help determining that figure - insurance agents would be very unlikely to have that data available for a specific type of claim on hand -LRB- I myself do not -RRB- . If you 're looking for input regarding if chiropractic services can be covered by Medicare , then the answer would be it depends . Medicare part B may cover some chiropractic services if they are deemed medically necessary to correct a subluxation in the spine . If it 's not deemed medically necessary , then it would n't be covered . If you have a Medigap plan -LRB- also known as a Medicare Supplement plan -RRB- , the plan would only pay their portion of services if Medicare approves the claim . If Medicare does n't approve it , then the Medigap plan wo n't be able to approve the charge . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for help with your coverage and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0043

Question:

Much Does Health Insurance Cost Small Business?

Answer:

Group health insurance quotes are based on the size of your business , the industrys SIC code , age of employees , and average employee health -LRB- except in Maryland , which requires no medical underwriting -RRB- . There are no instant online quotes for group health insurance for these reasons . To get a quote for group coverage , you 'll need to contact a health insurance agent - working with an independent one will allow you to shop for quotes from multiple companies in one place . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for help with your health insurance needs and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0044

Question:

What Is Vesting In Life Insurance?

Answer:

As related to life insurance , vesting is a legal term that means that the beneficiary has a legal right to the life insurance proceeds in the policy . If they are an irrevocable beneficiary , they are vested in that policy , and no other beneficiary can replace them without their consent .

Entry 0045

Question:

Should Long-Term Care Insurance Be Mandatory?

Answer:

Health insurance is protection that everyone can use , if not for treatment , then for preventative purposes . Long term care insurance is not nearly as certain to be needed . Many people pass away suddenly , as in an accident or from an acute illness , with little to no time spent being unable to care for themselves . Therefore , I do n't feel that long term care insurance should be mandatory .

Entry 0046

Question:

Is Medicare Different From State To State?

Answer:

Not as a rule . Medicare is a Federally funded program under the jurisdiction of the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services or CMMS . CMMS sets the rules and they are uniform throughout the States . Some of the reimbursements to doctors may differ based on the area and health care costs in that area but that has no real effect on the Medicare recipient .

Entry 0047

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Vision Exams?

Answer:

Routine vision eye exams are not covered by Medicare . This would be covered under a separate vision insurance plan or you would pay out of pocket . If a vision exam is deemed medically necessary by your doctor , Medicare may cover it . An example of when this might happen is if someone is diabetic and the doctor is concerned about the possibility of retinopathy , he/she may order a vision exam . In that type of instance , Medicare would cover the exam . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for help and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0048

Question:

When Should I Purchase Life Insurance?

Answer:

When you should purchase life insurance is a good question . Since insurance premium increase the older you get , purchasing when you are young and healthy is the best time . One approach would be to buy a base of permanent level premium coverage with a guaranteed insurability rider and a large block of inexpensive term insurance . This would lock in your insurability . Most people do not think that far ahead and buy insurance to cover a specific current objective , such as protecting family income today rather than looking forward and anticipating future needs . An independent insurance broker can help you find the right policy at the right price . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me . If you would like to work with a local life insurance broker , you could start with a Google search . For example , if you search for : life insurance broker Halifax or life insurance agent Halifax , my name , along with several others , will come up . You can use the same method to find a life insurance broker in your community .

Entry 0049

Question:

What Is Assurant Health Insurance?

Answer:

Assurant Health is a health insurance company not a unique type of health insurance . They offer a wide range of both individual major medical insurance plans as well as group health insurance plans . They also offer dental insurance and supplementary insurance products . In this way Assurant Health is a competitor with Blue Cross/Blue Shield plans , Humana , AETNA , CIGNA , United Healthcare and other health insurance companies across the nation .

Entry 0050

Question:

Does Home Owners Insurance Cover Asbestos Removal?

Answer:

Generally the answer to that would be no . Your Homeowners is not designed to cover this type of renovation . If your home is damaged by a covered peril then the removal of asbestos would be covered as part of the repairs , but otherwise you will have to pay .

Entry 0051

Question:

Will I Have To Buy Health Insurance Under Obamacare?

Answer:

The short answer is no . The longer answer is Yes if you do n't want to potentially incur a penalty . A penalty could be as low as $ 90 in 2014 or 1 % of your income and gets worse in later years . As a broker , theclients I meet withthat have insurance or more likely to keep up with there routine care and visits than those that do n't have health insurance . Let 's get you covered so youcan have the potential to live longerwith goodhealthcare .

Entry 0052

Question:

Is A Fixed Annuity A Good Investment?

Answer:

A fixed annuity is one of the safest investments available . You could experience either higher or lower returns using other investments because not all investments have safety of principle . If you want a lifetime of income , the fixed annuity is unique in that is its main feature . You can not outlive the income from an annuity .

Entry 0053

Question:

What Is Catastrophic Health Insurance?

Answer:

Catastrophic health insurance protects individuals and families against unanticipated sickness and illness . Often referred to as `` major medical " coverage , it is typically much less costly than conventional comprehensive plans . Catastrophic plans can be purchased through major insurers both on and off the Federal and State Exchanges . To qualify for a Marketplace -LRB- Exchange -RRB- plan , you must be under the age of 30 , or show that you can not afford to purchase other Exchange plans -LRB- Platinum , Gold , Silver and Bronze policies -RRB- . Inpatient and outpatient hospital expenses are covered , along with many associated costs that often accompany a confinement . However , routine office visits , specialist visits and prescriptions may not be covered , depending on the plan and carrier . During Open Enrollment , there are no medical questions asked and pre-existing conditions will be covered with no waiting period or restrictions . LIVE answer provided by : Ed Harris - Premier Health Insurance Broker and owner of several of the nation 's leading medical websites that offer the lowest available rates . All quotes are free .

Entry 0054

Question:

Why Set Up A Life Insurance Trust?

Answer:

Some people set up life insurance trusts to transfer the money out of their estate , so that their heirs will not have to pay estate taxes on the life insurance proceeds -LRB- if the estate is over the amount exempt from estate taxes -RRB- . This is called an irrevocable life insurance trust and it transfers ownership of the policy to the trust . Some people use Life Insurance Trusts to give money to charity , fund their child 's or grandchild 's education , or distribute funds to their beneficiaries in the manner they best see fit .

Entry 0055

Question:

What Is Modified Adjusted Gross Income For Medicare?

Answer:

Modified Adjusted Gross Income -LRB- MAGI -RRB- for Medicare is the total of your adjusted gross income and tax-exempt interest income . These are the amounts on lines 37 and 8b of IRS form 1040 . If you file your taxes as married , filing jointly and your MAGI is greater than $ 170,000 , you will pay higher premiums for your Part B and Medicare prescription drug coverage . Singles will pay higher premiums if your MAGI is greater than $ 85,000 . The increases are done on a sliding scale . If you have both Medicare Part B and prescription drug coverage , you will pay higher premiums for each . If you have only one Medicare Part B or Medicare prescription drug coverage you will pay an increase only on the benefit you have . Also , in 2013 persons receiving Medicare who have a MAGI over $ 250,000 for married couples or $ 200,00 for singles , and have `` Net Investment Income " , will pay a 3.8 % Net Investment Income Tax . For more information call Social Security at 800-772-1213 .

Entry 0056

Question:

Does Life Insurance Have To Be Used To Pay A Deceased Person'S Bills?

Answer:

Life insurance does not have to be used to pay a deceased person 's bills if the beneficiary is a person . If the beneficiary is the deceased person 's estate , the life insurance proceeds will most likely go through probate , at which time they become a target for bill collectors . Also , if the policy proceeds are assigned to a funeral home or other lender , these institutions are able to take their share of the policy proceeds first .

Entry 0057

Question:

How Much Does Typical Renters Insurance Cost?

Answer:

I can only speak about rates in my geographic area based on my knowledge and experience . In my area I have seen renters insurance as low as eight dollars per month . I would say that an average withinmy area amongst the different coverage levels was ten dollars per month . Please contact a local agent in your area to get a quote for thecoverage that you are seeking .

Entry 0058

Question:

What Is The Rate Of Return On Whole Life Insurance?

Answer:

What sounds like a simple question , actually requires a two part answer . Life insurance creates cash at death . Calculating the rate of return for the death benefit would involve the ratio of the total premiums paid to the total death benefit including dividends if any . In the early years the rate of return would be very high . The rate of return on the cash value is often referred to as the internal rate of return -LRB- IRR -RRB- and involves the ratio of the premiums paid less any riders to the cash surrender value . If you have further questions , please do not hesitate to contact me .

Entry 0059

Question:

Is Life Insurance Considered Community Property In Texas?

Answer:

First , I would consult an attorney in Texas to find out how Life Insurance is treated when there is a divorce . Generally speaking from my experience as a divorced father , Life Insurance is not an issue unless there is cash value which can be withdrawn . And if the Life Insurance was purchased during the marriage . If it was purchased prior , then it most likely would not be an issue . I know this is vague , which is why I recommend consulting an attorney in Texas .

Entry 0060

Question:

How To Setup A Personal Retirement Plan?

Answer:

How to set up a personal retirement plan is a process . First start with the end in mind determine what retirement success would look like for you . Once you have an idea then you can determine what it would take to fund it . Retirement planning can be complex as there are many factors to consider and it is easy to put it aside for another day . The saying the journey of a thousand miles begins with the first step is applicable here - start saving a regular percent of your earnings today . Let the power of compound interest work for you . If you would like to work with a local Retirement Planner , you could start with a Google search . For example , if you search for : retirement planner Halifax or retirement planning Halifax , my name , along with several others , will come up . You can use the same method to find Retirement Planners in your community . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me .

Entry 0061

Question:

Do I Need Medicare If I Have Private Insurance?

Answer:

It is really a matter of what coverage you have through your private insurance . Comparing your current coverage and out of pocket exposure to what is available with medicare and a supplemental plan would be the best way to determine which route it best for you . I find that if you are covered on a spouse 's plan and your premium is several hundred dollars per month and you have a considerable deductible , opting for medicare and a supplement may be a no brainer . Find a broker who can help you compare your options .

Entry 0062

Question:

When Can I Change Medigap Plans?

Answer:

If you have a standardized original Medicare plan like say an "F" plan you can change your plan anytime during the calendar year . However , you will be required to go through underwriting to qualify for the new company plan . Medicare Advantage plans are the plans where you are restricted to only change plans during the open enrollment period which for 2014 runs from October 15 to December 7 .

Entry 0063

Question:

What To Ask When Buying Disability Insurance?

Answer:

When buying Disability Insurance , ask if it will pay you a benefit if you are unable to perform your own job , or any job . The feature is called `` own occupation " . Purchase the policy that will allow you to collect if unable to perform your own occupation , if you can afford to do so . Ask if it will pay for `` partial " or `` residual " disability . Residual benefits are more comprehensive than partial . Ask if it is guaranteed renewable or non-cancellable . Only non-cancellable locks in premiums . Ask how long the coverage will last . You want it to last to age 65 , if you can afford it . Ask how long the elimination period is . You will need to have that much in reserves to get you through that waiting period until your benefit kicks in . Ask about the rating of the company . You want a secure company to make sure your benefit is paid if needed . Ask if it includes a cost of living rider and/or a rider that will allow you to get an increase in coverage in the future . Both will help your policy keep up with your career and inflation . Ask if there are any exclusions . There are other questions you could ask , but those cover some important things to look at when buying Disability Insurance .

Entry 0064

Question:

Is Wood Rot Covered By Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Wood rot is something that occurs over a period of time . A loss must be sudden and/or accidental . Since wood rot would not occur suddenly this would fall under general maintenance and upkeep of a homeowner we often call pride of ownership . Any type of normal maintenance and/or wear and tear are not perils of a homeowners insurance policy . If you are not sure as to what caused the wood rot I always recommend to talk to your local agent about the potential loss .

Entry 0065

Question:

What Does Creditable Coverage Mean In Health Insurance?

Answer:

Believe it or not , there are no specific definitions of creditable coverage when it comes to health insurance . If you are moving from one health insurance plan to another a critical question is , `` Have you had a break in creditable coverage exceeding 63 days ? " . Generally , creditable coverage refers to a major medical plan but your new carrier can decide what is , and what is n't creditable coverage .

Entry 0066

Question:

Which Is Best Life Insurance Policy In USA?

Answer:

As there is No one best Life policy , So many variables determine what is the best Life policy for your specific needs .
For example : term policy vs. whole life policy , final expense policy , budget , what is the planned use of the funds created by the policy etc. . .

Entry 0067

Question:

What Is Medicare J?

Answer:

Plan J was a Medicare Supplement plan that offered prescription coverage . This plan is no longer available to purchase as of June 2011 . It was a very comprehensive plan . The closest you can purchase to Plan J today is Plan F with a separate Prescription Drug Plan . If you had a Plan J you may have been grandfathered however the Prescription coverage in Plan J was eliminated .

Entry 0068

Question:

What To Do When Your Home Insurance Company Won't Pay?

Answer:

When you purchase your Homeowners ' Insurance , read it over carefully and discuss the terms and conditions of your contract with your Insurance Professional . That way you have a better understanding of what is covered and what is not . If the contract indicates that there should be coverage for your loss , and your company denies the claim , you can certainly discuss the situation and get a clearer understanding as to why . If you feel their decision is in error , you can always file a report with the state Insurance Department who will investigate the claim and disposition on your behalf .

Entry 0069

Question:

What Does No Gap Mean In Health Insurance?

Answer:

`` Gap " generally applies to a `` hole " in coverage - in other words , the amount that the insurance does not cover . There is Gap coverage available for Medicare -LRB- Medicare Supplements and Medicare Advantage Plans -RRB- . For pre-65 health insurance , you can buy supplemental coverage such as Critical Illness and Accident plans . These are fairly inexpensive and pay cash directly to you if the specified accident or illness occurs . It 's your money to spend as you wish . You could pay your rent or mortgage while recovering , pay your deductible , go to Disneyland ... whatever you want !

Entry 0070

Question:

Can I Pay My Car Insurance Late?

Answer:

In Minnesota , you can pay your car insurance up to ten days late before an auto insurance provider can cancel your policy for nonpayment of premium . Althoughdoing somay not be in your best interest , asitcan cause you to incur late fees . You will always receive notice from your insurer of intent to cancel a policy .

Entry 0071

Question:

How Much Does It Cost To Get Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Great question . Often clients are afraid to ask I think they believe is it expensive but actually its relatively inexpensive . Typically if you insure two vehicles with a company the discount you gain by having a second policy on your auto insurance will if not cover the cost of a renters policy it will be close ! So the average cost is 60-120 dollars a year . So for ten dollars or less you have coverage for your phone , computers , books , clothes , medications , cd 's , movies , art , guns or whatever else you own ! Ten dollars a month is very inexpensive , also these are covered anywhere in the world !

Entry 0072

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Circumcision?

Answer:

Since Medicare covers people over the age of 65 , and those with certain disabilities that have received Social Security benefits for 25 months , it would be very rare for Medicare to cover a circumcision . It would be possible , if someone with Medicare had a true medical need to be circumcised later in the life , but very rare , as most circumcisions are done at birth . Given the fact that 40 % of births in American are covered by Medicaid , a better question may be `` Does Medicaid cover circumcisions ? " That varies by state , as 18 states currently do not cover this procedure , primarily due to the fact that it is most often elective , or not necessary . the 18 states that do n't cover circumcisions , along with the year they stopped : Colorado 2011 South Carolina 2011 Louisiana 2005 Idaho 2005 Minnesota 2005 Maine 2004 Montana 2003 Utah 2003 Florida 2003 Missouri 2002 Arizona 2002 North Carolina 2002 California before 1999 North Dakota before 1999 Oregon before 1999 Mississippi before 1999 Nevada before 1999 Washington before 1999

Entry 0073

Question:

Who Sells Indexed Annuities?

Answer:

There are hundreds of tax deferred indexed annuities that use domestic as well as foreign indices . Many of these companies also have excellent contractual provisions that are very pro consumer . Some of the leading companies in the indexed market place are Genworth , Allianz and ING USA . Check out online brokerage companies that offer a large inventory of index annuity carriers .

Entry 0074

Question:

Will Homeowners Insurance Cover Broken Sewer Pipe?

Answer:

Broken sewer pipes are not normally covered by a homeowners policy . The peril that probably broke the pipe is earth movement which is excluded . Flooding could have contributed but it is doubtful that the pipe was damaged by fire or lightning . If you think that you have a claim , though , discuss it with your agent or with the claims department .

Entry 0075

Question:

Does Life Insurance Go To Student Loans?

Answer:

If you are the beneficiary of a life insurance policy , and you have student loans to pay off , you can choose to pay your student loans with that money . Or you can choose to spend the life insurance proceeds on other things . If you are behind on your loans and there is a judgment against you , the lender could come after your life insurance money . If there is no judgement , they can not take your life insurance money . There are legalities and exceptions to everything , and you should contact a lawyer if you have received life insurance money while having student loans for which you are behind in payment .

Entry 0076

Question:

How Can I File A Complaint Against An Auto Insurance Company In Tennessee?

Answer:

Complaints regarding any type of insurance in TN need to be filed the TN Department of Consumer Insurance Services . You could contact them by phone at 615-741-2218 . They will listen to your complaint , but ultimately will direct you to their special online form found on the state 's website.You can bypassthe tedious process of drillingdown through the state 's websiteand find theonline form to complete at the following link : - WEBSITELINK

Entry 0077

Question:

What Does Uninsured Auto Insurance Cover?

Answer:

Un insured motorist covers your medical bills if someone hits you and has no insurance there also is under insured which covers your medical bills if someone has insurance but their insurance did n't pay all of the bills because their limits are all exhausted . This coverage cost as little as 2.00 for 6 months with some carriers in Montana I would recommend the coverage it is well worth the cost .

Entry 0078

Question:

Does Car Insurance Go Up After A Claim?

Answer:

Claim activity can sometimes result in increased premiums . However , some companies offer accident and/or violation forgiveness benefits either as an inclusion for long term policy holders or as an optional endorsement for new policy holders . Since it is an endorsement , there will be a premium charge however the savings over having your policy surcharged 25 % or more for three years after an accident is pretty self evident .

Entry 0079

Question:

How To Calculate Imputed Income For Life Insurance?

Answer:

Imputed income is the taxable value of group life insurance over $ 50,000 that is provided to employees . There are a number of calculators on the internet that will calculate imputed income for you by you inputting several variables . Here is one of them : WEBSITELINK .

Entry 0080

Question:

Who Offers The Cheapest Life Insurance?

Answer:

That is a great question ! There are a great number of inexpensive policies on the market , offered by a great number of companies . The price of a policy depends on a lot of things , -LRB- as Jason listed above -RRB- and because of all the variables , it is impossible without more information to steer you to a company that would do the best for you . If you would like to email me more details , I could give you a better idea , otherwise your best bet is to find a local independent agent -LRB- one not tied to a single brand name -RRB- and have them take a look for you . Thank you for asking !

Entry 0081

Question:

Why Is American Car Insurance Cheap?

Answer:

That is a really good question , but begs the question - compared to where ? There are probably a great many people here that would complain that their insurance is too expensive . Where are you comparing the price here to ? And if I misunderstood your question , and you are asking why insurance on American made cars is so cheap , maybe the answer lies in the sticker prices and repair costs of the foreign models . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0082

Question:

Can You Put A Girlfriend On Your Health Insurance?

Answer:

Yes , in most cases you would be able to add her However , she must be living with you and be able to show a Domestic Relationship with you ... Your best source to find out if your Employers Plan allows Domestic Partners is to contact your HRA or Payroll Department to verify she is eligible .

Entry 0083

Question:

When Can You Cash Out On Life Insurance?

Answer:

Good question , there are different situations that will allow you to get cash on a life insurance policy . One situation in particular is with a whole life policy . Since it builds cash value as it grows older , you can borrow money from it when you need it .

Entry 0084

Question:

Where Do You Get Annuities?

Answer:

You can get annuities through any life insurance agency that sells them . Most annuities must be sold face to face , so contacting a local life insurance agency is one method to buy annuities . You can also do some shopping on the internet with website life insurance agencies that sell them .

Entry 0085

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover A Dog Bite?

Answer:

This is one question that you really need to speak with your Insurance Professional about . The answer is that it may or may not , depending on the specific coverage and exclusion provisions that are specifically stated in your insurance policy . Some companies exclude coverage based upon particular breeds , for example .

Entry 0086

Question:

How Much Would Insurance Be For A 16 Year Old With A Sports Car?

Answer:

There is no pat answer to that question . Sooooooooo many variables . If a 16 year old strikes out on his own to purchase car insurance for a so-called sports car , he will likely pay tremendously more than a 16 year old who insures a sports car or any car for that matter , with the same company as the other household drivers and cars are insured with . In addition there are the myriad of other factors that weigh into the rate , i.e. the specific car , policy coverage limits , driving record , credit , homeownership , etc , etc. . Call an insurance professional for guidance .

Entry 0087

Question:

Is Tree Damage Covered By Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

If your plants , trees , shrubs or lawn are damaged , vandalized or stolen your homeowners policy should cover the loss . There are specific perils that it covers ; fire , lightning , explosion , riot , civil commotion , and aircraft . It does not include damage done by a vehicle owned or operated by a resident of your home .

Entry 0088

Question:

When Should I File For Medicare?

Answer:

You should file for Medicare three months before your 65th birthday . You have three months before to three months after the month of your birthday to enroll . If you are planning to work past age 65 , you should still file then , and you can choose to wait to receive Medicare later .

Entry 0089

Question:

Who Has Good Home Insurance?

Answer:

Every company has good home insurance policies . If they did n't they would n't be in business any longer . The real question is what coverage do you expect out of you home owners coverage . This will define the carrier and cost of that policy . Please contact a local agent to find out what carriers , coverage , and exclusions there are in your geographic area .

Entry 0090

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Scooters?

Answer:

I believe you will find that for the most part , property policies will exclude any motor powered vehicles from coverage . This is a pretty standard exclusion . Talk to your insurance professional about your options , though . We can easily provide coverage for scooters under a separate contract that is specifically designed to meet those needs at an extremely reasonable price .

Entry 0091

Question:

What Can Life Insurance Money Be Used For?

Answer:

Whether you are referring to borrowing from the cash value of a permanent life insurance policy , or spending the death benefit left to you as beneficiary on a policy of someone who passed , the life insurance money is yours to spend as you see fit . If someone is taking out a lie insurance policy and wants the death benefit to be spent in a certain way , it is a good idea to set up a trust outlining those conditions , and then make the trust as the beneficiary of the policy .

Entry 0092

Question:

Can I change medicare providers after 3/1/2015 in Indiana?

Answer:

Are you referring to a Medicare Supplement plan -LRB- also known as a Medigap plan -RRB- , a Medicare Advantage plan , or a Medicare Part D prescription drug plan ? Your original Medicare coverage -LRB- Medicare Parts A & B -RRB- is provided by the federal government . You can apply for a new Medicare Supplement plan anytime during the year . You can be subject to medical underwriting -LRB- answering yes/no health questions , a phone interview with the carrier , and a prescription check -RRB- if you 're outside your initial enrollment period -LRB- when you were new to Medicare Part B -RRB- and do not have a guarantee-issue right available to you . Medical underwriting for Medicare Supplement plans can be done in less than a week . There are no exams for these products . Please note , a common concern I hear a lot from individuals looking to replace their Medicare Supplement plans is they 're worried they 're at risk of losing the existing one if they apply for a new one and get declined . This is NOT true ! Even if you apply for a new Medicare Supplement plan and get declined , you can always keep the existing plan because Medicare Supplement plans are guaranteed renewable . If you 're looking to change your prescription drug plan provider or your Medicare Advantage plan provider , you can only make a change during certain times of the year . For the most part , you can only make changes during the annual enrollment period each year -LRB- between October 15 - December 7 -RRB- with changes becoming effective January 1 . Outside of this enrollment period , you can only make changes under certain situations -LRB- known as special enrollment periods -RRB- . An example of this is if you moved outside of the plan 's service area . For a full list of situations that qualify you for special enrollment periods to make changes , please visit the Medicare.gov website . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for help with your coverage and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0093

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Guests?

Answer:

Guests to a home are covered by the Homeowners Insurance Policy as far as Medical Payments are concerned . Most policies afford Medical Payments to Others -LRB- Guests -RRB- and are offered on a Per Person basis not to exceed an Aggregate amount of $ 25,000 per occurrence . It is most common for the Per Person amount to be $ 1,000 , $ 2,000 or $ 5,000 . The homeowners deductible does not apply to claims made under Section II -LRB- Liability & Medical Payments to Others -RRB- . Please review your current declarations page to confirm the coverage amounts on your specific policy .

Entry 0094

Question:

Can A Non-Family Member Be Added To My Car Insurance?

Answer:

That will depend on your auto insurance carrier and their policy standards . There are carriers that will persons that co-habitat to be listed on the same auto insurance policy . In some cases it may be less costly for each person to have their own policy . Contact a local agent to find out more about coverage availability and pricing within your geographic location .

Entry 0095

Question:

Who Offers The Best Whole Life Insurance?

Answer:

The best whole life insurance is the policy that you have in force at the time of your death . That policy is normally sold by a licensed life insurance agent . The agent is a person who will listen carefully to you , provide sound financial advice and communicate clearly with you and the insurance company . The best whole life policy is the one that meets your needs .

Entry 0096

Question:

What Company Has The Cheapest Life Insurance In California?

Answer:

The company that has the cheapest life insurance in California depends on the age and health of the applicant , and the type of life insurance policy . The cheapest price of term life insurance for someone who is young and very health will be from a company different from the company offering the cheapest price for a senior person looking for a whole life final expense policy . To find the cheapest life insurance policy for you , go to a website that offers instant life insurance quotes in California and input your date of birth , height , weight and health information . That will show you the lowest price policy for your particular age and health .

Entry 0097

Question:

Is Short Term Disability Considered Health Insurance?

Answer:

No short term disability is a different policy than health insurance . Health insurance is designed to pay the providers , i.e. doctors , hospitals , clinics , etc. . Short term disability is designed to pay you for the income that is lost due to an injury or illness . It can be used for medical expenses , food , mortgage or anything else needed to survive during a difficult time .

Entry 0098

Question:

Do I Need Home Insurance For A Condo?

Answer:

Condominium coverage requires a different form from the standard homeowners package . However , it provides many of the same coverages . The chief difference is that the structure itself is generally insured under a blanket condominium association policy , not the condominium form . The owner of each unit is normally not responsible for the structure , its maintenance or insurance . The owner of a unit is not responsible for the general areas such as gardens and walkways surrounding the condominium . The owners responsibility is for property contained within the structure , to include internal walls , and paint . When a person purchases a condominium they generally secure a mortgage . The mortgage companies will require the owner to purchase a policy to protect the lenders interest in the property . They want coverage for what they loaned you money to purchase . The amount of coverage under a condominium policy includes the amount required to restore the condominium in the event of a covered loss . At the same time the condominium policy provides a way for the homeowner to insure their own personal property -LRB- furniture , decorations , appliances and other property . -RRB-

Entry 0099

Question:

Does Each Person In An Apartment Need Renters Insurance?

Answer:

If you are referring to a room mate situation , then it would be wise for each person to have renter 's insurance . If a husband & wife , then it is not needed on each person . Insurance is based on an insurable interest . For example if I had a room mate , my room mate has no insurable interest in my stuff or my liability . There is one other option , the renter 's policy could be endorsed to insure the room mate as an additional insured . The room mate 's contents would not be covered , but at least the room mate would have liability coverage . -LRB- see some of my other answers regarding renter 's insurance -RRB- .

Entry 0100

Question:

Where Are Annuities Used?

Answer:

Annuities are used to provide an income that you can not outlive . They have a favorable tax treatment which makes them valuable in accumulating wealth over a relatively long period of time . This is primarily due to the treatment of interest inside an annuity . Annuities have been the instrument of choice in many supplemental retirement programs .

Entry 0101

Question:

How To Plan For Retirement With A 401K?

Answer:

A qualified , employer sponsored , defined contribution retirement plan like a 401 -LRB- k -RRB- is one of the most popular savings options . Some employers offer an additional contribution match furtherenhancingyour pretax contributions . Many advisers recommend that baby boomers work until age 70 1/2 to contribute as much as possible due to the risk of longevity duringretirement and required minimum distributions are triggered for income .

Entry 0102

Question:

Which Auto Insurance Is Best In Tennessee?

Answer:

There are many very good auto insurance companies in Tennessee . Getting the best car insurance prices in Tennessee actually does not take long . The combination of an experienced broker and their website can save you time and money . Progressive , State Farm , Liberty Mutual , Farmers , Esurance , Geico and Progressive are among the largest carriers and often have very competitive prices . Of course , there are many variables including your driving record , age , zip code etc. . .

Entry 0103

Question:

How Can Life Insurance Companies Tell If You Are A Smoker?

Answer:

Life insurance companies can tell if you are a smoker by testing blood and urine , by asking about tobacco use on the application , sometimes by doing a phone interview , and sometimes by looking at medical records . The insurance companies ca n't always tell , but it is surprising how many people get caught using tobacco when they think they wo n't . And once that trust is broken between what was stated and what is true , the underwriters do n't give you much benefit of the doubt for anything else .

Entry 0104

Question:

Does Disability Insurance Have A Waiting Period?

Answer:

I believe by `` waiting period " you are asking about the elimination period . Yes all disability policies have some sort of waiting period upon your first diagnosis of a medical disability . Short term disability insurance plans have a relatively short elimination period and can be as short as one day . Long term disability plans vary from 30 days to 360 days before benefits begin to pay .

Entry 0105

Question:

What Is The Value Of Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Renters insurance like many of the other insurances that people purchase are for the purpose of protecting the insured from a financial burden incurred after a loss . Insurance typically is more for the accidents that you are involved in caused by others than it is for the accidents that you are involved in that you have caused . The cost of one accident will typically out weigh the cost of many years of premium .

Entry 0106

Question:

How Long Does Health Insurance Last After Quitting A Job?

Answer:

People can keep their health insurance by signing up for COBRA coverage . COBRA stands for the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act and is most commonly used when an employee leaves a job where they had employer-sponsored health insurance , usually after being laid off or leaving the group on their own terms . In short , COBRA is an extension of the current group health insurance plan offered to employees after they have left the company . This coverage can be kept for up to 18 months and is only available to individuals and families covered under a plan with more than 20 employees enrolled . Premiums for COBRA coverage are 102 % of the total cost of insurance this is important because many employers pay for part of the cost while the employee is still working . Under the Affordable Care Act , health insurance policies are guaranteed-issue in that you can not be declined for health insurance due to a pre-existing condition or other health-related issue . Coming off of group coverage would generally grant you a special enrollment period to apply for health insurance in the marketplace . If you 'd like some help with your coverage , send me a message by clicking on the `` contact me " button .

Entry 0107

Question:

Does Your Auto Insurance Cover You In Rental Cars?

Answer:

Your auto insurance will cover you when you rent a car with the same coverage ` syou currently carry on your personal auto policy . All rules , coverage 's deductibles and limits apply . A rental car is considered a temporary substitute vehicle . Keep in mind this must be a vehicle of the private passenger type , not U-hauls or commercial vehicles . Also renting a vehicle does not give you permission to loan the vehicle to another party as all operators must be listed on the rental agreement . I recommend you call your insurance carrier before renting a vehicle to make sure your policy coverage ` sare adequate .

Entry 0108

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Oil Tank Removal?

Answer:

Under normal circumstances your homeowners insurance will not typically pay for the removal of an oil tank . Please remember every policy is different . Read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided by the policy and any exclusions contained within or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0109

Question:

What Is A Medigap Policy?

Answer:

A medigap policy is also known as a Medicare Supplement policy . These policies are issued by a number of insurance companies in response to the out of pocket expenses that are not covered by Medicare , part A and Part B . A medigap policy is almost necessary for all Medicare participants . There can be massive out-of-pocket expenses in Medicare and the money that could be provided by the plan far outweigh the cost of the plan . These plans were developed by private companies . In response to the wide variety of policies developed the federal government decided to regulate these policies in the 1980s . The desire was to provide uniformity of benefits . There are ten different medigap policies available . They are referenced by letters A , B , C , D , F , G , K , L , M and N. Although these plans can change from time to time they have maintained these designations . Companies are not required to identify their policy by these letters and will often introduce stylized names such as Senior Select Medigap policy . It is most important to understand that all of the plans must contain core benefits . As they add additional benefits they must fall into one of the letter categories . This helps to compare plans and to insure that your needs are properly covered . You can enroll in a medigap policy during certain periods . During those periods the policy is guaranteed to be issued without medical underwriting . If the policy is desired after the set period medical underwriting can be required and the premium can be altered . The open enrollment period begins on the first day of the month in which you reach age 65 or older and enroll in Medicare Part B . This enrollment period continues for six months . People who are disenrolling from Medicare Advantage can receive a guaranteed issued medigap policy for 12 months when they enroll in traditional Medicare . There are other circumstances under which a person would be eligible for a Medigap policy without providing evidence of insurance . There are five core benefits contained in every medigap plan . The first is that the plan will pay the Medicare Part A copayments for days 61-90 . These copayments were $ 289 per day of hospitalization in 2012 . Another core benefit is Medicare Part A lifetime reserve copayments for days 91-150 . These copayments are $ 578 per day in 2012 . Another core benefit is up to 365 additional days of hospital stay beyond Medicare coverage . The medigap policies also provide cover the Medicare Part B coinsurance . This doesnt apply to preventive services , and the first three pints of blood if needed . These core benefits comprise an A plan . Subsequent plans offer increased benefits which include skilled nursing facility care copayments for days 21-100 . That cost was $ 144.50 in 2012 . The plan can provide for the Medicare Part A hospital deductible . That amount was $ 1184 in 2013 . The plan can provide the annual Medicare Part B deductible which was $ 147 in 2013 . Some plans include coverage for the Medicare Part B excess charges . Several plans include foreign travel emergency coverage . Every plan is priced by the insurance company . Sometimes the company offers the plan based upon the community . In other cases the pricing is determined by the age at which the plan is initiated . In other cases the plan is based on attained age and can increase as the policyholder ages . The core benefits can save you a great deal of money . Selecting the additional benefits is probably best done with a counsellor that you trust .

Entry 0110

Question:

What Is A Fully Paid-Up Life Insurance Policy?

Answer:

A fully paid up life insurance policy is one in which the premiums are paid up , or paid in full . At that point , the insurance company is liable for paying the death benefit , and you do not need to pay any more premiums to keep the policy in effect .

Entry 0111

Question:

What Is The Best Affordable Life Insurance?

Answer:

The best affordable life insurance is the one the fits your age and health best . You can get affordable overweight life insurance , affordable diabetic life insurance , affordable sleep apnea life insurance , affordable tobacco users life insurance , or whatever works for you . You just have to find an agency that specializes in that so that they know how to get you the best price .

Entry 0112

Question:

How Long Can I Be On My Parent's Auto Insurance?

Answer:

There are only two things that might prevent you from staying on your parent 's auto policy ; 1 -RRB- If you obtain a car of your own and register it in your name , then in most states , you will have to purchase and maintain your own auto insurance policy 2 -RRB- your parents decide it is time for you to be on your own and responsible for your own car and insurance .

Entry 0113

Question:

How To Cancel My Blue Shield Health Insurance?

Answer:

If you are covered under an individual health insurance policy you should be able to either contact your insurance broker to request their assistance in terminating your policy or contact Blue Cross/Blue Shield 's member services department to request a termination form . If you purchased your individual coverage through the Federal or a state insurance marketplace and are receiving a premium subsidy then technically you should go through Healthcare.gov to cancel your coverage . Be prepared for this to be as much of a challenge as you may have had in enrolling through the government marketplace in the first place . There have been reports of consumers having issues in getting their marketplace purchased policies terminated even when they have been repeatedly assured that their request is or has been processed . If you are talking about cancelling your coverage through a group plan then you should visit with your HR department , the business owner and/or the insurance broker that your employer uses . If you are enrolled in a group health plan and having your share of your premium taken out of your paycheck on a pre-tax basis under a Section 125 plan then simply cancelling your coverage because you feel like it may be a problem . Generally , under the provisions of a Section 125 plan once an employee is enrolled and their premiums are being taken out on a pretax basis you are essentially locked into your enrollment until the next open enrollment period unless you have what is called a change of life status event -LRB- getting married , divorced or having a child are common examples of change of life status events as viewed by the IRS -RRB- .

Entry 0114

Question:

Why Do Annuities Have A Bad Reputation?

Answer:

An annuity provides something that no other financial product offers , a lifetime of income payments . Some planners think that they can do the same thing and will run projections to your age expectancy and predict a percentage of chance that the plan will work . They get a great deal in fees and commissions but criticize annuities because they hope to provide a higher monthly payout , however there arent any guarantees and what about living past your life expectance , half of the population does .

Entry 0115

Question:

Is Long Term Care Insurance Required In Nebraska?

Answer:

No , Long Term Care Insurance is not required in Nebraska , or in any other state . Not everyone can afford to pay the premiums for Long Term Care Insurance , and Medicaid exists for those who are unable to afford the expense of living in a skilled nursing facility . However , many people in Nebraska choose to purchase Long Term Care Insurance so that they can protect assets -LRB- protecting the family farm is a big incentive to purchase Long Term Care Insurance in Nebraska -RRB- . They also purchase Long Term Care Insurance so that they have the freedom to spend the benefit at the place of their choice , be that home health , assisted living , nursing home , or other .

Entry 0116

Question:

Can Get Health Insurance If Have Preexisting Condition?

Answer:

Yes . Under the requirements of the Affordable Care Act -LRB- ObamaCare -RRB- individual and group major medical policies that are ObamaCare compliant can not have pre-existing condition exclusions , limitations on benefits , or waiting periods for the pre-existing condition to be covered . If someone is offering you a policy that does not comply with these requirements it may be a Short Term Medical policy or an indemnity/discount type plan . While these are legitimate insurance policies -LRB- as long as you are informed in advance of what they do and do not do -RRB- , as a rule they exclude pre-existing conditions and they do not meet the legal requirements under ObamaCare for avoiding the individual mandate tax penalty .

Entry 0117

Question:

Why Is A Flexible Premium Life Insurance Policy Better Than Fixed Premium Permanent Life Insurance?

Answer:

Its really not a question of what is better . Its a question of knowing how to use the flexibility built into the product . Universal life insurance can accommodate flexible premium payments . At the same time , it makes available premium guarantees . If you overuse the flexibility of the product , you can lose the guarantees . A certain payment commitment must be made to the company if you want them to guarantee the coverage for a specified amount of time . If you overfund , then underfund , then stop paying , then start paying again , odds are you wont get the guarantee you want for the time you want . But if you are smart about it , you can have your cake and eat it too . You can take advantage of the flexibility of the product to come up with a creative funding strategy . So the flexibility is really best utilized in the design stage . Then , when you come up with a payment schedule that is suitable , you make your payment commitment . You stick with the program . What kind of payment strategies could you employee with this product ? The options are many . You could fund the policy with a single premium . Make a payment in year one , and then not make any at all . But you still get a lifetime guarantee . You could go to 10-year pay , or a 20-year pay , or 30 years pay scenario . Pay the premium for that period only , but still get a lifetime guarantee . These strategies allow you to on the one hand , not pay for your life insurance for the rest of your life . At the same time , they still give you the lifetime guaranteed coverage you want . Of course , you need to consult with your broker and the company to calculate the correct amounts needed to limit your payments but also get the guarantee . Then again , you could just go the route of continuously paying a premium on a yearly basis . You would have to keep paying , but the premium here would be much cheaper than the first two scenarios . So what is your priority ? Would it be the lowest annual outlay , or paying the premium for the shortest duration ? The flexibility of universal life gives you additional interesting options . You could structure the coverage for a defined amount of years . It could be 10 years , 20 years , or 30 years . The premium and the death benefit could be guaranteed for that amount of time . After that , you lose the guarantee . Why would somebody do that ? Why wouldnt they just buy term insurance ? Well , in many cases underwriting concessions are made for permanent insurance that you dont get with term insurance . The price for universal life could actually be lower than term insurance . As a matter of fact , sometimes carriers will offer only universal life insurance and not term insurance . The flexibility of this product can really enable you to make your life insurance work to your best advantage . You just have to know how to use it .

Entry 0118

Question:

How Do Unit Linked Annuities Work?

Answer:

There are two basic types of annuities : immediate and deferred . With an immediate annuity , you exchange a lump sum for an immediate income . This is often used as retirement income . All , or part of , the income received from a unit linked annuity -LRB- variable annuity -RRB- fluctuates based on the performance of the fund or funds you have selected . A deferred annuity is an accumulation plan that provides the option of an income annuity in the future . In Canada unit linked or variable annuities are called segregated funds or seg funds . They are similar to mutual funds and their value will increase or decrease based on performance . Since they are issued by insurance companies , they do offer maturity and death benefit guarantees . Some offer the resets or the locking in of maturity guarantee to protect investment gains . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me . If you would like to work with a local Retirement Planner , you could start with a Google search . For example , if you search for : retirement planner Halifax or retirement planning Halifax , my name , along with several others , will come up . You can use the same method to find Retirement Planners in your community .

Entry 0119

Question:

What Is The Purpose Of Whole Life Insurance?

Answer:

The purpose of whole life insurance is to provide guarantees . You know what ? It does a very good job at this . Guarantees are a godsend in a financial world in which cycles and ups and downs and cost increases are the norm . Its nice to have a product you can truly count on . These guarantees come in three delicious flavors : Flavor number one : a guaranteed premium . As you get older , your price stays the same . As it costs more for the company to insure you , your price stays the same . If the company has a bad investment year , or two , or three , your price stays the same . Thats good . But theres more . Flavor number two : a guaranteed death benefit . You see all those variables mentioned in number one above that could affect your price but dont ? They could also affect your death benefit . But they dont . Neither your age , nor their increasing cost , nor their poor investment performance can reduce the benefit you were leaving to your heirs . That is really good . But we have one last delicious flavor : Flavor number three : a guaranteed cash accumulation . Do yourself a favor and compare the guaranteed growth of cash inside a good whole life contract with other so-called guaranteed investments out there . You will notice that whole life basically beats the pants off the competition in this regard . Of course , you always have to be wise about taking money out of life insurance , and make sure you dont reduce your death benefit to an undesirable amount . But given that , whole life can make a real valuable contribution to the conservative portion of your financial portfolio .

Entry 0120

Question:

Will Health Insurance Pay For Auto Accident Injuries?

Answer:

Your health insurance plan will pay covered medical expenses due to an auto accident regardless of who 's at fault . You may find that your auto policy provides benefits as well so make sure to check both policies . In addition , to your health and auto insurance a supplemental accident plan would pay cash to you in this scenario . Please click the `` Contact Me " button on the left or run a personalized quote at : WEBSITELINK Also , you can call me anytime at : 561-320-2978

Entry 0121

Question:

What Is Occupational Disability Insurance?

Answer:

What is occupational disability insurance ? Usually it is called own occupation and it is used in the definition of disability . It is very much to the insured 's favor to have that definition in their disability policy . It is a specific rather than general definition . For example your disability policy would pay if you could n't work in that specific job , and it would continue to pay you if you could work in another occupation .

Entry 0122

Question:

What Are The Qualifications For Medicare In Washington?

Answer:

The qualifications for Medicare in Washington are , first of all , to have paid into Medicare for at least 40 quarters , or be the spouse of someone who did . Most people either get Medicare when they turn age 65 , or when they have been on Social Security Disability for two years . There are other situations where someone can get Medicare in Washington , but those are the most common qualifications .

Entry 0123

Question:

Does Auto Insurance Cover Medical Expenses?

Answer:

Your Auto Insurance covers Medical expenses up to the limit of your policy if someone is hurt getting in or out of your vehicle or if you are in an accident under the Medical pay portion of your contract . If the other driver is at fault you Medical Pay will pay and then collect from the other drivers insurance . Medical Pay is not designed to be a substitute for good health insurance and is limited depending on your policy to between $ 1000 and $ 10,000 . Keep in mind that there are difference n State Law so check with your agent to be specific about your State and Policy limits .

Entry 0124

Question:

How Do I Lower My Homeowners Insurance In Connecticut?

Answer:

There are several things to consider when looking for ways to lower your Home Insurance premiums . The first area I would call loss control . take a look at your home and property . Are there tree branches or shrubbery that should be trimmed to allow mor air flow around your home ? This cuts down on moisture build up that can cause damage . Are the steps and planking on your deck clean , secure and free from any damage ? Have you had your fireplace chimney cleaned regularly ? Things like these and more when managed , can reduce the chances of a claim which can increase your rates . The next area would be bundling . Many companies offer very nice discounts for those who insure their cars and have life insurance with the same company as your home . Next , talk to your insurance professional about increasing yuour deductible and while you are at it , what benefits you might earn from installing a monitored alarm system , putting on a new roof or upgrading your plumbing , electrical or HVAC sytems . There are discounts available , for sure .

Entry 0125

Question:

How To Choose Best Retirement Plan?

Answer:

Choosing the retirement plan for yourself can be a daunting task , but here are a few factors that may assist you in your decision . First should you use a qualified or no qualified plans?Second , should you use your employer sponsored or individual retirement plan?If you are in a high tax bracket and your employer offers matching contributions , you should select a qualified employer sponsored retirement plan like a 401 -LRB- k -RRB- . But if your tax bracket is minimal and you like more flexibility than a regulated qualified plan , a non qualified plan using indexed life insurance may be appropriate for you . These are just a couple of considerations to get you started .

Entry 0126

Question:

Do I Need Insurance In Addition To Medicare?

Answer:

I would definitely recommend it . Medicare has no out of pocket limit . If you come down with a serious illness this can be devastating , leaving you tens of thousands in debt in some cases . If there is a good Medicare Advantage plan in your area then you may want to consider that . Especially if a Medicare Supplement is unaffordable . The advantage would be : Medicare Advantage has out of pocket maximums , usually between $ 3500 and $ 6000 . Many Medicare Advantage Plans have no additional premium other than the Medicare Part B premium you already pay . Many also include Prescription Drugs at no additional premium . Yo have networks but if your area has a strong network then that is generally not going to be an issue . You would also have copay 's , usually between $ 10 and $ 20 for a primary care doctor . This makes your health care much easier to predict since under original Medicare you pay 20 % of whatever Medicare approves but you have no idea what that will be until you get your bill . There are also many affordable Medicare Supplements . I usually recommend the supplements if you can afford the premium . Find a good local agent who specializes in Medicare plans , both supplements and Advantage plans . A good agent will help you decide which will be in your best interests with no pressure

Entry 0127

Question:

Would Home Insurance Cover Tree Root Damage?

Answer:

No homeowners insurance will no cover tree root damage . Tree root damage is something that occurs over a period of time . A covered claim would need to be sudden and/or accidental and tree root damage is not sudden . Trees are just a big plant and plants need to be maintained . If they appear to be getting out of hand they need to be trimmed or removed .

Entry 0128

Question:

How Can I Lower My Insurance On My Car?

Answer:

One of the easiest ways is taking a defensive driving course that can lower your insurance . If you move to a better neighborhood that can help lowering your payment . Do you have a low deductible ? If you raise your deductible you could have some savings right there . You might get some savings by adding a car alarm . These are just a few suggestions .

Entry 0129

Question:

How Does Health Insurance Work In Nebraska?

Answer:

I do not sell health insurance in Nebraska , but I have it , and it works like health insurance does in every other state . One of the great benefits we have is CHIPS -LRB- Nebraska Comprehensive Health Insurance Pool -RRB- that is for people who can not get health insurance without restrictions elsewhere , due to a medical condition . Unfortunately , this program is ending at the end of December . Hopefully the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act that replaces it will work as well .

Entry 0130

Question:

How Much Does A New York Life Insurance Agent Make?

Answer:

How much does a New York Life agent make ? Well it goes from zero to millions , depending on the agent . New York Life is a commission based company that pays agents for completed transactions in insurance and equity investments . Since the company is based in New York all commission payments are based on the State of New York 's restrictions on commissions . So in many cases this means the New York Life agent makes less upfront on sales than other agents . Commission payments tend to be stretched out over time with the policy .

Entry 0131

Question:

Can You Negotiate Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

That is a great question ! If you find an insurance company that will allow you to negotiate with them , would you please drop me a quick note and let me know who they are ? Kidding aside , you will not find one . Insurance companies are the strictest of bean counters , and there is n't a one that will change rates for you . They are very strictly regulated , and in most cases , would have to change the whole rate group 's premiums to match whatever rate that you were able to negotiate . That is very , very unlikely to ever happen . I hope that helps , thanks for asking !

Entry 0132

Question:

What Is A Life Insurance Broker?

Answer:

A Life Insurance Broker is someone who works with multiple insurance companies versus an agent who typically works for only one insurance company . A Broker has the ability to `` shop " around life quotes to specifically meet your needs . Not all companies have the same cost for the insurance they offer so working with a broker , especially if you use a needs analysis , can be your best asset in making sure you are covered .

Entry 0133

Question:

How Secure Is Life Insurance?

Answer:

Life insurance companies are very secure . Because of tight regulations they are ultra conservative with their investment strategy . Banks are insured through FDIC . Life insurance companies are insured through very large reinsurance companies which are some of the wealthiest companies in the world . Companies like Munich Re , Swiss Re , Berkshire Hathaway , Hannover Re and Lloyds of London are the 5 largest . There is no worry when dealing with `` A " rated life insurance companies .

Entry 0134

Question:

Can A Minor Be Beneficiary For Life Insurance?

Answer:

That 's a tricky question . Yes , but it would have to be put into a trust for the minor until that child turns 18 . It does n't mean they do n't have access to the money , they would just have to go through their guardian until they reach the legal age that would allow them to pull from the trust .

Entry 0135

Question:

Does Medicare Part B Cover Lab Work?

Answer:

Medicare Part B covers virtually all outpatient expenses including doctor visits , X-ray , MRI , CT , outpatient surgery , ER , ambulance and lab work . Part B has an annual deductible of $ 147 -LRB- for 2013 -RRB- and then Medicare pays 80 % of approved charges , you pay the remaining balance . If you have a Medigap plan your liability may be $ 0 if you have plan F

Entry 0136

Question:

Will Medicare Pay For Tooth Extraction?

Answer:

Medicare does not pay for tooth extractions when it 's a routine dental item - this would be covered under a supplemental dental insurance plan . If you do n't already have one , you should consider buying a dental insurance policy - they 're very affordable , are guaranteed issue , and can save you a lot of money . Some policies will even cover a percentage of the cost of an implant to replace the extracted tooth . If the extraction of a tooth was needed in conjunction with a covered procedure such as reconstructing a jaw from an injury at a hospital , then Medicare would cover it . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for assistance with your program and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0137

Question:

Is Life Insurance Subject To Inheritance Tax?

Answer:

If states have inheritance taxes , yes , life insurance proceeds are subject to those . The death benefit of a life insurance policy is also subject to federal estate taxes . This year , 5.25 million dollars is exempt from federal estate taxes . Each state has their own guidelines as to what is exempt from state estate , or inheritance , taxes .

Entry 0138

Question:

Why Get Critical Illness Insurance?

Answer:

A Critical care policy pays you not the Doctor or Hospital , in the event of an critical illness , such as a heart attack , stroke , major organ failure , Cancer , loss of the inability to perform 2 Activities of Daily Living . The likely hood if you were to suffer a heart attack , stroke , cancer or the like is that you will likely survive . The bills , mortgage , utilities , & such do not stop because you are ill . The money can also be used to offset health insurance copay 's , time off work , second opinion , or anything else . Face amounts usually run any where from $ 4,000.00 to $ 500,000.00 lump sum . Some policies offer a Return of Premium , meaning if you never use the insurance , your estate will receive 100 % of the premium back . HBWavp@gmail.com

Entry 0139

Question:

What Is A Term Life Insurance Plan?

Answer:

Most Life Insurance sold in the US is term insurance either through an employer , or group or directly to an individual . The concept is that you will be able to buy a certain level of coverage guaranteed at a certain price during some specified time period . So , it would be common to sell someone term life for a term of 10 years , 15 years or 20 years . The policy usually allows this purchase during the `` term " without having to provide any documentation of insurability . Keep in mind a couple truisms . life Insurance is virtually always more expensive in the future then it is today . Why ? You grow older . Secondly , a significant amount of Term insurance , never has an actual payout of benefits . Why ? The person insured lives past the end of the term . So while you may need Term insurance for the short term , take a look at whole life or variations of it that allows cash value accumulations .

Entry 0140

Question:

How Much Homeowners Insurance Do I Need In Connecticut?

Answer:

Talk to your insurance professional and ask about insuring to value . This means insuring to the calculated cost to reconstruct your home in the event of a loss . Your agent will be able to offer a comprehensive reconstruction analysis and based upon that , make a proper recomendation for the amount of coverage . Once that is established be sure that a reconstruction cost guarantee is included in your policy .

Entry 0141

Question:

What Is A Good Deductible For Auto Insurance?

Answer:

Great Question . Car insurance deductible is only used if you have a claim that is the amount you have to pay to get your car fixed or repair . So having a low deductible is good but normally cost more on insurance . So it depends on your situation . Pick the Deductible you can afford to pay if you have a claim .

Entry 0142

Question:

What Affects The Cost Of Car Insurance?

Answer:

There are many factors that go into an auto insurance rate . drivers ' ages and driving records , location , marital status , residential status -LRB- owner vs. renter -RRB- , having prior insurance , claims history and credit history are some of the major factors . Of course , the levels of coverage you select plays a big factor as well . And be sure to look for discount opportunities .

Entry 0143

Question:

Can Medicare Be Taken Away?

Answer:

Medicare Part A is premium-free for most people . You can lose your Medicare Part B coverage if you do n't pay your premium -LRB- $ 104.90 per month in 2014 - the premium can be higher for higher-income individuals -RRB- . Most people will have their Part B premium withdrawn from their social security check or bank account directly -LRB- electronic withdrawal -RRB- so they do n't have a lapse in coverage . If you changed your country of residence , you may lose your Medicare benefits -LRB- Medicare generally does n't provide coverage when you 're in another country , with certain exceptions -RRB- .

Entry 0144

Question:

Is Breast Cancer Covered By Critical Illness Insurance?

Answer:

Most critical illness plans pay a benefit for any type of internal cancer including breast cancer . You particular plan may pay a reduced benefit for stage 0 or cancer in situ , but a benefit should still be payable . Read your policy carefully and ask your agent to explain the benefits of your plan .

Entry 0145

Question:

How Can I Get Auto Insurance Without Owning A Car?

Answer:

Yes , you could purchase a non-owned auto policy . This type of policy is sold by many auto insurnace carriers . It typically provides liability coverage only for the insured and is normally more costly than if you purchased coverage and owned a vehicle . Contact a local agent to discuss your coverage needs and pricing for that coverage .

Entry 0146

Question:

Insurance Deductibles. Start over Jan 1

Answer:

Typically , medical expenses incurred from a specific claim that roll to the next year can be counted on the same claim and applied from last year 's deductible . Often this includes treatment that was done in the same year . If additional treatment is needed the following year , it is possible a new deductible will apply . Contact a local experienced broker and seek their help in this matter . You 'll be glad you did .

Entry 0147

Question:

What Is The Medigap Insurance Program?

Answer:

Medigap or also called Medicare Supplements are plans offered by private insurance companies designed to pay the deductibles and coinsurance of original Medicare . The amount of coverage depends on the plan you choose . Plan F is the most comprehensive providing virtually 100 % coverage for Medicare covered expenses . It is also the most expensive . All Medicare Supplements are standardized and offer the same coverage .

Entry 0148

Question:

What Kind Of Health Insurance Is Best?

Answer:

The best type of health insurance really depends on your circumstances . For example , generally healthy individuals with additional cash on hand are often best suited by High Deductible Health Insurance Plans as they can cover the high deductible if in the rare chance they should require considerable health care . The deductible acts as a stop loss against their total risk of expense exposure . Individuals with less cash on hand , and or those with medical conditions that require more frequent trips to the doctor are generally better suited by Managed Health Care systems like Health Maintenance Organizations or Preferred Provider Organizations with low deductibles and/or co-pays .

Entry 0149

Question:

Is Condo Insurance Cheaper Than Home Insurance?

Answer:

Generally speaking it is , yes . With a Homeowners ' policy , coverage is provided for three prim , ary elements . First , the dwelling itself is covered . Second , your personal property has protection and third , liability coverage is provided for situations where you are legally liable for injury to another person or damage to their property . A Condo Unit Owners ' policy is similar , but it does not provide primary coverage for the actual dwelling -LRB- building -RRB- .

Entry 0150

Question:

Where Can I Get Car Insurance With No Deposit?

Answer:

If you are adding a new car to an existing auto insurance policy , typically , you do not have to pay anything at that moment . Within about 7-10 days , you will receive an updated declarations page with a revised billing statement . Many insurers offer very low down payment options . An experienced broker can help you find the best options in your area by shopping for the best offers with the lowest down payments .

Entry 0151

Question:

How Good Is AARP Medigap Insurance?

Answer:

AARP Medigap plans are actually underwritten and administered by United Healthcare - AARP is a marketing company and political activist group . They do not underwrite or directly sell insurance plans . As Medigap plans feature standardized benefits , the coverage under each Medigap plan is exactly the same as it would be if you purchased the coverage from another carrier . If you were to compare plan F from another company such as Omaha , Anthem , Humana , Cigna , etc. , the coverage would be identical in every way to the plan F through United Healthcare . The only difference between the plans are the price the carrier charges . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for assistance with your Medigap coverage including quotes and comparison and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0152

Question:

Who Can Sell Fixed Annuities?

Answer:

Fixed annuities are sold by life insurance agents . Because they are not invested in the stock market , the life insurance agent does not need a securities license to sell them -LRB- unless the person buying the annuity is using tax qualified funds to buy the fixed annuity , then someone with securities licenses needs to handle that part of the transaction -RRB- .

Entry 0153

Question:

Why Would Someone Need Health Insurance?

Answer:

To protect yourself and your family against the financial risk of illness or injury and to finance necessary preventive health care needs . If you are a billionaire you can disregard this advice . If you are a regular American then you disregard it at your own peril . Health care is expensive . I had to answer this question recently for some people who had immigrated to the U.S.A. , were rather young to early middle aged and who had n't had occasion to use much health care in our country yet . So here are a few ball park figures I gave them from a report from 2012 . The average cost of an appendectomy is around $ 13,300 . The average cost of a day in the hospital is over $ 3400 . A normal child birth runs around $ 8000 and a C-section birth can be in the $ 12,000 to $ 13,000 range . And this is just normal run of the mill life events most people will experience at some time . My late cousin lost his 7-year battle with prostate cancer and while he participated in a lot of experimental programs as M.D. Anderson that were either free of heavily subsidized we still loosely estimated that his medical costs that he could track over that period were well in excess of $ 2 million . My niece delivered a premature child at 26 weeks and the child spent another 6 + months in neonatal intensive care , they 've crossed the $ 1 million dollar threshold and the meter is still running as their child will probably require some level of treatment for the rest of his life . Oh , and you need to have health insurance to protect yourself against the individual mandate tax penalty included in ObamaCare . Which in 2015 will be $ 325 or 2 % of your income -LRB- whichever is greater -RRB- and that will steadily increase in following years . Hopefully this will help answer your question as to why someone would need health insurance .

Entry 0154

Question:

Can I Get Term Life Insurance If I Have Cancer?

Answer:

While trying to purchase a life insurance policy with a history of cancer can prove challenging , even if the cancer has been effectively treated and eliminated , it is possible in fact possible to get term life insurance with a cancer history . The rates for a life insurance policy is determined by the risk classification you qualify for . For example , a person who qualifies for a standard risk class would be viewed as having a normal life expectancy , while someone who only qualifies for a substandard rate -LRB- also known as a table rating and designated with letters A-J or 1-10 -RRB- is considered to have a shorter than normal life expectancy . Since the life expectancy would be considered shorter for someone with a history of cancer , a table rating may be assigned and a higher premium charged . Every life insurance company has their own underwriting guidelines so some companies may respond with a more favorable risk class offer than others even though they 're based on the same exact medical profile . There are several key items that insurance companies will look at to determine the risk classification assigned for your policy . Some of those items include : 1 -RRB- Type of cancer - colon cancer , breast cancer , lung cancer , prostate cancer , melanoma , ovarian cancer , skin cancer , or other internal cancers . 2 -RRB- Stage of cancer - Stage 0 , Stage 1 , Stage 2 , Stage 3 , or Stage 4 . Stage 0 is carcinoma in situ and means the cancer likely has not spread to other organs . Stages 1 , 2 , and 3 indicate more extensive disease with larger tumors or spreading . In Stage 4 , the cancer has spread to other organs and life expectancy is usually very short . 3 -RRB- If there was melanoma only , the `` Clark Level " would be considered the same way the above stages are . 4 -RRB- Course of treatment how was the cancer treated ? Did you go through chemotherapy or radiation ? Surgery only ? Immunotherapy ? Bone marrow transplant ? something else ? 5 -RRB- How long since the treatment was completed/last date of treatment ? - cancer that was found and treated 5 or more years ago will be seen more favorably than cancer diagnosed only 1-2 years ago . The longer it 's been since the cancer was treated/eliminated/went into remission , the less likely it is considered to come back . 6 -RRB- Have you been treated/are being treated for any other health conditions such as heart disease , diabetes , high blood pressure , high cholesterol , abnormal lab test results , etc. . The best way to obtain term life insurance with medical history including cancer is with the help of an independent life insurance agent that represents many of the top insurance companies . They will be able to shop your full medical history for the best possible offer before applying for a policy . That way , you know what the most likely outcome will be before ever starting the process of filling out formal paperwork and taking an exam . Not only that , but there are no charges or fees for using the help of an agent -LRB- agents are paid by the insurance companies -RRB- . The insurance cost is exactly the same as if purchasing directly from the company . By law , the insurance company can not charge you less for applying directly . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for assistance with your life insurance coverage needs , including shopping the case , providing quotes , and comparing options , and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0155

Question:

Will Diabetes Affect Car Insurance?

Answer:

Based on my education and experience within the industry so far I do not believe that a medical condition will affect your auto insurance rates directly . I am not currently aware of any carrier that request personal medical information before providing a rate to a prospect or after a policy has been written . Contact a local agent in your area to discuss coverage availability and pricing .

Entry 0156

Question:

Who Is Required To Provide Health Insurance Under Obamacare?

Answer:

Technically no person or employer is required to provide health insurance under ObamaCare . In other words it is not a criminal offense you could be jailed for . ObamaCare uses a mixture of tax penalties , tax credits and subsidies to strongly motivate individuals and employers to provide health insurance either for themselves or , if you are an employer , for your employees . Small businesses with 2 to 49 employees are subject to no tax penalties for not providing health insurance for their employees . Depending upon the average income level of their workforce there is even a tax credit available to incentivize small employers to provide health insurance . In practical terms only a small percentage of small businesses have taken advantage of this credit . However , small businesses are also the first businesses to have their health insurance plans directly impacted by the requirements of ObamaCare for what is deemed an acceptable benefit plan design -LRB- deductible levels , services covered , removal of pre-existing condition exclusions , etc. -RRB- and this is leading to substantial rate increases for many small businesses or deterring some small businesses who were considering beginning to offer health insurance to their employees from doing so . Beginning in 2015 employers with 100 + full time employees will be subject to a tax penalty of $ 2000 per employee if they offer no health insurance to their employees or a tax penalty of $ 3000 per employee who enrolls in the government marketplace and receives a tax subsidy due to the employer 's coverage being deemed unaffordable by the law 's standards . While these tax penalties appear meaningful at first glance , they are really substantially less than it costs most large employers to provide health insurance currently to their employees . As such , it is debatable as to how much of an incentive the law will really be for large employers who do not currently provide health insurance to their employees to do so in the future and perversely it will be cheaper for most large employers to pay the tax penalty than to pay for health insurance for their employees . In 2016 the penalties and requirements I described above will be applied to employers in the 50 to 99 employee group size segment .

Entry 0157

Question:

Why Variable Annuities Are Good Investments?

Answer:

Variable annuities can be good investments . But there is no guarantee that you will earn the rate of return you expect or what was earned in the past . Past performance does not guarantee future results . Allow a full-time -LRB- not part-time -RRB- financial planner or broker discuss and review your best options . It will be the best investment you ever made .

Entry 0158

Question:

Is Life Insurance Worth Having?

Answer:

Life insurance is the foundation of any sound financial plan . It is the one vehicle that guarantees that what you want to happen - will happen - even if you are not here . It can be used in countless situations including family protection , college funding , tax-free retirement planning , business needs , etc. . The ROI is incredible in most situations depending on your health and age . I had a client yesterday purchase a $ 500,000 policy for only $ 15 per month . Is it worth it ? Yes !

Entry 0159

Question:

How Soon Can You Use Health Insurance?

Answer:

How soon depends on the kind of health policy you apply for . There is short term which will take at least 5-15 days for approval . Then there is the major medical plan that has to be reviewed including your medical records to qualify you for which coverages then some may even have waiting periods until you may use the policy . Then there is indemnity which is cash payment to the policyholder which starts as soon as the policy is approved within a day or two . It is mainly accident and sickness and critical illness with no waiting period .

Entry 0160

Question:

Why Is Permanent Life Insurance Bad?

Answer:

Permanent life insurance is NOT bad ! There are a number of different types of `` permanent " life insurance and some are better than others depending on your goals and needs . What is bad is when sales people misrepresent the policy they are selling ! Permanent insurance includes Whole Life , Universal Life , and the variations of Universal such as Indexed , variable and variable indexed . Variable basically means that it 's tied to the stock market . Indexed basically means that it 's tied to a particular `` index " such as the S&P 500 . Whole Life is the only one with Guaranteed Premiums , Cash Value growth and Death Benefit with no downside risk .

Entry 0161

Question:

Why Is Auto Insurance So Expensive In Ohio?

Answer:

Auto insurance in Ohio is actually fairly inexpensive ... if you know where to look . As an experienced broker here in Ohio -LRB- just North of Cincinnati -RRB- , we specialize in finding the lowest available rates offered by the top-rated carriers . Prices are based on many factors including your age , where you live , the type of vehicle you drive and how good -LRB- or bad ! -RRB- your driving record is . Typically , rates here in the Buckeye state are lower than most other states . A younger driver -LRB- under 21 -RRB- will usually pay a higher rate . There are , however , many discounts that can help reduce the premium . Each carrier has a different set of discounts so shopping can make a big difference . Also , by having an experienced broker shop for you , you may be able to find better pricing . Whether its State Farm , Esurance , Progressive , Geico or Farmers -LRB- or many others -RRB- , as experienced brokers with top-rated websites , our job is to help consumers find not only the best prices , but the most appropriate coverage for their specific circumstances .

Entry 0162

Question:

When Do You Need Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Most homeowners need a homeowners policy all the time . A mortgagee will probably require that you carry a homeowners policy to protect the lenders interest . The next significant time you will need a homeowners policy is when you are sued or there is damage to your home and its contents . Because these losses are not frequent , the premium for this coverage is relatively inexpensive . The cost for not having the coverage can be devastating .

Entry 0163

Question:

How Much Home Insurance Do You Need?

Answer:

Insurance companies normally accept the services of several rating companies that compute the cost of replacing your home . This is the value the company will use to set the value used for residence coverage . The standard homeowners policy uses a formula to determine coverage for personal property and it is normally adequate . If you have unique property you need to discuss that with your agent . Often overlooked , the liability coverage you select and price should be as high as you can afford . A lawsuit can ruin your financial world .

Entry 0164

Question:

How Much Does Car Insurance Increase After DUI?

Answer:

Car insurance rates typically increase after a DUI ... although the amount of the increase will vary depending on the company you are insured with . There are other costs associated with getting a DUI , including possible reinstatement of your driver 's license and purchase of a Bond , as required by the state . Question answered by E. Harris ... Car insurance broker since 1980 with top-rated website .

Entry 0165

Question:

Who Is Covered By Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Social Security covers disability events for most Americans . Some employer sponsored group plans include short term or even long term disability insurance . You can purchase individual disability insurance for yourself online via several brokerage outlets . Some employers pay for disability insurance for their key employees as a retention benefit and as a recruiting incentive .

Entry 0166

Question:

When Is Medicare Open Enrollment Period?

Answer:

Medicare Open Enrollment Period is October 15th through December 7th . During this period you can change your Medicare Advantage Plan or Part D Prescription Drug Plan . The only other time you can make changes would be during your Initial Enrollment Period when you first become eligible for Medicare or during a Special Election Period spelled out by Medicare .

Entry 0167

Question:

What Is The Best Supplemental Insurance Plan For Medicare?

Answer:

You will define what is best based on your particular needs and budget . All Medicare supplemental insurance plans with the same letter are identical in every way except the premium , the decision is much easier . Medigap plan F is the most popular , mostly because it is oversold . Far too many agents promote the plan because it is easy to explain . Medicare supplement plan F is also the most expensive plan ... and the one that pays agents the highest commission . I recently showed a couple how they could save over $ 1700 per year by switching from their current plan -LRB- with a big name carrier -RRB- to a smaller , but reputable carrier . There is no reason to pay more for the same coverage , even if you are rolling in dough . #GeorgiaMedicarePlans

Entry 0168

Question:

Who Should I Put As Beneficiary On Life Insurance?

Answer:

You should put as beneficiary on your life insurance policy , someone who you trust to use the death benefit as you desire . If you want your minor children to be taken care of , you could choose your spouse , your parent or other person who would become their guardian if you were to pass , or a trust that would distribute the money to them as you see fit . If you want the policy proceeds to pay for your funeral , choose a responsible relative who will carry out your wishes , or assign the policy to the funeral home . In other words , pick the beneficiary who will use it for the purposes you intended .

Entry 0169

Question:

Is Life Insurance Considered Community Property In Idaho?

Answer:

Yes , Idaho is a community property state and life insurance would be included in the list of assets that are considered community property . Most applications for life insurance will include acknowledgement paperwork speaking to this fact .

Entry 0170

Question:

What Are The Pros And Cons Of Annuities?

Answer:

Pros Immediate annuities are , in my opinion , the most useful of the suite . For Americans who will not be retiring with a meaningful stream of pension income , immediate annuities offer that potential . Because an immediate annuity is purposefully consuming both interest and principal to create an income stream , the individual distributions are likely to be higher than anyone could justify taking from a balanced portfolio of investments , where maintenance of the principal balance is often the goal . Fixed annuities allow an investor to lock in rates of return that are comparable to CDs , but likely for longer terms -LRB- whereas CDs are typically quoted in months , fixed annuities are quoted in years ranging from one to 10 . -RRB- The most common are three , five and seven year fixed annuities . If -LRB- read : when -RRB- interest rates rise from abnormally low rates to abnormally high rates , it could be a wise time to allocate some of one 's fixed income exposure to a fixed annuity . And unlike a CD the interest from which is paid out and taxed annually the interest or gains earned in annuities are deferred until distributions are taken . Many annuities promise some level of principal protection . Even in certain variable products -LRB- invested in equities -RRB- , a portion of your principal or even future income may be guaranteed by the company . The advantages of equity indexed annuities are , frankly , hard to find amidst the overly-simplistic marketing pledges shrouding their overly-complex underlying construction Whoever sells you the policy will likely be going on a nice vacation soon commissions on these products range into double-digit percentages . Additionally , you could suspend disbelief and allow yourself to think you 're getting the upside of the market without any downside . Ignorance can be blissful , if only momentarily . Cons Unfortunately for each of the pros , there are pretty significant cons . At this time , prevailing interest rates -LRB- and correspondingly the rates used to calculate immediate annuity payouts -RRB- are so low that committing funds could expose you to a meaningful amount of inflation risk . So even if you 're predisposed to lock in a more secure income stream with an immediate annuity , consider waiting until rates normalize . The same could be said for most fixed annuities . The tax deferral of annuities is worth something , but there 's a price or prices , really to be paid . All of your gains will be taxed at your ordinary income rate . Especially if you 're investing in a variable annuity with equity exposure , you 're trading the tax privilege of capital gains for a rate deferred or not that could be twice as much . Another negative tax implication is the loss of a `` step-up '' in cost basis to your heirs . Capital assets that were purchased at a low cost like stocks and real estate , for example are afforded a step-up in their cost basis upon your death . If you sold those assets during life , you 'd paid capital gains tax . If you gave them to your heirs while you were alive , your heirs would inherit your cost basis . But if you wait to pass them to heirs until after your death , they will receive a step-up in their basis to the cost of the holding on your date of death . Annuities with significant appreciation , however , receive no such benefit . In fact , not only will your heirs inherit your cost basis , they 'll be paying tax at their ordinary income rate and may be forced to distribute the policy and take that gain in short order , resulting in a tax time bomb for those you hope to bless with an inheritance . There are more pros and cons - please visit my website or call me to discuss your particular situation .

Entry 0171

Question:

When Is Renters Insurance Needed?

Answer:

The short answer to this is whenever you enter into a rental or lease agreement for the residence in which you live . Renters insurance provides two primary areas of protection . First , it covers your personal belongings in the event they are lost or damaged in a covered peril such as fire , theft , etc. . Second , through the Liability portion , it protects you in the event you are responsible for the injury of another or damage to another person 's property .

Entry 0172

Question:

Is Pet Health Insurance A Good Idea?

Answer:

Pet Health Insurance is a good idea if you are willing to go to extreme measures to treat your pet , or save its life . Consumer Reports in Sept of 2011 concluded that pet insurance is not necessary for those who are willing to set aside some money each month for their pets ' medical needs . However , other agencies concluded that it is necessary due to the high cost of treating pets and managing their pain . Again , if you are willing to provide dialysis , transplants , diabetes shots , and the like to extend the life of your pet , pet insurance can pay off .

Entry 0173

Question:

How Much Commission Does An Auto Insurance Agent Make?

Answer:

Depending on the carrier who is paying the agent the average is 10 to 15 % for your auto or home policies . But on business policies it can be higher . Now Life and health that is a complete different story I do not write this type of policy but I was told it is a much higher commission

Entry 0174

Question:

Does Home Insurance Cover Rain Damage?

Answer:

Yes and no ! The typical multi-peril homeowners policy water covers damage caused by rain under specific circumstances such as water windblown thru the roof shingles or a hole in the wall or roof caused by lightning . However if it rains to the degree that water collects on the ground and enter your home thru doors or windows , the homeowners policy does not cover it . That would require a flood insurance policy . If it rains and your sump pump fails and water fills your basement , most homeowners policies will NOT cover the loss , though many companies offers optional sump pump failure coverage . Consult your insurance professional for the details that apply in your state .

Entry 0175

Question:

What Does Life Insurance Protect Against?

Answer:

Life insurance protects against the economic loss that occurs at the insured 's death . Usually a person 's earned income dies with them . If an insured has people in their life they care about who would be hurt financially , life insurance can mitigate the financial loss . This is also true in the business arena . The death of a key employee may hurt the company he worked for , so key man life insurance protects the company . Business partners may insure each other so that they will have the necessary funds to purchase the deceased partner 's share of the business from the heirs . This protects both the surviving partner as well as the deceased partner 's family .

Entry 0176

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Pneumonia Shots?

Answer:

Yes , Medicare does cover pneumococcal shots under Medicare Part B medical insurance . It 's always good to discuss with your health provider if you do need the shot since most individuals only need the shot once in their lifetime . You pay nothing if your health provider accepts payment in full from Medicare .

Entry 0177

Question:

What Is Attained Age In Life Insurance?

Answer:

We have wonderful jargon in our profession ! Attained age is used in the context of a life insurance policy that has already been issued and simply refers to the age the insured is now as opposed to the age of the insured when the policy was issued . Life insurance rates are , among other things , age-based . Thus , terms were developed over time to describe age in a life insurance contract in a variety of contexts .

Entry 0178

Question:

What Does Level Term Life Insurance Mean?

Answer:

Term Life Insurance provides benefits only upon the death of the insured individual during the "term". There are many reasons why an individual may choose to purchase a term policy instead of a whole life policy. The answer to your question is tied into the reasons why an individual purchased the coverage. Level Term Life Insurance policies generally have set periods of time -LRB- 10,20,30 years -RRB- where they will provide benefits, with level term premiums and benefits never change during the "term" or period of time that the individual is covered. There are also increasing/decreasing term life policies that are used to address different needs. The most common example would be an individual being contractually obligated to purchase decreasing term life when obtaining a mortgage. The policy would start out with death benefits equal to the mortgage, and decrease as the individual pays off the mortgage. The end result would be both the policy and the mortgage balance decreasing to $ 0 by the end of the period.

Entry 0179

Question:

How To Compare Medigap Plans?

Answer:

Comparing Medigap Plans can be very time consuming and exhausting for people . Working with an independent agent will save you a lot of time and money . A good agent will be able to give you the bottom line of what is available to you and help you determine which plan meets your needs the best . All Medigap Plans will be identified by a letter such as Plan F , Plan J , Plan G , etc. . I would be happy to answer any questions you have in comparing your options .

Entry 0180

Question:

How To Buy Life Insurance Wisely?

Answer:

I always advise that before shopping for insurance that you do a little preparation first . Take a good look at your monthly budget , and see what you can safely afford to spend . Then look at what you want that coverage to replace - is there a mortgage , a salary , college educations , etc. ? Once you have some basic ideas , then you can seek out an agent that can help you . Ask trusted friends and family who they used , and if they are pleased with the service they are receiving . If you have more questions , or would like more information , please hit the `` contact me " link on my profile .

Entry 0181

Question:

What Is A Collision Deductible For Auto Insurance?

Answer:

Your deductible for your collision coverage of your auto insurance is the amount that you are responsible for of the total amount of any claim for that coverage . Collision auto insurance is coverage for your vehicle should you be involved in an accident . Read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and any exclusions that there may be or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0182

Question:

What Is Medigap Plan C?

Answer:

There are 11 standardized Medigap plans , each designated by a letter -LRB- A , B , C , D , F , Hi deductible F , G , K , L , M , and N . The insurance coverage in each plan is different , and premiums are normally adjusted accordingly . Plan F happens to be the most comprehensive in terms of coverage , and will typically have the highest premium out of the 11 plans . Plan C has the same coverage as Plan F with one exception - Plan C does not cover Part B excess charges . It is a good idea to find a licensed insurance agent who is experienced in Medigap plans to assess your needs and objectives and review optimal solutions with you .

Entry 0183

Question:

What's The Point Of Health Insurance?

Answer:

Just like any other insurance , it 's meant to cover you when an unexpected event causes financial loss . But , unlike most insurance , health insurance is now structured to cover expected events along with the unexpected events . For example , set co-payments for routine health exams and maintenance , and set emergency room costs , before you meet your deductible and the insurance kicks in . But overall , the point of health insurance these days , is to provide you with better access to higher quality of health care providers ; which in turn leads to better health maintenance and prevention , and overall reducing your future costs of healthcare throughout your life . With health care costs continuing to climb due to our greatly aging and sickening society , it is important to have the best and most access to prevention and early detection of health risks , to reduce future health care spending as a whole .

Entry 0184

Question:

Does Medigap Cover Nursing Home?

Answer:

In some situations Medicare will cover some of the cost of your stay in a nursing home . Admission to the nursing home must follow a qualified stay or at least 3 days as an inpatient in a hospital . If Medicare approves your claim for a stay in a skilled nursing facility , your Medigap plan will pay their portion .

Entry 0185

Question:

Does Car Insurance Cover Shopping Cart Damage?

Answer:

Shopping cart damage is generally covered by the collision portion of the auto insurance policy and subject to the deductible . So if the cost to repair a ding caused by an errant shopping cart is $ 300 and your deductible is $ 500 , there would be no insurance claim . The golden rule in parking lots : do unto others as you would have them do unto you and secure your cart when you 're done !

Entry 0186

Question:

Can Long Term Care Insurance Be Deducted From Taxes?

Answer:

In qualified long term care plans , long term care insurance can be deducted from taxes . The premiums that can be deducted are outlined in the instructions provided with your tax return . Qualified life insurance plans require inability to do two or more ADL 's or cognitive impairment with expectation of the need for care lasting over 90 days in order to receive benefits .

Entry 0187

Question:

Is Critical Illness Insurance A Good Idea?

Answer:

Critical Illness coverages can provide money to replace lost income and to pay the expenses not coverage by your medical insurance . Studies have shown that medical insurance covers only about 40 % of the true cost of a serious disease such as disease . In addition to medical coinsurance and deductibles , there is loss of income to contend with . The person that is off sick may have disability income insurance to help with this but often the spouse has to also miss work and there is nothing to replace their income . And , if it is their child that is sick , often both will miss work with no income replacement . When you add all the additional expenses of travel , special diets , transportation , child care , etc. the additional expenses can be devastating to a family . One thing I had never thought of before I had a bout with cancer was clothing expenses . I went from 215 lbs to 140 lbs which meant i had to buy new clothes . Now that I am at 185 lbs , my fat clothes do n't fit and my skinny clothes don " t fit so I have to buy more . Critics of Critical Illness insurance say it is not a good buy because you might have a condition that is not covered under the policy but if you bought a plan that covered every possible event , the cost would be prohibitive . However , you can buy coverage for some of the most common serious conditions at a very reasonable premium . I have never had a cancer patient tell me that their caner or CI policy was a bad buy .

Entry 0188

Question:

What Is Proof Of Renters Insurance?

Answer:

A declaration page would show coverage had been purchased , when it had been purchased and when it would expire . However I would not accept a declaration page as proof of Renters Insurance or any insurance for that matter . I would not accept it because there is no guarantee that the Insured or Renter will make the next payment for the policy . If he does n't , the policy would cancel and you wo n't know . If I want proof that coverage is in force , I would request a Certificate of Insurance and I would also request I be named as Certificate Holder . If I 'm named Certificate Holder , the insurance company may -LRB- depends on State Regulations -RRB- be obligated to tell you when coverage is threatened to be canceled . I hope I 've answered your question . If not , feel free to call , fax or email me . Kevin P. Foley , CPA , CPCU PFT&K Insurance Brokers T 877-414-2031 F 877-405-3025 E kpfoley -LSB- at -RSB- kpfoley -LSB- dot -RSB- com W www -LSB- dot -RSB- kpfoley -LSB- dot -RSB- com

Entry 0189

Question:

How Much Insurance Do You Need On A Home?

Answer:

For many this amount is determined in part by the mortgage company . You need sufficient coverage to satisfy your lender . In California the lender can not ask for more than the amount necessary to replace the residence . That calculation can be done in the office of an insurance agent . You might find that the amount to rebuild differs from the purchase price but that is because the purchase price is influenced by market pressure where costs of repair remain rather stable .

Entry 0190

Question:

How Does Assigned Risk Auto Insurance Work?

Answer:

Assigned risk in California which is what I am familiar with is a processing center by which people having trouble buying auto insurance are connected with an insurance company that will insure them . Assigned Risk is not an insurance company but are companies that are required by law to participate . The amount of autos an insurance company has on the road would constitute the percentage of their obligation to the plan . There is financial hardship criteria to qualify for Assigned Risk . Also agents who offer Assigned Risk must be certified to offer this coverage . You can go online and then be connected to an agent to see if you qualify for assigned risk .

Entry 0191

Question:

Will Homeowners Insurance Cover A Broken TV?

Answer:

It may , if the tv was broken due to a covered loss . A typical homeowners policy will include coverage for personal items . This coverage is typically limited and is less the policy deductibles . Please remember every policy is different . Read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and exclusions that there may be or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0192

Question:

Is Life Insurance Part Of An Estate After Death?

Answer:

There are many varying circumstances for life insurance proceeds . Life insurance is paid directly to the beneficiaries of the life insurance policy . Generally most married couples use the marital deduction act to pass the proceeds and all other assets to the surviving spouse . If the proceeds remain with the surviving spouse , they are subject to federal and state estate taxation if the proceeds and all other assets exceed the federal unified credit and the state exemptions. If that possibility exists , then the policy or policies should be owned day one by an Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust to avoid inclusion in the estate .

Entry 0193

Question:

How Long Does It Take To Pay A Life Insurance Claim?

Answer:

That depends on how quickly the requirements for proof of death are met and if there were any extenuating circumstances that would require investigation . Most companies are going to make the within a relatively short period of time . They want family members to be able to get on with their lives less financial burdens as quickly as possible . To find out how your life insurance policy is handled , call your local agent and discuss it with them .

Entry 0194

Question:

Who Can Sell Disability Insurance?

Answer:

In order to sell disability insurance an agent must maintain a valid health insurance license in the state where the policyholder resides . The agent must also have a contract with the insurance carrier in order to solicit business , and take applications for coverage . Group disability plans require that the agent be licensed in the in situs state where the policy is issued .

Entry 0195

Question:

Who Has The Best Rates For Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

There is no single company that consistently has the best rates . It 's going to depend on where you live , the age of your home , what condition it is in and whether or not you have had any claims in the past . Companies have different tolerances for different types of risk . You will have to shop around with a few different companies or go to a broker in order to fin the best rate .

Entry 0196

Question:

How To Pay For Funeral Expenses With No Life Insurance?

Answer:

How to pay for funeral expenses when there is no life insurance ? Well the most basic way is to liquidate an asset or borrow from a credit card or dip into a family member's savings or investments . The problem with all of that is timing . Having to borrow or liquidate investments may cost more than what is spent on the service as cashing out in a down market or borrowing at a high credit rate can make things cost more . What life insurance does more than any other financial product is create a pool of money when it is most needed to be used for any purpose , without penalty , or tax or market risk .

Entry 0197

Question:

Which Health Insurance Covers Bariatric Surgery?

Answer:

Any and all insurance carriers will only cover Bariatric Surgery -LRB- or any other procedure for that matter -RRB- if it is deemed medically necessary and is n't excluded within the policy itself . Typically though , this type of procedure is more often than not considered elective and therefore . . not covered . It is important to understand what your policy covers prior to having any procedures scheduled . Rule of thumb ; If it 's elective , it 's not covered !

Entry 0198

Question:

How Much Does It Cost For Level Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

There is no one set cost to level Term Life Insurance . However , a rule of thumb is , the longer the term , the higher the premium . That is because the insurance companies average out what the policy would cost at your starting age , and the cost of insurance for the ending age of the term policy you chose . If you took out a 10 year Term policy at age 35 , the policy will end -LRB- or the price will go up drastically -RRB- at your age 45 . Mortality rates are not real high at age 45 , so the premium will be relatively low . If you locked that premium in for 30 years , the policy will end at your age 65 , which is when mortality rates are much higher . Therefore , the premium will be higher . However , the premium you have locked in is based on your health at age 35 . And that can make it be a very good deal .

Entry 0199

Question:

Does Having Children Increase Car Insurance?

Answer:

Having children who are not of driving age and licensed does not in and of itself increase car insurance premiums . You may want to talk to your Insurance Professional about increasing the liability coverage in your policy , however , in the event you are volunteering to take your children 's friends to the ball field or anywhere else . Once your child is of driving age and then is issued a license , the insurance company will charge a bit more . Insurance premiums reflect the risk that a company is assuming on your behalf . Younger , inexperienced drivers do tend to be an increased risk . Be sure to ask about available discounts for having taken Drivers Education , being a good student , qualifying for occasional usage rates etc to save money .

Entry 0200

Question:

Does Progressive Have Mobile Home Insurance?

Answer:

Progress does offer mobile home insurance . Their coverages and prices are usually very good . Progressive only offers mobile home insurance through independent agents in 8 states : Illinois , Indiana , Iowa , Minnesota , Missouri , Nebraska , Ohio and Wisconsin . However , you can buy Progressive mobile home insurance directly from Progressive in every state except Alaska , Florida , Hawaii and D.C. .

Entry 0201

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Bathroom Leaks?

Answer:

Most of the time when there is a sudden break in a pipe , the damage can be stopped quickly and there is often little or no damage . The damage caused by a sudden bursting of a pipe in your bathroom would be covered under most homeowners policies . A slow leak that damages property might not be covered . The homeowners policy is not designed to cover routine maintenance items in the home .

Entry 0202

Question:

When Does Long Term Disability Insurance Kick In?

Answer:

After your long term care disability insurance policy is in force , the benefits will start after your elimination or waiting period is over . And generally speaking the benefits will be tax free . But medical confirmation of your inability to work because of prolonged sickness and/or injury needs to be established via your medical professional .

Entry 0203

Question:

What Does Health Insurance Underwriting Mean?

Answer:

It used to mean that for an individual applying for individual health insurance or for an employer group applying for group health insurance that the individual or the employees would have to answer medical questions and perhaps provide rather detailed information on any pre-existing health conditions that they or their dependents to be covered might have . This has essentially become a non-issue in the fully insured individual or group health insurance markets after January 1 , 2014 as the Affordable Care Act -LRB- ObamaCare -RRB- no longer allows for the underwriting of such health insurance policies . Underwriting may still be encountered in the group health insurance market if an employer has or is implementing a self-funded health insurance plan . As these plans are subject to the Federal ERISA guidelines asking medical questions and adjusting a group 's rates for the medical risk -LRB- s -RRB- in the group is still allowed .

Entry 0204

Question:

Can You Withdraw From A Retirement Plan?

Answer:

The operative word in this question is "withdraw," which could trigger an ordinary income taxable event and an additional 10 % penalty before age 59 1/2 if you have a qualified plan. Some qualified plans allow participants to borrow money from their plans with an interest charge and a payback schedule.

Entry 0205

Question:

Why Do So Many Insurance Agents Fail?

Answer:

Many people get into the insurance business thinking of it as a job . It 's not a job . It 's a business . If you go into business without a solid business plan and money to invest in your business you will fail . You have to learn the products and benefits you are selling . You have to be a professional person and a great communicator . But most of all ... you need people who want to talk to you . And that takes a lot of work or a lot of marketing money . There are also a lot of sharks out there that want to grab new agents and chew them up . They sign agents up for the worst deal imaginable where they could never win . The biggest red flag are the `` free lead " scammers . They will sign agents up with horrible commission levels to get to the FREE leads . The free leads are worthless junk . You may as well be working the phone book . But if an agent does all the work and makes a sale ... he makes a tiny fraction and the guy who signed him up makes all the real money . It 's a racket , not a career builder . Just look on Craig 's List or any other free advertising place to find these scammers . If you enter the insurance business , make certain that you choose a reputable company with a good manager that you feel good about . If they make it sound too easy to make big money quickly ... watch out ! If they advertise on Craig 's List or offer free leads ... hold on to your wallet !

Entry 0206

Question:

Can I Get Life Insurance Even Though I Have Cancer?

Answer:

There is one type of life insurance that you can get while having any type of cancer , and that is called Guaranteed Life Insurance . It is not available at every age , and it is graded for 2 or more years . But it does not have any health requirements . You can also purchase pre-need policies at a funeral home while having cancer . With those , the graded period is usually one year . If your cancer was caught in the early stages and has a good prognosis , you should be able to get a policy other than guaranteed issue about a year or two after the last treatment . Some types of policies will add a flat extra that drops off after a few years . Others add table ratings to the policy . It all depends on the type of cancer , the stage , how well it responded to treatment , how long ago you were diagnosed and last treated , and whether your cancer recurred or not . Finding life insurance for persons with cancer can be complicated . Contacting an impaired risk life insurance specialist is helpful to find your best rate .

Entry 0207

Question:

Is Cobra Health Insurance?

Answer:

Yes , Cobra is true medical insurance and is an interum policy that a person is eligible for when losing a job that included group medical insurance for the emplyees . It is normally very expensive especially when the company may be paying the premium as a benefit and only lasts 18 months . With the ACA plans a layed off or terminated emplyee may be able to pick up a much more affordable plan as he or she qualifies for the special conditions event and can pick up coverage outside of open enrollment . Any questions please contact the Hinch Financial Group @ 843-450-9879 or visit my website @ www.hinchfinancialgroup.com .

Entry 0208

Question:

Does Having Life Insurance Affect SSI?

Answer:

When applying for SSI , it is allowable to have $ 1,500 of cash value in a Permanent life insurance policy . If the policy is Term life insurance , there is no limit on the amount of life insurance that can be owned while applying for and receiving Supplemental Security Income benefits .

Entry 0209

Question:

Why Is Car Insurance So Expensive For Young Drivers?

Answer:

Statistically young drivers present the greatest risk for a claim to an insurance carrier due to their inexperience behind the wheel . Young drivers are more likely to be involved in some sort of questionable or reckless activity . This does mean that every young driver is irresponsible or that they will be involved in activities that will cause a claim . Many young drivers are more responsible and less reckless than older drivers but insurance carriers tend to create rates based on age and geographic location as major factors .

Entry 0210

Question:

How Can I Reduce My Car Insurance Quote?

Answer:

That is a great question ! But let 's be clear - a quote is just an estimate of what your premium will be . It can change based on underwriting , or other factors after the agent has given it to you . That said , some ways to lower your auto insurance costs are to raise the amount of your deductible - a higher deductible generally reflects in lower premiums . You can also try getting your policy through a company where you have other policies - often insurers will give discounts for multiple policies . Best way ? Be a safe driver , and make your payments on time . Thank you for asking !

Entry 0211

Question:

What To Look For In Auto Insurance?

Answer:

Great question ! The things to look for are pretty much the same things that you want in your health insurance - the lowest cost , for the most coverage , with the lowest deductible . Everyone understands lowest cost , for the coverage , you want to look for the more things that the policy will pay for , the better . The deductible is the amount that you have to pay out of your pocket before the insurance money kicks in , so the look for the lowest deductible , highest coverage that you can afford . If you need more detail , feel free to contact me , I 'm glad to help . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0212

Question:

How Do Insurance Annuities Work?

Answer:

An annuity uses the same data that a life insurance policy uses . The life insurance policy protects the client from the financial effects of a premature death . The annuity protects the client from the financial effects of living too long and running out of money . In an annuity , people pool together to provide a lifetime income . Statistically most will live to life expectancy . Some will die earlier and a few will die much later . By pooling their assets they can meet the needs of all . The amount paid by those who die prematurely will offset the expense of those who live a very long time .

Entry 0213

Question:

Is Home Insurance Compulsory?

Answer:

Homeowners insurance may be required by your mortgage lender , but as of this time and based on my knowledge homeowners insurance is not required by law . A home is a major purchase and homeowners insurance is highly recommended . It will help protect you and your family against a severe financial loss due to a covered event .

Entry 0214

Question:

When Does Universal Life Insurance Make Sense?

Answer:

Yes Universal life makes since in many aspects . It gives you freedom in your payment where you are in control of your premium amounts and many carriers that I use have even additional bonus points which translate in even more accumulation of cash on Various products . Universal insurance makes since in many ways usually better cash accumulation on your money and still takes care of your insurance needs as well . You are welcome to contact me for a Free consultation about Great Universal Products . `` An Agency that truly cares "

Entry 0215

Question:

What Life Insurance Term Should I Get?

Answer:

I recommend locating an Independent agent who specializes in Life Insurance to determine which term policy best suits your needs and budget . Also which length of term policy -LRB- 10,20,30 years -RRB- taking into account your immediate needs for coverage as well as in the future . This is time well spent in determining what is best for you ...

Entry 0216

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Borrowed Items?

Answer:

It would depend on the nature of the loss . Since the item was in your care , custody and control the item would be covered the same as if you owned it . Remember to check your deductible however . If your deductible is $ 500 and the item is valued at $ 600 it really would n't make sense to turn in a claim . All you would get is $ 100 anyway .

Entry 0217

Question:

Why Is My Renters Insurance So High?

Answer:

Most customers consider renters insurance a bargain . There is certainly plenty of competition . If you really want to spend too much on renters insurance try not having any . When you have a claim and empty pockets life can get tough in a hurry . Someone could fall in your unit , or a fire could sweep through it and everything you have would go up in smoke . Then you would know what really expensive insurance is .

Entry 0218

Question:

Who Offers Multi Car Insurance?

Answer:

Most auto insurance companies/vehicle insurance companies offer a multi-car/multi-vehicle discount : typically , a multi-car/multi-vehicle discount is when you have 2 or more vehicles -LRB- cars , trucks , SUVs , motorcycles ... -RRB- on the same type of policy . Insurance companies usually do n't allow the multi-car/multi-vehicle discount for different types of motorized vehicles on different policies . For example - if you have a car on one policy and a motorcycle on a different policy -LRB- but both policies are with the same insurance company -RRB- then usually you would not get a multi-car/multi-vehicle discount . You would get the multi-car discount if you have 2 cars insured on the same auto insurance policy . Also , most companies that insure motorcycles will give a multi-unit discount if you insure 2 or more motorcycles on the same motorcycle insurance policy . The key point with the multi-car/multi-vehicle discount is that you are usually required to have 2 or more vehicles covered on the same policy . It is always best to review with your professional independent insurance broker to find the coverage options , as well as ways to secure all available discounts -LRB- so you wo n't end up paying more than you have to for your insurance -RRB- .

Entry 0219

Question:

What Does Vested Mean In A Retirement Plan?

Answer:

Being vested in a retirement plan means that you get to take the funds with you when you leave your job , or that those funds will be paid to you when you retire . You can be fully vested , in which all the money in your retirement fund belongs to you . Or you can be partially vested , which means that you would receive part of the funds in your retirement account .

Entry 0220

Question:

Which Medicare Prescription Drug Plan To Choose?

Answer:

Medicare Part D drug plans are not mandated coverage but for most seniors , they are a necessity . Choosing a Medicare drug plan can be one of the most confusing and complicated things you will do when turning 65 . You need to pick a drug plan that meets your needs and budget .

Entry 0221

Question:

Can You Get Retroactive Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

If a quote for coverage was in place and the underwriting process begun with all of the requirements of the carrier input ; it is possible that a retroactive date for the start of coverage be enacted on the policy . This typically will be no more than seven days prior to completion of the underwriting process and will be allowed or dis-allowed as per the carrier 's policies and procedures .

Entry 0222

Question:

Can You Have Two Health Insurance Policies At The Same Time?

Answer:

I suppose you could have two health insurance policies in effect at the same time . But why would you ? You ca n't duplicate coverage and get paid twice , so it would not make financial sense . It 's easier to shop and compare the most affordable plans and purchase the policy that best fits your needs . As experienced and unbiased brokers , that 's our job !

Entry 0223

Question:

Is Car Insurance For A Lease More Expensive?

Answer:

Many leases will require you to carry 100/300 liability limits so if for some reason you want to carry lower limits you will see a premium difference there . Other then that the premiums are no different then if you owned the car yourself . If you are in a position to lease a car you should be carrying a minimum of 100/300 liability limits anyway .

Entry 0224

Question:

Can Bad Credit Affect Car Insurance?

Answer:

It depends on the state you live in but yes there are states that use credit as a rating factor . Some insurance companies charge more for poor credit than accidents or tickets . Why ? There is overwhelming data showing people with poor credit file more claims . Credit is a hot topic in the insurance industry and not everyone agrees with using credit but the bottom line , numbers do n't lie so more and more companies will adapt this practice .

Entry 0225

Question:

How Long Does A Homeowners Insurance Claim Stay On Record?

Answer:

As a matter of practice most insurance companies look back at three years of losses . Companies are particularly concerned about recurring losses . These usually indicate poor maintenance or a design flaw in the residence . Recurring water damage losses from a leaky roof are a concern . There are situations where the initial repair did not fix the root cause and continued claims can be expected .

Entry 0226

Question:

When Should I Have Life Insurance?

Answer:

I encourage you to listen to Peggy 's advice above . There really are policies out there for so many situations . Every person has a unique position . Be sure to find an advisor who can customize specific to your planning needs . An example , would be even if you need $ 1.5 M in coverage , but can only afford $ 625k - - then just get that amount for now . You can always ladder coverage later . I have seen situations where someone thought they had to have the whole thing so they opted to do nothing and that does n't work either . Great question ! Sheryl Brown / @AshBrokerage

Entry 0227

Question:

What Does A Car Insurance Agent Do?

Answer:

Great question ! The agent is the person who should be helping you find the right policy for you , Then being your go-to guy for any issues that may ever arise . The agent should be your advocate , educator , and protector . They should develop a good working relationship with you , one that can last many years . I hope that you find one like that for yourself ! Thanks for asking !

Entry 0228

Question:

What Will I Pay For Car Insurance?

Answer:

This is an impossible question to answer with any real dollar amount . Your auto insurance is based on many factors . Some of the factors that are part of the equation that is used to determine your rates are : the insured 's geographic location , the insured 's age , the insured 's driving record , the year , make , and model of the vehicle and many more . Contact a local agent to discuss your coverage wants and needs so that they can provide you with coverage availability and pricing .

Entry 0229

Question:

Does Health Insurance Cover HIV?

Answer:

Health insurance plans will cover non-experimental treatment for HIV , AIDS , and ARC . If you are currently HIV positive you may find it impossible to purchase individual health insurance . Employer group health insurance plans are required to accept you without regard to pre-existing conditions . If you do not have prior creditable coverage there may be a waiting period for pre-existing .

Entry 0230

Question:

Can Landlord Make You Get Renters Insurance?

Answer:

A landlord may require you to get renters insurance as part of the rental or lease agreement/contract that you sign when you rent a premise from them . A renter should not fear the cost of renters insurance as it is fairly inexpensive in many cases . Not to mention that it provides some personal liability , personal property , and typically some loss of use coverage .

Entry 0231

Question:

What Is The Best Life Insurance In Ohio?

Answer:

The best life insurance in Ohio depends on what you are looking for . If you are looking for the rating of the company , then New York Life , Northwestern Mutual , and TIAA-CREF had top ratings from all the main rating agencies in 2012 . However , there are many companies that are just a rating or two off from those and still are outstanding companies . If you are looking for the best features , there are many companies that have guaranteed death benefit at a guaranteed price , conversion options , and a variety of riders from which to choose . If you are looking for the best price , that depends on your age , sex , tobacco status , health , face amount , type of policy , and other risk factors . Contact a website or agency that sells life insurance in Ohio to get your best life insurance rate .

Entry 0232

Question:

What Happens When I Cancel My Life Insurance?

Answer:

When you cancel your life insurance , what happens will depend on what type of policy you have . If you have Term Life insurance , the policy will simply end . You will not get any money back unless you had ROP Term -LRB- Return of Premium Term -RRB- and had kept the policy long enough that you are eligible to receive back part of the premiums you paid in . If you have a Permanent Life insurance policy that accumulated cash value , you will be able to receive the surrender value in cash . If you want to quit paying on your Permanent policy but do n't necessarily want to cancel your insurance , you could roll the surrender value over into another life insurance policy . Or you may have the option to change your policy to a reduced paid up policy , which means that it will be a smaller policy but you will not have to make any more payments to it . If you cancel a permanent policy in the first years , there will be a surrender charge that will reduce the cash value , and if you have loans against the policy , those will also be deducted from what you receive from the cash value , along with interest on the loans . You can request a current illustration to see what your Whole Life or Universal Life has for cash value , surrender charges and loan charges .

Entry 0233

Question:

How Much Is The Average Cost Of Life Insurance?

Answer:

That is a great question ! Unfortunately , there is no `` average cost " that I can honestly give you . Life insurance is like a tailored suit . Each person is built differently , so my suit most likely wo n't fit the average person , any more than yours probably would . Since life insurance costs are based upon your personal health situation , age and gender , the rate is tailored to you . There are companies that issue policies that charge a flat rate by age , but they also tend to increase those costs every few years , and end your coverage the day you turn 80 . Please speak with an agent who can give you some specific numbers for you to look at . Thank you for asking !

Entry 0234

Question:

What Health Insurance Covers In Vitro?

Answer:

Most health insurance plans do not cover In Vitro or any other infertility treatment . Most ART procedures are considered elective . Fifteen states have insurance mandates requiring some coverage for infertility . Nine of those state mandates include IVF . All the mandates are full of exceptions and loopholes . If your employer is headquartered in one of those states , your group health plan may be subject to the mandate . Your alternative is to purchase the best possible coverage for a hopeful pregnancy : primary health insurance , short term disability , and hospital indemnity .

Entry 0235

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Theft While Traveling?

Answer:

Talk to your insurance Professional about the coverage provided by your policy , but in general , personal property outside your home is usually covered , including while travelling . Now , most policies will cover your belongings up to a certain total percentage of your current Personal Property stated amount . So , for example , if you have $ 50,000 stated coverage in your policy , you may have coverage up to 10 % while travelling . Likewise there may be certain " inside limits " for categories of property such as camera equipment that may further limit the amount of coverage that you actually have .

Entry 0236

Question:

Do I Need Legal Assistance On Home Insurance?

Answer:

That is really a personal choice . An attorney can help advise you on specific situations if you have unique or specific exposure concerns . In most cases your local insurance agent will be able to direct you to the coverage that would be proper for you . I would never tell anyone that they do not need legal assistance as each situation is different and it is always good to get a second opinion .

Entry 0237

Question:

Who Is The Main Driver On Car Insurance?

Answer:

The main driver on a car insurance policy is typically the owner of the vehicle and/or the person that took out the policy . There can be additional drivers listed on the policy such as a spouse or children . Other drivers of the vehicles on the policy should be covered , subject to policy limitations .

Entry 0238

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Vehicle Damage?

Answer:

Renters insurance does not cover damage to vehicles . The vehicles insurance would cover what ever damage occurred . There is a slight possibility renters insurance would cover damage to a vehicle if for example you threw a baseball through the glass but even this on is a maybe . The vehicles comprehensive coverage would pick up this kind of damage .

Entry 0239

Question:

How Much Can I Expect To Pay For Life Insurance?

Answer:

Great question ! To give you an accurate answer , I 'd need a lot more information - age , sex , smoking or non-smoker ; The status of your health currently , and over the past few years ; How much coverage you would like , and whether you have an occupation or hobby that puts you at risk . All of those things will affect the price of your policy . I can give you a better idea if you 'd like to contact me with details , otherwise I 'd advise you to contact a local independent agent who can give you an idea . Thank you for asking !

Entry 0240

Question:

Does Nationwide Offer Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Actually , Nationwide has a very good hybrid policy that combines permanent life insurance and a comprehensive long term care rider . I use this product alot in my practice for people that have a need for both life insurance and LTC . Advantages of this product is that the benefit will always be used no matter what happens to the individual ; either they will have a long term care claim , or they will pass away and the death benefit will pass to their beneficiaries . Disadvantages of this approach to LTC planning is that there is no potential for any premium write-off and no Partnership protection .

Entry 0241

Question:

What Is The Normal Deductible For Home Insurance?

Answer:

Many companies now are requiring a $ 1,000 deductible on homeowners insurance policies but some people are choosing deductibles around $ 2,500 . Homeowners insurance is meant to be catastrophic type coverage where you only file a claim when you have a substantial lose such as wind/hail damage to a roof , fire , etc. . Keep in mind that a higher deductible equals lower annual premiums !

Entry 0242

Question:

Does Humana Medicare Cover Shingles Vaccine?

Answer:

Yes , Humana 's Medicare Part D plan does cover the shingles vaccine . If you are in the Humana Medicare Advantage PPO plan , you must receive your immunization at a pharmacy that bills Express Scripts directly . Those not in the Humana Medicare Advantage PPO plans must call their respective insurance carriers to see where to get their shot . There will be a copay .

Entry 0243

Question:

What Are Fixed Income Annuities?

Answer:

Tax deferred , guaranteed fixed annuities offer a fixed interest rate over a fixed period of time , i.e. 5 , 7 or 10 years as an example . The interest rate is credited to the annuity policy and accumulates tax deferred until distributions , when gain is taxed as ordinary income at the annuity owners effective tax bracket .

Entry 0244

Question:

Is Life Insurance Paid In A Lump Sum?

Answer:

Life insurance proceeds can be paid in lump sum . In fact , it is the most popular method of paying a death benefit . I base that statement on 32 years of experience in the insurance business . Typically , it is a tax-free benefit although a full-time broker or financial adviser can review additional ramifications . Money market funds are popular automatic destinations for the initial payment . You can have your funds deposited in many different options by the insurer , Your adviser is a great resource to review them .

Entry 0245

Question:

Does Medicare Pay For Xolair?

Answer:

No . Xolair is the name of a medicine and is not covered by Medicare Part A or Part B . It may be covered under a stand-alone Part D prescription drug plan . You can use the plan finder tool on the Medicare.gov website to see what plans in your area will cover the prescription . A plan 's formulary will tell you if the prescription is covered and at what tier . Please let me know if I can be of further assistance . Thanks very much .

Entry 0246

Question:

How Is Aviva Life Insurance Company Rated?

Answer:

Aviva Life & Annuity Company is rated by A.M. Best A - -LRB- 4 -RRB- Standard & Poors A - -LRB- 7 -RRB- and Comdex 62 .

Entry 0247

Question:

What Is My Medicare Part B Number?

Answer:

Your Medicare Part B number is the same as your Medicare Part A number . When you enroll in Medicare , you are assigned a claim number - this is typically going to be your social security number plus a letter on the end -LRB- designates certain conditions - e.g. only you are applying and not your spouse , on group coverage , etc. -RRB- . Please feel free to contact me for help and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0248

Question:

What Is Split Life Insurance?

Answer:

In Canada , Split Dollar Insurance is usually referred to as Shared Interest Insurance . The Shared Interest concept is an effective strategy for sharing life insurance costs and benefits. There are a number of family and business scenarios where this concept can be applied . To illustrate , I will outline a business situation as an example . Under the shared interest concept , the death benefit , premiums and cash values of a permanent insurance policy are apportioned between company and the key employee or shareholder , who pay for their separate interests under the policy . With the Company responsible for the life insurance portion of the premium , it receives : - Tax free buffer fund to cushion the shock of death of key person -LRB- protect profits -RRB- - Funds to redeem shares for a buy-sell & / or succession plan - Life insurance death benefit creates a tax free capital dividend that can be paid out to surviving shareholders . With the business owner or key person responsible for the cash value portion of premium , he/she receives : - Tax advantaged accumulation without paying mortality costs - Access to cash value for living benefits -LRB- policy loans , withdrawals , collateral -RRB- - Increased retirement resources . Setting up the Shared Interest concept is complex . There are many issues to consider in addition to what is outlined here . Therefore , it is recommended you seek your own independent professional advice from your lawyer and/or accountant . Note : The Canada Revenue Agency 's -LRB- CRA -RRB- position is that each party in the shared interest agreement must pay a reasonable amount of the premium for the benefit the party receives . In a non-arm 's length situation , a taxable benefit may be considered to be conferred on one of the parties to the agreement unless all parties pay a cost equal to the fair market value of the benefit received . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me . If you would like to work with a local life insurance broker , you could start with a Google search . For example , if you search for : life insurance broker Halifax or life insurance agent Halifax , my name , along with several others , will come up . You can use the same method to find a life insurance broker in your community .

Entry 0249

Question:

What Is Medicare A?

Answer:

Medicare Part A covers Hospital related charges such as room and board . It will also cover your lab work and any tests done while you are admitted to the hospital . Part B covers doctors charges and outpatient lab and other testing such as X Rays and MRI 's done on an outpatient basis .

Entry 0250

Question:

Does Health Insurance Cover A Dermatologist?

Answer:

Generally speaking , yes . This would be a specialist visit . Depending on the type of insurance that you have you may need a referral to see the dermatologist and have the visit covered by your health insurance . You would get the referral from your primary care physician .

Entry 0251

Question:

Why Should You Have A Retirement Plan?

Answer:

Retirement planning is paying yourself . Disciplined despots into a retirement plan from every paycheck , no matter how small can help you develop a habit that you 'll appreciate when you retire . You only need to look to the baby boomer generation and their under funded retirement accounts to give you a glimpse into your future . How you save today will determine your lifestyle in retirement .

Entry 0252

Question:

Why Does Homeowners Insurance Increase?

Answer:

Homeowners Insurance is a contract whereby a homeowner transfers his/her risk to an insurance carrier in return for a contract and a small premium . Homeowners Insurance Premium will usually increase from year to year ; however , by chance a decrease may be seen once in a while . Insurance companies increase the Dwelling Coverage each year to keep up with the increasing cost of reconstruction ; after all , homeowners insurance 's primary purpose is to rebuild a home in the unfortunate event of a total loss . The small increase of dwelling coverage each year is usually the purpose that draws attention when the premium rises ; however , this is very insignificant . Insurance companies are audited each year and are obligated to comply with State Department of Insurance regulations in each and every State where they underwrite risk . Each year , insurance carriers calculate the necessary premium to maintain a safe financial condition and offer security to all homes insured ; the largest reason for premium increase would be ' loss experience ' during the prior year , another reason may be due to increased operational cost including but definitely not limited to reinsurance premium paid . Insurance Companies either have an internal actuarial department or hire an independent actuarial firm who are charged with the responsibility of calculating premium based on underwriting factors and prior loss data . For this reason , carriers only offer annual policies and are unable to predict risk on a longer term basis . Since carriers experience different loss results each and every year , insurance rates and increase percentages are never the same from one year to the next . Since paid losses continue to grow , claim frequency is showing growth and litigation is becoming more commonplace , insurance companies raise premium to keep up with the outflow of payments . It is important to recognize that claims and operational expenses are paid from the pool of collected policy premium . For a more detailed explanation or financial report from your current carrier , contact your carrier representative to receive a report . Also , data is available as published by the Department of Insurance in most States .

Entry 0253

Question:

Is Renters Insurance Mandatory?

Answer:

That is a great question ! There is no requirement , like auto or health insurances to have to have it , but it is a good idea to have a policy . Your landlord can include the insurance as a requirement to rent to you , however . I always recommend that you get a policy , -LRB- they are not expensive at all -RRB- especially if there is a chance that you could be robbed , or have a neighbor that could cause damage to the building , or your stuff . Unfortunately , that 's just about everybody . Get a policy , okay ? Thanks for asking !

Entry 0254

Question:

How To Purchase Medicare Insurance?

Answer:

Being a broker , I 'd say the best way to buy Medicare is by using a broker . Actually , you 'll get Part A & B from the government . But drug coverage as well as supplemental coverage is purchased separately . I suggest using a broker to purchase any type of insurance for this reason . Insurance is quite involved - and there are a lot of moving parts . You can learn 100 % about Medicare , but probably only 2 % relates to you . The other 98 % is exceptions or situations that do n't relate to you . A broker will ask you a few questions so you only have to deal with the 2 % that relates to you .

Entry 0255

Question:

Who Should Buy Critical Illness Insurance?

Answer:

Critical illness insurance is cancer insurance and a whole lot more . A good major medical plan is essential but many should consider supplementing their health insurance plan with a GOOD health insurance based critical illness plan . Most critical illness plans pay a lump sum cash benefit on first diagnosis of anyone of a dozen or more named conditions .

Entry 0256

Question:

When Is Medicare The Primary?

Answer:

If Medicare is your only form of health insurance , Medicare is always primary . If you have coverage through an employer group health insurance plan Medicare can be primary or secondary . If the employer has 20 or more employees , the plan is primary . If fewer than 20 employees , Medicare is primary .

Entry 0257

Question:

How Do Annuities Pay?

Answer:

Tax deferred fixed annuities pay a guaranteed interest rate for a guaranteed period of time . Interest rates are constantly changing so its important to check with a brokerage annuity companies that display several insurance companies . As of this posting : 5 year rate is 2.85 % , 7 year rate is 3.20 % and 10 year rate is 3.45 % . Also check the insurance company to see if they are filed in your state .

Entry 0258

Question:

Should I Buy Life Insurance When I Am Young?

Answer:

Life insurance is always cheapest now . The exception would be a smoker who quits , then applies a year later . Of course going without insurance for that year carries the risk of dying during that time without providing for your final expenses , or the financial needs of loved ones . Do it now .

Entry 0259

Question:

What Does A Typical Homeowners Insurance Policy Cover?

Answer:

A typical homeowners policy covers damages to or destruction of the residence , other structures on the property , and the personal property of the homeowner . It also includes coverage for the increased cost of living should the building become uninhabitable and miscellaneous coverages . The second major section is liability . In this section the policy covers you if you are sued for bodily injury or property damage . There is also coverage for medical payments should someone be injured on your property .

Entry 0260

Question:

How Much Does Annuities Cost?

Answer:

Annuities cost what you have to contribute to them . If you want to purchase an immediate annuity , you put in a lump sum that then gets paid back to you in period payments . If you purchase a deferred annuity , you make payments that add up inside the contract until you decide to take them out in regular payments back to you .

Entry 0261

Question:

Can Everyone Get Car Insurance?

Answer:

Everyone with a valid drivers license should be able to secure auto insurance with one carrier or another . Since auto insurance policies coverages are established on an individual basis the rates will vary from person to person . Contact a local agent to find out about coverage availability and pricing within your area .

Entry 0262

Question:

Can I Purchase Life Insurance For My Parents?

Answer:

You can purchase life insurance for your parents if they give their permission by signing the application and submitting to any underwriting requirements -LRB- such as exam , if one is required -RRB- . The amount you can get on them will depend on how much income they make , their assets , and any financial relationship you may have with them .

Entry 0263

Question:

Will Annuity Rates Go Up?

Answer:

Annuity Rates are directly tied to the Fed Funds Rate & to 10 Year Treasury Rates . Both of these are at historical lows at the moment . Most financial experts claim that interest rates should rise over the next 5 years . If this happens , Annuity Rates will rise as along with them .

Entry 0264

Question:

Is Mutual Fund Better Than Stock?

Answer:

A mutual fund is a share in an investment company . According to the prospectus it invests the funds using a particular investment strategy . The fund is generally quite diversified reducing the risk of a particular security suffering a great loss . At the same time this diversity dampens the effect of a particular security contained in the fund experiencing enormous gains . The mutually fund is generally viewed as being less volatile and more diversified .

Entry 0265

Question:

Does AAA Have Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

AAA while being best known for its ' auto towing services and for those of us old enough to remember , their tripticket map service , does indeed sell term insurance . However there are many carriers with higher financial ratings that charge less . In fact , I once had a client who worked for AAA but decided on a less expensive policy with better ratings and a lower cost .

Entry 0266

Question:

Does PIP Cover Auto Insurance?

Answer:

PIP is mandatory in some states . PIP stands for Personal Injury Protection and it covers you and or a passenger . You can select full PIP coverage or limited PIP coverage which would just cover a passenger . Most companies offer limits of $ 2,500 or $ 5,000 . States with mandatory PIP coverage Delaware Florida WEBSITE LINK Hawaii Kansas Kentucky Maryland -LRB- unless a waiver is signed at initial purchase of the policy -RRB- Massachusetts Michigan Minnesota New Jersey New York North Dakota Oregon Pennsylvania Texas -LRB- unless a waiver is signed at initial purchase of the policy also known as the exclusion agreement -RRB- Utah Washington -LRB- unless a waiver is signed at initial purchase of the policy -RRB-

Entry 0267

Question:

Can You Take A Loan From Your Life Insurance?

Answer:

Borrowing from a cash value life insurance can give you access to cash value life insurance policy loans of gain . Policy loans incur interest charges and every policy charges differently : zero net cost loans , wash loans , spread loans , direct recognition loans and participation loans . There are rules to withdrawals of basis that govern the first 15 years of a life insurance policy , so be aware of it before withdrawing . Withdrawals of basis may be tax free as are loans provided the contract is kept in force for the life of the insured . You may want to withdraw no cost basis rather than incur a policy loan interest charge .

Entry 0268

Question:

Who Is Eligible For Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

There are similar eligibility requirements for Long Term Care Insurance as there are for Life Insurance . The applicant must meet a certain age requirement -LRB- usually , under 84 years old for LTC insurance -RRB- , must have sufficient income to afford premium payments , and must meet the health guidelines . The health guidelines for Long Term Care insurance do differ from Life Insurance guidelines because LTC insurance is more concerned more about your chances of becoming disabled than it is about your chances of dying . E.g. Someone with polio would have a hard time getting Long Term Care insurance , even if the disease had little effect on their life , whereas that person would have little problem getting Life insurance .

Entry 0269

Question:

What Are Out Of Pocket Expenses Health Insurance?

Answer:

Your out of pocket expenses consist of copays , coinsurance , deductibles . and any other monies that you have to pay yourself . Typically , under the Affordable Care Act legislation , many types of out of pocket expenses are capped or clearly defined . For non-Exchange plans , there may be more expenses that you incur . As a health insurance broker for the last 33 years -LRB- time flies ! -RRB- , this topic is regularly discussed and it 's important to know exactly what the amount will be before you purchase a policy or enroll .

Entry 0270

Question:

How Long To Keep Home Insurance Records?

Answer:

A homeowners policy is a compilation of forms . The declaration pages of the policy state which forms are applicable . The company maintains copies of the declarations and the forms for many years . It is highly unlikely that you would have any difficulty reconstituting a homeowners policy that you had several years ago . Maintaining copies of expired policies is probably not a good use of a storage cabinet .

Entry 0271

Question:

Is Home Insurance Included In Condo Fee?

Answer:

If you are talking about your monthly Condo Association fee , then no it is not . The fee that ou pay each month includes the Association 's coverage on the complex 's buildings . As a Condo Unit Owner , you should or may be required to obtain a Condominium Unit Owner 's Insurance policy to protect your interest in the property , your personal belongings and liability exposures . This would be paid separately by you to your insurance company .

Entry 0272

Question:

Why Start A Retirement Plan?

Answer:

A retirement plan is fundamentally a disciplined deposit into an account for your future lifestyle in your golden years . It 's a process of paying yourself first . Every paycheck you receive should contribute some portion to that fund . Over the years the power of compounding could be significant in a qualified tax deferred retirement plan .

Entry 0273

Question:

Can I Claim For A Lost Phone On My Home Insurance?

Answer:

You probably could , but remember the coverage is typically very limited and may be subject to your policy deductible . Under these circumstances you deductible would typically be more than the value of the phone so it would not be worth while to turn in a claim for the missing phone . Please remember every policy is different . Read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and any exclusions that may be contained within .

Entry 0274

Question:

What Is Needed To Get Renters Insurance?

Answer:

To get renters insurance you will have to provide some information about the premise that you are renting , decide the amount of coverage that you are seeking , decide the amount of deductible that you are comfortable with , and have a payment method for the required initial premium payment at minimum . Contact a local agent and they can provide you with the coverage options available to you .

Entry 0275

Question:

What Feature Is Unique To Annuities?

Answer:

The key features unique to Annuities are : # 1 interest earned is not taxed throughout the accumulation period . # 2 . Distributions are fully guaranteed and have multiple options such as period certain , lifetime of the annuitant among others # 3 . Unlike qualified plans such as an IRA , an annuity owner can also chose to not take distributions and let the funds in the annuity pass directly to their beneficiary . Other products have some of the features of annuities however only annuities combine the features outlined here . .

Entry 0276

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Botox For Migraines?

Answer:

Medicare will , in some cases , cover Botox treatment for migraines and other severe headaches . If all other treatment protocol 's have been attempted and proven unsuccessful , Medicare may pay for your treatment . The claim will need to be carefully documented by your doctor , including a history of past treatment regimen . #GeorgiaMedigapPlanRates #GeorgiaMedicarePlans

Entry 0277

Question:

How To Find Health Insurance Quotes?

Answer:

The best way to find health insurance quotes is through an independent agent . They will be able to save you a lot of time and give you unbiased advice on which plans that would meet your needs . Several independent agents even have websites that you can start by running a health insurance quote online . A good website would show you health insurance plans from several carriers and give you contact information to follow up with an experienced health insurance agent . You can run quotes on our website for health insurance and for Medicare supplement plans . If looking for under age 65 health insurance plans click on `` other " or give us a call .

Entry 0278

Question:

What Employers Must Provide Health Insurance?

Answer:

Most employers with 50 or more full time employees will be required to offer health insurance for their employees in 2014 . Employers can avoid the Obamacare penalty tax by reducing the number of full time employees on the payroll . Some will do so by eliminating jobs altogether while others will reduce hours of their staff .

Entry 0279

Question:

How Much Does Health Insurance Cost For A 20 Year Old?

Answer:

there is no universal answer to your question . The monthly premium for a 20 year old will vary from state to state , vary based upon the health plan design you enroll in , and in the individual market could also be impacted by whether you are a tobacco user . With those caveats , a ballpark estimate in mid-2014 for the monthly premium for a 20 year old non-smoker wouldbe somewhere in the $ 90 's to $ 175 range .

Entry 0280

Question:

What Type Of Water Damage Is Covered By Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Not all ! Accidental discharge of water and its attendant damages is normally covered . This means when there is an accidental discharge of liquids or steam from the plumbing , heating or air-conditionaing the loss is a covered loss . It is very important to understand what is not covered . Flood is one of the most common causes of loss in the US and the homeowner 's policy does not cover it . Water back up such as from a blocked sewer line is not a covered loss -LRB- some companies offer the coverage as an option . -RRB- When there is repeated or continuous seepage or leakage from a system in the house that is not covered .

Entry 0281

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Protect A Landlord?

Answer:

Renters insurance protects the landlord in the sense that it can provide extra liability protection A renters policy is taken out by the renter to cover the renters possessions . It does not cover the dwelling or items owned by the landlord . If however a renter is negligent and someone is injured on the property , the renters insurance will provide protection from lawsuit .

Entry 0282

Question:

Who Should Be Trustee Of Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust?

Answer:

Many family members and professional associates are eligible . Interestingly , I find that the majority of my clients designate a brother or sister as the trustee . That makes sense . After all , people tend to trust a close family member on life-and-death issues . When the insured is no longer around , a trustworthy soul is needed to handle the money . And also to take care of surviving family members . Siblings fit the bill . But it must be emphasized that trustees have a huge responsibility with regards to the policy inside the trust . They really need to make sure that it is audited on a regular basis to confirm it is performing as expected . You know how people sometimes lose track of their life insurance ? How sometimes it doesnt perform according to projections , and additional premium payments are needed ? Or it runs out of cash sooner than expected ? Or the death benefit gets reduced ? Well , if you are the trustee of your brother or sisters life insurance trust , you dont want any of this to happen . You very well could be liable . The insured set up the trust with a strategy designed to provide a certain amount of cash to certain people at certain times . Your job is to make sure the train arrives on schedule . If , for whatever reason , that policy under-performs , the buck could very well stop with you . You do not want that hot potato , both for financial as well as family reasons . You dont want to let the people down whom your sibling trusted you to help . So , if you are the trustee , make sure that policy is audited on a yearly basis , and make any changes that are necessary .

Entry 0283

Question:

What Is The Market Value Of A Car For Insurance Purposes?

Answer:

There is a symbol assigned to every car by make , model and equipment . As the car becomes older the symbol is influenced by the market price . The car symbol is used to compute the premium . A restored or modified car may be more valuable than the stock model . In that case the owner might want to have the insurance written for a stated value

.

Entry 0284

Question:

Can A Spouse With No Income Contribute To A Roth IRA?

Answer:

That is a great question ! But I have to admit that I 'm a bit confused . If the spouse has no income , what is there that they can contribute ? There are also limits set upon the amount that can be contributed , based upon your income . You can not contribute more than your declared income , and if your spouse does n't have one ? You can contribute to theirs , however . Talk to your banker , or Roth administrator , and have them walk you through what you want to do , ok ? Thanks for asking !

Entry 0285

Question:

When Can You Purchase A Medigap Policy?

Answer:

Medigap insurance is another name for med-supplemental insurance one in the same . You can apply three months prior to your 65 th birthday . You must have your card from parts A and B of Medicare to use on the application . You can apply all the way to 3 months after your 65 th birthday . So the total window is 6 months of course its not effective till the day of your birthday .

Entry 0286

Question:

Which Term Life Insurance Is Best?

Answer:

The best life insurance is that which is in force at the death of the life insured . The issue is that term life insurance usually expires before the insured does . So , permanent forms of life insurance are preferred since they can not be outlived the way term usually does . In general , consider whether your protection needs are temporary or indefinite . Temporary or finite needs of less than 30 years can be met by term life insurance for periods such as 10 , 15 , 20 or 30 years . The coverage is surprisingly affordable -LRB- dollars per day -RRB- . When the policy expires , coverage ends . To prevent that , either consider permanent -LRB- cash value -RRB- life insurance now or in the near future to ensure you do not outlive your life insurance . Meet with a life insurance professional who can analyze your situation and recommend exactly what you need .

Entry 0287

Question:

What Is Level Benefit Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

If you have or are considering what you refer to here as a "level benefit" term life insurance policy to meet your needs, then it means that for the life of the term the death benefit will not change. This can be different from what are commonly referred to as "Level Term" policies in that with those, not only does the death benefit remain the same, but so too does your premium for the specific period of time you are purchasing. Commonly you will find these offered at 10, 15, 20 and 30 year terms. Once the policy is in force beyond the level premium term purchased, the premium will then increase each year based upon your attained age.

Entry 0288

Question:

Does Disability Insurance Pay After Age 65?

Answer:

It just depends on the type of disability insurance policy that you have . Some policies have a specific time period to pay benefits such as 2-5-10 or 20 years . Other plans pay until age 65 , 67 or 70 years old . You should find the declaration page located within the first few pages of your policy . Look for the benefit period and that information should be found there .

Entry 0289

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Power Surge Damage?

Answer:

In Connecticut , most Homeowners Insurance policies do cover damage caused by power surge that is itself caused by a covered peril . One good example is damage caused by a lightening strike . Another example can be experienced in the type of winter we had here or as a result of severe tropical storms suffered by many in the past couple of years . If weather of that kind knocks out power for an extended period of time , once restored , if there is surge damage , check with your Insurance Professional to see about coverage .

Entry 0290

Question:

How Much Will My Car Insurance Increase After A DUI?

Answer:

A big part of that answer depends on which company you were insured with beforehand , and how much shopping around you plan to do afterwards . Some companies go harder on DUI 's than other companies . Getting multiple quotes from high risk companies would be the best way to minimize the damage done . An independent agent who specializes in high risk auto insurance would be the ideal place to look .

Entry 0291

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Zostavax Vaccine?

Answer:

Zostavax is a vaccine for herpes zoster -LRB- chicken pox -RRB- . The drug should be administered by your doctor or other trained medical personnel . Your doctor is allowed to bill Medicare for his or her services but can not bill Medicare for the cost of the medication . Some drug stores have people on staff who will administer the drug

Entry 0292

Question:

How Can I Get PPO Health Insurance?

Answer:

PPO is not a type of health insurance . It is an abbreviation for Preferred Provider Organization -LRB- PPO -RRB- which describes the network provider contracting approach associated with whatever health insurance plan you are purchasing . PPO network based health insurance products have dominated the marketplace for many years so it is not unusual for the consumer to blend the two . After January 1 , 2014 you will want to have your health insurance agent check for you , or if you are a `` do it yourselfer `` do some researching online to determine the type of provider network associated with health plans you may be interested in . The traditional features of PPO plan designs have been to have office visit & prescription copayments , lower deductibles , higher co-insurance levels and lower out-of-pocket financial exposure for using in-network PPO providers while still having coverage for voluntary usage of non-network providers at reduced benefit levels . PPO plans are the dominant network arrangement in the current health insurance marketplace . However , changes brought about by the Affordable Care Act -LRB- ObamaCare -RRB- , are causing insurance carriers to re-design their products and this does extend to the design of their provider networks . This is especially true of the health insurance products sold in the government health insurance marketplaces where the consumer may encounter multiple network or sub-network type provider arrangements in this environment . For instance , here in Tennessee , the BC/BS plan offers essentially the same insurance products with pricing based on your choice of 3 different PPO networks at 3 different price points . The larger the PPO provider network you choose the higher the insurance premium associated with the product . In fact , the smallest of the 3 BC/BS network options is offered only in the government marketplace . So , these are words of caution , there are degrees of difference even within what are technically PPO based products these days . Do n't just assume that a provider is going to be in-network with an insurance carrier based upon your past experience . Verify with both the insurance carrier and the doctor 's office that they are a participating provider . Also , especially in the individual health insurance marketplace starting in 2014 , you will want to be aware of the growing move back to Point-of-Service -LRB- POS -RRB- , Health Maintenance Organization -LRB- HMO -RRB- and Accountable Care Organization -LRB- ACO -RRB- based provider delivery systems associated with a growing number of health insurance products . These other variations on the theme apply more stringent guidelines to provider access in a variety of ways -LRB- reduced network sizes , gate keeper referral arrangements , sharply reduced or no out-of-network coverage -RRB- and introduce entirely new considerations for the consumer .

Entry 0293

Question:

When Does Auto Insurance Go Down For Age?

Answer:

Rates are typically know to adjust at ages 18 , 21 , and 25 . Rates are also known to adjust based on credit history and marital status . Please remember every carrier and every policy is different . Every carrier has its own level of risk willing to accept . This will set the premium levels based on the risk they are willing to take on .

Entry 0294

Question:

Who Should Buy Long Term Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Long term disability insurance -LRB- or what is commonly simply referred to as individual disability insurance , or just disability insurance -RRB- is a product that should be purchased by individuals who do not have assets saved to retire . In other words , if you do not have the ability to comfortably generate the income you currently earn with your assets , you should strongly consider buying disability insurance .

Entry 0295

Question:

How To Become A Life Insurance Agent?

Answer:

To become a licensed life insurance agent in your state first go to your state 's website and search for the Department of Insurance or DOI . There you will find your state 's requirements for becoming licensed . There are several variations for meeting your state 's requirements . Usually it will include 30-40 hours of either live classroom training or online training . They include study work to earn a certificate to take your exam usually at a live monitored location in your state . Most states also require a background investigation and or finger prints . All of these fees are usually at your expense . However there are companies that will pay your fees if you look for them . Some states also require you be appointed to an insurance company before your license is issued and others will just issue the license . I recommend shopping companies and agencies while in the process to see who may have the best training program in place to get you started .

Entry 0296

Question:

How Long Does It Take To Get Life Insurance?

Answer:

The time it takes to get life insurance is from a few hours , to a few months . If you apply for a No Exam policy with a company that does not order medical records , the processing time is usually a few days to a few weeks . Some are put into effect shortly after applying via phone interview . If you apply for a policy that requires paramed exam and medical records , the amount of time that it takes to go into effect will depend on how soon you take the exam , and how soon your medical records come in . The underwriter usually waits until everything is in before reviewing your case . If at review time , he or she finds that you had seen another doctor , they might order additional records , which causes further delay . It is helpful to list all the doctors you have seen in the past 5 years on your application , or else even collect medical records yourself , in order to get your policy in effect ASAP .

Entry 0297

Question:

Is Medigap Better Than Advantage?

Answer:

Each type has it 's pros and cons . Medigap plans -LRB- commonly known as Medicare supplement plans -RRB- work with Original Medicare -LRB- Parts A & B -RRB- to fill the `` gaps " that it does n't cover . Original Medicare covers about 80 % of your healthcare expenses . A Medigap plan can cover a portion or all of the other 20 % , depending on which one you get . That 's a BIG pro . You also are n't restricted to networks , you do n't need referrals to see specialists , any doctor that accepts Medicare will accept the Medigap plan , you can apply for a different plan at any point throughout the year -LRB- if you want a different carrier or different benefits -RRB- , and they are guaranteed renewable ! The only con is that it typically costs more than an Advantage plan . Advantage plans can be a lot cheaper , but have more restrictions and limitations than a Medigap plan does . The big attraction with them is the cost factor as the premiums are very cheap and some plans even feature a $ 0 premium - they can also include drug coverage -LRB- you have to buy a stand-alone part D prescription drug plan if you want prescription coverage when you have a Medigap plan -RRB- . Some of the drawbacks are that you can have network restrictions , the plan coverage can change each year , your doctor can choose to no longer accept that specific plan , you 're locked in to that plan for a year and can only change it during the annual enrollment period -LRB- Oct 15-Dec 7 of each year -RRB- or if you qualify for a special enrollment period . Please note , regardless of which type of coverage , you must have both Part A & Part B and continue paying your Part B premiums -LRB- even though Advantage plans work in place of Original Medicare - Medigap plans work with Original Medicare -RRB- .

Entry 0298

Question:

Does The National Guard Provide Health Insurance?

Answer:

Tricare Reserve Select is the optional health insurance for National Guard Soldiers and their families . This coverage is not free , so you will pay a monthly insurance premium , though it will typically be less expensive than it would be to purchase coverage through another employer or on the individual health market .

Entry 0299

Question:

Will Medicare Pay For Nplate?

Answer:

Nplate is a prescription drug so it would not be covered under Original Medicare -LRB- Parts A & B -RRB- - you can use the plan finder tool on the Medicare.gov website to see what prescription plans will cover the medication as well as enroll in a plan -LRB- if an available time to - e.g. having a special enrollment period or it 's the annual enrollment period -RRB- .

Entry 0300

Question:

How Do Medigap Plans Work?

Answer:

Medigap policies serve as a supplement to Original Medicare . Original Medicare is an 80/20 plan , where Medicare pays 80 % of the approved charges . The beneficiary is typically responsible for the 20 % co-insurance as well as co-pays and deductibles that come with Medicare Parts A & B . The Medigap policy is designed to pick up the 20 % Medicare does n't cover in exchange for a monthly premium payable to the carrier selected . The most comprehensive Medigap policy is Plan F , which covers all of the Part A & B deductible , co-insurance and co-pays , so when the beneficiary goes to receive care their is zero out-of-pocket costs . Some plans may also provide benefits like foreign travel as well as a gym membership as part of your regular plan . Please note : when purchasing a Medigap Policy , you need to add a Stand-Alone Prescription Drug Plan to satisfy your requirement as a Medicare Beneficiary to have Part D - Prescription Drug Coverage met .

Entry 0301

Question:

Who Has The Best Medigap Plan?

Answer:

Medigap plans are standardized -LRB- there are 11 options total -RRB- meaning the benefits are EXACTLY the same , regardless of which carrier you purchase it through . Several of the major things to look at when shopping for a Medigap plan are the plan benefits -LRB- e.g. plan F , plan G , plan N , etc. -RRB- , the premium , and the premium rating method -LRB- community rated , attained-age rated , or issue-age rated -RRB- . If you want to have coverage that creates a predictable expense structure throughout the year , you will want to look at a plan F or a plan G . If you 're willing to take on a larger share of the risk of expenses to keep your premium down , you may want to consider a plan Hi-F , or a plan N. Most companies will use the attained-age rated -LRB- rates based on your current age -RRB- system such as Omaha , Anthem , CareFirst , Cigna , Humana , and many others . United Healthcare uses the community-rated -LRB- rates are not based on age -RRB- . There are a few carriers that will use the issue-age rated -LRB- rates based on age when plan is first purchased -RRB- as well such as Everence .

Entry 0302

Question:

What Is A Qualified Retirement Plan Example?

Answer:

There are many qualified retirement plans , but the most recognizable is the defined contribution plan under ERISA -LRB- Employee Retirement Income Security Act 1974 -RRB- called a 401 -LRB- k -RRB- . 410 -LRB- k -RRB- allows tax deductible contributions and tax deferred accumulations . The distributions are taxed as ordinary income and are used as a calculation for Social Security benefit taxation .

Entry 0303

Question:

How Much Homeowners Insurance Do I Need In Minnesota?

Answer:

You need an agent to run a `` Replacement Cost Estimator Tool " with your specific home in mind . This is not information that you can access without an agent . You can see what you are currently insured for on your declaration pages of your policy to give you some idea . However , that information is often old and out of date . If you need more info call me , Brad @ 651.300.0788

Entry 0304

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Ceiling Leaks?

Answer:

An important question to ask is what the ceiling leak sudden and accidental ? For example did a storm blow through causing the ceiling to leak . If this is a case you should have coverage . However if this is a long standing problem due to wear , tear and deterioration most likely you would not be covered . Talk to your local agent to discuss the specifics of your potential loss .

Entry 0305

Question:

Does Car Insurance Cover Hitting A Curb?

Answer:

Car insurance will cover your vehicle if you hit a curb . However , assuming you have collision coverage , a deductible will apply to damages to your vehicle . Typically , the deductible is between $ 100 and $ 500 . Damages to the curb -LRB- which should be nominal -RRB- would be covered under the liability portion of your policy , and more specifically , the `` property damage . " Your policy should easily cover all of the damages . Before filing the claim , it 's wise to check with auto insurance experts such as us , or your local broker .

Entry 0306

Question:

Is Pregnancy Covered By Medicare?

Answer:

I have never seen any exclusion for pregnancy . Most people on Medicare are beyond child bearing years . If a person who is younger and receiving Medicare because of disability gets pregnant the pregnancy would most likely be covered the same as any illness . Under the new PPACA law pregnancy is required to be covered for all female applicants of health insurance .

Entry 0307

Question:

Who Should Own A Life Insurance Policy?

Answer:

The owner of the policy is in control of the policy . The policy is the property of the owner . The owner need not be the insured . The owner can name the beneficiary . The owner need not be a natural person but can be a trust . There are situations where certain portions of the death proceeds can be included in the estate of the deceased for estate tax purposes . To avoid this ownership is often placed with another party or trust . It is also possible that the owner might be required to act when the insured is not capable .

Entry 0308

Question:

How Much Does Health Insurance Cost Employers?

Answer:

This question is nearly impossible to answer with a dollar figure . The cost of a health insurance policy is determined by many factors . Some of those factors are , type of policy , geographic location , number of employess , amount of deductible , medical histories of the employees participating , and many more factors are typically used .

Entry 0309

Question:

When Do You Apply For Medicare Part A?

Answer:

Great question . Normally your Medicare card is sent in the mail 3 months before your 65th birthday . However , sometimes you have to apply and you can do this by visiting you social security office or website . Once you are eligible for Medicare , a broker should be able to help you understand it further as well as help you explore your options .

Entry 0310

Question:

What Qualifies As A Domestic Partner For Health Insurance In Texas?

Answer:

Article I , Section 32 added to the Texas Constitution in 2005 , states , `` Marriage in this state shall consist only of the union of one man and one woman . This state or a political subdivision of this state may not create or recognize any legal status identical or similar to marriage . " However , many companies and government agencies in the state do allow benefits to be extended to same-sex partners of employees . To more precisely address your particular situation , I would recommend consulting the current policies of the company you are interested in receiving benefits from .

Entry 0311

Question:

Does Taking Xanax Affect Life Insurance?

Answer:

Yes , taking Xanax can affect life insurance premiums , but it depends on the reason for the Xanax -LRB- medical diagnosis -RRB- , frequency and dosage , and whether anxiety has a significant effect on one 's quality of life . If the diagnosis is periodic anxiety , using Xanax prn , and the applicant is able to hold down a full time job , the impact on life insurance rates will be slight .

Entry 0312

Question:

Much Life Insurance Does The Army Give You?

Answer:

The Army does not provide life insurance for free , but individuals in the US Armed Forces are automatically enrolled in a low cost group plan with a face amount of $ 400,000 per member . You can choose to opt out of this plan altogether , or to reduce it by increments of $ 50,000 .

Entry 0313

Question:

Why Get Medigap?

Answer:

Medigap is a Medicare supplement that can help pay some of the health care costs that original Medicare does n't cover , like copayments , coinsurance , and deductibles . It also covers medical care for some travel outside the US . If you have an Medicare Advantage Plan , you would not want to get Medigap .

Entry 0314

Question:

Can I Rent A Car Without Insurance?

Answer:

Mark has given you a good answer which I would like to expand upon . Always share where you are going with your agent. Even if your policy extends to temporary use of a substitute vehicles , -LRB- which many policies do -RRB- . Be sure your agent understands where you expect to rent . Most auto policies in the US have geographical limitations too . Note most policies in the US extend use and coverage into Canada . Note it does not say US , Canada and Mexico . The reason it does not , is that you have to buy your legal liability coverage from a Mexican insurer either as you cross the border or from agents who can legally sell that coverage . If you are traveling and renting a car in multiple countries I suggest you ask your agent for more information on umbrella policies which typically have some coverage world wide , but even then be sure your agent has reviewed your itinerary before you land in another country. IF you get there and have an umbrella , it is best to at least buy the minimum coverage available in the country while you visit . Keep this advice : do n't ignore the locals .

Entry 0315

Question:

Is Renters Insurance A Requirement?

Answer:

Generally speaking , renters insurance is not a requirement by law however , the apartment or home you are renting , the landlord can make this a requirement in order to lease or rent . It is a good idea anyway . The cost is inexpensive but the coverage may be critical . Be sure to look at the type of insurance you are purchasing . I recommend a policy that will provide you the replacement value versus the current value of your stuff . Keep a good inventory as well .

Entry 0316

Question:

Which Modifications Affect Car Insurance?

Answer:

If you are adding any special features to your vehicle that increase its value , or add items that enhance performance , you will generally see some form of an increase to cover the added amount of value . For example , if your vehicle has custom $ 5,000 rims and a $ 3,000 after-market stereo system , and if you want it to be covered in the even of a loss , you would need to report these special features to your insurance company . This will in-turn increase your premium the appropriate amount to cover the special features . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0317

Question:

Can A Power Of Attorney Change The Life Insurance Beneficiary?

Answer:

The power of attorney documentation will outline the financial authority or limitations the designated person assigned to act on behalf of the incapacitated can exercise . The life Insurance company will review the power of authority document for its language to verify whether or not the power of attorney gives the authority to make the change in policy ownership .

Entry 0318

Question:

Does Medicare Pay For Physical Therapy?

Answer:

Physical therapy is covered under Medicare Part B, but there are cap limits for therapy services - $ 1,920 for physical therapy -LRB- cap for services combined with speech-language therapy -RRB-. If the services are deemed medically necessary -LRB- and documented -RRB- by your therapist, you would not be responsible for costs above the $ 1,920 cap. If you're getting physical therapy services that are not medically necessary, then Medicare will not pay for the services. Medicare would be paying for approximately 80 % of the costs and you would be responsible for the other 20 %, after the Part B deductible -LRB- $ 147 in 2014 -RRB-. A Medicare supplement -LRB- Medigap -RRB- plan can help pay the Part B deductible and the 20 % costs for physical therapy services.

Entry 0319

Question:

How Much Critical Illness Insurance Do I Need?

Answer:

The best way to answer this is to first determine what you are wanting to cover . For example , are you looking for paying the mortgage with this benefit and for how long ? Do you need to replace income , and for how long ? You get the idea . You can get up to $ 500,000 of coverage generally speaking if you have the budget for it . Neil makes a great point about bankruptcies . Those are accurate statistics .

Entry 0320

Question:

Does Medicare Have A Deductible?

Answer:

Medicare does indeed have a deductible . Medicare Part A , the hospital portion , in 2013 the Part A deductible is $ 1184 per benefit period to use Medicare jargon . In essence it is a per hospital admission deductible . Medicare Part B has an annual deductible of $ 147 in 2013 . After you satisfy the deductible Medicare pays 80 % you pay the remaining 20 % .

Entry 0321

Question:

Does It Cost To Switch Auto Insurance?

Answer:

You should not encounter any fees to switch your auto insurance in most if not all States . You may find that some States have different ways of calculating the premium that should be returned to you for the unused period of the policy , after you switch carriers . This is based on the actual date that the policy is voluntarily cancelled by you . Any insurance agent handling private passenger auto lines should be able to explain this to you in one phone call .

Entry 0322

Question:

Can I Get Health Insurance Without A Physical?

Answer:

Yes . Health insurance under the new Affordable Care Act is , in short , guaranteed issue - meaning carriers can not decline you for any pre-existing condition or health-related illness . There are no physicals required to secure an individual health insurance policy . To review available health plans in your area , talk to an independent agent/broker . If you 'd like some assistance , send me a message using the `` contact me " button

Entry 0323

Question:

Does Medicare Part B Cover Remicade?

Answer:

Remicade is used to treat auto-immune disease such as Crohn 's . Remicade is administered by infusion , normally in a doctor 's office or clinic . Original Medicare Part B will cover Remicade when administered in a doctor 's office or other approved clinic or facility . In home infusion therapy is normally not covered by Medicare .

Entry 0324

Question:

How Do You Get The Best Life Insurance Quotes?

Answer:

How do you get the best insurance rates ? Well , be in the best possible health you can be . Your price you pay for life insurance is simply related to your overall health and health history . Insurance companies create rate classes in which they lay out exactly what health requirements are needed for the insured to get that price . Where you fall into a class health wise , determines your price .

Entry 0325

Question:

How Are Annuities Secured?

Answer:

Annuities are secured by the financial strength of the Insurance Company that issued them . So when considering an annuity it is very important to look at the financial ratings of the company your considering . But , Insurance Companies are required to invest enough of their money into safe stable investments -LRB- mostly US Treasuries & AAA Bonds -RRB- , so that they are able to cover any guarantees they have promised in an Insurance Contract . This gives an Annuity an incredible amount of security .

Entry 0326

Question:

Is Medicare Considered Welfare?

Answer:

No , Medicare is not considered welfare . When most people are talking about welfare , they are talking about food stamps , Medicaid , unemployment benefits , housing assistance , child care assistance , etc. . Medicare recipients have paid Social Security taxes for at least 10 years in order to receive health care coverage through Medicare .

Entry 0327

Question:

Can I Cash Out My Retirement Plan?

Answer:

You can cash out your retirement plan if you are vested and have access to the funds . But it may not be a very good idea , considering tax and other consequences . Consult an experienced financial planner -LRB- not a part-time worker , a media-related person or someone with no references -RRB- . He/she will review your best options .

Entry 0328

Question:

What Does PPO Mean On Health Insurance?

Answer:

Most health insurance plans have provider networks that include doctors , labs , clinics , hospitals , pharmacy 's , etc. . When you use the services of a par provider -LRB- one that is in the network -RRB- your costs are lower than they would be if you used a non-par provider . PPO -LRB- Preferred Provider Network -RRB- is a common type of provider network .

Entry 0329

Question:

What Is Renters Insurance Used For?

Answer:

Renters insurance provide liability protection and personal property protection for the insured in the event of a covered loss . It can also provide some loss of use coverage that will provide funds so that you can find another place to live in the event of a total loss . If you would like to know all of the coverages and exclusions with renters insurance contact a local agent . This is coverage no one should be without if they are renting .

Entry 0330

Question:

I need life insurance but I'm prescribed Suboxone for pain medication addiction from surgery..can I get a policy for $100,000?

Answer:

Pain medication does not necessarily decline you . It 's very possible to get coverage . The risk classification is what determines the rates . You can be approved , but it may be at a standard or substandard risk class for the condition the pain medication was being used for in combination with the pain med addiction . The concerns carriers would have is whether the drug is being abused , how much is being taken , and why it was being taken in the first place . As you 're still under the treatment process of getting off of the pain medications , then you may want to consider securing a term insurance policy now and then review the coverage after the treatment has been completed to see whether you can be rewritten with a lower premium . Typically , insurance companies want to see a period of stability -LRB- e.g. 2 years , 3 years , etc. , varying by company -RRB- as the more time that passes without a relapse the less likely it is to happen - which in turn means the less risk to the carrier and a more favorable risk classification -LRB- meaning lower rates -RRB- . Also , you noted `` after survey " which I assume was supposed to read `` after serving " as in military service . If so , a number of other factors would also be considered during underwriting regarding service history , such as are you still an active member , scheduled to travel outside the country , where you travel to , and related items . What you should do before applying for any coverage , is to shop the case through an independent agent who can compare multiple companies for you to find out who will work most favorably with your medical history - there is no cost to doing so . Every carrier has their own underwriting guidelines so some companies may be able to offer a more favorable risk class than others for you . Determining the risk class you may qualify for with carriers is the most important factor in determining what the rates would be . The risk class directly determines the premiums for a policy 's coverage amount and benefit guarantee period . If you 'd like some help gathering the most accurate quotes and securing the coverage at the lowest cost , please send me an e-mail via the contact me button next to my name with your name and contact information to reach you at . I hope the information is helpful - thanks very much .

Entry 0331

Question:

Do Car Insurance Companies Charge More If You Have Kids?

Answer:

In California there are a limited number of rating factors and the number of children isnt a rating factor . In California rating is based upon the age , experience and driving record of all the drivers in the household . It takes into consideration the year make and model of the vehicle and the number of miles the vehicle will be used in a year . Lastly it considers where the vehicle is located .

Entry 0332

Question:

When Did Part D Of Medicare Begin?

Answer:

The first Medicare Part D open enrollment period began Nov 15 , 2005 and ended May 15 , 2006 . Part D of Medicare , also called the Medicare Prescription Drug Benefit , went into effect on Jan 1 , 2006 . You yourself can join Medicare Part D from three months before your 65th birthday .

Entry 0333

Question:

Will A Health Insurance Exchange Hurt Small Businesses?

Answer:

This is a somewhat subjective question . There is debate in both directions on whether or not the exchange will hurt small businesses . For most cases , the exchange will likely increase the cost of offering health insurance , and based on this increase in expense , one could argue that this increase could hurt small businesses .

Entry 0334

Question:

Who Does My Life Insurance Go To?

Answer:

You select who your life insurance goes to . That person is called the beneficiary . When you insure your life , you choose who you want the death benefit of your life insurance policy to go to . The primary beneficiary or beneficiaries are first , then if they are not alive , the contingent beneficiary or beneficiaries will receive your life insurance proceeds .

Entry 0335

Question:

Is Variable Annuity A Good Investment?

Answer:

Product suitability for each client is important . You need to establish a personal financial profile that includes a risk tolerance assessment , your financial goals and a life expectancy review . A non-qualified variable annuity is a security and an insurance product that accumulates tax deferred with a guaranteed interest rate account and separate sub accounts with using equities and bonds . Variable annuities are generally expensive , so the value proposition has been called into question by many advisers . The inventory of variable annuities is significant and you may want to review the Morning Star reports on any variable annuity you may be considering . Variable annuities can lose money , so make sure your risk tolerance fits the product .

Entry 0336

Question:

Do Insurance Companies Look At Psychiatric Records?

Answer:

In respect to life insurance , underwriters are most concerned with conditions that impair or prevent a potential insured from completing daily tasks , interactions and living . In the event that your answers to the medical questionnaire on insurance application , attending physician statement & records or results from a insurance exam indicate that you are being treated through therapy or medication , the underwriters will first seek clarification through your agent . Depending on the severity of the condition , the course of treatment and time elapsed since last episode or event related to your condition , the underwriter may not have much concern and thus not require additional information . Simply put mild conditions such as mild depression , anxiety or stress treated by counseling and low dose medicine may not require deep underwriting depending on the age of the insured and history of condition . More significant conditions , for example schizophrenia , treated with significant medication and therapy , will require additional records from treating physicians to ensure that the insured fits within their risk parameters . In your case , grief counseling can sound ambiguous ; if it were for the loss of a loved one , the absence of whom is not preventing your daily living , it should not require additional review . If the on the other hand , it is being used to cope with another traumatic event , additional questions or requests may be posed by the underwriters . A letter from your treating psychiatrist highlighting your improvements from treatment will help mitigate the need for additional information . In order to ensure that you get the best underwriting class , I suggest that you work with an independent agent that works with multiple carriers as different carriers each have their own points of view on various health issues . Additionally , question your insurance agent ! Ask them what experience , if any , have they had with placing business on clients such as yourself . At the end of the day , the most experienced agents will get the best underwriting results for their clients with the least disruption and scrutiny of one 's private issues . Please feel free to contact me to discuss your facts in order to give you more accurate information .

Entry 0337

Question:

Does Medicare Change From State To State?

Answer:

Original Medicare is a national program administered by insurance carriers and TPA 's that contract with the federal government to pay claims . As a national program , your original Medicare coverage is identical in every state . The same is true for Medicare supplement plans . All Medigap plans have standardized benefits as determined by CMS . Advantage plans vary by state and even within a state .

Entry 0338

Question:

Is Life Insurance Portable?

Answer:

If you purchase a life insurance policy on your own -LRB- outside what your employer offers -RRB- , it is always portable . You can move across the country , or to another country , and as long as it was bought with full disclosure , it will pay the death benefit if you pass away .

Entry 0339

Question:

Can You Backdate Auto Insurance?

Answer:

That is a great question ! The answer will depend upon why it is being backdated . There are very few reasons why an insurer will backdate , and the most common is to keep an age based rate lower for you . They are typically really reluctant to backdate , for fear of unclaimed damage suddenly being claimed . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0340

Question:

How Much Does Gerber Life Insurance Cost?

Answer:

Gerber Life Insurance premiums are priced according to age and amount of coverage provided you can qualify based on the non-medical underwriting questions . As in all purchases , it makes sense to check the premium cost of other carriers as well . Gerber may or may not be the least expensive based on your particular needs , health and age .

Entry 0341

Question:

Who Pays Renters Insurance?

Answer:

As is the case with most insurance , the insured is the person who pays the premium for renters insurance under most conditions . It could be an interested , benevolent , third person , however , that would not be normal . Under most circumstances it wouldnt be the landlord , unless he is using a renters policy as an inducement to lease the property .

Entry 0342

Question:

When Should I Purchase Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

You should purchase Long Term Care Insurance when you can still qualify for it . The underwriting is stricter , in some ways , than Life Insurance , so it is best to buy your policy before age related health conditions start to creep up on you . Also , rates are lower when you purchase your policy before age 60 .

Entry 0343

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Go Up With Renters?

Answer:

Generally speaking , when you have renters at your house , your place is at a higher risk than if it 's just you living there . That higher risk means that your rates will likely be higher . Those additional risks are not just damage , like fire or water backup , but theft and additional liability . Every company assesses rates and charges differently , so you 'll want to chat with your agent about your needs . That said , if your rates do go up because of your renters , it will be minimal and covered by the rent your tenants pay . Feel free to reach out to us with any questions : insuranceeddie.com . Thank you .

Entry 0344

Question:

Does Warren Buffet Own Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

As a Nebraska native who knows people with Buffet 's stock , and who are invited to the stockholders ' meeting each year , I can say that Warren Buffet keeps his own personal finances personal . My speculation is that he has enough holdings to liquidate that he could get by without Long Term Care Insurance . But since he owns many insurance companies , he may have LITCI . Maybe he will respond .

Entry 0345

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Viagra Cialis?

Answer:

Medicare does not pay for Viagra , Cialis , Levitra or other erectile dysfunction drugs . They are not covered in Part B Medicare and excluded by Part D Medicare Drug Plans . The coverage ended in 2006 , when Congress determined them `` lifestyle " drugs instead of medically necessary drugs . Since then , penile vacuum pumps , or , if those are ineffective , implanted penile inflation devices , are the only treatments for erectile dysfunction that are covered by Medicare .

Entry 0346

Question:

Can You Get Health Insurance With Bad Credit?

Answer:

You can get health insurance with bad credit , good credit or no credit . When a medical plan is underwritten , there are no questions about credit , and it does not impact your rate . You may also be eligible for a federal tax subsidy on Exchange plans that could substantially reduce your premiums .

Entry 0347

Question:

How To Register For Medicare At 65?

Answer:

To register for Medicare at age 65 , you can go to your local Social Security office , sign up online at WEBSITELINK , or call1-800-772-1213 . You should register in the three months before or after the month of your 65th birthday , or the month of your 65th birthday . If you are receiving Social Security benefits at age 65 , you will automatically be enrolled in Medicare Part A and B .

Entry 0348

Question:

Why Would I Want Whole Life Insurance?

Answer:

Whole Life Insurance is a wonderful thing ! There are so many good reasons to want to have whole life insurance and some of the vary basic reasons are stated by my colleagues above here . Whole Life creates an estate to be passed on to a beneficiary . It does n't expire before you die and the death benefit is paid to your beneficiary tax-free . Whole Life accumulates cash value at a guaranteed rate with no down side risk . And if you buy a policy from a strong Mutual company you get paid dividends on top of the guaranteed interest . Both of these features are like buying money at a discount ! What 's not to want about that ?

Entry 0349

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Central Air?

Answer:

If the air conditioner is damaged by a covered peril then it may be covered under your homeowners insurance . If it simply breaks down then it is not . For example , lightning strikes your air conditioner , a tree falls on it , a fire destroys it , there is coverage . Your child decides to put a stick in the running fan and damages it or it simply stops working due to age or normal wear and tear , there is no coverage .

Entry 0350

Question:

Is Zostavax Covered By Medicare?

Answer:

It will depend on the prescription drug plan you are in . Medicare only covers certain injectable , chemotherapy drugs under Part B . The best way to find out which plan covers your drugs is to go to Medicare.Gov and look under find Medicare Plans . If you have a problem doing this a good agent can help walk you through the process or look them up for you . If you have a prescription drug plan , you should have received a copy of their formulary . If not go on the company website and you can usually find out that way , or call the customer service number on the back of your card .

Entry 0351

Question:

When Does Health Insurance End?

Answer:

If you are talking about the open enrollment period then it ends on March 31st of this year for ACA plans unless there is a special circumstance like losing group coverage or coming off of COBRA . Now , if you miss the open enrollment period either by accident or by design you can purchase alternative plans that are much like the traditional and more affordable plans from the past . If you any further questions or need additional information on alternative plans please contact Ronald G Hinch at 843-450-9879 .

Entry 0352

Question:

Is Auto Insurance Unconstitutional?

Answer:

It isnt unconstitutional for people facing perils to band together and protect themselves . If it was the pioneers would have never been allowed to build forts to protect their families . It isnt unconstitutional for companies to be formed to issue insurance policies . Some of the strongest financial institutions in the United States are insurance companies . To some insurance might have the appearance of gambling which is illegal in some states . The Supreme Court has ruled several times that the activities of insurance companies are constitutional .

Entry 0353

Question:

Where Can I Get Medigap Insurance?

Answer:

You can buy Medigap from a carrier , through the Medicare `` hotline " , from an agent that comes to your home or you can buy from an agent over the phone and internet . If you buy from a carrier or through Medicare you are giving up personal service . Any questions will be handled by whoever answers the phone . If you do n't mind strangers in your home , you can invite one -LRB- or more -RRB- agents to come to your home and pitch you on the various plans . I have conducted business by phone and internet for almost 20 years . Most folks like to shop in the comfort of their home and the ability to make a decision in their own time frame . Over 400 clients ca n't be all wrong .

Entry 0354

Question:

How Many Life Insurance Agents Are There In The Us?

Answer:

According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics -LRB- BLS -RRB- in 2010 , which is the most updated information presently available , there were 411,500 insurance agents in the United States . The Bureau projects that over the next 10 year period , employment of insurance agents will grow at about 22 % , which is faster than average for other industries .

Entry 0355

Question:

When Will Medicare Run Out Of Funds?

Answer:

Like everything else , it depends on who you believe . Some projections say Medicare will run out of money in 2024 while others say it will happen as soon as 2016 . Here are facts . Every year since 2008 Medicare has spent more money than they have in the `` trust fund " . They ca n't keep this up forever .

Entry 0356

Question:

How Would You Find Out Who Is The Fiduciary Of Your Retirement Plan?

Answer:

Assuming youre not addressing individual retirement plans like IRAs and SEPs , your annual statement should include your 408 -LRB- b -RRB- -LRB- 2 -RRB- fees -LRB- including admin fees -RRB- and you compliance statement 404 -LRB- c -RRB- which should cite your administrator who has fiduciary responsibilities for your plan . You also should be able to find out who is the fiduciary of your plan through your companys human resource department

Entry 0357

Question:

What Is The Best Life Insurance In Michigan?

Answer:

The best life insurance in Michigan depends on the person applying for it . There are some companies that specialize in life insurance for people with health conditions such as diabetes or MS. There are others that have very good rates for those who are overweight or obese . Some have great prices for Term while others offer exceptional Permanent products . To find the best life insurance for you , go to a website that offers life insurance in Michigan and give them your details . By shopping from multiple companies you will have your best chance at finding your best rate .

Entry 0358

Question:

Is travel insurance worth the money?

Answer:

To determine the value of a travel insurance policy review the coverage that you currently have . Some people have coverage that extends to the locality where they live , or the state in which they reside . Coverage outside of that specified area can be highly limited . The issue becomes more severe with most plans when you travel overseas . If your current coverage is inadequate to cover potential difficulties secure a travel insurance policy . Personally , I travel overseas frequently and never purchase travel insurance .

Entry 0359

Question:

What Are Some Good Auto Insurance Companies?

Answer:

Some good auto insurance companies are State Farm , Allstate , Farmers , Geico , Esurance , Progressive , Liberty Mutual and Safe Auto . As experienced brokers , we represent all carriers and shop for our clients to ensure they get the best rate at all times . Each carrier has different underwriting guidelines , so it 's important to shop the proper way .

Entry 0360

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Chimney Damage?

Answer:

A chimney is part of a house . The company knows that your house has a chimney . If the chimney is damaged by a specified peril -LRB- i.e. windstorm -RRB- you can expect coverage . The recovery will be reduced by the deductible . Damage that is the result of wear and tear will not be covered ; it must be a specified peril as named in your policy .

Entry 0361

Question:

What Does Medical Coverage On An Auto Insurance Policy Cover?

Answer:

In Illinois , medical coverage on an auto policy will cover expenses for just about any kind of auto related injury , whether or not it occurred in the insured auto . For example , injuries incurred if you are struck as a pedestrian or while riding a bicycle would be covered . As always , it is best to check with your insurance professional .

Entry 0362

Question:

Where Did Health Insurance Come From?

Answer:

In the 1920 's changes occurred that tended to increase the role that medicine played in people 's lives and to shift the focus of treatment from homes to hospitals . These changes caused the price of medical care to rise because of : Advances in medical technology Growing acceptance of medicine as a science Development of hospitals as treatment centers Encouragement for sick people to visit physicians and hospitals . Licensing and standards of care In 1929 two doctors Ross and Loos formed Ross Loos Clinic to provide medical care for 2,000 employees of the water department of Los Angeles for $ 1 per month per employee . Ross Loos grew to 29 locations in LA to provide medical care for city employees at a fixed cost per month whether they visited the doctor or not . The precursor to Blue Cross was founded in 1929 by a group of Dallas teachers who contracted with Baylor University Hospital to provide 21 days of hospitalization for a fixed $ 6.00 payment . The Baylor plan developed as a way to ensure that people paid their bills . 1930-1940 : The Birth of Blue Cross and Blue Shield Pre-paid hospital service plans grew over the course of the Great Depression . Pre-paid hospital care was mutually advantageous to both subscribers and hospitals during the early 1930s , when consumers and hospitals suffered from falling incomes . Prepayment plans seeking the Blue Cross designation had to provide subscribers with free choice of physician and hospital , a requirement that eliminated single-hospital plans from consideration . Despite the success of Blue Cross and pre-paid hospitalization policies , physicians were much slower in providing pre-paid care . Blue Cross and Blue Shield developed separately , with little coordination between them . Physicians worried that a third-party system of payment would lower their incomes by interfering with the physician-patient relationship and restricting the ability of physicians to price discriminate . In the 1930s , physicians were faced with two situations that spurred them to develop their own pre-paid plans . Blue Cross plans were becoming popular , and some physicians feared that hospitals would move into the realm of providing insurance for physician services , thus limiting physician autonomy . Advocates of compulsory health insurance looked to the emerging social security legislation as a logical means of providing national health care . Physicians began to organize a framework for pre-paid plans that covered physician services . In 1939 , the California Physicians ' Service -LRB- CPS -RRB- began to operate as the first prepayment plan designed to cover physicians ' services . Open to employees earning less than $ 3,000 annually CPS provided physicians ' services to employee groups for the fee of $ 1.70 per month for employees . The AMA encouraged state and local medical societies to form their own prepayment plans . These physician-sponsored plans ultimately affiliated and became known as Blue Shield in 1946 . Blue Shield plans offered medical and surgical benefits for hospitalized members . Doctors charged patients who were subscribers to Blue Shield the difference between their actual charges and the amount for which they were reimbursed by Blue Shield . That is where health insurance began

Entry 0363

Question:

Does My Auto Insurance Cover Roadside Assistance?

Answer:

Some policies may cover towing if you have full coverage . It is not designed to take the place of an auto club however . I generally recommend using an auto club for towing and roadside assistance . Remember , any time you turn in a claim of any sort the company will look at your loss experience with the company .

Entry 0364

Question:

How Do Roth IRA Contributions Affect Taxes?

Answer:

That is a great question ! I love Roth IRA 's , I believe that they are an excellent part of a solid retirement plan . Since you are making your annual contributions on an after-tax basis , there are no tax consequences , unless you exceed the contribution limits . The money when it is finally available to be withdrawn , is tax free , and that is what makes this such a great deal . I hope that helps , thanks for asking !

Entry 0365

Question:

What Is Key Person Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Traditional Key Man Disability Insurance is a form of Short Term Disability Insurance that is used to cover key -LRB- hard to replace , executives , top salespeople , etc -RRB- employees in a business . The business is the beneficiary . The income paid to the business when the key person is disabled helps the business to operate until the employee is back on their feet , or gives them the funds to find a replacement .

Entry 0366

Question:

How Much Is Disability Income Insurance?

Answer:

Disability Income Insurance evaluates health factors , so the cost of the policy will depend on how the applicant is rated health wise . If a nonsmoker who is of normal weight and has no health history , Preferred ratings can be given . The price also depends on the risk of the occupation , how much income the applicant makes -LRB- and how much of that income they want to replace in case of disability -RRB- , and what bells and whistles they want on their policy . For a 40 year old male office worker who makes $ 60,000 per year , the price can be as good as $ 50 per month for a plan that will last to age 65 .

Entry 0367

Question:

When Does Your Car Insurance Go Down?

Answer:

In California car insurance premiums decline as you become a more experienced driver . They decline if you elect to forgo certain coverages . They decline when you get farther away from your bad driving record . They go down if a student in your household is a good student . They go down when you drive fewer miles annually .

Entry 0368

Question:

Where To Purchase Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

Term life insurance is available for sale through a number of channels , including online . On the surface deciding what term insurance to choose appears to be simple , who has the best initial price . In addition to determining the amount of insurance needed , there are a few more things to think about . What do the renewal premiums look like ? How long do I need the coverage ? Am I going to want to convert this to level premium permanent insurance ? What conversion options are available ? If the quote is annual , how do the monthly premiums compare ? And more . An independent insurance broker , who represents several companies , can help you find the right product at the right price . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me . If you would like to work with a local life insurance broker , you could start with a Google search . For example , if you search for : life insurance broker Halifax or life insurance agent Halifax , my name , along with several others , will come up . You can use the same method to find a life insurance broker in your community .

Entry 0369

Question:

How Much Does A Life Insurance License Cost?

Answer:

It varies based on the state in which you reside . If you are considering becoming a life insurance agent , you should call your state 's insurance department , or go to their website . It will also depend on the lines of insurance your license will cover . In addition to the initial licensing fees by line of insurance , there may be related fees e.g. insurance exam and other costs paid to third-parties associated with the pre-licensing requirements .

Entry 0370

Question:

Where Can I Get The Cheapest Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

The Cheapest Homeowners Insurance is a summary of a complicated process . Insurance carriers either hire actuaries or contract with an actuarial firm to review statistics , assess risk and therefore assign a premium charge to risk . This complicated process translates to premium charged for home insurance . As a result of the above , carriers may have a lower -LRB- cheaper -RRB- premium in one area or in one size class of homes but then a higher premium in another ! An insurance professional that understands the complete process should be able to explain exactly how this cumbersome but necessary process works . In addition , insurance carriers all use a slightly different process in calculating the Replacement Value of Construction on each home , this calculation is the Dwelling Coverage assessed to rebuild the home in the event of a covered total loss . You may find cases where the ` cheapest ' -LRB- price per thousand -RRB- insurance company may use a higher reconstruction value thereby complicating your process of finding the cheapest insurance premium . If one is determined to find the cheapest insurance , it would be recommended to obtain quotes from several companies and compare the details . After answering all the characteristics related questions and other underwriting questions , there will be one further and critical issue after issuance of the policy : each company will send an independent inspector to take photos , take measurements and report any obvious hazards to the underwriter . The inspection process is a necessary step paid for by the insurance company ; it is a final check to assure that the risk has not been misrepresented in any way thus causing the carrier to take on adverse risk . Some carriers request only a drive by/exterior inspection and some carriers request a full inspection which will require making an appointment with the homeowner . If following the inspection , there are any unacceptable underwriting hazards that were found , the underwriter will send out an advisory notice and if necessary a cancellation notice which may or may not include the possibility for corrective action . On another point , if the inspector finds that the home is customized , some carriers require inspectors to produce an updated reconstruction cost estimator which will accordingly increase the dwelling coverage amount on the original policy thus raising the original premium . In summary , a homeowner should speak to an insurance professional , openly explain each and every concern and allow the professional to explain the process specific to the risk . There is a link available providing an online format to obtain a quote and buy home insurance online in multiple States ; may be used by Escrow/Closing Professionals , Mortgage Professionals , Real Estate Agents and directly by Consumers . An exemplary online experience for all ! WEBSITELINK

Entry 0371

Question:

Can An Employer Offer Health Insurance To Some And Not Others?

Answer:

Yes , in some cases . It is possible for an employer to legally offer health insurance to some employees and not others using employment-based classifications . Two common ones are full-time versus part-time and salaried versus hourly . The key legal criteria , though , is that all employees within the same employment classification must be treated consistently . For example , it would be illegal to offer health coverage to some full-time hourly workers but not all full-time workers .

Entry 0372

Question:

What Is The Benefit Of Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Renters insurance is for renters of homes and apartments as house insurance is for those who own the house . Renters insurance protects YOUR property if there is a loss from say a fire . The biggest issue is what kind of policy you have . Does your insurance give you replacement cost or just current value . There is a big difference . Think about what you stuff costs today versus purchasing brand new .

Entry 0373

Question:

Does USAA Sell Disability Insurance?

Answer:

While USAA offers a very large roster of insurance products , USAA does not sell Disability Insurance . To get Disability Insurance , you can contact a Life Insurance agency that sells Disability Insurance either in a brick and mortar office or on the internet , or locate a disability insurance broker locally or online .

Entry 0374

Question:

Can Life Insurance Go Into Probate?

Answer:

Life Insurance will usually avoid probate as long as the funds are left to a named beneficiary . If the proceeds are left to the Estate then the funds will go into Probate . This is why it is important to review your policies every couple years . I have seen incidences where the beneficiary passed on before the insured . The beneficiary was not changed therefor the funds went to the estate thus probate was involved .

Entry 0375

Question:

Will Businesses Have To Provide Health Insurance?

Answer:

Business ' with 51 or more full-time employees -LRB- FTE -RRB- are required to offer health insurance benefits that meet the essential benefits requirements and also meet the premium/affordability guidelines set by the government . If the companies do not offer benefits they are subject to harsh tax penalties . Smaller business with 50 or fewer full-time employees are not subject to the rules and can forego coverage without being penalized . Moving forward there will be a shift in small group plans offering defined contribution plans as a way to reduce company costs on health insurance . For more information on group benefits visit www.clminsure.com or call 561-320-2978

Entry 0376

Question:

How Can I Qualify For Disability Insurance?

Answer:

There are two qualification items that you need to address to secure disability insurance protection . The first is health qualification . Your health records and current health condition weigh greatly when applying for disability insurance and can affect the price tag youll pay . Youll receive an underwriting offer from the insurance company . The second is financial justification , where you will need to validate your income or compensation with at least the last two years of tax returns . Once your income is verified you can look at the maximum benefit and make a value proposition decision .

Entry 0377

Question:

When Will Medicare Be Broke?

Answer:

Some say Medicare is already broke while others say the plan is in great shape and will never go away . The never go away part is probably accurate but the rest is pure fantasy . Medicare pays out more in claims than it collects in Medicare taxes and it has been this way for several years now . To me , that pretty much defines broke .

Entry 0378

Question:

What Is FSA In Health Insurance?

Answer:

FSA stands for flexible spending account and are only available with employer-based health plans . In short , it 's an account that uses pre-tax monies that are contributed by the employer and/or insured persons - up to $ 2500 can be contributed per year . The funds can be used to pay for certain out-of-pocket medical expenses including your deductible , copayments , coinsurance , prescriptions , and even over-the-counter medicines -LRB- with a doctor 's prescription -RRB- . If you have any remaining money at the end of the year , the money is lost and the account , in short , resets . Since you lose the funds at the end of the year , you do n't want to contribute more money than you think you will use on health-related expenses . However , employers can -LRB- but are not required to -RRB- offer one of two options : 1 -RRB- provide a grace period of up to 2.5 extra months to use the FSA funds 2 -RRB- allow you to carry over up to $ 500 per year to use in the following year . Please let me know if I can be of further assistance . Thanks very much .

Entry 0379

Question:

When To Use Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Long term care is generally addressed by your adviser when you are around age 50 . But many purchase long term care around age 60 . You want to purchase long term care when you 're healthy , especially if your family has a predisposition to disease or a history of nursing home confinement . When you can no longer perform a number of activities of daily living , you 'll more than likely will file a claim for assisted home living before entering into a nursing home facility . Long term care is a major part of retirement planning .

Entry 0380

Question:

Is A Physical Required For Life Insurance?

Answer:

Most life insurance policies with a face amount over $ 100,000 require a physical , while most policies with a face amount under $ 25,000 do not require a physical . However , there are exceptions to both , and often you have a choice whether or not you want to get a policy that requires a physical exam .

Entry 0381

Question:

Where Can I Buy Homeowners Insurance Online?

Answer:

Homeowners Insurance Online can be purchased online from HDA Insurance Brokerage ; a processor for major National underwriters in all 50 States . There is a link providing an online format to obtain a quote and buy home insurance online in multiple States ; it may be used by Escrow/Closing Professionals , Mortgage Professionals , Real Estate Agents and directly by Consumers . An exemplary online experience for all ! WEBSITELINK

Entry 0382

Question:

What Type Of Life Insurance Can You Borrow From?

Answer:

The type of life insurance you can borrow from is permanent life insurance that has a cash value . This can be Whole Life , Universal Life , Indexed Universal Life or Variable Universal Life . Normally , Term life does not have a cash value , and therefore is not a policy that can be borrowed from . Keep in mind that you may need to wait for a permanent policy to build a cash value before you can borrow from it , and not all cash value accumulation is guaranteed .

Entry 0383

Question:

Does Nebraska Require Auto Insurance?

Answer:

Nebraska does require auto insurance if you own or operate a vehicle . If you could give me a bit more information on your exact question I can help . Even if you do not own a vehicle there are non owner policies to help protect your financial responsibility as an operator of a motor vehicle . Hope this helps Frank

Entry 0384

Question:

Does Auto Insurance Cover Uhaul Rental?

Answer:

If it is a type of Uhaul that you drive then no . But if it is a type of uhaul that you are pulling the liability portion would come from your auto policy but it would not repair the trailer . There are some carriers that will cover the driving type Uhaul under a personal policy depending on how big it is . Many cases they will not . But Uhaul usually has insurance that you can purchase from them which would better for you in the long run in the event of an accident . Talk to an agent who is in your area they should be able to help you with this matter or talk to the uhaul business as I am sure they would have some good recommendations .

Entry 0385

Question:

What Is Extended Coverage Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Different companies and different states have different nomenclature for coverages . What this typically means is limit that coverage extends to another higher limit in the event of a total loss exceeding the Coverage A -LRB- homeowner Dwelling limit -RRB- . If you have a replacement value of say 400,000 on the house , then the maximum that would normally be paid for replacing the house would be \$ 400,000 . But setting the value of replacement is not exact science and is also a moving target . If your home is destroyed by a fire it may be possible to rebuild within that 400,000 limit . But suppose the the city you live in is ripped apart by a tornado . Now there could be escalating costs of material and labor . What the extension does is give you an extension to another limit if needed . The extensions are usually sold in percentage increments such as 25 % ,50 % or even 100 % . So , back to the 400,000 coverage on the house . If 25 % extension then the limit of coverage is increased to a maximum of 500,000 -LRB- $400,000 \times 1.25$ -RRB- I hope that helps . If you live in one of the following states I would be glad to assist you : AZ , CA , MO , TX and GA. -LRB- call 1.866-933-4372 -RRB- otherwise seek out an Independent agent in your area who represents sever companies . Jack Heller , CPCU

Entry 0386

Question:

How Can I Crash My Car To Get Insurance Money?

Answer:

Actually , you can crash your car at any time . But if I were you , I would practice on your own house , garage or perhaps a basketball hoop in your yard . Why ? Because , you do n't want to deliberately hit another car or property , or else you could have a major legal problem . Of course , I am not advocating you crash into anything . Insurance money is paid for legitimate claims and not deliberate damage .

Entry 0387

Question:

What Is The Best Type Of Life Insurance To Purchase?

Answer:

It depends on the need . Term insurance is ideal for short term protection -LRB- e.g. paying off a mortgage or providing income in the event of an early or unexpected death -RRB- . Permanent insurance is ideal for long-term safety net protection , estate planning , retirement planning . Many people buy both types of coverage - some permanent to protect against the future after other debts are paid off and some term to cover time-limited debts -LRB- such as a mortgage , car , etc. -RRB- . Term insurance provides more bang-for-your-buck up front , but it 's only for a short period . Permanent insurance allows you to pay the same premium for the rest of your life without having to worry about it going up in the future . A brief description of the two types of coverage are as follows : Term life insurance guarantees the premiums will remain fixed for a specific number of years -LRB- 10 , 15 , 20 , 25 , or 30 years -RRB- . Once the initial period of premium guarantee expires , the program changes to either annual renewable term insurance with premiums increasing each year -LRB- based on age -RRB- or the premiums remain the same and the death benefit decreases each year -LRB- this structure can be seen on term insurance that is featured on a universal life chassis . There is no cash value build-up in term insurance . Permanent life insurance is designed to provide coverage for the rest of the insured 's life and build cash value . Under a guaranteed universal life -LRB- GUL -RRB- program , the policy can be structured to keep premiums level and provide coverage up to a specified age -LRB- e.g. to age 90 , to age 100 , or even up to age 121 -RRB- under the `` dial down " process . Whole life features level premiums and death benefits and builds cash value at a faster rate -LRB- participating WL policies may pay dividends that can be used to increase the death benefit or decrease the premiums over time - non-participating WL policies do not feature this ability -RRB- - the trade off between this and guaranteed universal life is that to increase the cash value faster , the premiums will generally be substantially higher . For both GUL and WL , the carrier takes back the cash value upon the death of the insured , and pays out the death benefit proceeds . Therefore , GUL policies allow you to maximize your death benefit and minimize your premium dollars that you pay for the coverage . I highly recommend consulting with an independent insurance agent/broker to determine what policy benefit structure will best serve your needs , review quotes , and help you through the application and underwriting processes . You can send me a message by clicking on the `` contact me " button if you would like assistance with your coverage .

Entry 0388

Question:

What Is The Cost Of Medigap Insurance In 2013?

Answer:

Medigap rates vary considerably by zip code , age , tobacco use and plan . The older you are the higher your Medicare supplement rate will be . The exception is for those who are under age 65 and on disability and Medicare . In most states rates for under age 65 are astronomical . Many carriers offer competitive rates from age 65 to 74 . Above age 74 some plans -LRB- surprisingly -RRB- become more competitive while others less so . Tobacco use often adds 20 % to the rate but can be more , depending on the carrier . Plan F is the most expensive -LRB- and most popular -RRB- followed by D or G -LRB- depending on your state -RRB- , N then Hi F . You can generally find a site that offers `` instant Medigap quotes " but keep in mind the most competitive rates are usually not illustrated online .

#MedigapPlanFRates #MedicareSupplementPlanFRates #GeorgiaMedigapPlanFRates

#GeorgiaMedicareSupplementPlanFRates #GeorgiaMedicarePlans #GaMedigapQuotes

Entry 0389

Question:

How Necessary Is Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Disability insurance is paycheck insurance . How important is your paycheck ? Very important ! Disability insurance is an intricate part of defensive financial planning . Most working Americans have 90 days of case reserves for emergencies . So disability insurance can generate tax free benefits for time when you ca n't work because of sickness and/or injury .

Entry 0390

Question:

How Much Life Insurance Should A Stay At Home Mom Have?

Answer:

Video Transcript : Today 's question is , `` How much life insurance should a stay at home mom have ? " Well if a stay at home mom is the only earner , she 's a single income with children , she needs to look at all the liabilities that she has today . So if she has indebtedness , whether it 's credit card , mortgage , or any kind of auto payments , she 'll want to look at those or future obligations for her children where she may have college education , or retirement plans for them . She 'll want to be able to do some kind of coverage that she can do to protect them in case something happens to them . And remember if they have an ex-spouse involved , you 'll want to make sure that that person also has insurance on them so if something happens to him that mom and the child are taken care of .

Entry 0391

Question:

Can You Be Denied Health Insurance In Idaho?

Answer:

As a result of the Affordable Care Act , also known as Obamacare , no one can be denied health insurance , in Idaho or any other state . That said , you can only enroll during the annual open enrollment period , or if you have a life changing event that results in a special election period . It 's also important to note that not all forms of insurance to cover your health are subject to the ACA -LRB- such as temporary or short term plans -RRB- , and those policies may still be allowed to deny coverage .

Entry 0392

Question:

Can You Have Life Insurance While On SSI?

Answer:

Yes , you can have life insurance while on SSI . If it has no cash surrender value , there is no limit on how much life insurance you can have . Term insurance falls in that category , as well as some permanent policies . If you own a policy that does have cash surrender value , the total face amount of the policies owned by you or your spouse , on one person , can not exceed $ 1,500 . The exception is burial funds : a policy designated to cover your final expense needs is not counted as a resource .

Entry 0393

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Podiatrist Visits?

Answer:

Medicare will generally not cover routine podiatry unless a person is diabetic . If there is a medical reason that surgery is needed then Medicare may pay at that point . A diabetic person may receive periodic podiatry exams and toe nail clipping . This is allowed due to the risks involved with diabetes .

Entry 0394

Question:

Why Is My Auto Insurance So Expensive?

Answer:

There are several reasons . The premium is set differently in different states . In California the causes could be a poor driving record , in particular a conviction for DUI . It could be the yr . make and model of your car , it could be the area in which you live , it could be the number of miles that your car travels each year and it could be the driving record of someone else in your household who is listed on your policy .

Entry 0395

Question:

Does Life Insurance Pay Double Accidental Death?

Answer:

Does life insurance pay double accidental death ? It can if the insured has a accidental death and dismemberment rider attached to the policy . The question is would the extra money spent on a accidental death and dismemberment rider be better spent on extra term insurance coverage ? Then the insured would receive a payout not subject to conditions .

Entry 0396

Question:

Is Renters Insurance Worth The Cost?

Answer:

I believe that it is . The people that believe that insurance is not worth it 's cost have never experienced a major loss those that have experienced a major loss will more than likely tell you that insurance coverage is worth every penny . The question to ask yourself is `` Are you financial secure enough to handle any and all losses or liability claims presented to you or your family ? " . If the answer is no then you should have insurance .

Entry 0397

Question:

Which Home Insurance To Get?

Answer:

Buy home insurance from an agent that you can trust . If you havent an agent , get recommendations from friends , colleagues or neighbors . A good agent will listen to you , give sound advice , accurately record information and most importantly , answer your questions . A computer can do one of those functions . At the time of claim the critical issues will be , is the coverage in force , is it adequate to restore the loss and is there someone there to answer questions .

Entry 0398

Question:

Is Medicare Free?

Answer:

Medicare is not really free . During your working years , you have money deducted from your paycheck every pay period -LRB- subject to limitations and caps -RRB- . That money goes to Medicare to help pay for benefits you will receive when you become eligible . After you are eligible , there will still be gaps in coverage that require out of pocket cost . Thus ... perhaps the need for a Medigap plan that can help pay those gaps . An experienced broker can help you choose the best Medigap plan .

Entry 0399

Question:

Why Limit Roth IRA Contributions?

Answer:

That is a great question ! The caps on contribution limits on your Roth IRA were put there to prevent the wealthy from using them as tax shelters . The purpose of the Roth IRA 's are to allow people of more modest means to be able to save for retirement , and special tax advantages were installed in the IRA to encourage that saving . The caps were put in place to help prevent the abuse of those advantages by those who do n't truly need them . Thanks for asking , I hope that helped !

Entry 0400

Question:

Can I Cancel My Health Insurance Without A Qualifying Event?

Answer:

As long as it is not a group plan or a Medicare Advantage plan you can . An individual health plan or Medicare Supplement can be cancelled at any time . A group plan may require a qualifying event in order to make changes . A Medicare Advantage plan can only be changed during the annual Open Enrollment unless there i a qualifying event .

Entry 0401

Question:

What Does A Life Insurance Exam Consist Of?

Answer:

The exact tests that are required for an exam a person will take will depend on several factors - their age , the amount of coverage they 're applying for , and the carrier they 're applying to . Each carrier has their own underwriting guidelines so some may have different exam requirements than others . For middle aged individuals , you will most commonly see an exam consist of 3 parts : 1 -RRB- Paramedical exam - checking your height/weight , your pulse , and going through the medical questions 2 -RRB- Blood Test 3 -RRB- Urine Test If you 're an older individuals -LRB- e.g. age 55 -RRB- , some carriers may also ask for an EKG to be completed with the other exam requirements . If you 're a senior -LRB- e.g. age 70 -RRB- , some carriers may ask you to complete a mature assessment -LRB- cognitive and physical movement testing - e.g. memory tests , walk a distance , etc. -RRB- . Exams typically take no more than a half hour or so and can be completed in the privacy of your own home -LRB- some people prefer their work place which is also acceptable -RRB- . You do n't have to go to a doctor 's office or a clinic to have the exams done . One recommendation is know which carrier and which of their programs you are going to apply for . You do n't want to take an exam before completing the application process because if you apply to another carrier than you may have originally intended , you may have to complete extra testing because that 2nd carrier may have more markers they check for -LRB- therefore extra exam requirements/tests -RRB- than the other carrier . Ideally , you want to have everything in order and make sure it 's right so you only have to do it once . Please feel free to contact me if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0402

Question:

What Retirement Plan Is Right For Me?

Answer:

What retirement plan is right for you ? The right plan for you is going to be the one `` you " actually do . Waiting around for perfect or the plan , simply wastes time . Wasting time is the biggest downfall for most people when it comes to retirements . Personally I do n't care if it 's a passbook savings account or a 401 -LRB- k -RRB- or anything , if you fail to do anything , you simply wo n't have anything . There are many options both qualified and non qualified out there to choose from . Read up and pick one that works for you and that you WILL fund . In my profession I 've seen agents make fun of little old ladies with a couple hundred thousand in a savings account . They would comment on how stupid these ladies were ... Me ? I thought they were smart . Yea , sure lots of different things they could have done , but they saved and they saved some more . They had something because they saved something . It 's the habit of saving rather than the plan . Lots of people have `` plans " with no money in them .

Entry 0403

Question:

What Is The Cost Of Nursing Home Insurance?

Answer:

The cost of nursing home insurance can range from $ 30/month to over $ 400/month . The age at which you apply , your health and tobacco status , the elimination period and length of coverage chosen , the dollar benefit , and the features and riders all enter into the cost of the policy . Contact a long term care insurance broker to find what nursing home insurance would cost for you .

Entry 0404

Question:

How To Read A Car Insurance Quote?

Answer:

A car insurance quote is very easy to read . Naturally , the cost is the rate that you pay . It will typically be shown in monthly or semi-annual formats . The deductibles are referring to collision and comprehensive benefits and the liability limits are the bodily injury and property damage figures . If you need help , contact us !

Entry 0405

Question:

What Is Employee Optional Life Insurance?

Answer:

Employee Optional Life Insurance is life insurance you can purchase at group rates to add to what your employer provides . The Employee Optional Life Insurance can usually cover you and/or your dependents .

Entry 0406

Question:

Who Can Be My Life Insurance Beneficiary?

Answer:

You can name any person , business , or organization as your beneficiary who is a relative , a charity , and/or has an insurable interest -LRB- would suffer financial loss if you were to pass away -RRB- . You are not required to name your spouse as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy .

Entry 0407

Question:

How Do Health Insurance Agents Get Paid?

Answer:

Typically a health insurance agent is paid a commission that is based on a certain percentage of the premium paid by the insured . This percentage can vary from carrier to carrier and may even vary from level of plan to level of plan . There are some new restrictions on how much these types of costs can be within the new healthcare law so the commissions should be lower than they were before 2014 . Hope this helps .

Entry 0408

Question:

Can Hsa Pay For Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Yes , HSA can pay for the premiums of tax qualified Long Term Care Insurance . A Health Savings Account , even if part of an an employer sponsored cafeteria plan , is allowed to pay for medically qualified expenses , and Long Term Care premiums count as that . There are limits set by the IRS on how much can be paid by the HSA for LTC premiums , based on age .

Entry 0409

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Breast Ultrasounds?

Answer:

Ultrasounds are covered under Medicare . If they 're completed as an inpatient in a hospital , it would be covered by Part A . If they 're completed on an outpatient basis , it would be covered under Part B. Medicare typically pays for about 80 % of the expenses - you would be responsible for paying the other 20 % . A Medicare supplement policy can help pay the remaining 20 % .

Entry 0410

Question:

How Does Medicare D Work?

Answer:

I assume you are asking about Medicare Part D which is the prescription drug plan , as opposed to Medicare supplement plan D. Medicare Part D is offered by private insurance carriers . Each plan is different . Some have deductibles , some do n't . All have copay 's and a few have coinsurance for tier 4 drugs

Entry 0411

Question:

Can You Transfer A Car Title Without Insurance?

Answer:

You can transfer the title of a car to someone else . However , the new owners will have to obtain car insurance on the vehicle if they wish to drive it . Driving without insurance could result on severe penalties and possibly a license suspension . If that occurs , it could take years before it no longer appears on your driving record .

Entry 0412

Question:

When Was Disability Insurance Added To Social Security?

Answer:

Benefits for disabled persons were added to Social Security in 1956 under President Eisenhower . By 1967 , Social Security Disability Insurance -LRB- SSDI -RRB- benefits were extended to dependents of disabled persons , and to widowers of disabled persons , when the disabled person was qualified for collecting Social Security Disability Insurance benefits .

Entry 0413

Question:

Are There Special Retirement Planning Companies For Christians?

Answer:

Insurance companies will try to segment the market to gain a market advantage . It is quite possible that companies exist that claim to deal only with Christians . I doubt that many state insurance commissioners would allow them to deny services to a non-Christian on the basis of religion but that doesn't mean that the company concerned might not advertise where Christians congregate .

Entry 0414

Question:

Can I Get Money From My Retirement Plan?

Answer:

If its your money , you can do whatever you want . But there may be loan charges , tax consequences and penalties with your plan if its qualified money . If you want to avoid taxes and penalties , you may want to explore borrowing provided that youre not going to leave your employment or transfer your plan to another because there may be punitive ramifications .

Entry 0415

Question:

Which Companies Sell Annuities?

Answer:

There are hundreds of annuity companies and perhaps a thousand annuity contracts . You can find excellent spreadsheets online distributed by independent brokerage firms . There are two categories of non-qualified annuities are : tax deferred and immediate . Tax deferred annuities have three basic crediting methods : fixed interest rates , domestic/foreign indices and separate subaccounts using equity and bond instruments . Immediate annuities offer various distribution periods like 10 or 20 years certain and lifetime income on the annuitant .

Entry 0416

Question:

Who Sells Health Insurance?

Answer:

Health insurance is sold by licensed agents and directly from insurance carriers in all states . If you want to look at options online all websites are from licensed agents or carriers such as Anthem , United HealthCare and Aetna to name a few . It is important to make sure that the person or company you work with understands how you use health care in order to show you health plans that meet your needs .

Entry 0417

Question:

Which Car Insurance Company Is Best?

Answer:

Car insurance companies that do business in your state are regulated by two state insurance commissioners , your state and the state where the company is domiciled . Your state commissioner is trying to allow companies to operate in your state that will keep their promises . The best auto insurance company is one that keeps its promises .

Entry 0418

Question:

How To Find Life Insurance Policies After Death?

Answer:

Finding a life insurance policy after death can be accomplished . Often a deceased had many policies that the beneficiaries may not have been aware of . Of course , checking bank and financial records of any payment made to an insurer in the last 10-20 years would be ideal . Also , get in contact with the deceased 's agent , who may be aware of any missing policies .

Entry 0419

Question:

Can I Get Life Insurance With Hep B?

Answer:

Yes , most people can life insurance with Hepatitis B. Things that enter in what type of policy you can get , and what price you will pay , are whether it is chronic or acute , what the genotype is , whether it is replicating , the results of your liver biopsy -LRB- it will also make a difference whether or not you have had a liver biopsy -RRB- , if treatment was prescribed -LRB- or if completed , was it successful -RRB- , your current liver lab results and whether you have any side effects or other health conditions . Mild , stable chronic Hep B can be rated as good as Standard to table 3 . If the applicant is not qualified for a medically underwritten policy , there are simplified issue policies that most people with Hep B can get .

Entry 0420

Question:

How Does Life Insurance On A Mortgage Work?

Answer:

When you purchase traditional life insurance to cover your mortgage , you are buying a policy that will pay the same death benefit for the entire length of the policy , regardless of what your mortgage is at that time . Most people leave the death benefit to a personal beneficiary who they can trust to pay off the mortgage , or to a trust that stipulates to use the death benefit in that fashion . However , one of the nice things about using life insurance for mortgage protection , is that a beneficiary may decide to keep the mortgage and use the death benefit in another way , if that is more favorable to them . This may especially be true at this time of very low mortgage interest rates . Some people take the step of reducing their policy coverage as their mortgage gets past a certain point of being paid off .

Entry 0421

Question:

Why Do Mortgage Lenders Require Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

When a financial institution pays off the previous owner of your house , they have an investment to protect . After all , it was the lender 's money that allowed you to `` own " your house . As a result of the lender paying on your behalf , there is a conditional pledge of the property to the bank or lender for your obligation to repay the debt . If something were to happen to the house such as a fire , the value of the house would be significantly impaired and the lender could be left without re-payment of the loan and no house to sell due to the damage . Therefore , the lender is seeking assurance that if there is damage to the house in which he has a financial interest , he can recover his investment .

Entry 0422

Question:

Is Life Insurance Taxed In South Carolina?

Answer:

Life insurance in South Carolina is not charged income tax if left to a beneficiary other than the estate . If the policy is cashed in before death and the money in the policy is more than the face amount , the excess can be taxed . Interest on the money paid out to the beneficiary is also taxed , when paid out on a payment plan .

Entry 0423

Question:

Where Do I Get Medicare Part D?

Answer:

You can do it yourself online at Medicare.gov or contact a local independent agent who specializes in the needs of seniors . The advantage of a local agent is that he is familiar with the plans in your area and can help you navigate the Medicare website . Every plan is different and will have a different list of covered drugs -LRB- formulary -RRB- . Make sure the plan you choose covers your drugs and pharmacy .

Entry 0424

Question:

Why Do I Have To Have Medicare?

Answer:

You will receive Medicare Part A benefits automatically when you qualify . You will take this benefit when you qualify because it does n't cost anything . Medicare Part B is voluntary . You can tell Medicare that you would delay your Medicare Part B benefits . You can do this when you have creditable coverage through your employer or retirement plan . You will incur a penalty if you delay your benefits without creditable coverage then active them later .

Entry 0425

Question:

How Much To Contribute To A Retirement Plan?

Answer:

There are several qualified defined contribution retirement plans available for to consider . Here are some plan contribution limits for 401 -LRB- k -RRB- , 403 -LRB- b -RRB- , most 457 plans and Thrift Savings Plan contributions are $ 17,500 for 2013 . The catch-up contribution limit for employees aged 50 is $ 5,500 . The limit on annual contributions for IRAs is $ 5,500 .

Entry 0426

Question:

What Is AARP Medicare Supplement Plan N?

Answer:

Medicare supplement plan N is a relatively new product . Approved by CMS -LRB- Medicare -RRB- for sale in 2010 , a handful of Medigap carriers decided to offer the plan . Some carriers , such as Mutual of Omaha and Gerber , introduced the plan then pulled it off the market within a year . Medigap plan N does not pay your Medicare Part B deductible and introduces outpatient copay 's -LRB- capped at $ 20 -RRB- and ER copay -LRB- capped at $ 50 -RRB- .

Entry 0427

Question:

Who Invented Critical Illness Insurance?

Answer:

Critical Illness Insurance covers specified major illnesses . Typically , it pays a lump sum -LRB- sometimes different -RRB- payment to the insured . The first Critical Illness policy was issued in 1983 in South Africa . They have grown in popularity since that time . A full-time broker -LRB- not a part-timer , a media person or someone not fully-licensed -RRB- will be your best resource for quotes and information .

Entry 0428

Question:

Does Medicare Approve Shingles Vaccine?

Answer:

Zostavax is an FDA approved drug for the prevention of herpes zoster -LRB- shingles -RRB- . Medicare Part B will cover the administration of the vaccine in your doctors office , but your doctor may not bill Medicare for the cost of the medication Your doctor can write a prescription for you to pick up the vaccine at a pharmacy and the pharmacy can bill your Part D plan

Entry 0429

Question:

Can You Buy Insurance For A Car You Don't Own?

Answer:

I know of one exception where this is acceptable and only a few insurance carriers will allow this . Lets say for example Daddy buys his daughter a car but the car is registered to Daddy . The daughter goes and purchases her own policy and insures the car that is not in her name . As long as this is the daughters primary car and you disclose the Dad owns the car this may be acceptable . Dad will be listed as either a driver or excluded but the daughter in this case can buy an insurance policy and not own the car . Again everything must be disclosed .

Entry 0430

Question:

Does Private Health Insurance Cover Varicose Veins?

Answer:

Private health insurance is not going to cover elective surgeries that are done for cosmetic reasons . It will cover this same surgery if the doctor orders it for a health reason though . You should discuss this with your Health insurance company or your agent if you are uncertain about it .

Entry 0431

Question:

Is Medicare Medicaid?

Answer:

No . Medicare and Medicaid are two separate programs . Medicare is a health insurance program designed to help provide affordable healthcare for seniors age 65 and above -LRB- as well as individuals with certain disabilities or ESRD who qualify -RRB- . Medicaid is a government program that helps those with low income who have difficulty paying for health care -LRB- and/or do not have the resources to do so -RRB- - Medicaid can be accessed by people of all ages .

Entry 0432

Question:

Can I Keep A Car Off Road Without Insurance?

Answer:

In most states , if not all , insurance is required to register a vehicle for road use . There are situations , for example if one owns a farm , that farm owner may have vehicles -LRB- trucks , trailers and other equipment -RRB- that are used strictly and exclusively on the farm and never enter the public roadways. You should check with your local authorities , but usually in situations like that , insurance is not a requirement . If you do have a private passenger car and it is registered , then insurance must be maintained . However , if it is a seasonal car , then talk to your insurance professional to see if your insuring company allows for the temporary suspension of liability coverage while that car is garaged in the off season .

Entry 0433

Question:

Can Whole Life Insurance Be Cashed Out?

Answer:

That is a great question ! Your whole life policy will indeed have a cash value that you can receive if you decide to get rid of the policy . But here are some things to think about before you do . How will you be protected if you do ? -LRB- Hopefully you have purchased another whole life policy from somewhere else first -RRB- Does it make more sense to just borrow from the policy as opposed to cancelling it ? If it 's a matter of affordability , have you spoken with your agent about maybe taking the policy as `` paid up insurance " , or reducing the coverage to make the payments cheaper , or even end ? It is important to not act without thinking about protecting your family first , okay ? In the event that you want to go ahead and cash it out , contact your agent , and tell them you want to `` surrender " the policy , and ask what the surrender value to you will be . The company will subtract fees , loans , etc from the cash value , so you will want to know the surrender value , as that 's what the check will be written for . Once your request is submitted , the process is fairly quick . I hope that helps , thanks for asking !

Entry 0434

Question:

How To Find Out What My Health Insurance Covers?

Answer:

Your best resource for information about a policy that is already in force is from the insurance carrier directly . There will be a toll free number on your card . If you have a direct relationship with an agent who helped you purchase the policy , that person can be of assistance if you run into any challenges . The people at the carrier 's call center are human too and sometimes you can get bad information simply due to human error . If you think an answer is wrong , call back and get another representative . If you get stuck , call your agent !

Entry 0435

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Cell Phones?

Answer:

Renters insurance does cover personal property up to the limits specified within the policy for covered perils only less your deductible . Your best bet for coverage for your cell phone is to speak with your cellular carrier most offer coverage that will protect you better than what is provided through your renter 's insurance . Read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided or call your local agent to discuss coverage offered and exclusions on the policy .

Entry 0436

Question:

Can I Take A Loan From My Retirement Plan?

Answer:

It depends on the type of plan and whether its qualified or non-qualified plan . Most qualified plans have plan provisions for participants to borrow money at a stated interest rate . Once you borrow , most plans will require you to pay off the loan before any transfers to another qualified plan . Non-qualified retirement plans that use cash value life insurance can access accumulations at a low interest rate . Keep in mind that if the policy is surrendered or lapses , the loans in excess of the original basis will be taxable . At ordinary income tax rates .

Entry 0437

Question:

Can Pension Plans Be Rolled Over?

Answer:

Pension plans are employer sponsored programs . Generally speaking you can only withdraw money from your account -LRB- if this is a 401 -LRB- k -RRB- plan -RRB- under circumstances approved in the plan document . If you leave employment rolling your plan into another similar plan or an IRA is generally allowed . Some plans encourage you to roll your money out of the current plan .

Entry 0438

Question:

Can I Get Life Insurance After Breast Cancer?

Answer:

The short answer is yes , you can buy life insurance after cancer . The type , amount and terms depends on the cancer itself and how long you have been cancer free after your last treatment . To get into the standard ratings after breast cancer practically all carriers will want to see you cancer free for 10 years . Anything less than 10 years will be a higher risk policy of either rated premiums or graduated benefits .

Entry 0439

Question:

How Would You Calculate The Expected Return On A Life Insurance Policy?

Answer:

Before you break out your HP12c calculator , consider this . Almost all proposals illustrate internal rate of return on both death benefit and cash values . If you have an existing life insurance policy you can order whats called an in force ledger and request the internal rate of return on both death benefit and cash values .

Entry 0440

Question:

What Age Do I Sign Up For Medicare?

Answer:

If you are age 65 when you receive Social Security benefits , you will automatically be signed up for Medicare at age 65 . If you are not yet receiving Social Security benefits , you can still sign up for Medicare benefits at age 65 . When relying on your spouse 's eligibility , you can get Medicare at age 65 if your spouse is at least age 62 .

Entry 0441

Question:

Does Medicare Require A CMN For CPAP?

Answer:

For treatment of sleep apnea Medicare does require a CMN -LRB- certificate of medical need -RRB- form to be completed by your doctor . The patient must have seen a doctor prior to the sleep study test . The patient must have completed a Medicare approved sleep study test The patient must have had training fomr the CPAP provider on the use and care of the machine

Entry 0442

Question:

How To Cancel Metlife Life Insurance?

Answer:

To cancel MetLife life insurance , you can call MetLife customer service at 1-800-638-5000 or use their online services at WEBSITELINK . It is a good idea to discuss the policy you are cancelling so that you know what will be lost , and what options there might be to keep it in a way that you can afford it , if you wish .

Entry 0443

Question:

How To Calculate Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Disability insurance is a morbidity product . Disability insurance is basically paycheck protection . And the price for that protection depends on your gender , age , smoking status , health history , current medical condition and vocation . It also depends on the length of coverage , the elimination period and owner occupation specialties .

Entry 0444

Question:

Can You Disenroll From A Medicare Advantage Plan?

Answer:

Yes , each year Medicare Advantage has a Annual Enrollment Period typically from October 15 - December 7th that you can switch plans . You can also leave the Medicare Advantage plan and enroll in a Medicare Supplement plan . Many people are switching from a Medicare Advantage plan to a Medicare Supplement plan because of all the changes that keep happening to the Medicare Advantage plans .

Entry 0445

Question:

Does Disability Insurance Cover Maternity Leave?

Answer:

Short Term Disability Insurance offered through a group policy does usually cover maternity leave . Private short term disability insurance policies , unfortunately , do not usually cover maternity leave . Both types do usually cover complications due to pregnancy , childbirth , or recovery from childbirth , although those benefits may be provided through long term disability coverage .

Entry 0446

Question:

How Much Does Renters Insurance Typically Cost?

Answer:

The cost of renters insurance is going to depend on several variables including location , limit of personal property , liability limits , deductible selected , whether or not you opt for ` replacement cost ' coverage , and the insurer that you purchase through . Some carriers may use credit history as a rating variable as well .

Entry 0447

Question:

What Happens To Your Retirement Plan If You Quit Your Job?

Answer:

What happens to your retirement plan if you quit your job depends on local legislation and the type of plan . When does the plan vest , means when do you get to keep the company 's contribution . For example , in Canada , some plans vest immediately and others after 2 years of employment . Depending on the type of plan you maybe required to transfer the value into a plan that is locked in until your retire to an individual retirement plan without triggering taxation . In certain certain circumstances you maybe able to cash in the plan and pay tax on the withdrawal . Your company benefits administrator should be able to provide you with your options . If you would like to work with a local Retirement Planner , you could start with a Google search . For example if you search for : retirement planner Halifax or retirement planning Halifax , my name along with several others will come up . You can use the same method to find Retirement Planners in your community . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me .

Entry 0448

Question:

How To Decide Whether To Buy Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

If your family has a history of critical illness or disease , then you should consider purchasing long term care insurance -LRB- LTCi -RRB- If you have longevity in your family history , the odds are high that you will need LTCi during your later retirement years . The average retiree will spend $ 250,000 during retirement on medical care , some of which will be spent on extended care .

Entry 0449

Question:

Can You Use Your Health Insurance Out Of State?

Answer:

This is a very important question , especially in the individual health insurance marketplace after January 1 , 2014 . Individual insurance carriers have revamped their products significantly to compete in this new environment and the consumer needs to be well informed when making their choice as the answer to your question will vary significantly from one insurance carrier 's products to another 's . As a general rule of thumb , you can be pretty comfortable that in a life threatening emergency your insurance coverage will apply outside of your home state . Where things can get confusing and possibly expensive is when a subscriber seeks non-emergency care outside of their home state or perhaps even outside of their plan 's service area within their home state . Before enrolling in a plan you need to know if it has moved to an HMO type of model where you may have little or no coverage outside of your plan 's service area -LRB- this could literally be an area encompassing several counties within your state -RRB- , whether the plan has gone to a gatekeeper model where a referral from your primary care physician is required for treatment to be covered at in-network levels , or whether your chosen carrier uses an open network model where you can access their provider network any where in the nation without a referral being required . My advice is to seek out the guidance of an experienced health insurance broker who understands how different health insurance carriers have structured their products and who can educate and guide you to the plan that best fits your needs . Please feel free to contact me for assistance in this regard .

Entry 0450

Question:

What Percentage Of Seniors Have Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Depending on what source you read , the percentage of seniors who have private Long Term Care insurance policies now is about 10 % of all seniors in the United States . However , it is predicted that as many as 70 % of persons who are age 65 + now , will need long term care services at some time in their lives .

Entry 0451

Question:

How Does Health Insurance Affect The Economy?

Answer:

The PPACA , or better known to the public as Obamacare , will be implemented six months from now . The intent of the legislation is to provide health coverage for every American at an affordable price , supposedly lowering current premiums . Most economists and some government agencies predict that Obamacare will cost much more to operate than previously thought and will impact the economy adversely . Keep in mind that this is a federal program . Any short fall of the program will be borne by federal income tax payers . Only 53 % of Americans pay federal income taxes . Taxes will increase or the U.S. debt will increase or both with the imposition of Obamacare .

Entry 0452

Question:

When To Sell Whole Life Insurance?

Answer:

As an agent the best time to explain a whole life policy is when the person needs a permanent solution . I personally like to mix some lower face whole life at a reasonable premium and use the more affordable term life policies to round out the estate . Whole life is the `` Swiss Army Knife " of life policies as it has just about rider to make the right combination for your client .

Entry 0453

Question:

Can I Get Disability Insurance If I Have A Stent?

Answer:

Can you get disability insurance with a stent ? While anything is possible , chances are no or the premium will say no for you . In my 25 + years of insurance I have found disability insurance to be the hardest underwriting to get through . Most people do not consider disability insurance until after they 've had a health set back where they realize it would be nice to have income coming in while off work . Unfortunately , usually what ever kept them from work before , will keep them from getting a good priced disability policy .

Entry 0454

Question:

What Are The Benefits Of Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

Term life insurance pays a benefit due to death by any cause including accident , illness and natural causes . Term insurance is not permanent and has a definite ending date . Once the coverage terminates you may have conversion rights or the ability to extend coverage for an indefinite time period albeit at a much higher rate .

Entry 0455

Question:

Does Home Insurance Automatically Renew?

Answer:

Here in Connecticut , Homeowners ' Insurance policies are among those that continuously renew provided that your home continues to meet our insurance company 's underwriting guidelines as they have filed with the State Insurance Department . That having been said , is you fail to pay your premium , if the claims history becomes adverse or if you leave your home abandoned and vacant , The insurance company may non renew or mid term cancel .

Entry 0456

Question:

What Is A 403B Vs 401K?

Answer:

The Internal Revenue Code allows an employer to establish a defined contribution pension plan under paragraph 401 -LRB- k. -RRB- Certain non-profit organizations can provide their employees access to a retirement savings plan under paragraph 403 -LRB- b. -RRB- The 403 -LRB- b -RRB- is usually in addition to the pension plan established by the school district or hospital concerned .

Entry 0457

Question:

Why Is Car Insurance So Expensive For Teenagers?

Answer:

If all things were equal . . Unfortunately we all know that things are not equal . Losses are carefully evaluated and where there are distinct trends , insurance companies go to the state insurance commissioner and ask for permission to consider those specific trends . Youthful drivers have long been recognized as incurring a higher frequency of losses . We can argue all night about whether this is correct or not , but there are years of statistics that say that it is predicable .

Entry 0458

Question:

When Do You Get Medicare?

Answer:

You are automatically enrolled in Medicare Part A and B when you turn 65 , if you are receiving Social Security benefits at that time . You also get Medicare if you have been on Social Security Disability for 24 months or if you have End Stage Renal Disease or Lou Gherig 's Disease , with some qualifications .

Entry 0459

Question:

When Should I Buy Home Insurance?

Answer:

The most common time that Homeowners Insurance is purchased is in anticipation of the closing on your new home . Insurance coverage is a required element for a mortgage these days . Beyond that , you can review your Homeowners Coverage at any time and , if there is an advantage to altering or to replacing coverage , this is really up to you as the property and policy owner .

Entry 0460

Question:

Does A 24 Year Old Need Life Insurance?

Answer:

If a 24 year old person has college debts , a spouse , children , home , or other financial obligations , then life insurance can be a good way to take care of those . Older people often have more resources saved up , while life insurance may be the only way a younger person can take care of financial obligations . Life insurance is usually very low cost at that age , and you can lock in rates for 30 years or more . So getting life insurance at age 24 is a good for that reason , as well .

Entry 0461

Question:

What Is A Maternity Rider On Health Insurance?

Answer:

Maternity riders are dinosaurs . They became extinct January of 2014 with passage of the Affordable Car Act . Previously , most individual health insurance plans did not cover normal childbirth . A maternity rider added this coverage to these policies . The rider came with a long waiting period , or with a large deductible . The Affordable Care Act requires that all health care plan cover ten essential health benefits which now include maternity and newborn care , and hospitalizations with no waiting period . The maternity rider is no longer needed .

Entry 0462

Question:

Where To Get Home Insurance?

Answer:

The first step in buying homeowners insurance is to go to your trusted insurance agent . That agent should listen to you , provide solid financial advice and communicate clearly with you and the insurance company . The agent will help you select appropriate limits . The time you have a claim is not the time to discover that you have inadequate insurance . In that regard , my counsel is to select the highest liability limit available .

Entry 0463

Question:

What Is Term Life And Whole Life Insurance?

Answer:

An insurance company computes a rate for one year of coverage for every age . Term insurance provides coverage for a specific range of years . The premium is roughly equivalent to the average of the yearly premiums that I mentioned . A whole life policy is different in that it takes every remaining age and provides coverage for every remaining year . The premium is higher than a shorter term policy but the death benefit will be paid unless the policy is surrendered or lapses .

Entry 0464

Question:

Much Home Owners Insurance Do I Need In A Condo?

Answer:

Great Question . Condo Insurance covers you for liability if some one falls in your condo . Also cover you for fire , theft and water damage . You would alos need to have coverage for the inside of your unit for the wall in case of a fire and your unit was damaged . Good Luck

Entry 0465

Question:

Can I Get Insurance On A Car That Does Not Belong To Me?

Answer:

An auto policy covers an automobile , not a driver . If you are not the owner , and dont have any other insurable interest , you can not be named as the insured on the policy . The information about being a loan holder is important . You named to be named on the policy as a lienholder . If you lease the car to someone else than you also need to be named as the additional insured .

Entry 0466

Question:

When Getting Car Insurance What Information Is Needed?

Answer:

Great Question . You will need to provide your personal and vehicle information such as : Your full name Driver 's license number & expiration date . Possibly your social security number depending on what state you live in . date of birth address of where the car is located and mailing address if different vehicle information such as Year , Make , Model , & V.I.N which is a 17 digit number Is the vehicle garaged or not ? How is the vehicle used ? How many miles are currently on the vehicle and how many miles to you drive on an annual basis ? Names of any possible drivers or people living with you along with their personal information if they wish to drive the vehicle . Need to know who your current insurance is with or if you have had coverage in the past You will need to determine how much coverage you need in place and what deductibles you would be comfortable having in place . There are probably a few more questions that you would need to answer prior to binding coverage , but that is a quick list of information you should have handy when you are ready to pursue auto insurance quotations . I hope this helps and have a wonderful day . Best , Josh DeBoer Producer Fred Daniel & Sons , Inc

Entry 0467

Question:

How Much Is Life Insurance For A 55 Year Old?

Answer:

It depends on the amount of coverage needed , the type of policy -LRB- term or permanent -RRB- , insurability and other factors . A healthy male age 55 who can qualify for Preferred rates and needs term insurance for the next 10 years could expect to pay as little as $ 150 per month for a $ 1M policy . An independent life insurance professional can help find the right policy .

Entry 0468

Question:

How Does A Cash Balance Retirement Plan Work?

Answer:

Cash balance plans are qualified defined benefit plans under ERISA , the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 . Employers appreciate the discriminatory ability to favor business owners . Cash balance plans are also used in tandem with 401 -LRB- k -RRB- for enhanced contribution limits . The plans accumulate tax deferred and offer creditor protection .

Entry 0469

Question:

How Much Does Medicare Cost A Retiree?

Answer:

Medicare Part A covers inpatient hospital stays , care in a skilled nursing facility , hospice care , and some home health care . If you have paid Social Security taxes for at least 40 quarters -LRB- 10 years -RRB- this coverage is free . Part B of Medicare covers doctor office visits , preventive care , diagnostic tests , physical therapy , hospital outpatient services , radiation and chemotherapy treatments , kidney dialysis , durable medical equipment , ambulance services and some home health care . You pay a monthly premium to the Federal government for this coverage .

Entry 0470

Question:

Will Renters Insurance Pay For Hotel?

Answer:

That is a great question ! Depending upon the reason for needing a hotel , and the terms of your policy , it should , at least for a specified amount of time , or up to a certain dollar amount . You will want to contact your agent , and find out for certain the terms of your policy . Most policies will include a section called `` additional living expenses " , or `` loss of use coverage " . It is under this part that you will find out what your policy covers . If there is a reason that your apartment is uninhabitable , this section applies . Good luck , and thanks for asking !

Entry 0471

Question:

How Can I Get Health Insurance With No Job?

Answer:

The best way to get health insurance on your own is to go through the health exchange for your state . This can be a very confusing and frustrating process however , so I recommend that you locate an insurance broker in your state that is contracted to assist you through this process . There is no cost to you for going through the broker , and the amount of time and energy saved is well worth it .

Entry 0472

Question:

Will Homeowners Insurance Cover Broken Windows?

Answer:

Homeowners Insurance does cover your homes windows if they are broken due to vandalism , wind , hail or another peril that is covered on your policy . It is important to remember that the claim will most likely be subject to a deductible so when trying to decide whether or not to file a claim make sure to take your deductible into account .

Entry 0473

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Mobile Phones?

Answer:

Up to seventy-five percent of the total coverage amount of a homeowners policy is typically dedicated to personal property up to the policy limits less your policy deductible . Remember every policy is different . Please read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and any exclusions that there may be or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0474

Question:

Which Type Of Life Insurance Should I Buy?

Answer:

With a few tactical answers to a data collector , recommendations can be made . First what is your planning goal ? Is it an indemnification , income and inheritance scenario ? How long do you need to cover your financial scenario ? What is your medical condition , including smoking status ? Term life insurance provides temporary coverage for a temporary financial liability to indemnify your beneficiaries from economic loss at your demise . If that financial liability is ongoing beyond 30 years , youll need a permanent life insurance policy like guaranteed universal life or whole life insurance . If your financial goal is income , you should review participating whole life or current assumption universal life . Current assumption universal life has three crediting methods : interest rate , domestic/foreign indices or equity/bond subaccount . If your financial goal is to make a difference in your children , grandchildren , favorite charity or pay estate taxes , then survivorship policies for married couples and single policies for singles using guaranteed universal life or whole life insurance .

Entry 0475

Question:

What Are The Different Types Of Life Insurance?

Answer:

Video Transcript : Today 's question is , `` What are the different types of life insurance ? " Well , you have term life insurance in 5 , 10 , 15 , 20 , 30 , sometimes even 40 years . You have permanent forms of life insurance , participating whole life . You have current assumption Universal Life . You have indexed Universal Life . You have variable Universal Life . These are all different types and forms of life insurance . Depending upon if you need temporary coverage or you need permanent coverage will dictate what area you 'll go in . Then in the second area , if you 're looking at permanent insurance , are you using this exclusively to cover and protect or are you going to add this on as part of your supplemental income retirement plan to add on to maybe your traditional 401 -LRB- k -RRB- or whatever other retirement plan you have . It 's interesting . If you 're going to do that , you 're going to need to do a risk tolerance to see how you feel about long-term hold positions with life insurance and which one that you 're going to use whether it 's interest rate , indexed or separate sub-accounts .

Entry 0476

Question:

What Health Insurance Covers Rotator Cuff Surgery?

Answer:

Most policies will cover your rotator cuff surgery , assuming they are qualified Exchange plans that have essential health benefits . There may be a deductible and copay involved , along with additional out of pocket expenses . Consult an experienced broker to help you find the best plan at the very cheapest available price .

Entry 0477

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Epipen?

Answer:

I looked in a few formularies and epipen shows up in all . It 's generally Tier 3 which is generally $ 45 . When you go to buy a plan , be sure to check the plan 's formulary to be sure . And it does n't hurt to double check at each open enrollment to be sure that it 's still covered , and at the same tier level .

Entry 0478

Question:

Does Critical Illness Insurance Work?

Answer:

Critical Illness Insurance does work , as long as the illness is included in the policy provisions , and of the type/severity that warrants payment per policy provisions . It pays a lump sum to the insured person when they are diagnosed with that particular health condition . Sometimes there is a stipulation that the insured person must survive a minimum number of days after diagnosis in order to receive the payment .

Entry 0479

Question:

Does Federal Government Offer Disability Insurance?

Answer:

The federal government offers two programs Social Security Disability Insurance -LRB- SSDI -RRB- that is payroll deducted , so it is classified as an earned benefit and Supplemental Security Income -LRB- SSI -RRB- that is means tested by income and assets .

Entry 0480

Question:

Can Unmarried People Share Auto Insurance?

Answer:

Yes as long as they have joint ownership of the vehicle insured . Insuring an automobile , or any item , requires an individual to have an insurable interest in that item . Insurable interest for most property items requires having an ownership interest in the item . Cars should be titled in both members name . In fact , in some states even a married couple could run into trouble insuring an item if only one spouse has legal ownership .

Entry 0481

Question:

Why Use An Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust?

Answer:

Why use an irrevocable life insurance trust ? The main reason is to transfer the asset -LRB- life insurance is an asset -RRB- out of the direct ownership of the insured . Why ? While life insurance is income tax free in most all situations , it is not estate tax free when adding up all assets subject to estate taxes . For a person who may have an estate tax liability , an insurance trust makes good sense . Making it irrevocable just clearly makes a line of separation from the policy owner and their other assets .

Entry 0482

Question:

Is Life Insurance An Investment?

Answer:

Permanent life insurance accumulates cash values that can be used while the policy holder is still alive , in addition to providing a death benefit to the beneficiary noted on the policy when the insured person passes . Because the policy performs both functions , it is hard to compare to investments that do not also provide death benefit protection .

Entry 0483

Question:

Will Medicare Pay For Breast Implants?

Answer:

Cosmetic breast implants are not a covered expense under Medicare . Breast reconstructive surgery following a mastectomy is a covered expense under Medicare Part A and subject to the 2013 deductible of $ 1184 . Follow up treatment after discharge would be covered under Medicare Part B . You will need to satisfy your Part B deductible of $ 147 for 2013 .

Entry 0484

Question:

What Is Meant By Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

Term life insurance is life insurance that will end after a certain length of time . Some Term Life Insurance policies will automatically renew at the end of the term at a much higher price than before , and can then go up in price every year . With other Term policies , you must elect to pay the new , higher premium when the level period ends . Either way , the time of level premium ends at the end of the term .

Entry 0485

Question:

Why Should I Contribute To My 401K?

Answer:

This is an excellent question ! I 'm glad that you asked . Look at it like this - the more that you put away today , the greater you 'll have later . The thing that really grows your 401k is interest , and that interest grows over time . If you contribute enough to get your employer to match what you invest , you essentially double your money for free . That money , if invested wisely , will continue to earn interest , and continue to grow . Even if you leave the job , and never make another contribution , that account is yours , and continues to grow . Having a source of income when you reach retirement age is crucial to keeping yourself out of the ranks of those dependent upon Social Security . It does n't work well - 55 % of American Elder Citizens currently live at or below the poverty line . Please do n't let yourself be one , okay ? Thanks for asking !

Entry 0486

Question:

Which Is The Best Critical Illness Insurance?

Answer:

There is no one critical illness carrier or product that is the best option for all situations and all people . Because of the variations in products and the variations in needs , we can not declare one the best for everyone . You 'd be best suited to seek out the advice of an agent who is licensed in your state to discuss what options are available and determine which critical illness product is best for you .

Entry 0487

Question:

Is It Legal For Landlord To Require Renters Insurance?

Answer:

That would depend on your state regulations . In most cases landlords will recommend renters insurance and their are a few that will require it as part of the lease agreement . Renters insurance is there to protect both you and the landlord . Remember if the apartment building or the home you are renting were to burn down the landlord is not responsible for the replacement of your personal property in most cases and they typically will not provide the funds to secure another residence . Renters insurance can help with both . Contact your local agent to find out about all of the coverage offered with renters insurance and any exclusions that there may be .

Entry 0488

Question:

At What Age Can You Collect Medicare?

Answer:

You can collect Medicare Part A and Part B at age 65 if you or your spouse has paid Medicare taxes for at least 40 quarters . You can collect Medicare under age 65 if you have been receiving Social Security Disability benefits for 24 months , and in several other circumstances .

Entry 0489

Question:

How Much Does Life Insurance For A Baby Cost?

Answer:

Life insurance premiums are based on age , so it is very inexpensive to purchase it for a baby . The health of the baby , duration of coverage , and carrier also affect premium so it would be difficult to quote all of the scenarios in the scope of this answer . To provide a very rough idea of cost ; the premium for $ 10,000 of coverage will be around $ 4.50 per month . The parent may want to use life insurance as a savings account for the baby in which the premium will depend on the factors above and also how much the parent wants to save . It is an excellent idea to start early with insurance as it guarantees the child 's insurability as they get older . Please discuss the many options available with a knowledgeable insurance professional .

Entry 0490

Question:

Which Is The Best Classic Car Insurance?

Answer:

I use several carriers and also have my own collector car and I have found that American collectors have better coverage and rates in Montana and less strict as far as guidelines and restrictions . Also they have stated value . The claims I have found have been excellent also . Each carrier has their own niche and specialty

Entry 0491

Question:

Will My Home Insurance Go Up If I File A Claim?

Answer:

This is nearly impossible to answer . Whether or not your rates go up at renewal after a claim is strictly up to your carrier . There are many factors that go into determining your premium for your homeowners insurance coverage and claims history is one of them . In my opinion and experience I would say that the frequency and amount of the claims will be given greater weight the higher the number is for either .

Entry 0492

Question:

Does Car Insurance Cover A Bicycle Accident?

Answer:

That is a good question . Car insurance covers bicycle accident . Let say you were driving at night and hit a person on his bicycle and he is injured . Your auto insuranc would cover the bicycle damage and the person on the bike if he or she gets hurt . Good question .

Entry 0493

Question:

How Do I Drop My Health Insurance?

Answer:

How to drop your health insurance ? In every case it involves written notice of your desire to cancel your coverage . On an individual basis you would write a note to the insurance company 's customer service department and send it there . For a business you would write a memo to your HR cancelling or waving coverage . Please note : if married you may be asked to include your spouses signature too .

Entry 0494

Question:

Who Provides Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Not knowing where you live all I can refer to you are the common companies which Provide Homeowners Insurance on top of the other available insurances : State Farm Insurance American Family Insurance Allstate Progressive Insurance USAA AMICA Insurance Liberty Mutual Nationwide Homeowners Insurance Keep in mind there are independent insurance agencies who work with several other companies to consider as well . Check where you have your auto insurance as you may be able to get a discount putting your auto and homeowners together .

Entry 0495

Question:

How To Get Life Insurance License?

Answer:

To be authorized to sell life insurance within the United States you typically need to go through testing that is state specific . I would suggest starting with the website of your state 's commissioner of insurance . This site should have an area dedicated to licensing . This will be where you would find out more information about becoming licensed to sell life insurance .

Entry 0496

Question:

Why Should You Purchase Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Disability insurance is one of the most under sold insurance products in the market . The fact is an average person is 8 times more likely to become disabled than to die . It can have an expensive premium depending on your underwriting class , but at claim time you will be glad you purchased it . Most people depend on the US government for their disability benefits known as SSI through their Social Security . This process takes a minimum of 9 months to complete and most folks are in dire straits financially before receiving their benefits . I would suggest at a minimum purchasing a short term disability plan . This plan will have a shorter elimination time and pay benefits faster in case of an illness or injury so severe you can no longer work . A good long term disability will coordinate with your SSI to pay benefits as far out as 67 years old and up to 70 % of your income . Also buyer beware of cheaper accident only disability plans . Statistically 90 % of all worker related long term disability claims are illness related not injury related

Entry 0497

Question:

How Much Of Your Salary Is Covered By Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Along with what Peggy said , it 's important to note that you can always receive more benefit when you start making more money . Some people think , `` Oh , I do n't want to buy it now because I 'll be making more money in a few years . " Do n't make that mistake ! You can either add a future increase rider to your policy -LRB- to avoid medical underwriting -RRB- , or you can just apply for a second policy when the time comes .

Entry 0498

Question:

What Does It Mean When Life Insurance Is Paid Up?

Answer:

When life insurance is paid up , it simply means that no further premiums are required to keep the policy in force . The policy may have been set up to where you only needed to pay a single premium in a lump sum . Or it may have required that you paid premiums for a certain number of years , and then it became paid up . In any event , you owe no more premiums and your beneficiary would receive the full face amount or more , if you passed . Or you may have decided to quit paying on the policy early , and were given the option to take it as a reduced paid up policy . In this case , the face amount will be less than what you originally applied for , but the reduced face amount will stay in effect without you paying any more premiums .

Entry 0499

Question:

Which Life Insurance Is Best For Young People?

Answer:

Take a photo of yourself now , then go on the internet and morph it into what you will look like 40 years from now and ask that person the same question . The answer will be , permanent insurance and start it today ! It will never be less expensive and will almost always cost much less than the death benefit . It will give you a head start on developing an umbrella of protection so those you love will be cared for in your absence whenever that would occur .

Entry 0500

Question:

Why Don't People Get Health Insurance?

Answer:

Let me expound on your question ... Why do n't people get car insurance , or life insurance or long-term-care insurance ? Some people may believe they 're invulnerable , or that they ca n't afford the coverage , or they simply do n't want to think about it . My suggestion to those people is to NOT think about the day that you 're purchasing insurance , but instead think about the day that you NEED the insurance . What will happen if there 's a cancer diagnosis and you have no health insurance ? Or if you pass away leaving your family without the ability to pay the rent or get the kids through college ? Bottom line : In my opinion , there is NO good reason why people do n't buy health insurance .

Entry 0501

Question:

Does Health Insurance Cover Glasses?

Answer:

Maybe . It will depend on the plan design of the medical coverage . Vision care is usually a supplemental -LRB- extra -RRB- coverage that employers can add to their benefits package . Usually vision plans offer coverage for check ups , lenses and frames . An employer can choose how the benefit will work . For example a 12/24/24 vision plan would provide coverage for check ups every 12 months , lenses and frames every 24 . These options can vary and include deductibles or a copay or none at all . It just depends on how the employer wants the coverage to work .

Entry 0502

Question:

Can I Get Life Insurance On My Mom?

Answer:

You can get life insurance on anyone if you can prove that you will suffer loss at her demise as the beneficiary . But without her signature you can do nothing . Keep in mind that most life insurance companies will frown on securing life insurance on your mother when you have little to no coverage on yourself .

Entry 0503

Question:

How To Pitch A Variable Annuity?

Answer:

Why would you want to "pitch" a Variable Annuity? A VA is a useful product for those individuals who want to have upside performance, a basic death benefit, and other living benefits such as Guaranteed Minimum Income Benefits. But PRODUCT, and that includes any of the insurance based products, should be part of an overall consulting relationship where the client understands the risks and rewards of that product. The job of the financial advisor when selling a client a VA is to first find, determine a client's risk tolerance, and then provide choices commensurate with a client's goals. If you do that, a Variable Annuity doesn't get pitched, it becomes the product of choice by the client because of the features that it offers.

Entry 0504

Question:

How Much Does Car Insurance Cost For A BMW?

Answer:

Great Question . BMW insurance is a bit more than a normal car since the car cost more to buy and parts are expensive if there is an accident . Be prepare to pay about % 10 - % 20 higher than another type of vehicle . Also if you are a good driver and no accident you will get a better rate .

Entry 0505

Question:

Is Cancer Covered Under Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Disability income plans pay as long as you meet the definition of disability , regardless of the disabling condition . If you are unable to work for any reason , illness or accident , and meet the policy definition that qualifies you for benefit , the carrier will pay your monthly benefit until you recover , die or exhaust your benefits .

Entry 0506

Question:

How Does Mortgage Disability Insurance Work?

Answer:

Mortgage disability insurance policy features may be different for policies from different companies . But the general gist of mortgage disability insurance is that it makes your mortgage payments for your during a period of being disabled . The payments are in addition to any other disability insurance policies you might have , and go to the lender . There is also an elimination period as with regular Disability insurance .

Entry 0507

Question:

How Popular Is Life Insurance?

Answer:

Term life insurance is very popular to cover indemnification planning scenarios . Its cheap and does the job . Permanent life insurance for those in high tax brackets is very popular as supplemental retirement income and executive compensation plans . Permanent life insurance also works well for estate planning , charitable giving and making a difference in succeeding family generations .

Entry 0508

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Electrical Work?

Answer:

If you own the house that is described in a homeowners policy there is coverage for the house located on the property , which includes additions and built-in parts and fixtures . There is also coverage for related private structures that are also on the described property which are not attached to the residence . When there is an occurrence that isnt expected or intended by the owner to the property there is coverage . This coverage means physical injury to tangible property and this includes the loss of use . Electrical wiring and fixtures are components of a residence and may be present in private structures located on the premises such as a pool shed or detached garage . When electrical work is required because of damage to the structure the electrical work becomes a covered expense . Policies differ as to which perils are covered . The most comprehensive form is called all risk . In this form any damage to the residence is covered except . The list isnt long ; however , flood and earthquake are at the top of the list . Electrical work poses another problem in that after damage has been sustained the repair work might fall under restrictions , codes , ordinances and law that were not in effect at the time of the original construction . The insurance company does not pay for the increased cost which results from the enforcement of these laws and codes . Some companies do not apply this to glass . Most companies offer a provision to cover these costs at an additional premium . The policy makes it clear that the company does not pay for damage that is the result of the neglect or the insured . It also does not pay for damage that is the result of power disruption . This means that if your loss is the result of the utility company failing to supply power , the resulting damage isnt covered . This is assuming that the actual damage is not on the covered premises . The insurance company does not pay for wear and tear . There are many ways to describe this damage that is sustained because the house was not maintained . Some of the issues that arise are deterioration , mechanical breakdown , rust , wet or dry rot , corrosion , mold , contamination or smog . The insurance company does not pay for electrical work that is the result of an act committed by or at the direction of the insured . In summary , if the electrical work required is the result of a fire or lightening , windstorm or hail , explosion , riot , aircraft , vehicles , sudden accidental damage by smoke , vandalism , theft , falling objects , weight of ice , snow or sleet , collapse of a building , sudden tearing apart , accidental discharge or overflow of liquids or steam from plumbing , heating or air-conditioning systems , or freezing , the policy will pay for repair of electrical components of the residence and other structures on the premises . If the electrical system needs repair as the result of other factors such as wear and tear , there isnt any coverage . The homeowners policy is designed to cover you when the unexpected occurs .

Entry 0509

Question:

Does Health Insurance Cover Tubal Reversal?

Answer:

Most health insurance programs will not cover the reversal of any voluntary sterilizations . You may have to pay for the procedure out of pocket . The expenses are tax deductible , which may reduce the total net expense . IVF is a frequent alternative to tubal reversal , and is sometimes covered by insurance . Eight states have mandates requiring certain plans to cover IVF expenses . Your other alternative is to purchase a plan with a higher actuarial value -LRB- platinum or gold plan -RRB- . That way more of your pregnancy-related health care will be covered . In addition , you should purchase short term disability to replace income during maternity leave . This needs to start prior to conception .

Entry 0510

Question:

Is AARP A Medigap Plan?

Answer:

The only way to tell if something is a Medigap plan is if it has a letter . For example , Plan F or Plan G. AARP is the brand name for the Medicare products through United Healthcare . However , they offer Medigap plans and Medicare Advantage plans so it 's important to understand what you are getting . There are big differences between the two . AARP & United Healthcare have great name recognition in the Medigap Plan & Medicare markets . United Healthcare is an `` A " rated insurance company . However , the premiums could be higher in certain areas for exactly the same plan . It 's important to work with an independent agent who can show you AARP Medigap Plans as well as all the other `` A " rated carriers in your area . We work with folks to determine which is the best carrier for them . We offer AARP and a lot of the other top `` A " rated carriers . We never charge a fee for our service .

Entry 0511

Question:

What Is The Cost Of Part B Medicare?

Answer:

The cost of Part B Medicare in 2013 is $ 104.90 per month for most people . Medicare recipients with higher incomes are charged more . The highest premium that can be paid for Medicare Part B is $ 335.70 per month for those with incomes over $ 214,000 . The deductible does not vary based on income . The deductible is $ 147 per year .

Entry 0512

Question:

What Is Viva Medicare?

Answer:

Viva is a health maintenance organization -LRB- HMO -RRB- that services many regions of the state of Alabama - they are owned by Triton Health Systems . I hope the input is helpful - please feel free to contact me for help and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0513

Question:

When Can I Enroll In Medicare Part A?

Answer:

You will automatically be enrolled in Medicare when you reach age 65 provided you have worked long enough and paid into the system . You will have the choice to opt out of part B of Medicare , but I do not recommend it unless you are still working and in a group . You will also get Medicare if you are on Social Security Disability . There is about a two year wait when you get disability before you are eligible .

Entry 0514

Question:

What Is The Best Critical Illness Insurance?

Answer:

The best critical illness insurance is that which has the best features . Some things to look for are : 1 -RRB- How much of the benefit is paid for each illness , 2 -RRB- What is the special limitation period -LRB- how long you would have to wait before the policy would pay after issue -RRB- , 3 -RRB- How many illness are covered , 4 -RRB- Is the policy guaranteed renewable , 5 -RRB- How long is the premium guaranteed , 6 -RRB- Is there a reduction of benefits after a certain age , and 7 -RRB- Are riders offered -LRB- e.g. for accidental death -RRB- .

Entry 0515

Question:

Do I Qualify For Medicare In Wyoming?

Answer:

If you have paid Social Security taxes for at least 10 years , or are married to someone over age 64 who paid SS taxes that long , and if you are age 65 , you qualify for Medicare in Wyoming and all 50 states . Your Part A will be free . If you do not qualify based on that criteria but are a US citizen , you can pay a premium for Medicare Part A . You can also qualify for Medicare if you have ESRD or ALS or have been on Social Security Disability for two years . Contact Medicare.gov for specifics .

Entry 0516

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Bed Bugs?

Answer:

A homeowners insurance policy will not typically cover for a claim caused by bed bugs. Bed bugs would be considered a vermin which is normally excluded from coverage within a homeowners policy. Please read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and any exclusions that may be contained within.

Entry 0517

Question:

Can I Cancel My USAA Auto Insurance Online?

Answer:

I have never seen any insurance carrier that will allow you to cancel an insurance policy online . Generally a written request that is signed and dated is required by almost if not every insurance company to properly cancel an insurance policy . This is both for the protection of the insurance company and the client . I suggest you call USAA to discuss what is necessary to terminate your policy .

Entry 0518

Question:

How To Rollover Your 401K?

Answer:

A 401 -LRB- k -RRB- can be rolled into a very short list of retirement products . The funds must maintain the same tax characteristics . 401 -LRB- k -RRB- proceeds are often rolled into an IRA . Which specific IRA is beyond the scope of this answer . Most 401 -LRB- k -RRB- administrators require a formal request for the fund transfer . The actual transfer is best handled between the 401 -LRB- k -RRB- trustee and the trustee of the new plan that you have chosen .

Entry 0519

Question:

Why Is Renters Insurance Necessary?

Answer:

To help protect yourself and your family against financial hardship that could be caused by unforeseen circumstances in your life . If a fire occurs in the apartment complex that you rent in . How will you afford to replace all of your items that you have lost ? How will you pay the rent for another place to live right away after the fire ? How would you pay for damages for someone that you injured while in your apartment ? These are just a few of the things that renters insurance can cover . Remember every carrier and policy is different . Please read your policy completely to know the coverage provided and any exclusions there may be .

Entry 0520

Question:

How Long Does Someone Have To File An Auto Insurance Claim?

Answer:

If you have an accident you want to file the claim as quickly as possible . This will allow to receive payment for damages quickly and help you move on with life . If you wait on turning a claim you lengthen the claim process . The insurance companies involved will want to investigate the accident to make certain that claim are paid fairly and properly . Every company and policy is different . To know what your coverage is and what exclusions you may have read you policy completely or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0521

Question:

What Does Self Insured Auto Insurance Mean?

Answer:

Self-insured auto insurance is when you meet your state 's financial responsibility requirements for driving on the road . You can avoid -LRB- sometimes -RRB- buying conventional auto insurance although it is not highly recommended . The risk of litigation would be enough to deter most persons and just let an insurer handle that aspect . Buying car insurance will accomplish that .

Entry 0522

Question:

Will An MIP Affect My Car Insurance?

Answer:

That is a great question ! If you are the minor in question with the possession charge , you better bet it will . If the minor was someone in your car with you , and not you , you might get lucky and the insurance company wo n't find out . Now the fact that you were allowing the breaking of the law , suggests that your decision making skills need some work , and that as a result , at some point yes , that will affect your policy , as you will most likely be filing some claims . Please consider this a serious wake up call . Too many teenagers die as a result of drunk driving , and you do n't -LRB- and neither does anyone else on the road with you -RRB- need to be another sad statistic . Seriously , stop . Thanks for asking .

Entry 0523

Question:

Is Employer Health Insurance Pre-Tax?

Answer:

Yes ! In fact , deductions for employer sponsored health insurance is the top tax `` expenditure " in the tax code , representing more lost tax revenue than deductions for IRA / Pension contributions -LRB- 2nd largest -RRB- and deductions for mortgage interest -LRB- 3rd largest -RRB- ; it costs five times more lost revenue than for deductions for charitable donations . Whether the employer pays 100 % of the health insurance premium or just some of the premium , the employer deducts whatever premiums it pays and the employee does not have to recognize the premiums paid on his or her behalf as taxable income .

Entry 0524

Question:

What Is The Best Supplement Insurance With Medicare?

Answer:

Best means different things to different people . To some people best means lowest price . To others it means it accepts their health conditions when other companies might decline you . I 'm going to assume that by best you mean the highest level of coverage regardless of price . That is an easy question to answer . The Plan F Medicare Supplement is the highest level of coverage you can get of all Medicare Supplements . Many companies sell it and they all sell exactly the same thing -LRB- required by law -RRB- but they do not charge the same price . Have your insurance broker show you the rate for all the top companies so you can buy your Plan F cheaper and save . Have him also explain Plans G and plan N which can also be a better value for many people .

Entry 0525

Question:

What Does Single Payer Health Insurance Mean?

Answer:

Single-payer health insurance typically refers to the federal government handling the implementation and management of healthcare . In the US , if implemented , it would likely be expensive , unpopular and provide less effective healthcare than many other alternatives . Does current President Barack Hussein Obama want to see single-payer health insurance for the US ? Only one person knows the answer to that question .

Entry 0526

Question:

Which Section Of Medicare Pays For Ambulatory Service?

Answer:

Medicare Part B will cover ambulance services that are medically necessary . Even though original Medicare does not have networks , you need to understand that Medicare has a fee schedule for things such as medical transport companies . What Medicare is willing to pay for ambulance transport may not be enough to satisfy the bill presented by the ambulance company .

Entry 0527

Question:

What Are The Coverage Characteristics For Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Some of the coverage characteristics for Disability Insurance are elimination period -LRB- how long you would need to be disabled before the benefit would payout -RRB- , percent of income replacement , `` own occupation " -LRB- this would enable the policy to pay your benefit if you are unable to go back to your OWN job duties vs being able to go back to ANY job -RRB- , residual benefit -LRB- pays if you are unable to get back to 100 % of your prior performance -RRB- , and years of coverage .

Entry 0528

Question:

Can My Employer Require Me To Have Health Insurance?

Answer:

The only situations that might fall into that criteria would be if you worked for the federal government -LRB- small joke -RRB- . No you are not obligated to comply with your employers group health plan . Although if you are not covered as a dependent under someone elses health plan or you do not have a individual policy , then you should really consider crunching the numbers and running a cost-benefit analysis against the group health plan being offered - the benefits , the cost , and your M.A.G.I. and your tollerance for bearing the financial burden that would be generally related to your level of risk exposure .

Entry 0529

Question:

Can You Drive Any Car On Fully Comprehensive Insurance?

Answer:

Comprehensive coverage on your car typically covers items other than collisions , such as fire , theft , hail and additional types of claims . Collision coverage is typically required if you are financing the vehicle . In almost every state , you must have liability coverage on the vehicle you are driving or show proof of financial responsibility . The minimum required limits of each state are different .

Entry 0530

Question:

Why Get Disability Income Insurance?

Answer:

We need disability insurance so that we can continue receiving a paycheck should an illness or disability strike . If you became ill or disabled , how long do you think you could sustain your lifestyle without a paycheck ? For most Americans , the typical answer is about 6 months . We dont think twice about insuring our cars , homes , boats or health , but we forget that our most important asset is our PAYCHECK . Disability insurance is a fancy way of saying paycheck protection .

Entry 0531

Question:

How Safe Are Hybrid Annuities?

Answer:

An annuity contract is only as safe as the company who issued the policy . High ratings with a significant balance sheet can offer the financial stability and strength when it comes time to pay claims . There are six rating services that monitor life and annuity companies . it 's prudent to review those ratings before making any purchase .

Entry 0532

Question:

Is My Pension Plan Qualified?

Answer:

If your pension is a employer sponsored qualified retirement plan , you see your contributions deducted from your pay pretax.If that 's true , you more than likely have a qualified plan like a 401 -LRB- k -RRB- . If you deduct contributions as an individual , you more than likely have a qualified plan like an IRA .

Entry 0533

Question:

Where To Get The Best Life Insurance?

Answer:

The best life insurance is the policy that you purchase from your trusted life insurance agent . Friends , colleagues and neighbors can recommend someone if you dont already have that relationship . A good life insurance agent will listen to you carefully , offer sound financial advice and communicate clearly with you and the insurance company . Tailoring a plan that meets your needs will be the agents priority and when done properly a meaningful relationship will be established .

Entry 0534

Question:

Does Colonial Penn Life Insurance Work?

Answer:

Colonial Penn Life Insurance will pay a death benefit after a waiting period of a couple years , for death due to natural causes . During the first two years , it will pay a death benefit plus a small percent more . It pays 100 % of the death benefit from day one for accidental death that was not caused in any way by the insured person 's health condition -LRB- s -RRB- . If your health is not very poor , you may be able to get a No Exam policy that will pay 100 % from day one for death by any reason . You may also be able to get a larger face amount than you can get through Colonial Penn , and/or at a lower cost . Nonmed policies offered by other companies are also easy to get . So do n't settle for Colonial Penn until you have contacted a broker who can tell you what else you can get , so you can make an informed decision .

Entry 0535

Question:

Why Do I Need Health Insurance?

Answer:

Because no one will remain healthy there entire life . The purpose of health insurance is to help pay for the expensive costs of health care . Even a relatively minor condition , if not treated properly , can become extremely expensive . Without insurance , you would be responsible for the entirety of the bill which could be thousands of dollars .

Entry 0536

Question:

Does Someone Have A Life Insurance Policy On Me?

Answer:

That is an interesting question ! If you do n't remember ever signing an application for life insurance , then chances are , you do n't . The only other way that you could be insured without you knowing about it is if a family member -LRB- parent or grandparent , usually -RRB- insured you when you were very young . The best thing to do is ask them , and see . If that is n't an option , you can always contact the Medical Information Bureau , and pay the fee to check their database . Good luck , and thanks for asking !

Entry 0537

Question:

Can Creditors Go After Annuities?

Answer:

Most states allow a portion of Annuity funds to be exempt from creditors . For most states this amount is in the $ 250k - $ 300k range , however it does vary so check with your states Department of insurance , or with a local Attorney . Also , all Annuities have a Beneficiary designation in the event of death . This Beneficiary receives the Annuity funds free of probate . Which means that the deceased 's creditors can not touch them .

Entry 0538

Question:

When Should I Apply For Medicare Part B?

Answer:

This is a Good Question . Typically if your card is not automatically sent to you 3 months before your 65th birthday , you can apply online at the social security or Medicare site , you can also go to your local social security office . If you are working still , you may be able to defer part B . If you are in the Illinois , Kentucky , Arizona , Florida , Hawaii , Michigan , Montana , New Mexico or Wyoming , you can contact me ; otherwise contact a broker in your area to help you with all your options .

Entry 0539

Question:

Does Medicare Part B Cover Hospice?

Answer:

Medicare does cover hospice care for terminally ill patients . Care must be given by a doctor , nurse or skilled attendant . Once you are in hospice , Medicare will not cover any treatment intended to cure your illness . This includes prescription drugs for your illness . Medicare will not cover room and board in a hospital or nursing home if you are under hospice care .

Entry 0540

Question:

Does Progressive Sell Life Insurance?

Answer:

No , according to their website , Progressive is not licensed to sell life insurance . They sell auto insurance , home insurance , motorcycle insurance , boat insurance , RV insurance , commercial auto insurance , snowmobile insurance , Segway insurance , a personal umbrella policy , and business insurance -LRB- worker 's compensation insurance , general liability insurance , business owners insurance , and commercial vehicle insurance -RRB- .

Entry 0541

Question:

Can I Get Medicare If I Never Worked?

Answer:

There are a few ways to qualify for Medicare if you have never worked . If you are married and your spouse qualifies for Medicare you can receive benefits . You must have been married for at least a year , be a citizen or legal resident . You can also buy in to the Medicare system if you meet residency requirements .

Entry 0542

Question:

Is AAA Life Insurance Any Good?

Answer:

Life insurance by AAA , also called the `` auto club " by many , is primarily in the auto business and known for its ' roadside assistance . However , the also sell life insurance . Financially they are rated an A - by AM Best , the fourth highest rating . My experience with them is limited by the fact they use in-house agents to sell their product .

Entry 0543

Question:

Who Offers Short Term Disability Insurance For Maternity Leave?

Answer:

There are two companies that I am aware of that offer short term disability insurance that you can use for pregnancy and childbirth . One is Mutual of Omaha and one is Assurity Life . Please contact me if you would like me to look into getting you a short term disability insurance quote .

Entry 0544

Question:

How To Get Money From Retirement Plan?

Answer:

In Canada , how you get money from a retirement plan depends on what type of plan . If it is a Registered Retirement Plan -LRB- RRSP -RRB- then getting money out is as simple as deregistering and surrendering the plan . You will have to pay tax as the amount will be added to your income . There will be a withholding tax , currently 10 % for up to $ 5,000 , 20 % for $ 5,001 to $ 15,000 and 30 % for over $ 15,000 . If it is a pension plan you can not get money from the plan other than as an income while you are with the company . Depending on circumstances , money from a pension plan is either transferred into a `` regular RRSP " and can be withdrawn or a `` locked in RRSP " and usually can not other than as an income . Check with your advisor before you do anything to make sure you are making an informed decision . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me . If you would like to work with a local Retirement Planner , you could start with a Google search . For example , if you search for : retirement planner Halifax or retirement planning Halifax , my name , along with several others , will come up . You can use the same method to find Retirement Planners in your community .

Entry 0545

Question:

Can Annuities Fail?

Answer:

Can annuities fail ? Yes , there is always that possibility and it has occurred on a small scale in the past . It is important to review the insurance company that you are considering buying from as you 're about to make a long term purchase and you need to see their books and see how they are doing . Nobody wants their insurance company to die before they do . Almost every state offers some protection from failures and you would have to check with your own state to see their rules and regulations for annuities sold in their state . You will have to check with your state office of the insurance commissioner for that information .

Entry 0546

Question:

What Is The Best Medicare Plan In California?

Answer:

California has a lot of good Medicare plans , and there is surely one that is `` best " for you . Medicare insurance rates vary greatly by age , tobacco use , zip code and plan design . The older you are the higher your Medicare supplement rate will be . The exception is for those who are under age 65 and on disability and Medicare . In most states rates for under age 65 are astronomical . Tobacco use often adds 20 % to the rate but can be more , depending on the carrier . Online sites offering instant Medicare plan rates can be helpful but if you want the lowest rates you need to talk to an independent Medicare agent .

Entry 0547

Question:

When Are Annuities Good?

Answer:

Annuities are good when a person wants to avoid risk of loss and desires a legally enforceable contract to receive principal and interest returns . Annuities are coveted when people deem it prudent to take distributions over time to making certain the income does not run out . The tax code allows advantaged distribution corridors based on established actuarial tables . The annuity owner can keep the option to direct funds to desired beneficiaries in most contracts .

Entry 0548

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Diamond Rings?

Answer:

Most renters or tenants insurance policies cover lost jewelry . However , they almost always limit the amount of loss . Frequently the limit is around $ 1000 . That loss would be adjusted by the deductible . If you require more coverage , most tenants policies can be endorsed to provide worldwide coverage for jewelry . These endorsements normally require an appraisal and the value stated is the appraised amount .

Entry 0549

Question:

What Do I Need To Join Medicare?

Answer:

If you have paid into Medicare through payroll taxes for 40 quarters and are drawing on Social Security at age 65 , you will automatically be enrolled in Medicare . If you are younger and wanting to join Medicare , you do so by paying Medicare taxes . They are charged for self employed , employees , and government workers , so simply working at a legitimate job will get you on the road to receiving Medicare when you are age 65 + .

Entry 0550

Question:

Why Buy Long Term Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Why buy long term disability insurance ? Buy it to prevent a hardship from becoming a tragedy . When an injury or illness is severe enough to cause someone to be laid off for months or years at a time , additional bills are racked up in addition to normal living expenses . Disability Insurance provides up to 80 % of the income lost , allowing most workers to get by without having to move and make other drastic changes at a difficult time .

Entry 0551

Question:

Is Medicare Or Medicaid For Old People?

Answer:

That is a great question ! I guess the answer depends upon what your definition is of old . Medicare is a program that was designed to provide seniors 65 or older the opportunity to receive affordable health care . There are instances when you can receive it before turning 65 , but that is the usual standard . Medicaid is different . It is a program designed to help elderly or low income people find affordable health care . Medicaid differs from Medicare in that it is State run , not Federally , so there can be great differences from state to state in costs and benefits . I hope that answers your question , if you would like more detail , contact me , I 'm happy to help . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0552

Question:

How Much Are Annuities Paying?

Answer:

Presently , fixed annuity rates are paying 2.95 % guaranteed for five years and 3.25 % for ten years . The spread is only 35 basis points for double the time period . Not a good deal for consumers if rates go up . And keep in mind that ten year annuities generally have heavy surrender charges , so it would be punitive to move them in a rising interest rate market .

Entry 0553

Question:

If I do not have an alarm system in my business and I get broken into, will insurance policy cover any damages and losses?

Answer:

When your agent was talking to you in the beginning about all of your insurance needs did they ask you about the alarm system ? Some but not all insurance companies will require an active alarm system to offer theft coverage on owned property . Most insurance companies will offer premium discounts on property coverage with an active , central station monitored alarm system but will not exclude theft coverage without the alarm . I would recommend that you contact your agent and ask them for a copy of your original application if you do n't already have a copy . That will indicate how the alarm system question was initially answered . Also , ask your agent if your insurance company requires an alarm system to be covered for theft on your property coverage . I would do this as soon as possible . If your company does require the active alarm to have theft coverage , then you will want to get that alarm system up as soon as possible to avoid having a break in or burglary denied by your insurance company . The thing to remember is that every insurance company is different in their policy forms . I would find out about this right away from your insurance company/agent .

Entry 0554

Question:

What Is Wellpoint Health Insurance?

Answer:

WellPoint Health Networks , Inc. merged with Anthem where the name WellPoint , Inc. was adopted . WellPoint is an independent company of the BCBS Association . WellPoint is now the largest managed health care company in the Blue Cross and Blue Shield family association serving California , Colorado , Connecticut , Georgia , Indian , Kentucky , Maine , Missouri , Nevada , New Hampshire , New York , Ohio , Virginia , Washington D.C. , and Wisconsin . It operates under other names in the mentioned states as Blue Cross , Anthem and UniCare .

Entry 0555

Question:

Does Herpes Affect Life Insurance?

Answer:

Having herpes generally will not affect your life insurance rate . If you are eligible for the best health rating based on your build , health , and other risk , you should still be able to get the best rating despite having herpes . Some life insurance applications do not ask about STD 's at all , and others do ask , but will not penalize you for having herpes .

Entry 0556

Question:

Can A Landlord Require Renters Insurance In Ohio?

Answer:

Yes , a landlord can require a tenant to purchase renters insurance . Landlords are responsible for insurance that covers the dwelling , but renters are responsible for their belongings. Renters can also be held liable for any injuries that happen in the dwelling , which would be covered by the renters insurance . Since renters insurance is so inexpensive , it 's always a good idea to have renters insurance , rather than risk losing everything .

Entry 0557

Question:

What Is Multiplan Health Insurance?

Answer:

Multiplan health insurance is not health insurance . Multiplan is a national PPO network that is used by some health insurance carriers either as a primary network or secondary . There are medical discount plans that promote the benefits of the Multiplan network but discount plans should never be considered a substitute for true major medical coverage .

Entry 0558

Question:

Is Private Health Insurance Tax Deductible For Self Employed?

Answer:

Well , Yes and No . You can always deduct your individual health insurance premiums on your Schedule A , Itemized Deductions , on your income tax form along with other eligible medical expenses . The catch is -LRB- there always is one is n't there ? -RRB- that you have to itemize your deductions -LRB- which you are probably doing as a self-employed person -RRB- and that thanks to ObamaCare your total deductible medical expenses now have to exceed 10 % of your income before you receive any tax benefit . This is generally a pretty high bar to clear for most self-employed people and so the net effect for most self-employed persons is that they receive little or no tax benefit . But as some politicians seem to like to point out , you did n't really build your business . So , why should you get a tax break ? And someone has to pay the taxes to provide for the subsidies for other people 's health insurance or Medicaid coverage . We all know that everyone who owns a business is rich so why not you ?

Entry 0559

Question:

Does My Spouse Have To Be On My Auto Insurance?

Answer:

You 'll also want to consider having her on your policy as the MARRIED rate is normally LOWER than the SINGLE rate . Showing your spouse will `` prove " you are married . You might not want to let him/her drive your vehicle but that is between you and him/her . Also , if the spouse has their own vehicle , the `` multi-car " discount will also save you money .

Entry 0560

Question:

What Should My Deductible Be For My Home Insurance?

Answer:

That is a great question ! The answer really lies with your level of risk tolerance and where your level of affordability lies . The higher the deductible , the cheaper your premiums will be , but if the deductible is set to a point where you could n't raise that amount in an emergency , then it 's not good either . You want to have a deductible that you can safely come up with , but yet allow you to safely afford the premiums . Thank you for asking !

Entry 0561

Question:

How Long Can I Go Without Auto Insurance?

Answer:

In California we are obligated to be financially responsible as defined in the law . We are not required to have insurance . We must be able to demonstrate that we can meet all the expenses of an accident regardless of our guilt or innocence . Insurance is the most efficient way to meet this requirement . The potential losses in an accident can be staggering .

Entry 0562

Question:

When Is Life Insurance Not Worth It?

Answer:

There are wealthy people in the world who choose to self-insure based on the liquidity position of their financial holdings . In the ideal and unreal world of the affluent , you dont need life insurance because you have no financial liabilities , you leave you assets to heirs and charities and you dont care about economic leverage and tax favored treatment of the death benefit proceeds . In the real world of the wealthy , most care about every item on this short list .

Entry 0563

Question:

How Does Retirement Annuities Work?

Answer:

There are two annuity retirement plans : qualified and non-qualified . Annuities are designed and should be purchased ultimately as an income strategy for your golden years . Qualified annuity payments are completely taxable at ordinary income tax rates . Non-qualified annuities are taxed as ordinary income on the policy's gain , but not the basis . There are two distribution formats : withdrawals and annuitization . Lifetime annuitization credits the prevailing interest rate and adds the appropriate mortality credits for lifetime income you can't outlive .

Entry 0564

Question:

Does Health Insurance Cover Nicotine Patches?

Answer:

It depends on your policy but more and more companies are paying for smoking cessation programs prescribed by a doctor . It depends on the company so check with your agent or call the company to receive a more definitive answer to your question . Your agent or customer service can help you .

Entry 0565

Question:

How Can I Cancel Medicare Part B?

Answer:

You can call 1-800-MEDICARE . I highly discourage it however unless you have an employer group plan . You can be penalized by Medicare for every month that you do not carry Part B that you are eligible . If you are in a Medicare Advantage Plan you will be disenrolled because you must have part B to be enrolled in a Medicare Advantage . Not a good idea to cancel your part B . The potential cost over what you would save could be tremendous .

Entry 0566

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Aquariums?

Answer:

An aquarium is personal property and would be covered for the perils of the policy . Most common that come to mind are fire , theft , vandalism . What would not be covered are your fish if they were lost or just basic break down of the aquarium and/or equipment . However if the aquarium burst and damaged the dwelling while the aquarium itself would not be covered most likely the damage the water caused would .

Entry 0567

Question:

Can You Be Denied Health Insurance For A Pre Existing Condition?

Answer:

The day that you asked this question , the answer would have been yes , you could have been denied . However , as of January 1 , 2014 , under the new regulations and provisions that were triggered by the passage of the Health Care Reform Act , you can no longer be denied Health Insurance coverage for a pre existing condition .

Entry 0568

Question:

Does USAA Auto Insurance Cover Windshield Replacement?

Answer:

Yes , USAA does offer windshield replacement coverage . In fact , you can buy what they call `` Full Glass " coverage , which will pay to repair or replace the windshield , windows , moonroof , sunroof , and even the T-top of your vehicle without a deductible if they are damaged . The cost is only a few dollars per month .

Entry 0569

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Water Heater Damage?

Answer:

Renters insurance is designed to cover sudden and accidental losses . The resulting damage from a water heater that suddenly ruptures is a covered loss . The water heater itself is not covered but the resulting water damage to your personal belongings would be covered . Check your deductible before filing a claim to make sure it makes sense to file the claim .

Entry 0570

Question:

Is Primerica Life Insurance Legit?

Answer:

Yes , Primerica Life Insurance is a legal company selling life insurance . I recommend shopping around for your insurance needs as it is always a great idea to get at least 3 quotes to review . There are thousands of insurance companies out there however I would recommend contacting an agent or broker asking them to shop around for the insurance you are requesting . Ask them to do a needs analysis as well so you know how much you really need versus what you are asking for . If you have already taken this step , good job .

Entry 0571

Question:

Can Homeowners Insurance Cancel Your Policy?

Answer:

The insurance company can cancel your policy for failure to pay the premium . It can also cancel the policy if the underwriter determines that the property was not correctly described or that the agent acted beyond his authority to bind coverage . Companies routinely cancel policies when they determine that a property has been vacated .

Entry 0572

Question:

How Can I Get Short Term Disability Insurance?

Answer:

There are very few companies that offer Short Term Disability Insurance . So your first line of inquiry could be with your employer , to see if they offer a group policy . If they do not , contact a broker for Disability Insurance , or life insurance agency that specializes in Disability Insurance .

Entry 0573

Question:

Does Mayo Clinic Accept Medicare?

Answer:

Some Mayo Clinics will accept Medicare patients but only as a non-par provider . Mayo does not accept assignment . Mayo will file claims with Medicare on your behalf as required by law . Medicare will adjudicate the claim , and if approved , will send payment for their portion to you . Mayo does not participate in crossover .

Entry 0574

Question:

Is A 401K A Qualified Retirement Plan?

Answer:

The private sector generally offers defined contribution plans like 401 -LRB- k -RRB- s that are pretax contributions and tax deferred accumulations . Upon retirement , the distributions are taxable as ordinary income . A 410 -LRB- k -RRB- is a defined contribution plan is sanctioned under Employee Retirement Income Security Act -LRB- ERISA -RRB- of 1974 .

Entry 0575

Question:

Can You Deduct Long Term Care Insurance As Self Employed Health Insurance?

Answer:

Hello , If you are a C Corp. , and pay through your business , 100 % of the LTC premium will be a deduction . If you are any other business form , like an S Corp or LLC , you would obtain the same tax benefits as anyone else , which is a portion of the LTC premium -LRB- depending on your age -RRB- , in conjunction with your other medical expenses , being a write off to the extent that these costs exceed 75 % of your adjusted gross income .

Entry 0576

Question:

How Do I Know What Health Insurance I Have?

Answer:

Your policy provides your health plan information - it'll tell you the carrier name , your policy number , plan details including premiums , copayments , coinsurance , deductible , maximum out-of-pocket expense . If you're unsure of what you have exactly , you can always contact your health insurance agent to get more information . If you're looking for new coverage , I always recommend consulting with an experienced broker to make sure that what you have provides good coverage and meets your needs and budget . Experienced brokers will have an in-depth knowledge of products from multiple carriers , can review a wide range of options with you , and help you determine which program will best serve your needs . Please let me know if I can be of further assistance . Thanks very much .

Entry 0577

Question:

What Kind Of Health Insurance Does The President Have?

Answer:

The President , like most members of Congress , have a very rich comprehensive plan that has a low out of pocket cost for most office visits , prescriptions and major medical claims . In 2014 , supposedly , they will `` enjoy " benefits similar to what most other Americans have . However , recently , there is a push to exempt particular persons from these newcoverages .

Entry 0578

Question:

Who Should Not Get Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

People who have very few assets and/or income should probably not get long term care insurance . If there are immediate needs that will go unmet because you are concerned about a possible long term care stay in the future , then the cost of long term care insurance may not be worth it . Also , if you may perhaps go on Medicaid in the future , even without needing long term care services , you should not purchase long term care insurance , in most situations .

Entry 0579

Question:

How Many Types Of Health Insurance Are There?

Answer:

The most common types of health insurance are HMO 's -LRB- Health Maintenance Organizations -RRB- and PPO 's -LRB- Preferred Provider Networks -RRB- . With HMO 's , you have a primary doctor who refers you to specialists . Also , you must receive your care within the network except in emergencies . With PPO 's , you can go directly to specialists . You can go outside of your network and still receive a benefit , but you receive more benefit if you stay within the network . There are also EPO 's -LRB- Exclusive Provider Networks -RRB- , which are basically like an HMO , except you can go directly to a specialist without a referral .

Entry 0580

Question:

Does Medicare Pay For Scooters?

Answer:

Medicare Part B may pay for a portion of the charges for a `` scooter ". You must be evaluated by your doctor who is required to complete a CMN and write a prescription for a mobility device . To minimize your out of pocket cost you should use a Medicare approved DME provider that accepts assignment .

Entry 0581

Question:

What Is The Health Insurance Levy?

Answer:

I presume you are asking about the individual mandate requirement of the Affordable Care Act -LRB- ObamaCare -RRB- and the tax penalty associated with not having health insurance or health insurance that meets the requirements of the Affordable Care Act . The term `` levy " is technically inaccurate as that is an assessment applied to a population in general . Persons without health insurance in 2014 will be subject to a tax penalty when they file their 2014 tax returns in 2015 . The penalty for being uninsured in 2014 will be $ 95 per adult and $ 47.50 per child -LRB- up to $ 285 per household -RRB- or 1 % of their Modified Adjusted Gross Income -LRB- MAGI -RRB- , whichever is greater . The tax penalty for being uninsured in 2015 will increase to $ 325 per adult and $ 162.50 per child -LRB- up to $ 975 per household -RRB- or 2 % of their MAGI , whichever is greater . If you persist in being uninsured in 2016 the tax penalty jumps to $ 695 per adult and $ 347.50 per child -LRB- up to $ 2085 per household -RRB- or 2.5 % of MAGI , whichever is greater . In subsequent years the tax penalty will be adjusted upward by the inflation rate . As the law is currently constructed , the tax penalties described above can only be collected by the IRS from any income tax refund that the taxpayer would have received . The IRS can not bill the taxpayer for the penalty , place a lien on their assets or criminally prosecute the taxpayer . Obviously , this means that an uninsured person 's tax penalty on paper and what their true penalty -LRB- if any -RRB- might be will be directly related to whether they are eligible for a tax refund . So , a person 's ability to structure their tax withholding during the course of the year , or in the case of self-employed persons making estimated tax payments , so that they have little or no refund or owe additional taxes when filing their tax return may largely negate or eliminate the tax penalty for being uninsured .

Entry 0582

Question:

Is Personal Disability Insurance Tax Deductible?

Answer:

Personal disability insurance is not tax deductible . However , if you own a business you may be able to expense the disability premiums . Another consideration is that your employer may allow you to add your disability insurance as a benefit pre tax . But keep in mind that if you deduct disability premiums , the benefits are taxable .

Entry 0583

Question:

What Are The Current Interest Rates On Annuities?

Answer:

The Current Fixed Interest Rates on Annuities average 2.95 % for 5 years , 3.25 % for 10 years . The rates can change quickly so always call your annuity distributor before using any quotes including these quotes . Most advisers are selling 5 year fixed with an expectation that rates are going to rise in the future . The 35 basis point spread between the 5 and 10 year rate is not enough go long .

Entry 0584

Question:

What Is Pure Endowment Life Insurance?

Answer:

Pure endowment life insurance is seldom -LRB- if ever -RRB- sold at this current time . Pure endowment life insurance is defined as life insurance under which the face amount of the policy is payable only if the insured person survives to the end of the endowment period . If death occurs during the endowment period , it will not pay anything .

Entry 0585

Question:

How To Find A Registered Investment Advisor?

Answer:

Generally speaking a registered representative is restricted on advertising . Firms that are known to handle securities probably have one or more registered representatives . Some life Insurance agents are also registered representatives . If an organization deals in mutual funds they would have registered representatives as well .

Entry 0586

Question:

What Is Commercial Auto Insurance Used For?

Answer:

A commercial auto insurance policy is a policy that is typically used for a business with vehicles titled in the company 's name . A commercial auto policy is typically priced differently than a residential auto policy due to the difference in the risks . Please contact a local agent to find out more about availability of coverage and pricing in your geographic area .

Entry 0587

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Moving Expenses?

Answer:

I would have to say no , unless you are dealing with a claim situation under a covered loss that is forcing the move and even then it is only a possibility . Remember every policy is different . Please read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and any exclusions that there may be or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0588

Question:

What Does SR22 Insurance Cover?

Answer:

An SR22 is nothing more than an administrative trail of the status of your auto insurance coverage . The form is filed because the State licensing agency has determined a need to be aware of the status of your coverage , usually due to failing to have insurance or having committed any of several offenses of driving laws . An SR22 is merely attached to your insurance record and your carrier agrees to submit status updates to your state bureau of motor vehicles . An SR22 does not provide any coverage .

Entry 0589

Question:

How Much Does Life Insurance Underwriters Make?

Answer:

Life insurance underwriters are generally paid on the basis of the amount of insurance they are permitted to underwrite , i.e. a $ 500,000 authority may define a `` junior " underwriter who can make $ 50,000 to $ 75,000 . A senior underwriter with seasoned experience is going to make a six figure income . Senior underwriters who also are MDs can make considerably more ,

Entry 0590

Question:

Can Life Insurance Improve Your Credit Score?

Answer:

Life insurance is not reported on credit reports , but if you pay your monthly life insurance premium with a credit card , it will show up on credit reports . As with other bills that are paid on time by credit card , paying your life insurance premium consistently and on time can improve your credit score .

Entry 0591

Question:

Why Do I Have To Have Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Technically you do not have to have homeowners insurance . It is not required at this time by law in any of the states in the United States to the best of my knowledge . Your mortgage lender will typically require homeowners insurance coverage to protect themselves against loss in the event of a covered loss . There are way to many reasons to list here as to why you should have coverage . Please contact a local agent to discuss your coverage needs and concerns .

Entry 0592

Question:

What Is A Good Long Term Care Insurance Policy?

Answer:

A good long term care policy should feel your specific needs in case of a long term illness or injury so severe that you are no longer able to work . Things to consider when shopping for long term disability plans are length of coverage , i.e. years benefits pay , plans can go to age 67 now . The elimination period which is the time length you can go without benefits , i.e. 30 days to 360 days . The benefits amount which is the amount paid to you on a monthly basis which can go up to 70 % of your current earnings . Riders to consider on your plan should be additional purchase option without proof of insurability , cost of living increases and return of premium in case you never use the coverage . I recommend using an experienced independent broker in order to navigate this maze of coverages in order to get the right plan at the best price .

Entry 0593

Question:

What Does Medicare Cover In Virginia?

Answer:

Medicare is a federal-government run program so the type of coverage available under Medicare Parts A & B -LRB- also known as Original Medicare -RRB- will be the same regardless of the state you live in . The calculation of premiums for Original Medicare is the same everywhere as well - your income level can increase your Part B monthly premium though as it 's based on income level brackets . Medicare Part A is your hospital insurance . It provides benefits for your inpatient hospital stay , skilled nursing facility care , nursing home care , hospice care , and certain home health services . The benefit that is the most common claim is for hospital stays . During a hospital stay , your Part A will cover certain hospital services and supplies including semi-private rooms , meals , general nursing , and medications given during your stay . Acceptable hospital stays can include critical access hospitals , inpatient rehab facilities , LTC hospitals , acute care hospitals , and mental health care - you may want to confirm with Medicare whether a certain inpatient stay would be covered by a facility that is not a traditional hospital . Medicare Part B is your physician insurance . It covers doctor visits , tests , surgeries , preventive services , and supplies including DMEs -LRB- durable medical equipment -RRB- . The Part B deductible is $ 147 in 2014 . You 're responsible for about 20 % of healthcare expenses covered by Part B - Medicare only covers approximately 80 % of the costs . There is a guidebook called `` Medicare & You " that provides a lot of information regarding Medicare coverage - the guidebook is updated each year with any new changes to coverage - you can get a copy of this from the medicare.gov website as well as look up additional information . I always recommend those on Medicare buy a Medigap plan to supplement their Part A & Part B coverage . Your Part A & Part B only covers about 80 % of expenses . A Medigap plan can cover all or a portion of the other 20 % of the expenses . The big advantage of having a Medigap plan is that it creates a very predictable healthcare expense structure . Medigap plans are also standardized , meaning the plan benefits are the same regardless of which company you purchase it from . The premiums for these programs can vary from company to company . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for help and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0594

Question:

Does Home Insurance Cover Theft Outside The Home?

Answer:

Most Home Insurance policies cover theft of personal property up to the limits set in the policy terms , regardless of location . However , there are also certain restrictions and exclusions for this . The limits and coverage will vary depending on what State you live in , so you 'll need to check your policy documents to be sure . For example , in California , most policies are written so off-premises theft coverage is limited to a certain percentage of the total for Personal Property coverage , usually 10 % . However , if the theft occurred during a move from one residence to another , and happened within 30 days from the time the move started , then this restriction is waived . There are usually also specific limits for various types of property , such as jewelry , fine art , firearms and etc. . These limits will typically state limits such as $ 1000 per item / $ 5000 per loss or something similar . There will also be a list of items not covered unless a specific rider is attached . And there are also typically instructions on what happens if the property is eventually recovered .

Entry 0595

Question:

Medigap Plan F may not cover catastrophic illness?

Answer:

Who told you that ? Medigap plan F is the most comprehensive of all of the Medicare supplement plans . Plan F covers 100 % of approved Medicare Part A and Part B charges , including any excess charges . Any Part A or Part B claim approved by Medicare will be paid by your Medigap plan .

Entry 0596

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Stolen Property From Car?

Answer:

As a general rule , most homeowners insurance policies provide coverage for personal property that is stolen from a car . The stolen property will be subject to your property deductible and depending on the type of property stolen , your policy may have a limit to the coverage amount provided . For example , money , jewelry , electronic devices , and other `` high value " items are typically limited to a maximum coverage amount of $ 500 - $ 1,000 unless your policy includes increased limits through an endorsement . As a side note , your auto policy may also include a small limit of coverage for property stolen from the vehicle .

Entry 0597

Question:

Does Allstate Offer Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Yes , Allstate offers renters insurance . Here is a link to their website for renters insurance : WEBSITELINK . I would suggest shopping around as well with the other companies like State Farm , American Family , etc. . Who is your automobile insurance with ? If you ask your company about renters there may be a discount for you as you can bundle different coverage 's that you need .

Entry 0598

Question:

When Can I Get A Medicare Supplement?

Answer:

You are eligible to purchase a Medicare supplement plan any time if you have Medicare Part A and Part B. Unless are in a guaranteed issue period , you will need to provide evidence of insurability . Medicare supplement plans do not have open enrollment . You can purchase or change your plan at any time .

Entry 0599

Question:

What Is Life Insurance Guaranteed Issue?

Answer:

Life insurance that is guaranteed issue means that the person applying for it can not be declined due to life insurance or other risk . However , there are usually strict age guidelines for guaranteed issue life insurance , with the minimum age usually age 40-50 and the maximum age usually under age 80 . Also , the policy is graded during the first one to three years , meaning that it will pay a portion of the death benefit -LRB- or pay back what was paid in plus a little extra -RRB- during those years for death due to natural causes . After the graded period is over , it generally pays 100 % for death by any reason .

Entry 0600

Question:

Does Aarp Offer Disability Insurance?

Answer:

AARP offers several opinions , columns and publications about disability insurance but they do not underwrite plans . They also offer calculators and guides , but you can not buy coverage directly through them . There are many carriers that offer affordable disability coverage . Your best resource is a full-time broker who , without bias will shop and compare the best plans .

Entry 0601

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover A Vacant Home?

Answer:

Vacancy is a gray area . Having said that , a homeowners insurance policy is designed to be owner occupied . Most of these policies will have a clause for vacancy . Generally , it is 60 days . If you do not occupy the home for 60 days or more , and have a claim , the company will have the right to deny it based on the contract . Many times it becomes tough for the homeowners insurance carrier to prove the last time you stayed at the home and some clients truly do n't remember . Each company can have different vacancy clauses - I advise reading yours very closely if you will not be occupying the home .

Entry 0602

Question:

Can Creditors Claim Life Insurance Benefits?

Answer:

If the creditor is going after life insurance proceeds that have been left to the insured person's estate, and is doing so to pay off bills left by the deceased, then the creditor can claim life insurance benefits during probate. If the beneficiary of the life insurance policy is a person, then creditors can not take the death benefit away from the beneficiary. There may be some exceptions, such as if the beneficiary was a co-signer to the debt.

Entry 0603

Question:

How Do Body Shops Work With Car Insurance?

Answer:

That is a great question ! Generally , your auto insurance company will have a contract or agreement with a local garage , mechanic , and body shop . They will refer you to them to have your work done . By doing this , they have an agreement with the garages to keep costs under control . Should you choose to use a different mechanic , you are certainly welcome to , but my experience has been that the insurance company is much more difficult to work with . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0604

Question:

How Much Renters Insurance Should Be Purchased?

Answer:

The most important step is to find an insurance agent who will listen to you , provide sound financial advice and communicate clearly with you and the insurance company . Pictures are invaluable so photograph everything you own . On a piece of paper list the items in the photos and what it would cost to replace them . That sets your personal property limit . Then select as much liability insurance as the company offers . A lawsuit can ruin you financially .

Entry 0605

Question:

What States Is Car Insurance Mandatory?

Answer:

As Mr. Harris indicates , car insurance is mandatory in all States . Mandatory auto insurance limits vary by State , however . The specific limits for your State can be found on your particular State 's Insurance Commissioner website or by simply searching the web for auto liability limits , with the name of your State . Limits vary from $ 10,000 / $ 20,000 / $ 10,000 in Florida -LRB- Yikes ! -RRB- to $ 50,000 / $ 100,000 / $ 55,000 in Wisconsin . The first two dollar amounts are for bodily injury from an accident and the third amount is for property damage to others , from that accident . For example : Using Wisconsin limits , In an insured driver 's liability situation , the policy would pay no more than $ 50,000 to any one injured person but no more than $ 100,000 , no matter how many people were injured . So , if three people were injured and two of them received $ 50,000 each , the third injured person would not be collecting from the policy , since the $ 100,000 limit would have been exhausted . As for the property damage to others , the policy would pay no more than $ 55,000 in total to one or more claimants . .

Entry 0606

Question:

Is Health Insurance Pre Tax?

Answer:

You 've touched on one of the inequities of our system , the essentially unequal tax treatment of individual versus group health insurance . Group health insurance plans are tax advantaged in two ways ; 1 -RRB- what the employer pays towards coverage is a deductible business expense , and 2 -RRB- the employee 's share of their insurance premium costs can be deducted from their paychecks on a pretax basis and reducing their net cost of buying health insurance . Neither of these tax advantages apply to individual health insurance coverage a person might purchase for themselves . Though , as of January 1 , 2014 , under the provisions of the Affordable Care Act , person 's purchasing individual health insurance through the government marketplaces may qualify for an advanced premium tax subsidy depending upon their income level . So , in simple terms , in the group health insurance world you may be able to pay for your portion of your health insurance on a pre-tax basis but in the individual health insurance world you are generally in a post-tax payment environment -LRB- I 'm not going to stray into how some small business owners structure their business expenses and taxes as it regards these matters -RRB- .

Entry 0607

Question:

What Kind Of Life Insurance Does Dave Ramsey Suggest?

Answer:

Great question . Dave Ramsey on his radio show that i listen to when I am in the car he like term life insurance . He like 20 year term life . That is good life insurance for the least cost . If you die in the term lets say year 19 you passed away the policy would pay your kids or wife the death amount .

Entry 0608

Question:

Is Part D Medicare Required?

Answer:

Medicare Part D is optional , however it is important to keep in mind that for every month that goes by that you fail to carry Part D when you are eligible you will be penalized unless you can show that you had group or other coverage at least as good as Medicare . It is thus very important you select a plan regardless of whether or not you currently have prescriptions .

Entry 0609

Question:

Why Purchase Critical Illness Insurance?

Answer:

Critical Illness Insurance can cover medical co-pays , transportation to treatment centers , child care , etc. . People often think their medical plans will cover more than hospital and medical expenses , but they dont . Critical Illness Insurance , unlike DI , is perfect for high-risk jobs , non-working spouses , active military and the self-employed . Without the burden of extra bills , you can focus on healing .

Entry 0610

Question:

Where To Put 401K Money Now?

Answer:

That is a great question . I 'm a little confused though - are you asking for investment advice , or asking what to do with a 401k that is floating around ? If it 's investment advice , that is impossible to give without understanding your risk tolerance , time frame for investing , and your liquidity needs . You would have to contact me privately for more details before I could even begin to think of giving you direction . If it is what to do with a 401k that you 'd like to rollover , you need to do that fairly quickly , or you are going to have one heck of a tax bill . Please seek a financial adviser for help , okay ? Thanks for asking !

Entry 0611

Question:

Does Allstate Offer Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

No . Allstate used to market long-term care insurance through Lincoln Benefit Life , but has not done so for at least 5 years . All long-term care policies sold by Allstate through LBL are being fully administered and claims paid as approved . Since the carrier is not currently marketing LTC insurance , no new premiums are coming in . As a result , policy holders of this carrier 's long-term care plans of insurance are likely to experience increases in premium in the 30-50 % range . Such an increase occurred in 2010 . However , while those percentages seem extremely high , consumers need to understand that in spite of the increase , the higher premium is probably still a bargain compared to what LTCi costs today . Carriers that increase premiums are making every effort to help people keep at least some of their coverage by making adjustments to benefits , features , or riders going forward .

Entry 0612

Question:

How To Get Life Insurance On Ex Husband?

Answer:

Depending on your divorce and how it has panned out . The ex spouse may see the need to have life insurance to provide protection when kids are involved . They may not , see a need at all and that would be where you petition the court and let the court decide the need for him .

Entry 0613

Question:

Which Term Life Insurance Company Is The Best?

Answer:

The inventory term life insurance companies is quite large and highly competitive . The market can be segmented into categories reflecting companies that are recognized in best price , benevolent underwriting and clauses or conversion provisions that rank above the rest of the market . No one term life insurance brokerage company embodies the best in any class . There are too many variables to consider .

Entry 0614

Question:

How Much Term Life Insurance Is Enough?

Answer:

Usually you have purchased enough term life insurance when all of the obligations you wanted to cover have been met . The most common reasons for purchasing term life insurance are to payoff debt , replace income , educate children , buy out a business partner or create an instant estate for loved ones at the most affordable price . If your face amount of term life insurance meets all of your criteria , congratulations , you have enough .

Entry 0615

Question:

Can My Apartment Make Me Get Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Yes an apartment complex or landlord for that matter can require by contract that all tenants maintain renters insurance . This would be a condition of the rental agreement and is designed to protect from a liability suit against the landlord for a potential claim caused by the tenant . If you do not wish to carry renters insurance you have the option of seeking a different landlord without the requirement . On a personal note , renters insurance is very inexpensive and covers so much . It really makes no sense not to carry renters insurance .

Entry 0616

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Damage To Neighbor's Property?

Answer:

Nearly all homeowners insurance policies have a personal liability amount attached to it . Look for that on your policy . Usually it will be somewhere between $ 100,000 - 500,000 . This amount will protect you from damage to others . If after you have viewed your policy and still can not find it please give me a call and I will be happy to help you out . Joe

Entry 0617

Question:

How Much Does The Average Health Insurance Plan Cost?

Answer:

You can get a good idea of the average for your area of the country by checking out the WEBSITELINK website . Under the ObamaCare -LRB- healthcare reform -RRB- program you might qualify for free or reduced costs on your plan , even on your deductibles . You may not ultimately decide to buy a plan through the exchange , but it 's great for seeing what the average cost should be , and to see if you qualify for a premium subsidy -LRB- which many people do -RRB- !

Entry 0618

Question:

What Is The Difference Between Homeowners Insurance And Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Homeowners Insurance is designed to offer coverage for the owner occupied primary residence of the titled owner . Renters Insurance is designed to offer Personal Property & Liability Coverage for the tenant of a home , condo or apartment . Due to the strict definitions in the insurance Contract , it is essential that the correct form of insurance is purchased . Contact an insurance professional to make sure that you are purchasing the correct policy for your insurance needs !

Entry 0619

Question:

How Long Does it Take To Get An Auto Insurance Quote?

Answer:

The average is 15 minutes that is with running all the divers in the household and vin verifications and comparing with many carriers . a Local independent who can compare rates with many carriers it may take a bit longer but the national average is 15 minutes . Our agency makes sure to take the time to explain all your coverage 's and listen to your wants and needs rather then just running a number in front of your face and telling you this is what the rate is and no listen to what you want for coverage . many agencies have what is called a comparative rater and they can show what the rate is with all the carriers that they have available .

Entry 0620

Question:

How Much Is Life Insurance For A 30 Year Old?

Answer:

A 30 year old male nonsmoking with super preferred health covering $ 100,000 of ten year term life insurance is around $ 85 annually with one of the leading life insurance companies . A permanent universal life insurance policy for the same proposed insured is around $ 377 annually with one of the leading life insurance companies . Always check the rate quoted by any online life insurance service to confirm the cost before moving forward .

Entry 0621

Question:

Why Would I Be Declined For Life Insurance?

Answer:

Life insurance is designed for standard risks . That means that the policy premium is based on an average person of a particular age . Since each of us is unique there are a variety of things that an underwriter would consider sufficiently unusual to no longer consider you a standard risk . The underwriter has a series of tables to deal with unusual risks but sometimes the risk exceeds the limits of the tables . Occupation , medical condition , location and family history are some of the more common factors that might cause a company to decline an applicant .

Entry 0622

Question:

What Is Straight Life Insurance?

Answer:

Straight Life insurance is non-participating Whole Life insurance that does not pay dividends . The premium is paid for the entire lifetime of the insured . Premiums are traditionally paid annually and premiums are level for life . Straight Life insurance has cash values and is sometimes used as another name for Whole Life .

Entry 0623

Question:

How Does Home Insurance Escrow Work?

Answer:

Some banks these days require that your Homeowners Insurance be paid by them from an escrow account . If that is the case , then when you are closing on your home and obtaining insurance , they will require you to pay your insurance professional an amount equal to the full first year 's premium . The policy will then be set up to bill your mortgage company upon each renewal . The monthly payments that you make to your mortgage company , in addition to principal and interest , will include an amount for the next renewal on your Homeowners Insurance . Your insurance company will bill your mortgage company at the renewal and the annual premium will then be paid by your mortgage company from your escrow account .

Entry 0624

Question:

Does Medicare Need A Referral?

Answer:

Do I need a referral to a specialist if I have Medicare ? The answer is , it depends . If you have a Medicare Advantage plan , including an employer group Medicare plan , in most cases you will need a referral by your primary care provider before you can see a specialist . Original Medicare allows you to see any provider without a referral .

Entry 0625

Question:

How To Compare Annuities?

Answer:

An annuity is two things : 1 -RRB- It is a systematic way to accumulate money ; and 2 -RRB- It is a systematic way to distribute -LRB- pay out -RRB- money . When you evaluate the options , these two functions are primary to understanding what you are looking at with any annuity . I will confine my answer to helping set the table for you to be able to compare one annuity to another . As a method of systematically accumulating money in an account , you need to be at work but your money also needs to be at work . The interest rate paid on your growing fund accumulation is how your money is considered to be working for you so one of the most important things to compare would be the rate of interest to be paid on your accumulations . Ask and know if there is a minimum rate of return . Beware : Proposals can propose rates of interest to be paid that may never come true so understanding the minimum rate of interest helps . It may also help to compare the performance of the annuity in terms of interest rate paid over time . Good companies can provide you a historical log of the rates they have paid on their accounts . You should also understand what the penalties to the interest accumulation occur when you decide to move the money to another provider . These are referred to as surrender charges or early termination fees . Commonly there are surrender charges for five to seven years so you should ask and know how you will be treated if you decide to move your money into another direction . Also , ask what other charges your account may be subjected to during the life of the annuity prior to making any distribution choices . Years from now you will have choices as you decide how to turn your accumulated account into a stream of payments -LRB- or outright surrender -RRB- . If you choose to surrender the account , know and understand what types of surrender fees might apply . Do n't forget , you 'll probably face a sizable taxable event if you surrender the account for cash on the gain above basis in your account . Legitimate rollover of the funds can avoid the tax and penalties under most circumstances . Depending on the type of annuity , all the money may be subject to taxation and if you surrender prior to 59 1/2 years of age , there is a 10 % surtax collected by the government above and beyond all other tax calculations . Now , if you `` annuitize " the account with the carrier handling your account , you are choosing to leave it with your annuity provider for the promise of a periodic stream of payments into the future . In most instances , once the account is annuitized , it can no longer be surrendered for cash . At this point you have selected a stream of payments for some period of time and based upon certain events in your life or your spouse , and based upon an assumed interest rate . These funds , as they are paid out , will also earn additional interest gains that are considered into the payout formula before determining the value of each monthly installment distributed to you from your account . This interest rate is usually fixed but modern variations do exist to have the interest rate move with market changes . Generally , the payout period is your lifetime , often with a minimum period of ten years . It can be longer if chosen . This would lower the monthly periodic installments because of the longer guarantee . You may also choose to have the annuity pay beyond your life and for the life of a spouse and this will further reduce the monthly payout because it is based upon a longer life expectancy of two lives . The topic of distribution is too involved to provide much meaningful help but this should help you spur a reasonable conversation about annuities and help you compare one to another .

Entry 0626

Question:

What Is Voluntary Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Voluntary Disability Insurance is Disability Insurance that employees can buy to supplement what their employer offers , or to obtain Disability Insurance in the absence of employer provided plans . Voluntary Disability Insurance usually covers disability that is incurred at the job site , or disability that is incurred at locations and for causes not related to work .

Entry 0627

Question:

Can I Buy Auto Insurance For A Vehicle Not In My Name?

Answer:

No , but you can purchase a Named Non-owner policy . This type of policy typically provides liability only coverage . The cost of this type of coverage is typically more costly than if you did own a vehicle . Contact a local agent to find out more about availability and pricing of this type of coverage in your area .

Entry 0628

Question:

Can You Get Health Insurance For A Month?

Answer:

Yes you can . It is called Short Term Medical -LRB- STM -RRB- and it is available in most states . It allows you to purchase a STM policy for , usually , up to 6 months . After that you can usually apply for 6 more months if you still qualify . You can choose a plan for a little as 30 days and you can not have other insurance in place during the time you will have your STM in place . STM does not cover pre-existing conditions . It only covers you for what happens from the date your plan starts to the date your plan ends and therefore it costs a lot less than a traditional plan . Remember they do not have to renew your plan if you ended up using your plan for something significant , health wise . STM is a great plan for healthy adults whom have 6 months left before turning 65 . It has saved a lot of my healthy clients money during those 6 months before Medicare kicks in . It 's a great plan for those in between jobs who ca n't afford the high cost of COBRA and for those whom start a new job and have a 30-60 day waiting period before their new companies insurance kicks in . Remember , it does NOT cover pre-existing such as a hernia you got diagnosed over a year ago but did n't do something about then that ruptures during your STM plan period . I just signed up a 21 year old for one month in Oregon and the cost for a $ 500 deductible , 80/20 plan was only $ 60 including the $ 20 one time enrollment fee . You can view a few plan options here for Oregon and Assurant , which is available in most States . www.coveroregon.cc Click on Products at the top of the page and then scroll down and on the right hand side it will say Short Term Medical ; to give you an idea of rates . Make sure to click on Assurant for rates outside of Oregon . Short Term Medical is a great option for those whom did not sign up during Open Enrollment and are healthy , just looking to be protected from an accident , emergency room visit , unexpected illness , spider bite , etc. .

Entry 0629

Question:

Does My Homeowners Insurance Cover Foundation Problems?

Answer:

A homeowners policy covers damages caused by specified perils . These perils are described in the policy and while comprehensive there are some perils that are excluded . If the cause of the foundation problem was damage by a specified peril it would be covered , however it more likely that the damage would be cause by earth movement which is an excluded peril .

Entry 0630

Question:

What Happens When A Life Insurance Policy Lapses?

Answer:

If you're past the reinstatement period you are not covered . If you run out of cash values in a policy and the policy lapses you are not covered . If you inadvertently or deliberately let the policy go unpaid on its anniversary or month bank draft and you are past the reinstatement period you are not covered .

Entry 0631

Question:

Does UBS Offer Life Insurance?

Answer:

Some investment brokers from firms like UBS happen to have a life insurance license so they can offer variable annuities to their clients . While a few may actively sell life insurance most do not . Access to insurance companies and products may be limited at these wirehouse firms . Insurance is a complex financial product requiring a planning expertise that most investment brokers do not have . If you need insurance advice seek out the services of a life insurance professional .

Entry 0632

Question:

Can Car Insurance Pay For Repairs?

Answer:

There are two different policy types that may pay for repairs : auto insurance , and vehicle warranties . Traditional auto insurance may make claims payments to repair your car after an accident . You may need to file a police report and describe how the accident occurred . Vehicle warranties help pay for repairs caused by manufacturer defects . If your car breaks down the vehicle warranty may pay for the repair . Normal wear and tear is rarely covered -LRB- brake pads , oil changes , tire wear , etc. -RRB- .

Entry 0633

Question:

Is Long Term Care Insurance Worth The Cost?

Answer:

I was asked the same question by a client with a $ 7,000 annual premium for both spouses . If your not sure , you probably need it ! After all , someone asking may not be able to afford the average cost of $ 70,000 + per year to cover one person . Having said that , it may be advantageous to look at the new riders on both term and permanent coverage that allow for using the death benefit to pay for LTC under certain circumstances .

Entry 0634

Question:

What Kind Of Insurance Do I Need If I Rent Out My Home?

Answer:

For a rental house you need landlord policy . Which covers your rental house for liability , loss of rent and damage to the house from fire , and other things . The biggest things people forget to do if you rent there house and move out is change there insurance policy from homeowners to landlord policy .

Entry 0635

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Injuries?

Answer:

It may depending on whether or not you are deemed responsible for those injuries and to whom those injuries occurred . Renters insurance provides personal liability coverage for the insured and the immediate family of the insured residing at the same premise . Please read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and any exclusions that there may be or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0636

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Property During Move?

Answer:

The personal property covered under a homeowners policy is covered at full value in a new home for 30 days under most circumstances . However , the limit of coverage is only 10 % of the normal personal property limit while the property is outside the old residence and not in the new . If you are planning a move , contact your insurance agent for advice on how to minimize your exposure and provide adequate protection for your property .

Entry 0637

Question:

How Many People Die From Lack Of Health Insurance?

Answer:

None . People can certainly die because they have inadequate health care but not because they do n't have health insurance . In California there are standing programs that treat medical needs when people lack health insurance . One of the aims of the Affordable Health Care Act is to increase the number of people who have health insurance .

Entry 0638

Question:

Who Should Own Your Life Insurance Policy?

Answer:

In Canada , you can own a policy on anyone you have an insurable interest in -LRB- with their permission -RRB- including yourself . If your company owns the life insurance on your life and the company is not the beneficiary . It would be considered a taxable benefit . With one exception transfer of ownership is considered a deemed disposition . In other words it could trigger a taxable gain . The Income Tax Act provides for the transfer of a policy to the policyowners child , without a taxable disposition to the policyowner , if a child of the policyowner is the only person insured . Child includes any natural or adopted child , grandchild , stepchild , son - or daughter-in-law . THAT ONE EXCEPTION creates a planning opportunity . Does it make sense to keep paying income tax each year on the growth of your non-registered investments ? Use non-registered assets you wont need during your lifetime . Buy an exempt permanent life insurance policy . Structure the policy to : enable tax-efficient distribution of your assets to future generations and give you control and access while living . Growth inside a permanent life insurance policy is not subject to annual tax -LRB- within limits -RRB- and Proceeds of life insurance go to named beneficiaries tax-free . Example : How it works : You own the policy . Your adult child is the insured person , Your grandchild is the beneficiary While living , Your adult child is contingent owner At your death , Your adult child becomes owner of policy Benefits for you Taxes - Reduce your annual income tax Control - Keep control of your assets - Can change beneficiary and coverage amount -LRB- subject to underwriting requirements -RRB- - Can access the cash value in the policy if necessary Legacy - Preserve your legacy for your children and grandchildren - Generate estate value , not taxable income If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me . If you would like to work with a local life insurance broker , you could start with a Google search . For example , if you search for : life insurance broker Halifax or life insurance agent Halifax , my name , along with several others , will come up . You can use the same method to find a life insurance broker in your community .

Entry 0639

Question:

Is Whole Life Insurance Expensive?

Answer:

That is a great question ! I guess you need to define expensive . Depending upon your health , amount of coverage wanted , and your age , it certainly can be , or it can be very affordable . It will generally be more affordable than a term policy will be , but much less expensive should you want that term policy extended . I 'd ask you to talk it over with an agent , and get a good idea of what your budget will allow . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0640

Question:

Can My Girlfriend Be Added To My Health Insurance In Colorado?

Answer:

No , Colorado does not require health insurance companies to allow someone to join an insurance policy just because they are in a relationship . However , your girlfriend can purchase a policy on her own , and you could help pay the premiums if you would like . Ultimately , in the vast majority of cases , the cost of her coverage would the same whether she was added to your policy or if you purchased the exact same plan for her individually . In that regard , there really would not be any advantage at all to adding her to your plan .

Entry 0641

Question:

What Stocks Are In A Mutual Fund?

Answer:

That is a great question ! In fact , it 's really the multimillion dollar question ! That is the hard part about choosing the right mutual fund , knowing what they are invested in , and how the investments are performing . A mutual fund that was heavily invested in technology stocks this year would have taken a beating -LRB- some lost very large amounts -RRB- , while mutual funds invested in a mix of bonds and energy stocks would have had a good return . The best thing to do is really look into the fund , its investments and its returns , before you invest in it . Be certain to have your broker clearly explain all fees to you ! Many funds charge fees that can significantly reduce your earnings , and leave you with little more than you started with . Be careful , ok ? Thanks for asking !

Entry 0642

Question:

How Will Obamacare Affect Doctors?

Answer:

when asked of the expected impact on a practice of the exchanges , 40.5 percent of more than 1,000 surveyed practices said unfavorable and another 15 percent picked very unfavorable . Only 16 percent thought the exchanges would be favorable or very favorable to practices and about 28 percent thought the affect will be neutral . MGMA conducted the online survey in September 2013 with responding practices representing more than 47,500 physicians . Only 29 percent of responding practices plan to participate in exchanges ; another 40 percent are evaluating participation . Those looking to participate cite remaining competitive in the local market , replacing some of the charity care as uninsured patients get coverage and providing care to underserved populations as the primary reasons . Those practices not participating are significantly worried about five issues arising from insurance exchanges : administrative and regulatory burdens -LRB- 64 percent -RRB- , collecting payments because of patient financial burdens such as high deductibles -LRB- 62 percent -RRB- , low reimbursement rates that pose a financial risk to the practice -LRB- 59 percent -RRB- , concerns of assuming financial liability during a 90-day grace period for enrollees -LRB- 59 percent -RRB- , and uncertainty and confusion about exchange products -LRB- 53 percent -RRB- . That worry extends to practices evaluating exchanges as well , with more than 80 percent citing low reimbursement rates , liability during a grace period and patient financial burdens as major barriers to participation . Most surveyed practices that received patient rate information from exchange insurers found the reimbursement rates of commercial insurers to be somewhat to much lower than they currently receive , with traditional Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement through exchanges also considerably lower . Full survey results - WEBSITELINK

Entry 0643

Question:

What Is A Retirement Savings Plan?

Answer:

Here's the big retirement recommendation, pay yourself first and pay it into a retirement plan. If your employer offers partial or full contribution match in their qualified plan, contribute up to the match. Take the tax savings from the contribution deduction and fund a non-qualified annuity. When you're young, you have time to invest in the market. But time can't be the ultimate determining factor. Your risk tolerance profile needs to be established for market investing like in mutual funds or ETFs. The best savings plan, not investment plan, is generally a product suitability item that needs to be profiled. The product suitability for participating whole life or current assumption universal life insurance, as an income source for retirement, is a long term saver with low to zero risk tolerance and no less than a fifteen year annual premium commitment. If designed to comply with TAMRA and maximum cash accumulation, these life insurance policies can deliver tax advantaged income as long as the policy is kept in force for the life of the insured.

Entry 0644

Question:

Does Health Insurance Cover Skin Removal Surgery?

Answer:

It will depend upon your medical situation ; 1 -RRB- No Scenario -LRB- the most likely -RRB- - the skin removal is for cosmetic purposes . This is generally understood to extend to persons who have meaningful weight loss that leaves them with excess skin . So , you may have done the right thing by losing a lot of weight but you may have to reconcile yourself to living longer with a flabbier body or privately pay for cosmetic surgery . 2 -RRB- Yes Scenario -LRB- uncommon but not rare -RRB- - where medically necessary criteria are met . There are circumstances where there can be recurring health problems caused by skin overhang -LRB- yeast infections , sores and rashes , infections , etc. -RRB- that can be remedied or mitigated by removing the overhanging skin , a Panniculectomy . This is not the same procedure as what is commonly referred to as a `` tummy tuck . " The Panniculectomy only removes the overhanging skin and does not address the stretching of abdominal muscle that can also occur and which is commonly addressed in the `` tummy tuck " procedure . As such , depending upon the terms of your policy and how a claim is coded I can foresee the situation where both procedures are performed -LRB- if the doctors went on and did the more invasive abdominal muscle procedures while `` they were in there " and this was done with your prior consent or request -RRB- and part of the procedure is covered by the policy and the other part being deemed for cosmetic purposes and not being covered .

Entry 0645

Question:

What Happens To Annuities When You Die?

Answer:

An annuity is a contract . If the company is holding money for a deferred time , that money is subject to the beneficiary provisions in the annuity . As long as there is a living beneficiary or trust , the money will be paid to them . If there isnt a living beneficiary or trust to receive the money the proceeds will be included in the estate and distributed by will or law . If the annuity is paying benefits , the selected benefit will direct who would receive remaining or continued payments .

Entry 0646

Question:

Will Medicare Pay For A Raised Toilet Seat?

Answer:

Unfortunately , raised toilet seats are not considered medically necessary by Medicare , and as such , are not covered by Part B under DME . Along with grab bars and other safety features in the bathroom , raised toilet seats are considered a `` personal convenience " item , therefore do not meet the medically necessary criteria .

Entry 0647

Question:

What Does Full Coverage Car Insurance Include?

Answer:

For the most part , when someone refers to `` full coverage " car insurance , they are referring to a policy that provides two key elements of coverage . Physical Damage protection for your car in the form of both Comprehensive and Collision is one of these , and Liability is the other . Some companies provide `` Single Limit " Liability coverage meaning that both bodily injury and property damage coverage are combined in the same total pool . Others provide `` split limit " meaning that you have a certain stated amount of coverage for Bodily Injury protection and a separate stated amount for Property Damage . In many states , a third element is required along with Liability in order to register your car and that is commonly referred to as `` Uninsured Motorist/Underinsured Motorist " coverage . This provides benefits to you and your family members if you are injured as a result of an accident caused by someone operating a car with no or limited liability insurance . These areas consitute the main portions of a `` full coverage " policy , but there may also be additional elements . Primary Medical payment , roadside assistance , rental car reimbursement , full glass , etc may also be included for example .

Entry 0648

Question:

Why Is An Equity Indexed Annuity Considered To Be A Fixed Annuity?

Answer:

Because it a FIXED AND GUARANTEED RATEBOF RETURN . You ca n't lose your principle and average GUARANTEED rates are around 2 % on the low end to 4 % on the high end . You get a nominal/limited upside gain of the stock market along with knowing you ca n't lose any money . Somewhat fixed .

Entry 0649

Question:

Will Unemployed People Have To Buy Health Insurance?

Answer:

No , you do n't have to have health insurance . However , under the Affordable Care Act , if you do not want to buy a health plan , you will have to pay a penalty -LRB- also known as an `` individual shared responsibility payment " -RRB- . Many individuals have options for group insurance through their employer or they are on Medicare or Medicaid . If you decide to buy a health insurance plan , then you would either need to buy it on or off the health insurance exchanges . Buying on the exchanges is beneficial if you qualify for a subsidy . Subsidies can only be used for on-exchange plans - they can not be used towards plans sold off the health exchanges . If you choose to pay the penalty instead of securing coverage , you will still be responsible for 100 % of your medical care . The penalty is calculated in one of two ways -LRB- you pay whichever is the higher amount -RRB- . In 2014 , the penalties will be calculated as : 1 -RRB- 1 % of your yearly household income featuring a maximum penalty as the national average yearly premium for a bronze plan . 2 -RRB- $ 95 per person for the year -LRB- If under age 18 , then $ 47.50 -RRB- featuring a maximum penalty per family of $ 285 under this method . The penalty calculations will change each year . In 2015 , method one increases to 2 % of your yearly household income and method two increases to $ 325 per person . In 2016 , it will increase again to 2.5 % for method one and $ 695 per person for method two . The penalty methods will be adjusted for inflation in later years . Please let me know if I can be of further assistance . Thanks very much .

Entry 0650

Question:

Does Metlife Sell Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

MetLife discontinued selling both group and individual Long Term Care Insurance in 2010 . They still service existing LTC policies that their customers had purchased from MetLife but do not sell new policies . To receive a Long Term Care quote , contact any number of websites or agencies selling it . If you contact a website that sells life insurance , they may also be able to provide a LTCI quote .

Entry 0651

Question:

Does My Employer Have Life Insurance On Me?

Answer:

Your employer should not have insurance on you without your knowledge and consent . There was a case where Wal-Mart was buying policies on all their employees with the company as the beneficiary . This gave them a black eye once this was exposed and they had to stop doing it . If you are a key employee , they may have a life policy on you but you would have to be aware of it .

Entry 0652

Question:

Who Wrote The Medicare Bill?

Answer:

Congress created Medicare , a social insurance program , under the Social Security Act in 1965 to provide health insurance to individuals age 65 and up , regardless of income and medical history - later including those with disabilities who are under 65 or have end-stage renal disease . Medicare is adminisitered by the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services -LRB- `` CMS " for short -RRB- .

Entry 0653

Question:

When To Buy Long Term Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Most advisers recommend the day you start working full time . Most American workers have 90 days in cash reserves to pay household expenditures . The average long term disability is around 30 months and the odds of a disability event during your working years is significant . And while Social security disability is available , its benefits may not be enough , so purchasing individual disability insurance is necessary and part of your defensive financial plan .

Entry 0654

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Storage Units?

Answer:

I would agree most tenant-homeowners policies cover your personal property while it 's in your home or `` anywhere else in the world " and there is no limitation I 'm aware of for storing some of that property in a storage unit . Although I do n't wish to disagree with a colleague , I believe coverage would apply at another residence should you have more than one but a 10 % or $ 1000 , whichever is greater , limitation would apply . Tenants policies generally limit coverage to specific named perils like fire , wind , theft . certain types of water damage , etc. , but your personal property should be covered in a storage unit the same it would if the property was in your home . Dropping ink on a rug however may not be one of the covered perils .

Entry 0655

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover A Burst Pipe?

Answer:

If the burst pipe was caused by a maintenance issue there is a good possibility that a claim would not be covered by your homeowners policy and even if the claim is covered you may still be subject to the policy's deductible. When you own a home maintenance of that home is something that can be quite challenging but needs to be done in order to prevent non-covered incidents from occurring.

Entry 0656

Question:

Is SGLI Term Or Whole Life Insurance?

Answer:

Single Guideline Level Premium is the premium -LRB- lump sum -RRB- that would be required to pay a policy up within the first 7 years of the policy issuance . Therefore , if I have a $ 500,000 face amount and for illustration purposes let 's assume the lump sum I would need to invest in order to pay the premium up without having to make monthly premiums is $ 21000 . While these figures are not calculated with a quotaqtion system it illustrates why having a life insurance policy is a good investment because I can pay the monthly premium and if the monthly premium is $ 100 I trade my $ 100 for a protection amount of $ 500.000 . My wife and children would never scold me for wasting money .

Entry 0657

Question:

Can You Go To Emergency Room Without Health Insurance?

Answer:

Of course , you can go anywhere without health insurance . The question is `` What will they do with you when you show up in their ER ? " If you arrive with a serious injury or presenting symptoms of a serious injury or medical event -LRB- like a heart attack -RRB- they are required to treat you . Showing up at the emergency room for a medical issue that is minor in nature and should be handled by a primary care physician , dentist or urgent/minor care center is another matter entirely and is one of the biggest problems and wastes of resources faced by ER departments . Any ER is going to engage in triage -LRB- determining who has the most serious problem and requires immediate attention versus persons with less pressing needs -RRB- and may direct you away or tell you to be prepared for a very long wait if your issue is minor . Your low grade fever and congestion may feel like an emergency to you but it pales in comparison to the person suffering from multiple traumas from an auto accident that is being wheeled in . In any event , the most expensive medical care you will ever receive is in the hospital 's emergency room . Yes , you can go without health insurance and in a situation of real need that is exactly what you should do . Just be prepared for a big bill when you do .

Entry 0658

Question:

When To Use Whole Life Insurance?

Answer:

Whole life insurance is an extremely flexible contract . You can utilize its features whenever you want . You dont need to explain your reasons to anyone . There is a provision to take a low-interest loan from the policy . The policy can be surrendered for several options such as a lesser amount of insurance but without any premiums in the future , or a term policy that will extend the face amount into the future for a number of years , again , without any additional premiums .

Entry 0659

Question:

What Do College Students Need To Know About Life Insurance?

Answer:

The most important thing for a college student to understand is that life insurance is issued on the basis of age and health . Normally young people can demand very low premiums for life insurance . The advantage of starting a life insurance policy when young is that there are fewer health concerns . The second thing that a college student should understand is that life insurance is all about statistics . If they have had a class in statistics understanding life insurance should be easy . There is a very large pool of people who would suffer significant loss if they died . They pool their risk so that those who experience this unfortunate event can be compensated by the very small contribution from the vast majority that survive . Inherent in this idea is that the probability of death increases with every passing year . This makes the amount each member of the pool pays into the pool increase each year because more of the participants will die in a given year . The third thing a college student needs to know is that life insurance companies are corporations that are based on the idea of legal reserves . Even though they know that a certain percentage will die of a particular age group they must maintain reserves in the unlikely event that the death rate is higher for some unknown reason such as war . These legal reserve companies are admitted to do business by the various state insurance commissioners . Their reserves are monitored closely to make sure that the companies can keep their promises . The fourth thing a college student needs to know is that even within a specific age there is a wide variation of health . I had classmates who died in their first year of college . One classmate died of a medical condition . This variation is like a bell-shaped curve . Most of the people are in the middle of the curve and are considered to be standard risks , however some are better than average and some are worse than average . Life insurance companies hire underwriters to evaluate the deviations and assign premiums that reflect how different the individual is from the standard risk . The reason that this is done is to maintain the risk pool and make sure it can keep its promises . The fifth thing a college student needs to know is that since life insurance is all about statistics the companies can develop a wide variety of life insurance plans . Some may appear superior while in fact their costs are comparable . There is merely a different design to the plan . For example a student could buy a one year term life policy for $ 500,000 for very little in premium . For a multiple of the premium he could buy a $ 500,000 whole life policy . Neither is good , nor bad . They are just different . The whole life policy will remain in force at the same death benefit for the lifetime of the insured without changing the annual premium . The one year term policy will either cancel or renew at a higher premium at the end of the policy year . If a person knew when they were going to die , they could choose a policy that would maximize benefits . However few of us have that information . The sixth thing a college student should know is that life insurance will probably form the foundation of their financial plan in the future . For this reason it is wise to select a life insurance agent who can service you for the foreseeable future . That doesnt mean to select a peer but rather someone with whom you can mature . The advice of the life insurance agent could be very important as you mature and your needs change . At some point you will probably own a great deal more life insurance . Family , debts and retirement all play a role in determining how much life insurance to carry . The final thing that a college student needs to know is that companies work hard to develop a reputation but the relationship with an agent trumps everything . If you have a good agent , you will find them to be very valuable in the future .

Entry 0660

Question:

Do Medigap Plans Cover Drugs?

Answer:

Some Medigap Plans sold in the past did cover prescription drugs ; however , Medigap Policies sold after January 1 , 2006 are not allowed to include coverage for prescription drugs . Medigap Plans fill in the `` gaps " that original Medicare does not cover . So it will pay for approved Medicare items . With that said , Medicare only covers a limited amount of drugs . Examples include : injections recieved in the doctor 's office , certain oral anti-cancer drugs , some types of drugs used with various durable medical equipment -LRB- ex : nebulizer or external infusion pump -RRB- , and under extremely limited circumstances , certain drugs you receive in a outpatient hospital setting . Some drugs in a hospital setting are known as `` self-administered drugs " -LRB- drugs you normally take on your own -RRB- . These are not covered by Part B and , therefore , not paid for by your Medigap Plan .

Entry 0661

Question:

Who Qualifies For USAA Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

USAA was formed by military officers for military officers and enlisted personnel . Anyone who is currently in the military , or retired with an honorable discharge can join . There are ways to join if you are n't or were n't in the military . These are : One of your parents was in the military and has purchased an auto or home policy ; You are a widow/widower or former -LRB- unremarried -RRB- spouse of a member who had purchased auto or home insurance ; Attending one of the service academies or in advanced ROTC at a college/university . I 'm not sure how many generations a membership can be passed down . I have a membership through my father-in-law who served in the Navy during WWII , and my son has a membership through me and my wife . I think a membership can only be passed down two generations , but I do n't know that for sure . It 's a great organization . If you are eligible , I strongly recommend you join . They have lots of great benefits besides insurance .

Entry 0662

Question:

How Much Is Life Insurance For A Mortgage?

Answer:

When you buy life insurance to cover a mortgage , you can buy your policy in the face amount and term length that you want . Often , that is 30 year term to cover a 30 year mortgage . About 20 years down the road you may have half your mortgage paid off . At that time you could reduce your life insurance policy to half the face amount and save some money . Or you could start out taking half of your coverage in 30 year Term and half in 20 year Term . Buying the shorter term policy will save you some money and when it runs out , you still have 10 years of coverage left . All this is to say , you really ca n't know how much mortgage life insurance costs until you talk to an agent and figure out the best way to set up your policy . Give someone who sells level Term life insurance today ; you will be glad you took the time .

Entry 0663

Question:

How Much Will I Be Taxed For Not Having Health Insurance?

Answer:

Starting Jan. 1st, 2014, the tax penalty for not having health insurance is $ 95 per person for the year -LRB- up to 3 persons max per household, and where dependents under 21 count as half a person -RRB- or 1 % of annual income, whichever is greater. But, for the Initial Open Enrollment Period, you have from Oct. 1st, 2013 to March 31st, 2014 to sign up for a plan to avoid the penalty ... For example, a family of 4 or more, would only pay a max of $ 285 in 2014 -LRB- $ 95 x 2 adults = $ 190, plus 2 children at $ 47.50 = $ 95, for a total of $ 285 -RRB-. But, for a single individual, they would most likely pay the 1 % of income, up to the $ 285 max -LRB- i.e. a single 33yr old with $ 22,000 annual income would pay 1 % or $ 220 for the year, because $ 220 is greater than the $ 95 per person and below the $ 285 max household -RRB-. After 2014 the tax penalty increases to $ 325 in 2015, or 2 % of income up to $ 975 max -LRB- 3x $ 325 -RRB-. Followed by $ 695 in 2016, or 2.5 % of income up to $ 2,085 max -LRB- 3x $ 695 -RRB-; and then adjusted to Cost of Living Increases thereafter. Also, the penalty can be prorated. So, if you are only uninsured for 1 month out of the year where a penalty would be applied, you would only pay one month's worth of penalties -LRB- i.e. For 2014, if you miss one month you would pay $$ 95/12 = $ 7.92$ per person, or 1 % of your income/12 -RRB-. And due to the application processes and effective dates for insurance, one day of being uninsured, equals one month. So, be very aware of when you apply for insurance and when it will take effect. It's best to work with an insurance agent or broker, and an accountant, to calculate the exact tax implications for your individual situation; to assure that you are indeed responsible to pay the tax or if you are exempt from it.

Entry 0664

Question:

Can You Get Insurance On A Car In Someone Else's Name?

Answer:

In Montana and in many state the answer is no because you have no insurable interest . But you can get what is called a non-owned policy that covers you driving any car for liability only so long as you do not have a car titled in your name . The policy is very reasonable as far as rates go and protect you if you hurt someone in and accident and also protects you if you are hurt in an accident and have un insured motorist and under insured motorist . The reason you can not insure someone else 's auto is the insurance company in the event of a claim would have to issue the payment for the carthat you were driving wasdamaged the check would have to go to the owner of the car .

Entry 0665

Question:

Can You Add A Driver To Your Car Insurance?

Answer:

If the person is a resident in your household then typically they can be added to your auto insurance policy if you want them to be added . Having everyone in the household listed on the same policy can potentially save all the persons listed on the policy as opposed to individual policies for all . Contact your local agent to find out about the policies available and pricing for them .

Entry 0666

Question:

Does ERISA Cover Health Insurance?

Answer:

ERISA -LRB- Employee Retirement Income Security Act -RRB- signed in to law in 1974 . The primary intent of the law was to provide employee safeguards against abuse if you were a covered participant in a defined benefit pension plan . But the law also extends to certain health and welfare plans including union multi-employer welfare plans and self funded employer group plans .

Entry 0667

Question:

Is Homeowners Insurance Public Record?

Answer:

A homeowners insurance policy is typically an agreement between the insured and the carrier and in some cases a third party interest -LRB- such as a mortgage company -RRB-. This information to the best of my knowledge is not shared with the general public, in fact I believe in most cases can not be divulged to outside parties without the consent of the homeowner and possibly the other parties covered by the agreement. Each state has its own insurance regulations. To find out the regulations within your state contact your states insurance commissioner.

Entry 0668

Question:

What Is An Endowment Life Insurance Policy?

Answer:

Endowment is the basic form of permanent insurance . In contrast with term insurance which provides protection for a specified period of time , an Endowment will pay a death benefit when the insured dies if premiums are paid . A " whole life " policy is an endowment policy with the endowment occurring beyond normal life expectancy . Endowment policies were quite popular one hundred years ago when life expectancy was lower .

Entry 0669

Question:

How Much Disability Insurance Should I Buy?

Answer:

You should purchase enough disability insurance to be sure if you were to become disabled , financially you would be OK . Most companies max out at 70 % -80 % of your monthly income . Also , purchase a policy that pays until you are 65 or 67 years old depending on your age when social security benefits begin . Of course all of this depends on the amount of coverage based on the amount of premium in your budget .

Entry 0670

Question:

Does Auto Insurance Have To Be In Owners Name?

Answer:

Technically to be able to insure something , you have to have an insurable interest in that something - typically this means you own the something or you are providing the financing of the something . The proper way to insure a vehicle is for `` named insured " -LRB- the name the policy is taken out under -RRB- to be the same as the owner of the car . There are times where their is split ownership of a vehicle or a lot of times a minor might actually buy the car but still be on their parents policy . There are certain ways you can list named insured and additional insureds and a lot of times these are specific to your state and your particular carrier . Contact your local agent to discuss your specific situation .

Entry 0671

Question:

How Hard Is It To Get Life Insurance?

Answer:

That is a great question ! Getting a life insurance policy is surprisingly easy - even for people that have significant health issues . Many companies will offer policies that ask no health questions at all , and only require proof of identity , and up to date payments to stay in force . There are policies in every price range , and every size . If you would like help finding a policy that works for you , please feel free to contact me , I 'm happy to help . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0672

Question:

Can You Get Life Insurance With A Terminal Illness?

Answer:

You may be able to get life insurance with a terminal illness , if you are of the age where guaranteed issue life insurance is offered and if you are in a state that offers it . If not , funeral homes often offer final expense policies , although they will be limited in face amount and cover only the funeral . Unfortunately , life insurance policies for those with a terminal illness are limited beyond a small face amount .

Entry 0673

Question:

Can I Claim Blood Tests On Medicare?

Answer:

Blood tests are covered under Medicare as long as they are medically necessary and prescribed by your doctor . This would fall under Part B of Medicare and unless you have a Medicare Supplement or Medicare Advantage Plan then you would be responsible for 20 % of the Medicare approved cost .

Entry 0674

Question:

When To Cash In A Whole Life Insurance Policy?

Answer:

That is a great question ! I 'm not really sure what your motives are for cashing it in -LRB- `` surrendering " -RRB- , but there are definitely some things you want to think about first . What protection will you have if you do surrender it ? Will you be left uninsured , or put into a position where finding a policy that is as affordable as the one your dropping is unreasonable ? If so , maybe keeping the policy is a better idea . Is it just that you need a smaller premium , or some quick cash ? If so , maybe reducing the face value is a better idea - the premium would be less , and you would still have coverage . If quick cash is the need , perhaps a policy loan would be better , all you have to do is find out from your agent how much is safely available to borrow from the policy , and keep the policy active . I hope this helps , contact me if you need help , okay ? Thanks for asking !

Entry 0675

Question:

How Important Is It To Have Renters Insurance?

Answer:

I feel it is extremely important as it is typically one of the lowest cost insurance coverages available for the benefit that it provides . If there was a fire in the premise that you are renting could you afford to pay a months rent to secure a new premise at a moments notice ? Could you afford to replace all of your personal belonging in the event of a fire at the premise that you are renting ? These questions are just a couple of examples of the protection that renters insurance may provide .

Entry 0676

Question:

When Does Female Car Insurance Go Down?

Answer:

In states like Connecticut where female drivers with less experience behind the wheel tend to pay less than their male counterparts , for the most part , you will see your rates start to drop even lower once you reach the age of 25 or so . Young women or men should always ask their insurance professional about any discounts that may be available .

Entry 0677

Question:

Can An LLC Have A Retirement Plan?

Answer:

An LLC can have a qualified or non-qualified plan . Most popular qualified plans with employees are defined contribution plans like 401 -LRB- k -RRB- s . If the LLC is a single person perhaps a SEP IRA should be a consideration , with 25 % contribution of income with a cap of $ 51,000 for 2013 .

Entry 0678

Question:

Does Permanent Life Insurance Make Sense?

Answer:

If it makes sense or not , is up to the individual . Permanent life insurance is part of a financial plan because it makes sense to a lot of people , including myself. The problem with deciding if it 's a good choice or not is how it is compared by those who do n't want you to purchase it . The dreaded hypothetical 12 % return mutual fund . You know , the one that goes up forever at the same return to infinity ? Permanent life insurance is boring , conservative and usually very safe . A 12 % return security does not share the same characteristics as RISK is a greater issue with any security . What an individual has to decide is if they want something that is boring and conservative as part of their portfolio ? For me , it makes great sense as I want a diverse portfolio with different levels of risk so I can sleep at night . But again , that is just me . If somebody else wants to experience the highs and lows in their entire portfolio , entirely their choice .

Entry 0679

Question:

How Long Does It Take For Home Insurance To Pay Out?

Answer:

Claims adjusting is an important part of insurance . The adjuster is charged to assess the total damage and make the appropriate payment . The adjusted damages are subject to negotiations . If , as a customer , you feel that the amount offered is inadequate you can feel free to discuss that with the adjuster or your agent . The length of the process is determined primarily by the speed with which the damage can be assessed and a payment settled .

Entry 0680

Question:

How Often Will Medicare Pay For CPAP Supplies?

Answer:

If your doctor certifies that you have sleep apnea that can not be treated with other protocols and you need a cpap machine , Medicare will pay for the rental of a cpap machine . Your doctor must have documented a sleep study where your nightly sleep patterns were monitored . Medicare will cover a 90 day rental . After 90 days your doctor must recertify the need for the machine .

Entry 0681

Question:

How To Change Life Insurance Ownership?

Answer:

To change life insurance ownership , you can contact the customer service department of the company through which your policy was purchased , and ask for a change of ownership form to be mailed , faxed , or emailed to you . You must sign the form and return it to authorize the change . Your agent who sold you the policy may assist you , if you ask them .

Entry 0682

Question:

Will Medicare Pay For A Walk-In Bathtub?

Answer:

No , walk in bath tubs are generally not considered durable medical goods and are therefore not covered under Medicare .

Entry 0683

Question:

Can I Drive My New Car Without Insurance?

Answer:

The laws require that a motor vehicle that is being operated on public roads carry liability insurance . Penalties for not carrying liability insurance can range into the thousands of dollars . Also you can have your vehicle impounded and possibly your license suspended . Not to consider if you cause an accident of which the ramification possibilities are endless .

Entry 0684

Question:

Where To Save Your Money For Retirement?

Answer:

Exactly where you specifically should save money for retirement and what vehicle you should use depends on your individual situation . There are however , some general guidelines . Take advantage of plans that provide tax deferral , to allow you to benefit from the full effect of compound interest . In Canada , with Registered Retirement Savings Plans -LRB- RRSP -RRB- you can deduct your contributions -LRB- within limits -RRB- and the funds grow tax deferred until you withdraw them . Tax Free Savings Accounts -LRB- TFSAs -RRB- , provide for tax deferred growth and no tax on withdrawal . Which of these is `` best " for you depends on your individual circumstances . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me . If you would like to work with a local Retirement Planner , you could start with a Google search . For example if you search for : retirement planner Halifax or retirement planning Halifax , my name along with several others will come up . You can use the same method to find Retirement Planners in your community .

Entry 0685

Question:

What Happens To My Life Insurance When I Retire?

Answer:

This is a broad inquiry . Retirement , in and of itself , has no direct correlation to a retirement plan , unless its in the retirement plan like 412i , 419 DBO or in 401k plans with contribution limitations . If the life insurance is a term or permanent insurance policy and the financial liabilities or economic exposure has ceased , then the coverage may be deemed useless and summarily surrendered . If the life insurance policy is a term or permanent policy and necessary to indemnify against economic loss for the beneficiaries then coverage should continue . If the life insurance is a permanent cash value designed for supplemental income , you may want to take income from it first and defer the distributions of your qualified retirement account until 70 1/2 .

Entry 0686

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Transfer?

Answer:

If by transfer you mean does the coverage apply at a new location , the answer is yes . The coverage is limited during the transfer itself -LRB- when things are being transported by a moving company or friend . -RRB- The coverage remains in force in most cases for a relatively short period of time . Since underwriting needs to re-evaluate this new location it is necessary for you to contact your agent immediately .

Entry 0687

Question:

How To Choose A Medicare Supplement Plan?

Answer:

Choosing a Medicare Supplement plan is an important decision and sometimes you can get information over load . All Medicare Supplement plans have a letter like Plan F , etc. . The best first step is to contact an independent agent that specializes in Medicare Supplement -LRB- Medigap -RRB- insurance . That step can save you many , many hours of pulling your hair out and a good one will save you money also . Below are some questions you can ask yourself to prepare : 1 . Is quality of benefits or price more important ? 2 . Do you want to be able to see any doctor you want ? 3 . Do you want to control your unexpected medical expenses ?

Entry 0688

Question:

Which Is The Best Medicare Part D Plan?

Answer:

There is no one plan that is best for everyone , which is part of the reason so many are offered . Each and every individual has a different set of needs depending on the prescriptions they take and their budget . Always make sure before enrolling in a Part D plan that your particular drugs are covered , not all plans cover all drugs .

Entry 0689

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Rodent Damage?

Answer:

Homeowners insurance excludes damage caused by insects , pests , and vermin . Rodents would be vermin so there would be no coverage for the damage to the dwelling caused by the rodents . Also rodents would not fall under sudden and accidental as the damage vermin cause is over a time period . Time to call the exterminator unless you can find yourself a good cat .

Entry 0690

Question:

How Will 401 K Pension Plans Affect Retirement Income?

Answer:

401 -LRB- k -RRB- plans are defined contribution retirement accounts that accumulate tax deferred and are taxable at at distributions as ordinary income at the effective tax bracket of the plan participant . Those 401 -LRB- k -RRB- distributions are also included in the provisional income test for Social Security benefit taxation . So 401 -LRB- k -RRB- income can effect Social Security .

Entry 0691

Question:

Can A Person Have Two Life Insurance Policies?

Answer:

Can a person have two life insurance policies ? Yes , a person can have multiple policies if they choose to , even with different carriers . A newer trend for insureds is buying a smaller face amount of whole life insurance and doing the balance of insurance in term insurance .

Entry 0692

Question:

What Is A Car Insurance Claim?

Answer:

A car insurance claim is when you request reimbursement for damages to your car . The damages could be due to fire , theft , an accident or many other items . A claim could also be filed if you were involved in an accident when persons were injured and required medical treatment . Typically , a claim is filed over the phone although additional face-to-face contact may be needed .

Entry 0693

Question:

What Happens If I Stop Paying Life Insurance?

Answer:

Depends on what type of life insurance you have . In most cases you will lose coverage unless you can reinstate it by catching up on your premiums within a certain time . If you have a cash value policy , there are options you can utilize to prolong or paid off a portion of your policy . There can also be surrender charges and tax implications on policies with a cash value . It is best to talk to your insurance agent about the options and consequences before you lapse your policy .

Entry 0694

Question:

When Do We Have To Buy Health Insurance?

Answer:

No , you do n't have to have health insurance . However , under the Affordable Care Act , if you do not want to buy a health plan , you will have to pay a penalty -LRB- also known as an `` individual shared responsibility payment " -RRB- . Many individuals have options for group insurance through their employer or they are on Medicare or Medicaid . If you decide to buy a health insurance plan , then you would either need to buy it on or off the health insurance exchanges . Buying on the exchanges is beneficial if you qualify for a subsidy . Subsidies can only be used for on-exchange plans - they can not be used towards plans sold off the health exchanges . If you choose to pay the penalty instead of securing coverage , you will still be responsible for 100 % of your medical care . The penalty is calculated in one of two ways -LRB- you pay whichever is the higher amount -RRB- . In 2014 , the penalties will be calculated as : 1 -RRB- 1 % of your yearly household income featuring a maximum penalty as the national average yearly premium for a bronze plan . 2 -RRB- $ 95 per person for the year -LRB- If under age 18 , then $ 47.50 -RRB- featuring a maximum penalty per family of $ 285 under this method . The penalty calculations will change each year . In 2015 , method one increases to 2 % of your yearly household income and method two increases to $ 325 per person . In 2016 , it will increase again to 2.5 % for method one and $ 695 per person for method two . The penalty methods will be adjusted for inflation in later years . Please let me know if I can be of further assistance . Thanks very much .

Entry 0695

Question:

What Does Home Hazard Insurance Cover?

Answer:

Homeowners insurance often called hazard insurance has three -LRB- 3 -RRB- policy form types known as Basic , Broad and Special . Basic form will cover Fire Lightning Internal Explosion Windstorm or Hail Explosion Smoke Aircraft or Vehicle Riot or Civil commotion Volcanic eruption Vandalism Broad form will cover all the above and add : Burglary damage Falling Objects Weight of Ice and Snow Water Damage by pipes bursting -LRB- pipe itself is not covered for this peril -RRB- Discharge , overflow steam Freezing of plumbing Artificially generated electricity Special form covers everything except that is not specifically excluded : Below are the most common exclusions Ordinance or Law Earthquake Flood Power failure Neglect War Nuclear hazard intentional act Insects or Vermin Special form has two type of form known as HO3 and HO5 in which you can increase or add specifically limited coverage ` ssuch as jewelry . Talk to your local agent so he can assess your specific needs for homeowners insurance . Your home is one of your most important assets and needs to be properly protected .

Entry 0696

Question:

Can Someone With Cancer Get Health Insurance?

Answer:

If someone is accessing health insurance as part of a group plan through an employer they should have no problem getting health insurance despite having cancer . If the individual purchases individual health insurance on his or her own and has not lapsed that coverage and is seeking new or different coverage , the individual should be able to get that new coverage as long as there is no lapse in their coverage .

Entry 0697

Question:

Can You Collect Disability And Unemployment Insurance At The Same Time?

Answer:

Can you collect disability and unemployment insurance at the same time ? Yes , depending on who owns the disability policy . For a group plan offered through your employer the answer would be no . For an individual policy the possibility exists that you could collect from both . Personally I have never collected unemployment so I do n't know if they even ask about disability insurance . They may and collecting disability insurance might reduce unemployment benefits . You may have to look how things work in the state you live in .

Entry 0698

Question:

What Does Medigap Insurance Mean?

Answer:

Medigap insurance is another name for Medicare supplement insurance . Medicare only covers about 80 % of approved claims . You are responsible for the balance . That means copay 's deductibles and coinsurance is your liability unless you have a Medigap policy . Your responsibility under Medicare is unlimited unless you have a Medicare supplement policy .

Entry 0699

Question:

Does It Cost To Get A Medicare Card?

Answer:

Medicare Part A is typically free for a person age 65 and over . Medicare Part B portion of the card does have a monthly premium which is usually $ 104.90 per month -LRB- For 2013 & 2014 -RRB- . If your income exceeds $ 85,000 per year -LRB- or a married couple 's income exceeds $ 170,000 -RRB- then your Part B premium could be higher . You should also consider a Medigap Plan -LRB- Medicare Supplement Plan -RRB- or a Medicare Advantage Plan .

Entry 0700

Question:

Why Is Homeowners Insurance Cheaper Than Car Insurance?

Answer:

As an industry whole home tends to have lower premiums over all simply due to the fact you ca n't drive a home down the road . What is really comes down to is statistics . A stationary object is going to be subject to less claims on average then a moving object . This is an over simplification but you get my point .

Entry 0701

Question:

Does Home Insurance Cover Sump Pump Failure?

Answer:

It can , yes . Some companies offer coverage for `` failure of sewer or drain " . In the event your company does , then should your sump pump fail to do it 's job and any acccumulating water in your basement damages either your presonal property or structure , then yes , you would have coverage .

Entry 0702

Question:

How Will My Colonoscopy Be Covered if I Have Medicare And Humana Choice PPO?

Answer:

Colonoscopy can be covered as a preventative benefit under the Humana plan if it is a routine procedure . If it is part of the regular preventative schedule there will be no cost to have it done . The trick however is that if anything is discovered or if a polyp is removed , it will no longer be billed as a preventative procedure and there will be a copy as a result . Most of the time it is billed as an outpatient surgery and you would need to pay the cost share applicable to it . A diagnostic Colonoscopy is going to be billed as an outpatient surgery .

Entry 0703

Question:

Can I Deduct Auto Insurance Premiums?

Answer:

That is more of a question for your accountant actually . Under normal circumstances , no . However , if you own a business and use your car at least in part for that business , then your accountant may tell you that at least a portion of the premiums that you pay may be deductible as a business expense .

Entry 0704

Question:

How Much Term Life Insurance Do I Need According To Suze Orman?

Answer:

Suzi Orman just uses the general rule of 10 to 20 times your annual income as the amount of term life insurance you should need . That rule is definitely better than nothing but everyone should go over their needs with their local insurance broker as many have different things going on in their financial life .

Entry 0705

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Property Damage?

Answer:

A renters policy does not cover the residence . It only covers your personal property . If you are responsible for damage to the property , the liability section of the renters policy should provide for defense and costs of repair . The tendency is to purchase a minimum renters policy . The cost is so low , it would be better to estimate high and make sure that there is enough coverage to replace that which is destroyed by an insured peril .

Entry 0706

Question:

What Is Universal Life Insurance And How Does It Work?

Answer:

Universal life insurance is a form of permanent/cash value life insurance known for it 's flexible premium and adjustable -LRB- downward in most cases -RRB- death benefit . Like all permanent products , the policy is driven by cash values -LRB- a reserve -RRB- in the policy that covers policy expenses . The policy holder also has access to this cash value either as a withdrawal or as a policy loan . Universal life insurance is also very well known for it 's transparency , as all expenses are readily available to the insured if he or she wishes to see them .

Entry 0707

Question:

What Is The Average Cost Of Life Insurance In South Carolina?

Answer:

To find the average cost of life insurance in South Carolina , you can go to a website that allows you to input your date of birth , sex , tobacco status , height , weight , and state of residence to get an instant quote . By putting in all types of ages , face amounts and types of insurance , you can see what an average is for those groups . However , serious health conditions can cause far higher premiums , making the average go way up .

Entry 0708

Question:

What Are The Services That Can Be Paid Through Medicare D?

Answer:

Medicare Part D provides prescription drug coverage . If you 're referring to physician services , this would be provided under Medicare Part B -LRB- your physician insurance -RRB- . You can find out information about all aspects of Medicare Part D on the Medicare.gov website - you can also contact an insurance broker for help as well .

Entry 0709

Question:

How Cheap Is Mobile Home Insurance?

Answer:

There 's many options for mobile home insurance . Some companies will write this on a standard HO-3 form . An example of a price on a $ 100,000 value of the `` dwelling " would be around $ 350 - $ 500/yr depending upon claims , credit & location of the home .

Entry 0710

Question:

What Type Of Retirement Plan Is A Pension?

Answer:

A pension is a retirement plan that is driven by the benefit it will pay to participants in the plan . This is known as a defined benefit plan . What this means is , each member of the pension is entitled to a benefit that is calculated based on a chosen number of factors pertinent to that individual . For most plans such variables include salary and time of service . The alternative to a defined benefit plan is a defined contribution plan , where no explicit benefit is made or guaranteed , and instead the plan is defined by the contributions that are made either by the participant -LRB- employee -RRB- or the participant 's employer .

Entry 0711

Question:

Can Health Savings Accounts Be Used For Insurance Premiums?

Answer:

Health Insurance Premiums can only be paid for with funds from a Health Savings Account under certain circumstances . The situations where Health Insurance premiums can be paid by a qualified distributions from a HSA is when an individual is over age 65 and paying for Medicare , when an individual is being covered by COBRA health care continuation coverage , and health care coverage while an individual is receiving unemployment compensation . That being said , one should try to avoid using their HSA for such purposes unless absolutely necessary . Your HSA is earning compound interest on the funds in your account , and at age 65 you will be able to start receiving distributions from the account in almost the exact manner as if it were an IRA . Given the benefits of having a dual health care expense/retirement fund that has a `` healthy " ballance , one should try to minimize unnecessary distributions .

Entry 0712

Question:

Can Someone Buy Life Insurance For Someone Else?

Answer:

The operative word in this question is for . You can be the payer for life insurance on someone else . How benevolent of you . But if you meant on instead of for then the answer is only if you can prove insurable interest between yourself and the proposed policy insured . What financial loss or exposure is there between the two parties ?

Entry 0713

Question:

Will Auto Insurance Cover Cracked Windshield?

Answer:

More than likely yes . Coverage for a cracked windshield , or any other window glass in your car , is included under the Comprehensive portion of your policy . Talk to your Insurance Professional about the specific terms and conditions of your policy in order to determine if you have this coverage . Also , many companies offer optional coverage that waives the deductible for such a loss . If you have this waiver protection than your glass will be repaired or replaced at no extra cost to you under most normal circumstances .

Entry 0714

Question:

Why Is Smart Car Insurance So Expensive?

Answer:

Vehicles are given price group symbols which is a number that works as a rating factor for vehicles. These numbers are based in large part on performance and how well a vehicle does in an accident and the costs that may potentially follow. I'm pretty sure performance is not an issue with a smart car but while I do not know for certain my experience tells me anytime a smart car is in an accident it's probably a total. Since the car has not been out for a real long time experience may change symbol of the vehicle.

Entry 0715

Question:

Where Do Annuities Come From?

Answer:

An annuity is a contract with the annuity holder and a life insurance company . Therefore , to purchase an annuity , you would consult with a Life insurance agent who will submit your application to the life insurance company of your choice . Some Life companies offer more annuity options than others , and some companies are more secure than others . It is important to be sure you are working with a solid life insurance company when purchasing your annuity .

Entry 0716

Question:

Does Medicare Part B Cover Assisted Living?

Answer:

Medicare is not designed to cover any type of Long Term Care . Nursing Home benefits are limited to 100 days maximum and can only be accessed if you need skilled care after a hospital stay of three days , not counting day of discharge . The care must be required for the same reason the person was hospitalized and the person must be capable of improving with therapy .

Entry 0717

Question:

How Important Is It To Have Health Insurance?

Answer:

When you are healthy you have a natural tendency to feel that insurance is a waste of money . But if you are involved in an accident or have to go to the hospital for surgery and receive a hospital bill of $ 30,000 or more , which is not an exaggeration , you will quickly find out the need for health insurance . Without health insurance the hospital must treat you , but unless you have the financial ability to private pay , they will only get you stabilized and send you home . Unless you qualify for Medicaid you need health insurance . Under the Affordable Care Act you will be required to have health insurance or be penalized .

Entry 0718

Question:

How To Buy The Best Life Insurance?

Answer:

How to buy the best anything ? Shop around ! Whether youre looking for term or permanent life insurance coverage for single or survivorship life , even cash value policies for tax advantaged income you need to shop to secure the best policy that addresses your specific needs . And to that point : Your age , gender , smoking status and health condition dictates the price youll pay for life insurance coverage . Each company accesses the potential insured differently . Sometimes benevolent underwriting companies treat health conditions more favorably than others . Another consideration is the financial reason for purchasing life insurance : indemnification , income or inheritance planning strategies . There is just no one life insurance company that is the best in all three planning categories or health conditions . We carry the full inventory of the spreadsheet brokerage market that occupies the top rankings in each category . And we can show you that .

Entry 0719

Question:

How Old Do You Have To Be To Sign Up For Medicare?

Answer:

You have to be age 65 to sign up for Medicare , unless you have end stage renal disease or Lou Gherig 's disease -LRB- within parameters set forth by Medicare -RRB- . You will receive Medicare at an age younger than 65 if you have been on Social Security Disability for 24 months and are under age 65 . If you are receiving Social Security benefits at age 65 , you will be automatically enrolled in Medicare at age 65 .

Entry 0720

Question:

Who Is Eligible For Part D Medicare?

Answer:

Everyone who qualifies for Part A and B Medicare also qualifies for Part D Medicare . Part D prescription drug coverage is provided through medicare approved and private insurance companies . Medicare Prescription Drug Plans -LRB- PDP 's -RRB- add drug coverage to traditional Medicare . Medicare Advantage Plans combine Part A , B and D into one policy -LRB- MA-PD 's -RRB- .

Entry 0721

Question:

How Much Is Car Insurance For A Ferrari?

Answer:

Car insurance rates for a Ferrari are a lot . Let me correct that last statement . They are more than a lot . However , by raising your deductibles and keeping a clean driving record , you should be able to manage the premium . It 's possible the range of rates can be between $ 90 and $ 200 per month , depending upon where you live and who is driving the vehicle . Be safe and try to keep your speed below 180 mph !

Entry 0722

Question:

Can You Purchase Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Yes , most people can purchase Disability Insurance . To do so , go to a broker that sells it -LRB- some websites that sell Life Insurance also sell Disability Insurance , if you ask -RRB- . They will collect your health and personal information , plus your type of job and income . Then they will run some plans for your to compare . You choose one , then apply for it and go through the underwriting process . Depending on whether you have health conditions for which medical records must be ordered , you should be able to have your policy within a month or so .

Entry 0723

Question:

What Information Do I Need For A Home Insurance Quote?

Answer:

Select an agent that you trust . The agent will need the address of the home . He should be able to locate the age , construction , and size of the home from public records . The agent will need to know how the home has been finished . What type of flooring does it have ? Is there paint , wall paper or paneling on the walls ? Has the home been upgraded with a custom kitchen or bathrooms ? Are there pools , sheds , gazebos or a detached garage on the property ? The agent will also need to know if there have been losses in the last few years . Are there smokers in the house ? Then there are a many other questions that will be asked . Additionally , most companies require the application to have pictures of the property .

Entry 0724

Question:

Why Should You Have Renters Insurance?

Answer:

You need a tenants policy if your landlord requires it . You need one if you would suffer a financial loss if all your property went up in smoke . You need one if you can not pay the expense of a lawsuit if someone slips and falls in your rental unit . You need one if you can not afford temporary housing while your rental unit is being repaired following a covered loss .

Entry 0725

Question:

Can You Collect Disability Insurance For Pregnancy?

Answer:

If the policy was in force prior to the pregnancy then it is possible depending on your policy . As long as pregnancy is not excluded and it is medically necessary for you to be off work you may be covered . Check with your agent or company to find out .

Entry 0726

Question:

Who Are The Top Ten Life Insurance Companies?

Answer:

You could rank companies on a variety of criteria . In the industry , companies are often rated by admitted assets . That means how much money they have . Another way would be the number of policies in force . There are other ways as well . However , whether a company is the biggest , or has the most policies or the highest skyscraper doesnt make any difference when you file a claim . All life insurance companies and the insurance commissioners that regulate them are committed to their ability to pay that death claim when it occurs . That is the reason that you buy life insurance . The death proceeds come in US denominated cash and rarely know which company provided them .

Entry 0727

Question:

How Many People Buy Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Latest number show approximately 8 million people in the US have Long Term Care insurance . This is 2.5 % of the US population and 4 % of the US adult population . Certainly given that a larger percentage of the US population is expected to require long term care , more people should have long term care insurance .

Entry 0728

Question:

Does ADP Offer Health Insurance?

Answer:

ADP Inc. is a worldwide company that offers payroll and resource management expertise to many companies. Presumably they offer healthcare to their employees . Many large and small businesses offer group health , dental and life benefits to their full-time and part-time employees . Depending on the company , they will pay a portion of the premium of those benefits .

Entry 0729

Question:

Does Obama Want Military To Pay For Health Insurance?

Answer:

President Obama recently proposed defense cuts that would without question , raise the cost of healthcare for military families . Many insiders feel this is politically-motivated simply to bulk up the number of applicants to State Exchanges . While Obamacare was intended to lower health insurance costs for Americans , it does not appear that will be accomplished for most consumers . However , in fairness , many persons will be eligible for federal tax subsidies which will lower their medical insurance costs . Open Enrollment starts in October for 2014 for individuals , families and businesses . All Americans will have some new choices to make and experienced brokers will be offering a free helping hand .

Entry 0730

Question:

Is A Variable Annuity A Roth IRA?

Answer:

A Roth IRA is a plan that meets the requirements of the Internal Revenue code for special tax treatment . A variable annuity is one of many funding vehicles that can be used in a Roth IRA . The variable annuity would give a great deal of control over investments . The Roth IRA will allow tax free income when you retire .

Entry 0731

Question:

Will Homeowners Insurance Cover Vacant House?

Answer:

Great Question . Most home insurance policies do not cover vacant home . You have to buy a special policy to cover vacant home . Vacant home is a special policy due to the fact the home is more at risk break in or vandalizm than a normal home . Please check with your local agent for more detail .

Entry 0732

Question:

What Is Employer Owned Life Insurance?

Answer:

Employer owned life insurance is coverage offered to employees as a benefit of working for that employer . The part that is nontaxable to the employee is $ 50,000 although the employee may be offered the option to purchase more coverage for himself/herself and his/her families at a reduced cost but with tax implications .

Entry 0733

Question:

What Is No Claims Car Insurance?

Answer:

That is a good question ! Do you mean a no claims discount ? Many companies will offer a discount or bonus if you have a period of time where no claim has been filed . It is considered proof that you are a safe driver , and thus deserve to be rewarded ! Ask your agent if your policy includes that clause . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0734

Question:

How Much Is A Life Insurance Policy Worth?

Answer:

If are the insured person on a Term Life insurance policy , it is only worth something if you pass away . Then the face amount of the policy will be paid to your beneficiary . If you own a Whole Life or Universal Life policy , the proceeds will be paid to your beneficiary if the insured person passes away . But there is also a cash value component to these policies . If you cashed your policy in before death , the surrender value -LRB- cash accumulation minus surrender charge and fees -RRB- would be the worth of your policy to you .

Entry 0735

Question:

How Good Is State Farm Home Insurance?

Answer:

State Farm is a very reputable company and one of the largest carriers -LRB- property and casualty -RRB- in the US . Typically , rates are very competitive in most states and various additional lines of business are offered besides coverage for cars . Along with Farmers , Progressive , Geico and many others , State Farm insures millions of vehicles in the US .

Entry 0736

Question:

Why Is A 401K Loan A Bad Idea?

Answer:

That is a great question ! There are some reasons why taking a loan out of your 401k might not be the best option . Before doing so , please consult your plan administrator and be certain to understand the rules for your particular plan . The first reason is that you may lose the ability to contribute to your fund while your loan is outstanding . Some companies will disallow contributions or matches until the loan is repaid . That can seriously derail your long term growth potential of your plan . Other companies will deduct the loan payments from your check , reducing your flexibility with other payments . The second reason is that you lose your tax sheltered advantage . The interest that you are paying yourself on the loan -LRB- you are both borrower and lender in the transaction -RRB- is considered a taxable income by the IRS , and reduces your returns . It 's also possible that the opportunity cost of having invested that repaid interest could be more than what you 'd make having used it in an investment . The third reason is that if you were to God forbid lose your job , the loan amount is repayable within 60 days . If that is n't done , you are subject to a 10 % penalty on the balance , -LRB- if you 're under 59 1/2 -RRB- and are due for whatever State and Federal taxes apply , as it is no longer considered a loan , but an early withdrawal . An alternative to consider might be a home equity line of credit , if the interest rates and your equity allow . Some things to consider . Again , I 'd advise you to speak with your plan administrator and see exactly what your plan rules are . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0737

Question:

Can An Illegal Immigrant Get Car Insurance?

Answer:

The short answer is it depends upon the state . One of the most basic principles of insurance is a person/company must have an insurable interest in the property . In order to have an insurable interest in an automobile a person must have a valid drivers license and sometimes a registration . If a state allows an illegal immigrant to obtain a drivers license , then that person can obtain auto insurance . If the person can not obtain a drivers license from that state , he can not obtain auto insurance and even being behind wheel is illegal . Political debates aside , an illegal immigrant should find a state where he/she can register for a drivers license and get auto insurance . This not only benefits them because they will get property and liability coverage , but it will also benefit other drivers because it provides them something to recover from in the case of an accident .

Entry 0738

Question:

How Does A Life Insurance Company Operate?

Answer:

A life insurance company can be a stock or mutual company . But the real operations of a life insurance company is built upon the practical theory of the law of large numbers and actuarial probability . Generally speaking , the percentage of death claims each year are very small compared to all the policy holders of any one company . That spread between the living and those who died is mortality profitability .

Entry 0739

Question:

Is Mental Health Covered By Insurance?

Answer:

Great question ! One of the great things about the Affordable Care Act -LRB- Obamacare -RRB- , like it or hate it , is that it increased coverage for issues that were n't covered before . One of these is mental health care . If you have a policy purchased through the exchange , or after the beginning of this year , then there are certain services that are free , and others that have the usual deductible and co-pay requirements . Take a look at your individual policy , or contact the service provider to know for certain what you will be obligated to pay for . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0740

Question:

What Is Better Life Insurance Whole Or Term?

Answer:

Term insurance is the best for most people because it provides the opportunity to purchase the most coverage for the least premium dollar and frees up more savings dollars or money to pay down debt . In the early years a family needs more protection while their debts are the highest , they have a mortgage , the kids are at home , and loss of income would be devastating . This is where the most life insurance coverage is needed for protection as the cash estate is growing . However , in the later years , when debts are lower or eliminated , the home mortgage is nearly gone , and the children are out of the home , less life insurance is needed and more retirement income is needed . Term insurance is the only type of insurance that will protect with the right amount of coverage without reducing the amount of money to invest . There is no mathematical reason to have cash value life insurance of any type .

Entry 0741

Question:

What Is The Best Supplemental Health Insurance For Seniors?

Answer:

If you 're referring to Medicare Supplements , there is only one `` best " ... and that is Part F. Plan F is the most comprehensive supplemental coverage . If Plan F is too pricey , then you might want to check Plan N , which has a few copays . You can also get a high deductible Plan F , in which you pay the $ 2000 , then everything after that is covered . That premium is quite low - so if you 're not really expecting much in the way of medical care , you 've got choice of doctors , great protection after $ 2000 , plus a low premium . Remember that if you get a Medicare Supplement , you 'll also need to buy a Part D drug coverage ...

Entry 0742

Question:

Can Nursing Homes Take Annuities?

Answer:

There are some annuities that people take out in order to protect assets when they go on Medicaid . They are commonly called `` Medicaid annuities " . If set up with expert advice and attention to every detail , this type of annuity may be protected from having to be spent down on nursing home care , if other funds run out . There are challenges , so it is important to talk to a trusted advisor .

Entry 0743

Question:

How Is The Air Force Retirement Plan?

Answer:

The US Air Force is a part of the Department of Defense . Their pension is actually a form of deferred compensation . Participants do not become vested after a few years like civilian plans . Rather , they become eligible for benefits after completing twenty years of service . At that time , not at age 65 , they can receive half of their base pay for the balance of their lives . They also retain many benefits they enjoyed on active duty . Between an airmans twentieth to thirtieth year of service the benefit increases until at thirty years of service it is seventy-five per cent of their base pay .

Entry 0744

Question:

Can A Canadian Get American Car Insurance?

Answer:

probably , but it would depend on the situation . If the primary use of the car is in the US , you should be able to find an insurance company that will accept and international driver 's license . If the vehicles is primarily driven in Canada , then you would need to get Canadian insurance . Either way the policies should cover you in both countries , but with currency conversion sometimes the number 's get complicated !

Entry 0745

Question:

Which Life Insurance Companies Are The Best?

Answer:

There are many excellent life insurance companies to choose from and the `` best " is very subjective . One way to rate companies is by the financial ratings from AM Best or a similar rating company . I personally only use A rated companies or better , so my clients can feel confident that the life insurance company will be around 20 - 30 years or longer when the policy is needed . Many life insurance companies have been around over 100 years which is another testament to a stable company . A company may be the best for you because they offer a particular product with a unique rider that you want . Finally , a company that provides a better health rating , and therefore lower premium for your situation , may turn out to be the best for you . All of the above are reasons to work with a knowledgeable advisor to help you sort through the options and find the best company for your particular situation .

Entry 0746

Question:

What Is AD&D Life Insurance?

Answer:

There actually are not any policies that I know of called AD&D Life Insurance . AD&D policies pay proceeds for death or dismemberment caused by accident , and the death or dismemberment must occur within a certain amount of time from when the accident occurred . Life insurance policies pay for loss of life , period , regardless of how death occurred -LRB- with very few exceptions , such as suicide during the first two years -RRB- . Some Life insurance policies offer an accidental death and dismemberment rider that causes the policy to pay double if death is caused by accident . Those type of policies still pay a death benefit for death due to illness , as well .

Entry 0747

Question:

When Can I Add Someone To My Health Insurance?

Answer:

You can only add a spouse or a dependent to your health insurance during the open enrollment period . You can add a spouse or a dependent to health insurance outside the open enrollment period if you have a qualifying event . A qualifying event will be things like losing employer health plan , having a baby and a few other . Consult your insurance professional .

Entry 0748

Question:

How Much Life Insurance Do I Need When I Retire?

Answer:

Besides the amount of life insurance you might want to purchase to supplement your retirement income ; or to help pay bills if you become critically , chronically or terminally ill ; you should consider the amount of final expenses you will have upon death . Perhaps you want to leave your home mortgage free for your spouse . You may want to pay travel expenses for your children living out of the country , so that they can afford to attend your funeral . Some people buy life insurance to pay estate taxes , or to leave an inheritance for grandchildren . There are many needs that life insurance can meet in a tax friendly way , even during retirement .

Entry 0749

Question:

What Does Long Term Care Insurance Mean?

Answer:

Long term care insurance is coverage that pays for personal care needs and other related chronic care services for individuals who are limited in their abilities to perform the activities of daily living -LRB- two or more -RRB- . Activities of Daily Living -LRB- ADLs -RRB- include eating , bathing , toileting , dressing , moving between a chair and the bed , and remaining continent . The policy typically pays for care that is provided in the individuals home , in an assisted living facility , or in a nursing home . Long term care insurance is available on an individual or a group basis .

Entry 0750

Question:

Who Are The Largest Life Insurance Companies In The Us?

Answer:

The largest life insurance company in the US is MetLife , Inc. . The next largest life insurance company in the United States is Prudential Financial . American International Group is third largest , now selling their life insurance products through American General Life Companies . AXA and Allianz are based in other countries but even larger than MetLife and do sell life insurance in the US .

Entry 0751

Question:

Does Vanguard Have Life Insurance?

Answer:

Assuming you mean Vanguard Group , the mutual fund company , the answer is no . They dont manufacture life insurance products . They outsource their life insurance inquiries from their customers and prospects . However , there is a small foreign company Vanguard Assurance , domiciled in Ghana that offers life insurance , banking and other financial services .

Entry 0752

Question:

Will Home Insurance Pay For Roof Replacement?

Answer:

It may if your roof was damaged by a covered incident less your policy deductible . Many homeowners policies have a different deductible for wind , hail , or roof claims . Please remember every policy is different . Read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and any exclusions that there may be .

Entry 0753

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Pitbulls?

Answer:

A renters policy has a liability section . It pays for bodily injury and property damage when you are legally liable . This coverage includes an animal that you own or care for . However , most companies are reluctant to provide liability coverage when an aggressive dog is present . The underwriters generally look at pit bulls as an aggressive breed .

Entry 0754

Question:

Can You Cash In A Universal Life Insurance Policy?

Answer:

Yes , you can cash in a universal life policy . Discuss the ramifications of your decision with your agent , first . If you do cash it in , you can roll the cash value over into a new permanent policy without paying taxes on the cash . To cash it in , you call the company through which it was issued .

Entry 0755

Question:

How Do Pension Annuities Work?

Answer:

Assuming the interpretation of the question is correct , qualified retirement plans can purchase a variety of financial products and tax deferred annuities is an option . If a qualified pan purchase a tax deferred annuity , the basis is taxable because the basis or original contributions were deducted under the defined contribution plan .

Entry 0756

Question:

When Is An Annuity Appropriate?

Answer:

Product suitability is a critical component when considering a saving or investment vehicle . Tax deferred annuities are no exception , especially given the fact that they have differing crediting methods : interest rate crediting , index crediting and separate sub accounts . Long term savers and/or investors with high tax brackets are possible candidates for tax deferred annuities .

Entry 0757

Question:

What's The Problem With Annuities?

Answer:

I 'm not sure there are problems when the consumer is informed on what annuities will and wo n't do . Annuities can be a great tool for the ultimate goal of retirement income , but determining whether is it good for you will be determined by your particular situation as well as your wants and needs . Every financial product , every financial strategy has pros and cons how they will impact you is dependent upon your situation . If there is a more specific issue you 'd like to know about please let us know .

Entry 0758

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Carpet Damage?

Answer:

A renters policy pays for damages caused by named perils . This means that if the carpet is damaged by fire , windstorm , lightning or a long list of other potential perils , the company will repair or replace the carpet . Recovery under a renters policy is subject to a deductible . The deductible is stated in the policy declarations . If the damage to the carpet is caused by neglect or fair wear and tear , it is not covered .

Entry 0759

Question:

Can You Be Denied Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Insurance is a contract between two willing parties . If the company doesnt like the risk that your rental unit poses , it can and should decline to insure you . In that way it is protecting the other customers who they do insure . There are several reasons that they might decline a rental policy . Possession of a dangerous pet would be one . If the property has a history of losses it could be declined . If you are engaged in a business in the rental unit that could also be a reason a company would decline your property .

Entry 0760

Question:

How Can I Save Money On Car Insurance?

Answer:

You can take a defensive driving course and get a discount on your auto . It can vary based on what state you live in . You can take a look at your deductibles as well . You may have a very low deductible and not even realize it . You should make sure how much you use your vehicle is how it is listed on the policy . Many insurance companies choose rate based on how long you commute to work and / or how many miles you drive the vehicle per year . That can change throughout the years so make sure that is up to date on your policy

Entry 0761

Question:

Can I Cash In My Retirement Plan?

Answer:

Can you cash in your retirement plan ? Unfortunately the ability to cash out a retirement plan is very easy to do . Billions get cashed out early every year , even with penalties and additional taxes involved , it does not sway some people from emptying their retirement accounts for not always the best reasons . Cashing out a retirement plan early should be the very last resort for a person . Basically you are wiping the slate clean and will need to start over . If you have to , you have to , but only if you really have to .

Entry 0762

Question:

Is Renters Insurance A Waste?

Answer:

Insurance is a pooled risk . Some people will take more from the pool than others . That is the nature of risk . It really has little to do with the practices of insurance companies . The risk that is shared is one that individuals can not bear themselves . Most people can not bear the cost of a lawsuit . Large corporations , routinely bear that cost and do not share their risk with others . That is called , self-insuring .

Entry 0763

Question:

Does Health Insurance Cover Emergency Room Visits?

Answer:

Health insurance covers ER visits , although your portion of the treatment will vary . There are numerous available Exchange plans , including four different Metal tiers -LRB- and catastrophic -RRB- . Your deductible may apply to ER visits or perhaps just a simple copay or coinsurance . To make sure you 're getting the correct and best ER benefits allow experienced brokers -LRB- and our websites -RRB- to shop for you so you 're always getting the best pricing .

Entry 0764

Question:

How Does A Deferred Annuity Work?

Answer:

An annuity is a contract guaranteed by an insurance company that provides a stream of monthly payments for as long as the annuitant or another person remains alive . Immediate annuities start right away with the receipt of a sum of money . Deferred annuities start later and offer an opportunity to deposit additional money into the plan . There are significant tax advantages in these plans .

Entry 0765

Question:

Does Anyone Know Cheap Car Insurance For Young Drivers?

Answer:

Find the cheapest car insurance for young drivers ? Save hundreds of dollars on your rates . That 's the goal of many parents an teen drivers and that 's why an experienced broker -LRB- and our websites -RRB- is the best resource for saving money . It 's important to shop the right way , quickly compare your best options and start saving . It can be done if you have access to all of the most affordable prices that are offered . That 's where an experienced broker helps .

Entry 0766

Question:

What Good Is Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

A long term care policy is only as good as the contract stipulates . And the contract is only as good as the insurance company that issued the policy . But long term care insurance can fund periods of assisted living and/or nursing home care , that can be very expensive . It 's part of defensive retirement planning .

Entry 0767

Question:

How Many Years Of Long Term Care Insurance Do I Need?

Answer:

You can request the maximum coverage which may differ from company to company and sometimes by state because the price for assisted living and nursing home confinement costs differ . In Arizona my long term care insurance policy pays 7,000 a month for a total benefit of $ 420,000 or 60 months of coverage .

Entry 0768

Question:

Is Disability Insurance Tax Deductible On Schedule C?

Answer:

This is really a great question . For individual disability plans the answer is simple : You can only deduct premium for a policy on yourself if you are the owner of a `` C - Corporation . " So , if you are a w-2 employee of a company , maybe even an S-corp owner , you may not deduct the premium . This might sound like a disadvantage , but let 's really analyze the concept . If you were able to deduct the premium , that would mean that your monthly benefit would be subject to being taxed in the event that you collected on your policy . So conversely , if you are n't writing off the premium , the benefit amount is tax free ! It is a rule of thumb in the DI industry that carriers will insure up to 60 % of your income . A tax free benefit allows you to maintain a semblance of your lifestyle .

Entry 0769

Question:

Does Child Support Include Car Insurance?

Answer:

This question is very non-descript . If you are asking if child support paid would have an inclusion of an amount specifically for auto insurance , then that would be a question for your attorney or the judge that ruled on the support amount . I have not personally ever heard of this every being done .

Entry 0770

Question:

Who Can Be Your Life Insurance Beneficiary?

Answer:

On a life insurance policy you own on your own life , you may name anyone as the beneficiary of the policy . The concept of insurable interest provides that one has an unlimited interest in their own life . You may also change the beneficiary at any time . All other insurable interest arrangements have limits .

Entry 0771

Question:

Can You Claim A Tummy Tuck On Medicare?

Answer:

Medicare will only covered medically necessary procedures . Since a tummy tuck is usually cosmetic , it will most likely not be covered by Medicare . There may be rare situations that make it medically necessary but as a rule the answer to your question would be no it is not covered .

Entry 0772

Question:

How Does Car Insurance Value Totaled Car?

Answer:

A car insurance company will generally provide you with the value of your car - - pre wreck . A car insurance company will typically take a look at similar vehicles and how much they are selling for in your area . They may also take a look at the Kelly Blue Book Value .

Entry 0773

Question:

Why Should I Buy A Fixed Annuity?

Answer:

That is a great question ! A fixed annuity is a way to give yourself an easily defined amount of money to provide a steady income stream from in retirement . People who like security like this type of annuity , because the interest rate is clearly stated and computed . This is a great investment as long as the rate is enough to outpace inflation , and the fees , and be comparable to what you might have received in other investments . I hope that helps , thanks for asking !

Entry 0774

Question:

What Services Does Medicare Part D Cover?

Answer:

Medicare Part D covers a portion of your outpatient Rx benefits . Part D is available from private insurance carriers and has a monthly premium of anywhere from $ 15 monthly on up to over $ 100 . Each plan is different . Some have deductibles , some do n't . All have copay 's . Check your formulary before signing up .

Entry 0775

Question:

Does Metlife Offer Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Unfortunately , MetLife discontinued offering Long Term Care Insurance in 2010 . Since then , they continue to service the individual and group long term care policies that they had sold previously , but have not yet started offering a new long term care insurance product . MetLife continues to offer a large line of other insurance products .

Entry 0776

Question:

How To Cut Homeowners Insurance Costs?

Answer:

Talk to your Insurance Professional about making sure you are taking advantage of any available discounts . Many companies offer very nice discounts if you also insure your cars with them , this can save you quite a bit for sure , and some companies will deepen the discount if you also have Life Insurance with them . Also ask about a discount for having a central alarm , a new roof , electrical , plumbing or HVAC upgrades .

Entry 0777

Question:

Does The Affordable Care Act Cover Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Does the affordable care act cover long term care insurance ? At first , yes it did . Long term care was part of the ACA . Early on , it was removed or parked as part of the plan due to the realization that it is not affordable to extend the benefit to all people . It is one of what will probably be many aspects of the ACA that does n't pencil out math wise .

Entry 0778

Question:

Is Car Insurance Valid On Private Land?

Answer:

Car insurance is valid on private and public land . Although a citation may not be issued , the coverage -LRB- liability , collision , comprehensive -RRB- etc. . . would apply . If driving on public land and you have an accident -LRB- especially if you are hit by another driver -RRB- , you can still call the policy at that time .

Entry 0779

Question:

What Is Actual Cash Value In Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

The actual cash value is defined in your policy . Generally it is the amount necessary to replace the property with materials that are approximately the same as those damaged . This value is set at the time of loss . This is most easily understood if we consider personal property . Consider the effects of fire damage to a couch . The actual cash value of the couch is set at the amount necessary to replace the couch with another couch that is of similar quality and age as the one lost . If the policy has replacement cost coverage for personal property it would replace the couch with one of similar quality but new . Under no circumstances will recovery exceed the values listed in the policy .

Entry 0780

Question:

What Do I Need To Know To Get Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

It would be best if you knew the current value of your personal property and the replacement cost of the same items . That way you can compare the premiums for the two types of coverage . The only other critical thing to know is the highest amount of liability insurance that you can afford . These issues can be handled smoothly by a competent insurance agent .

Entry 0781

Question:

Can I Pay Health Insurance Premiums With Fsa?

Answer:

Can you pay health insurance premiums with a Flexible Spending Account ? I guess the first thing I would ask is if you have a FSA in place , are n't your premiums already being deducted pre-tax ? I do n't know of any business situation that offers a FSA plan that does n't already have employee paid premiums already taken pre-tax . Do you mean health insurance premiums for another family member who is not part of your employer 's plan ? I believe the answer would be no . FSA in regard to medical , dental and vision expenses are designed to pay towards out of pocket expenses a person has during a plan year .

Entry 0782

Question:

Can I Be Denied Health Insurance In 2014?

Answer:

Under The Affordable Care Act there will not be any medical underwriting associated with getting a health insurance policy issued . That means that if you are not in great health , you can still get health insurance to help pay your medical expenses . There are also federal subsidies available that are income-based where you may qualify for government assistance to pay a portion of your insurance premiums .

Entry 0783

Question:

Does Medicaid Pay Part B Of Medicare?

Answer:

Medicaid is a state run program for poor or low income individuals , & Medicare is a Federal program . Part B premiums are deducted from your Social Security generally . Some individuals that have not worked 40 quarters or more during their working careers , may have an additional cost for Medicare . The Medicare program part `` A " is for Hospitalization , part `` B " , is for doctor visits , part `` C " is Medicare Advantage , & part `` D " is prescription drug coverage .

Entry 0784

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Cialis For BPH?

Answer:

Unfortunately , Medicare does not cover Cialis for BPH -LRB- benign prostatic hyperplasia -RRB- . The FDA approved Cialis for the treatment of enlarged prostate symptoms in 2011 . However , Medicare does not cover Cialis for BPH , erectile dysfunction , or other medical conditions , either through Part B or through Part D prescription drug plans .

Entry 0785

Question:

Is Gleevec Covered By Medicare Part B?

Answer:

Gleevec is a prescription drug used to treat certain types of cancer including CML -LRB- chronic myeloid leukemia -RRB- . Prescription drugs such as Gleevec are filled on an outpatient basis and would be covered under your Medicare Part D. Verify coverage by reviewing the drug formulary of any Part D plan . Gleevec is usually tier 3 or tier 4 and may involve coinsurance .

Entry 0786

Question:

Why Doesn't Medicare Cover Shingles Vaccine?

Answer:

Medicare Part A is designed for hospital coverage . Medicare Part B covers physician services . Medicare Part D covers prescription drugs . These coverages are not complete . Supplemental plans are available that are formulated by Medicare to cover the gaps in coverage . The administration of a vaccine would probably be covered if all four of these policies were in force .

Entry 0787

Question:

Is Renters Insurance Worthwhile?

Answer:

Ask yourself these question : If I came home and found that the apartment I was renting as my home had been completely destroyed by a fire , would I have the finacial wherewithall to fully replace all of my lost possessions with items of the same value and quality ? Or if someone tripped over my bike which I left leaning against the house while I went into my apartment to get some water after a long ride , and they broke their arm and I was sued as a result , do I have the finanacial strength to pay their damages ? If you answered yes to those , you probably do n't need renters ' insurance . On the other hand , you could have that protection for pennies on the dollar by paying an insurance company to protect your interests . Your choice .

Entry 0788

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Pet Liability?

Answer:

Pet liability is a big issue and generally when the question is asked it pertains to a dog . Most renters insurance will exclude certain types of dogs if they bit someone . These particular dogs but not limited to are pit bulls , boxers , Akita , rottweilers , chows , and maybe more . It is very important you speak with a local agent on this issue about the breed of dog you own and if your renters insurance would protect you in the event of a dog bite .

Entry 0789

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Typically Cover Dry Rot?

Answer:

I am going to have to give you the boring insurance agent answer : You need to check your policy and the perils -LRB- cause of loss -RRB- too see if your policy does indeed cover the loss . There are many home insurance policies and I can not comment on your policy , coverage and so on . However , I will say in my opinion this is a maintenance issue and would not be covered on your home insurance policy . It does get frustrating as a homeowner because you can not see everything but we are still responsible for the upkeep and maintenance of our property . Heck I recently had a hail storm in my area and had to put in a claim on my home and found I had dry rot on some window frames and had to deal with this issue myself .

Entry 0790

Question:

What Does Medicare Pay For Nursing Home Care?

Answer:

Medicare pays for the first 20 days of a * qualified stay in the nursing home , and then it will pay all but $ 152/day to day 100 . After day 100 , the only nursing home care that is paid is what would have been paid if the recipient is not in the nursing home . I.e. Drugs and durable medical equipment , doctor visits , hospital stays , and other qualified products and services . * To be a qualified stay , the patient must have been in the hospital for at least three days for the same condition for which they are going to the nursing home . The health condition must be medically determined to need skilled nursing care from a Medicare approved facility . Without these qualifiers , Medicare will not pay any part of the nursing home care , except that which they would have received if they not in a nursing home .

Entry 0791

Question:

Does My Allstate Auto Insurance Cover Rental Cars?

Answer:

Your auto insurance will cover you when you rent a car with the same coverage ` syou currently carry on your personal auto policy . All rules , coverage 's deductibles and limits apply . A rental car is considered a temporary substitute vehicle . Keep in mind this must be a vehicle of the private passenger type , not U-hauls or commercial vehicles . Also renting a vehicle does not give you permission to loan the vehicle to another party as all operators must be listed on the rental agreement . I recommend you call your insurance carrier before renting a vehicle to make sure your policy coverage ` sare adequate .

Entry 0792

Question:

Can I Claim CPAP On Medicare?

Answer:

If you have been diagnosed with obstructive sleep apnea , you can claim the Cpap rental as Medicare expense , if the Cpap therapy is found to be medically necessary for treatment of your sleep apnea . After 13 months of renting the Cpap machine , you normally will own the machine , but still can be reimbursed for Cpap supplies .

Entry 0793

Question:

When To Enroll In Part B Medicare?

Answer:

Most people will automatically be enrolled in Medicare Part B at the same time they are enrolled in Medicare Part A . They will receive their Medicare card in the mail three months before their 65th birthday or in the 25th month of their disability . If you or your spouse is working at a job with over 20 employees where the group health insurance provided is your primary carrier , you may delay enrolling in Part B. Call the Social Security Administration at 800-772-1213 to discuss before delaying or turning down enrollment in Medicare Part B .

Entry 0794

Question:

What Is Temporary Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Temporary Disability Insurance is provided by five states and Puerto Rico . The states are New Jersey , Rhode Island , Hawaii , California , and New York . The benefits pay for partial loss of wages suffered from disability not occurring on the job , and causing the person to not be able to work temporarily .

Entry 0795

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Care At Home?

Answer:

Medicare can cover some care at home if it is considered medically necessary and the care is provided by Medicare certified employees . However , the patient must be considered homebound and is very restricted from leaving the home while under this type of care . Another time Medicare can cover care at home is for hospice care .

Entry 0796

Question:

How Long Does It Take To Sign Up For Medicare?

Answer:

The application process for individuals applying under their initial open enrollment period can be completed on the social security website , ssa.gov . If you 're applying under a special enrollment period , I would recommend completing the paperwork at your local social security administration office . It can generally take about 3-4 weeks for the paperwork to be processed and for you to receive your Medicare card -LRB- sometimes longer depending on their volume and time of the year -RRB- .

Entry 0797

Question:

How Much Is Home Insurance Per Month?

Answer:

On average my clients pay about $ 100 per month for homeowners insurance . However , that probably has little bearing on what you might be required to pay . Each policy is individually underwritten and uses many rating factors . Some common factors are ; the location , the value , the history , local fire protection , and the cost of reconstruction . There are additional factors that impact whether the company will insure the house at all . An agent should be able to guide you through this process and give you a quote that will reflect your unique situation .

Entry 0798

Question:

Should I Buy Supplemental Disability Insurance?

Answer:

It would depend upon your present and projected income levels and the current amount of disability insurance you have . If you figure you 're going to top out at around $ 50,000 per year over the course of your life and you have a disability policy that would pay you around $ 33,000 + per year if you were disabled then you have effectively replaced your after tax net income . That 's not to say it would n't be wise to have more and to try to account for future inflation but your need for a supplement to maintain your current and projected lifestyle is not as great . On the other hand , let 's say you are a business owner , physician , executive or really good salesperson who is earning $ 100,000 or more a year and you can reasonably expect that income level to be increasing in future years and your employer provides a disability insurance policy that tops out at replacing $ 50,000 of income . This amount would clearly be well short of replacing your current income level much less your anticipated future increases in income . Purchasing a supplemental disability policy , and try to get one that is not offset by your current disability policy , would be a wise decision in this situation .

Entry 0799

Question:

Is Hepatitis C Tested For Life Insurance?

Answer:

Hepatitis C is not tested for on a life insurance exam , per se . However , the blood test used for life insurance exams does test liver function by measuring liver enzymes . A high value for AST , SGOT , ALT , and/or GGT could cause the underwriter to question the presence of hepatitis C. Medical records may need to be ordered , or you might be required to have further testing before being able to obtain a medically underwritten policy . If you go into the application process knowing you have hepatitis C , be sure to tell your agent so they can find you a policy for which you qualify at the best possible price .

Entry 0800

Question:

Does Auto Insurance Cover Accidents That Occur Off The Road?

Answer:

Your auto insurance policy may cover you for driving off the road . This would really depend on what you mean by off the road . If you are involved in an organized racing or off-roading event then this type of activity would be specifically excluded . Best advise is to talk to your local agent about the coverage of your auto policy .

Entry 0801

Question:

How Much Disability Insurance Is Enough?

Answer:

Typically disability insurance benefits are equal to a maximum of 60 % of the insured 's income . The maximum one can buy then is based on the annual income of the individual . If you can live comfortably on a lesser amount than 60 % of what you earn , then you may consider buying a policy that would pay less than 60 % of your earned income .

Entry 0802

Question:

Can You Receive Disability Insurance And Social Security Disability?

Answer:

Yes , you can receive Disability Insurance and Social Security Disability Insurance at the same time . The Disability Insurance supplements the Social Security Disability benefit received , allowing the insured person to receive a higher total disability benefit -LRB- % of income replaced -RRB- than just receiving either insurance benefit on its own .

Entry 0803

Question:

What Are The Factors That Determine How Much Life Insurance Will Cost?

Answer:

That is an excellent question ! The main things that determine your rate are your age and gender ; your smoking preference ; your immediate and past health conditions ; The prescriptions that you are taking ; The type of policy and the coverage desired ; and the companies costs of insurance , fees and profit margins . Things like your job , your family 's health histories , and where you live can also play a part . Depending upon the policy that you are looking at , some or all of these can play a part . I hope that helps , thanks for asking !

Entry 0804

Question:

How To Compare Health Insurance Options?

Answer:

Comparing health insurance options the right way is critical , if you hope to maximize your federal subsidy -LRB- if eligible -RRB- and select the most cost-effective plan from multiple carriers . During Open Enrollment , of course , there are no medical questions and pre-existing conditions are covered . The key is quite simple . Let an experienced broker help you find the best rates and the best coverage . You 'll save time and money ... and a lot of it ! LIVE answer provided by : Ed Harris - Premier health insurance broker for 33 years and owner of several top-rated healthcare websites .

Entry 0805

Question:

Why Do Kids Need Health Insurance?

Answer:

Kids , like anyone else , are at risk of life 's unexpectedhappenings . In order to protect ourselves and our families from financial loss due to these unexpected events ... it is vital to have proper health insurance in place . Also , it has always been a major benefit to have good health insurance to receive the best carepossible .

Entry 0806

Question:

Where Do I Get Disability Insurance?

Answer:

where do I get disability insurance ? In Washington State , you 'd get it from me ! ;-RRB- What you would want to do is meet with an agent and go over your options , with a great deal of time spent on understanding the definitions of disability . With disability coverage , the definition is everything . Without a good definition , the premium may be cheap , but collecting on a claim may be hard .

Entry 0807

Question:

What Is The Average Personal Property Coverage For Renters Insurance?

Answer:

If the rental is a basic 2 bedroom apartment , the personal property limit is typically $ 10,000 - $ 15,000 . That would be sufficient to cover the furniture for the den , kitchen , and two bedrooms as well as your decorative furnishings and personal items . However , if the rental is a larger apartment , condo , or house the limit could go up significantly .

Entry 0808

Question:

Does Medigap Cover Drugs?

Answer:

Medigap policies do not cover medications . Part D plans provide consumers with protection against very high drug costs . Essentially , all Part D plans provide the consumer with about a 25-30 % discount on the first $ 2900 of medications during the year . Above that , the plans provide a 52.5 % discount on most covered brand name drugs . In the event of medications costing more than $ 4700 over the course of the year , the plans cover 95 % or more of the medications .

Entry 0809

Question:

What Is Wrong With Universal Life Insurance?

Answer:

I have a universal life insurance policy . The idea is great . The problem is that with all the flexibility that is a part of the universal life policy , there is a temptation to get too flexible , skip payments , decrease payments etc. . I have seen universal life policies that self-destruct . There are some laws of economics that can not be violated without paying the price and paying too little , particularly in the early years , can leave the insured with a very expensive term policy that expires while they are still alive .

Entry 0810

Question:

What You Need To Get Renters Insurance?

Answer:

All you need is your personal information and the value of your personal belonging . The policy on average in Montana runs around $ 10.00 a month that is with $ 45,000 worth your contents and 100,000 in liability and $ 5000 medical payments also covers loss of use . Fairly inexpensive policy but well worth the cost .

Entry 0811

Question:

What Is A Credit Life Insurance Contract?

Answer:

A credit life insurance contract is a decreasing term life insurance policy that will pay the off the loan for a borrower if the borrower passes away . Credit Life insurance is usually provided by the lender at a price they set , and the beneficiary is the lender . Traditional Life insurance can be used to pay off a loan with the following advantages : 1 -RRB- The death benefit does not decrease , so whatever does not go to the lender can be used for something else ; 2 -RRB- The borrower can shop around to get a more competitive price ; 3 -RRB- The policy is under the control of the policy owner , not under the control of the lender .

Entry 0812

Question:

Is Life Insurance Needed After Retirement?

Answer:

If you still love someone and you have retired , you probably still need life insurance . Even if you have tried to pre-fund every conceivable obligation , there is still a need for life insurance . Death is terrible for the people who love you . They experience grief and pain . Unless you think that they would be better without any life insurance , keep some in force . My personal experience is that older people dont outgrow the need for life insurance .

Entry 0813

Question:

Why Should We Buy Life Insurance?

Answer:

The main purpose for life insurance is to create a leveraged cash benefit when the insured passes . The proceeds can be used for simple burial , settling an estate , used in a buy/sell agreement among business owners , and many other purposes .

Entry 0814

Question:

What Is The Replacement Rule In Life Insurance?

Answer:

Every life insurance company requires notification of the replacement a life insurance policy . If the policy has cash values or the replacing agent wants to transfer the basis of the policy to the new policy , a 1035 exchange form will also be required . The rules of engagement are stringent . Borrowing cash values to fund a new policy could be construed as replacement . Lowering the death benefit of an existing policy while keeping the policy in force , may be interpreted as replacement if new coverage is added to a new policy . The department of insurance in most states will respond to company complaints of agents not following the rules .

Entry 0815

Question:

How To Choose Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Whether you find an agent local to you , or find an agent online , be sure to request quotes from multiple carriers . One of the benefits of not working with an agent who solely represents one company is that you can shop around to find the best policy for you . Do n't forget , the best policy is n't necessarily the cheapest or the most expensive . Make sure your agent explains the policy provisions clearly because not everyone needs every rider or true own occ . Do n't be afraid to ask specific questions . Even if your agent does n't know the answer , he can get it quickly from the underwriter .

Entry 0816

Question:

When Should Someone Buy Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

As a retirement planning specialist , I spend alot of time doing long term care planning . Why would I do this ? Because NOTHING will derail a person 's life-time savings faster than a custodial -LRB- AKA long term care -RRB- claim . There are two reasons why a person should purchase LTC ; the first is that they care about the quality of care , and having a say in where care will be provided , should they require it . The second reason is that they care about protecting the assets that they have acquired over the course of their life-time , and they want to protect those assets for their healthy spouse and/or children , rather than have those assets eaten up by impairment , or having them signed over to medicaid or a nursing home . As far as WHEN a person should purchase coverage ; my youngest clients are usually in their 40 's , and with them I usually recommend a hybrid life insurance-LTC product ; my average clients are in their mid 50 's to late 60 's , and for them I recommend either traditional long term care or a single premium policy with refund provisions , and my oldest clients are in their mid 70 's . I think the best time to purchase for most people is in their mid to late 50 's , because most will get better underwriting and a favorable premium . I hope this helps .

Entry 0817

Question:

Does Suze Orman Recommend Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

At this time Suzy Orman recommends Term Life insurance . In the past few years she has become a bit more tolerant of permanent products in some of her appearances . One should understand that Suzy does not have an insurance background , she has a securities background . The Securities industry has not promoted permanent life insurance since the laws were changed in the 1980s restricting how much money could be put into permanent life coverage in regards to tax status . Suzy was taught permanent was bad , by people who honestly felt permanent insurance took away money they could have for investment elsewhere . One thing to keep in mind when purchasing term insurance is always look for a `` convertible term " policy . A convertible term policy allows you the option to purchase a new permanent policy without underwriting in the future just in case your planning does not come out exactly as you expected .

Entry 0818

Question:

Is Renters Insurance More Than Homeowners?

Answer:

No . Renters insurance is a lot less expensive than homeowners insurance . Renters insurance provides coverage for your personal property and provides liability coverage . Homeowners insurance provides coverage for the structure , personal property and liability . Renters insurance is one of the best deals you can buy . For $ 150 a year you can obtained coverage for all your personal property plus liability coverage .

Entry 0819

Question:

What Does USAA Home Insurance Cover?

Answer:

The reason that there are few answers about USAA is that they are basically a direct writing company . However , they are a licensed company and offer products similar to those offered by other companies . Their homeowners policy would cover the residence , related private structures , your personal property in the house , and some incidental property coverages . It also has liability coverages and covers medical payments to others .

Entry 0820

Question:

What Is Long Term Care Partnership Insurance?

Answer:

Long Term Care Partnership Insurance started in 4 states but is now available to persons in all states through the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 . It allows persons who purchase Partnership Long Term Care policies to have Medicaid Asset Protection in the event that they need to turn to Medicaid to pay for long term care costs after policy benefits have been exhausted . The plans have minimum requirements and carry an endorsement from the state and federal government .

Entry 0821

Question:

Where Can I Get Homeowners Insurance If I Live In A High Risk Brush Fire Area?

Answer:

Living in a higher risk area , either an elevated fire risk zone as you asked about , a coastal area subject to floods and hurricanes or an area that can be subject to tornadic activity each have their own challenges with regard to property insurance . Insurance companies may not offer coverage or they may charge a higher premium to reflect the increased risk they are assuming . Talk to your Insurance Professional about your particular situation . If standard coverage just is not available , most states manage a high risk `` pool " of coverage that may be there to meet your needs .

Entry 0822

Question:

Who Offers 30 Year Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

Here are a few of the 30 year guaranteed term life insurance companies : American General , American National , Ameritas , Aviva , Banner , Lincoln Benefit , Lincoln National , MetLife Investors , Nationwide , Principal , Protective , Pruco , Savings Bank , Security MTINY , Transamerica , United Omaha . There are other companies who have guaranteed universal life that can be configured to perform like a 30 year term life insurance . Keep in mind that there are age limitations to 30 year guaranteed term life insurance .

Entry 0823

Question:

How Much Is Cheap Life Insurance?

Answer:

There 's many factors that go into the premiums for life insurance to say what a policy costs - it will be different for every person as we each have our own specific needs . The premium for a policy will depend on the insured 's age , amount of coverage they want , how long they want the coverage for , their riskclassification -LRB- determined by your medical history -RRB- , and whether they ` reapplying with full underwriting or non-medical term coverage . The risk classification is the MOST critical factor in determining the cost -LRB- premium -RRB- of a life insurance policy . The risk class depends ona number of factors including whether you 're male or female , your medical history , height/weight profile , any tobacco usage , and other factors . Please keep in mind - every carrier has their own set of underwriting guidelines and mortality tables , and each may offer a different risk class for a given medical profile - e.g. company A may offer preferred -LRB- featuring lower rates -RRB- and company B may only offer standard -LRB- featuring higher rates -RRB- . Non-medical term life insurance policies will almost always cost much more than fully underwritten policies that require an exam because an insurance company is taking on more risk without having a full medical picture of you . Consult with an experienced life insurance broker to determine what coverage is appropriate/suitable for your needs and budget . Please feel free to contact me for help or if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0824

Question:

Does Annual Mileage Affect Car Insurance?

Answer:

It does to a point . Each carrier uses different parameters to calculate your auto insurance premium . Almost all carriers will ask a question or two about your driving habits . Some of the questions may be is your vehicle used primarily for work or pleasure and approximate number of miles driven one way and possibly other questions .

Entry 0825

Question:

How Can I Reduce The Cost Of Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

There 's several ways to lower your homeowners insurance premiums . You can raise your deductible . Many deductibles offer percentage discounts of up to 40 % of the base premium . Another way is to lower your coverage . I would speak with your agent before lowering any coverage . Another way is to install a central station alarm system . This can lower your premium up to 10 % . Also you can exclude `` off-premises theft coverage " . This is another 10 % discount and will exclude any items that are stolen away from your home . Hope this answer helps . Again , always speak with your local independent insurance agent or broker before making any changes to your policy .

Entry 0826

Question:

Will Car Insurance Cover Flood Damage?

Answer:

For your car to be covered by your auto insurance , you must have comprehensive coverage on your policy . It is called that because it provides coverage for most events other than collision , and this is when you collide , or hit another car , or object such as a fence etc. ...

Entry 0827

Question:

When Should I File A Claim For Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

If you are sued , call your insurance company immediately . If there is damage to your property that requires immediate attention , file a claim with the company . This is particularly important with water damage or any damage the affects the integrity of the home . If the situation isnt urgent discuss the loss with your agent before filing a claim . If the claim is minor it might be better to forgo the claim and enjoy a further premium discount for being claims free .

Entry 0828

Question:

How To Get Homeowners Insurance To Cover A New Roof?

Answer:

Homeowners ' Insurance is not , by any means a maintenance contract . It is a contract that is specifically designed to provide financial protection by indemnifying you after a covered loss . If your roof is severely damaged as a result of a storm for example , then your insurance carrier will be there to help you pay for repairing or replacing your roof .

Entry 0829

Question:

Can I Claim For Mis Sold Critical Illness Insurance?

Answer:

Can you claim for Mis Sold Critical Illness Insurance ? Just a guess , but I believe the question is asking if you can file a claim if you were misled after buying a critical illness policy ? If you feel you were duped , you should contact the supervisor of the agent who sold you the plan , and request a meeting to discuss the issue . If that does not resolve the problem ... push the `` up " button !

Entry 0830

Question:

Is water leaks covered by rental insurance for storage units?

Answer:

Typically mold is not covered since mold is produced by continual water penetration that is either undetected or ignored . When water damage is covered on a policy , it is usually only covered if the original cause of loss is covered . You state you were told the original cause of loss was wind damage . If the water damage occurred at the same time , and was a factor of the wind damage -LRB- both happened during the same storm -RRB- , then depending on the type of policy you have -LRB- not the insurance carrier , but the actual policy -RRB- , you may have coverage . There are two types of policies - Open Peril and Named Peril . This is the first item you need to know about the policy you hold . On an Open Peril policy , all perils -LRB- specific cause of loss -RRB- are covered unless they are specifically excluded . On a Named Peril policy , all perils are excluded unless they are specifically listed as covered . On most policies , water damage is listed as excluded , unless specific conditions are met . For example , the policies my company writes in my area covers for `` accidental direct , distinct and demonstrable physical water damage of covered property from direct contact with water , but only if the water results from : " and then goes on to list what conditions need to be present . In my opinion , unless the water damage was specifically caused by wind damage , and both losses were reported at the same time , you might not have coverage for these items . And most likely not the mold damage regardless of the cause .

Entry 0831

Question:

Does Usaa Homeowners Insurance Cover Hurricane Damage?

Answer:

USAA homeowner 's insurance covers hurricanes . Typically , hurricanes are considered wind damage and it is always a peril that is listed in your basic and comprehensive policies . However , resulting flood damage must be covered with a separate flood insurance policy which can be purchased through most brokers and agents . They can review the rates quite easily .

Entry 0832

Question:

Can You Have Medicare And Still Work?

Answer:

With the lagging economy and endless recession a lot of people continue working past age 65 -LRB- whether they want to or not -RRB- . Your earnings do not penalize your Medicare benefits . Unlike the penalty tax under Social Security for earned income , Medicare is not impacted . If you are covered by an employer health insurance plan and Medicare you may not need Part B or D .

Entry 0833

Question:

Is Aetna Health Insurance Any Good?

Answer:

I have marketed Aetna health products for more than a decade , and have had fewer few complaints or problems from any of my customers . That side , when it comes to health insurance , there are always some complaints , most ofnte regarding premium increases . In that regard , in most states , Aetna 's history of increase tend to be comparable to other companies selling coverage in the same area . When seeking the best coverage for your personal situation , it is always best to contact an licensed , independent agent that works with all of the major companies in your area . Their service is free , and can help you save thousands of dollars in the very near future , especially if you have any major medical claims .

Entry 0834

Question:

What Are Some Reasons Why I Should Get Life Insurance?

Answer:

An obvious reason for having life insurance is for the death benefit , which provides a replacement of your income at your death . There are also many `` living " benefits to owning life insurance . Permanent life insurance -LRB- whole life , universal life , etc -RRB- build cash values -LRB- depending on the premium amount -RRB- that are treated in a tax favored manner .

Entry 0835

Question:

How To Explain Variable Annuities?

Answer:

A tax deferred variable annuity is a security and an insurance product . Because a variable annuity is a security , potential product purchasers need to determine their risk tolerance for market losses . High tax bracket , long term investors may also benefit from the tax deferral of variable annuities . A variable annuity has a general interest rate earning account and separate sub accounts using equity and bond investments . Policy expenses are deducted from premiums , i.e. net premiums . Net premiums are then invested in the either the general account or separate sub accounts or both . Net premiums invested in the allocations in the separate sub accounts that are either credited with gains or debited with losses depending on performance . Most variable annuities are purchased in a qualified or non-qualified plan for future income .

Entry 0836

Question:

How Much Will My Health Insurance Cost Under Obamacare?

Answer:

The short answer is , a lot . Individual plans in most states will increase more dramatically than group health insurance plans . In some situations , premiums for plans that meet Obamacare requirements will increase by 200 % or more . Many factors come in to play , including your age and tobacco usage , but the guaranteed issue provision is major

Entry 0837

Question:

Will Medicare Pay For Hospice?

Answer:

That is a great question , and one with a great answer ! Yes , Medicare Part A pays for end of life treatment . You will need a Doctor 's certification that your loved one is expected to pass within 6 months , and that no further restorative procedures are to be implemented . It does n't matter if the hospice care is given in your home , or a facility , as long as it is Medicare approved . You may also need a living will , or something similar to qualify . It will also pay for up to 5 days of respite care , if you need to take a break . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0838

Question:

How Does Skydiving Affect Life Insurance?

Answer:

Sky diving affects life insurance and is underwritten as a recreational hazard or dangerous activity . Nevertheless , there are life insurance companies that price the risk of sky diving in terms of a flat extra per thousand of death benefit , generally based on jump frequency . If your jump frequency is high , the life insurance company may offer you coverage with a sky diving exemption , i.e. they wont pay if you die from a sky diving incident . You need to shop several life insurance companies for the best price .

Entry 0839

Question:

How Much Are Medigap Premiums?

Answer:

Medigap premiums vary by age , zip code , plan , tobacco use , gender and carrier . It is not unusual at all to see premium rates for Medigap plan F have a 100 % spread from high to low . When you pay more you do n't get more , you simply paid too much and who needs to do that ?

Entry 0840

Question:

Will Medicare Pay For A Kidney Transplant?

Answer:

Yes , Medicare will pay for a kidney transplant that has been deemed medically necessary . Medicare Part A will pay for inpatient services , the kidney registry fee , labs for you and your potential kidney donors , full cost of care for your donor , and blood needed during either your or your donor 's surgery . Part B covers you and your donor 's doctor 's services before , during and after the transplant ; immunosuppressive drugs , and blood needed .

Entry 0841

Question:

Will My Car Insurance Go Down When I Have A Baby?

Answer:

The presence of a dependent child is not a rating factor for auto insurance in California . The basic rating factors are year , make and model of the vehicle , driving experience and record of all the drivers in the household , number of miles the vehicle travels in a year and the location where the car is garaged .

Entry 0842

Question:

Can I test drive a car from a private party without insurance?

Answer:

That is really up to the party that owns the vehicle . If they allow you to drive the vehicle and you do not have insurance and are involved in an accident while driving the vehicle ; -LRB- they -LRB- there insurance carrier -RRB- -RRB- could be held responsible for any damages during that accident . It would count as a claim on their insurance record and could potential affect there rates in the future .

Entry 0843

Question:

How Much Is Wisconsin Car Insurance?

Answer:

To find out the answer to this question , please call a local agent to discuss your coverage needs and concerns . Auto insurance is not a product that is one size fits all . To be properly covered you need to speak with a local agent to get the coverage that will best meet yours and your family 's needs .

Entry 0844

Question:

Can I Buy Renters Insurance Online?

Answer:

That 's a great question ! You can find several companies willing to sell you a policy online . I do n't advise it though , and here 's why . Some things are suited perfectly to buy online - concert tickets , for example , because you know exactly what you are buying . Insurance , not so much . There can be a lot of things in the small print that can have a big effect on your expected coverage and price . You also do n't have a dedicated person to contact with a question , or a claim . When it comes to protecting yourself , your money , and your family it is always better to have a live person that you know to turn to , than an internet help center . If you would like more information , please feel free to contact me , I 'm happy to help . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0845

Question:

Does Home Insurance Cover Fence Damage?

Answer:

The fence is included in most homeowners plans . Since fences can vary widely in cost there is a possibility that the fence would need to be individually valued in the policy . For normal fencing the claim might fall near or below the deductible which would make filing a claim to be futile . If you lose all or part of a fence get an estimate and call you agent before you report the loss to the claims department . The changes in your next years premium for having filed the claim could make it advantageous to forgo making the claim .

Entry 0846

Question:

Does Medicare Pay For A Home Blood Pressure Monitor?

Answer:

I do n't believe Medicare will cover an at-home blood pressure monitor . It does not appear to be listed on Medicare 's website as durable medical equipment . Upon a little research , it looks like there are a couple of exceptions to have it covered by Medicare : 1 -RRB- a patient receiving blood dialysis in the home . 2 -RRB- an ambulatory bp monitoring device that takes/stores bp readings in 24 hour cycles for a patient who a doctor believes has `` white coat hypertension " -LRB- artificially high bp readings when taken in a doctor 's office - based on multiple testing completed in an office and out of an office -RRB- . If you meet either of these and Medicare approves coverage for the device , it would be covered under Medicare Part B and the monitor would then need to be rented from a Medicare-certified medical equipment supplier . Medicare would then cover 80 % of the expense and you would be responsible for 20 % of the expense -LRB- if you have a Medigap plan , it would then likely cover all or a portion of that other 20 % -RRB- . If you 're under a Medicare Advantage plan , it may provide benefits not covered under original Medicare so it would be good to check with your carrier . If Medicare does not cover the device , you will be responsible for the cost of the monitor . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me with any other questions . Thanks very much .

.

Entry 0847

Question:

Does Auto Insurance Cover Flat Tires?

Answer:

No , auto insurance is not designed as a maintenance policy . You can get towing and labor on your policy that would cover you if you need emergency road service but it is not going to pay to fix your flat tire or replace your tire . It will pay for towing your car to the garage or labor in changing your tire if you have a spare .

Entry 0848

Question:

How To Keep Health Insurance Between Jobs?

Answer:

How to keep health insurance between jobs ? if your employer is large enough -LRB- 20 people at work on a given day -RRB- you have an option for COBRA continuation which means you can continue your group coverage for up to 18 months or longer -LRB- depending on certain conditions -RRB- at your expense plus a small handling charge -LRB- 102 % of premium cost -RRB- . If you find that cost to be too much for your budget , you can look to both the individual market or temporary health insurance market for possible solutions . You may not get exactly the same coverage as offered by your former employer , but the cost might be considerably less .

Entry 0849

Question:

What Is Better Medicaid Or Medicare?

Answer:

Medicaid is a medical assistance program for persons who have very low income and very low assets . Medicare is a health insurance program for those who are older or are disabled . There is no one better than the other ; the issue is which one do you qualify to receive .

Entry 0850

Question:

What Is A Governmental 457 Retirement Plan?

Answer:

Assuming youre referring to 457 -LRB- b -RRB- retirement plans , 457 -LRB- b -RRB- deferred compensation plans that are available in government and non-government organizations under 501 -LRB- c -RRB- . Theres no 59 penalty as long as the plan participant is retiring or ending employment . Government 457 can be rolled personal over to IRAs . Nonprofit workers can only roll their 457 plans over to another 457 plan . 2013 contribution limits are $ 17,500 and an extra $ 5,500 if you are age 50 or older .

Entry 0851

Question:

Can I Get Health Insurance With Fibromyalgia?

Answer:

Under the Affordable Care Act , you can not be declined for health insurance due to a pre-existing condition or other health-related issue . You have the option to secure a bronze , silver , gold , or platinum level plan - please note , not every carrier offers a plan under each level -LRB- e.g. company XYZ may only offer bronze , silver , and gold plans , but not platinum plans -RRB- . Individuals under age 30 also have the option of securing a catastrophic plan . If you qualify for a subsidy , you would want to look into plans ON the health insurance exchanges . If you do n't qualify for one , you may want to look into plans OFF the exchanges as you will generally have more options available to you . I always recommend consulting with an experienced broker if you 're looking for coverage or want to review your existing insurance to see if a better option is available . Insurance brokers have an in-depth knowledge of products from many different carriers and can help you determine the plan that 's going to best serve your needs and your budget . Please let me know if I can be of further assistance . Thanks very much .

Entry 0852

Question:

Is It Okay To Not Have Health Insurance?

Answer:

Health insurance is a personal choice and a matter of responsibility . Anyone can receive medical care as long as they have the ability to pay . Health insurance is like an open ended line of credit that never has to be paid back . Health insurance can pay for your large claims and save you from financial ruin .

Entry 0853

Question:

What Is The Elimination Period In Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Long term care insurance is a morbidity product like disability insurance that offers differing elimination periods or waiting periods from the triggering event that causes the policy owner to file a claim for benefits . Some long term care insurance policies offer nowaiting to 365 day elimination periods . 90 day elimination periods appear the most popular .

Entry 0854

Question:

How To Get Quotes For Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

You could call insurance agents within your area for a start . Whe you call please have the following information available . Normally a requires the year of construction of the home , the square footage of the home , type of garage -LRB- if any -RRB- , any decks or porches , basement type -LRB- if any -RRB- , architecture type of the home , distance of the nearest responding fire department , and possibly more .

Entry 0855

Question:

Is RBC Life Insurance Good?

Answer:

In a word yes , RBC Life Insurance is good . Now whether a particular policy offered by RBC Insurance is the right plan for you for you is another question . In Canada , RBC Insurance offers a range of non-participating life insurance products including : term insurance , permanent and universal life . In The United States , RBC Insurance sold its interest in Liberty Life Insurance Company . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me . If you would like to work with a local life insurance broker , you could start with a Google search . For example , if you search for : life insurance broker Halifax or life insurance agent Halifax , my name , along with several others , will come up . You can use the same method to find a life insurance broker in your community .

Entry 0856

Question:

When Does Health Insurance End When Leaving A Job?

Answer:

If you leave your job or are terminated your health insurance usually ends at the end of the month you left your job . At that time you would be eligible for COBRA continuation coverage for 18 months or you could purchase individual health insurance . COBRA used to be the best option if you had a pre-existing condition but under the Affordable Care Act , commonly known as Obamacare , you can purchase individual coverage with no issues . You have to prove that you have a qualifying event under the IRS code which is a letter of Creditable Coverage from your former health insurance company or employer .

Entry 0857

Question:

Can Group Health Insurance Deny Pregnancy?

Answer:

For all practical purposes the answer should be `` No " . The Affordable Care Act -LRB- ObamaCare -RRB- requires coverage for maternity and newborn care to be covered as any other illness under its Minimum Essential Benefits requirements . Also , the Affordable Care Act forbids the application of pre-existing conditions exclusions or waiting periods to health insurance policies . During the last open enrolment period I enrolled a couple of previously uninsured women who were pregnant in the new ObamaCare compliant individual health plans offered in our state and they were covered immediately and had their delivery & other associated expenses covered . These same people would have been declined for coverage due to their pregnancies being defined as pre-existing conditions before January 1 , 2014 .

Entry 0858

Question:

Will Medicare Pay For Blood Transfusions?

Answer:

Medicare Part A will pay for blood transfusions given in a hospital or skilled nursing facility setting . Medicare Part B will pay for blood transfusions given to outpatients . However , neither pays for the first three pints within a calendar year . If you have Medicare Advantage , contact your plan to see if it provides additional coverage for blood transfusions .

Entry 0859

Question:

When Can I Buy A Medigap Policy?

Answer:

You should buy your Medigap plan when you 're new to Medicare - this is THE BEST time to buy a Medicare supplement plan because you have a 6-month window -LRB- your initial open enrollment period - starts from your Medicare Part B effective date -RRB- to apply for any Medigap plan with NO medical underwriting . This means that a carrier can not decline you for coverage for any pre-existing conditions or other medical-related illness . Beyond this window , you 'll be subject to answering health questions to qualify for a new plan -LRB- every carriers ' questions are different -RRB- if you do n't have a guaranteed-issue right available to you . Anyone over the age of 65 and has Medicare Part A & Part B can buy a Medigap plan . If you 're under 65 , you can still purchase a Medigap plan if you 're on Medicare for disability or ESRD , but the cost will be very high . Medigap plans are designed to be purchased by individuals age 65 and up . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for assistance with your Medigap coverage , quotes , and comparisons of plans and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0860

Question:

What Is Typically Covered By Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Typically a homeowners policy has several sections called coverages . The first coverage is for the residence itself . The second coverage is for related private structures located on the property , such as a shed , fence or swimming pool . The third coverage is personal property and that is commonly called , contents . The fourth coverage is for additional living costs and loss of rents should the residence become unfit for use . The next coverage is normally personal liability which covers you if you are sued for bodily injury or property damage . The next coverage is medical payments to others and provides limited medical care to an invited visitor who is hurt on your property . There are other incidental coverages .

Entry 0861

Question:

Does Life Insurance Go Into Probate?

Answer:

Not usually . As long as the policy has a named beneficiary who is alive when the insured dies the proceeds will normally skip the probate process . If there are no living beneficiaries when the insured dies , then the proceeds are paid to the insured 's estate at which time the funds would need to go through the probate process in order to be distributed to heirs . Keep in mind that proceeds paid to a deceased beneficiary could end up in that beneficiary 's estate and would need to go through the probate process in order for that beneficiary 's heirs to receive the proceeds .

Entry 0862

Question:

Is Short Term Disability Insurance Needed?

Answer:

Short Term Disability Insurance is intended to cover people if they have minor health conditions , injuries , or pregnancies that cause them to be off work for a few months -LRB- up to a maximum of 2 years -RRB- . If you have enough savings to cover you if you are off work for approx 6 months , you may not need to purchase Short Term Disability .

Entry 0863

Question:

Where Do Health Insurance Companies Get Their Money?

Answer:

Health insurance companies earn their money in basically two ways . First , they collect premiums from people who buy health insurance with goal of paying out less in claims than they collect . For example under the new Affordable Care Act insurance carriers have to spend 80-85 % of their premiums in health care with the remaining 15-20 % for overhead and a small profit . The second way insurance companies earn income is from investing their reserves in marketable securities , bonds and real estate . Carriers need to maintain reserves for financial stability and based on government regulations .

Entry 0864

Question:

Why Do I Need Insurance To Register A Car?

Answer:

Not to be flip , but the short answer is `` because your State says that you do " . Most if not all states now require proof of insurance along with other documentation in order to maintain registration on a vehicle that will be operated on local and state roads and hioghways . This requirement came about as a result of many situations over a numnber of years where uninsured drivers caused too many accidents resulting in a large drain on the insurance companies of those drivers who did the right thing without being told . Requiring all drivers to show proof that they maintian car insurance minimizes the huge financial drain on the insurance industry and your neighbors .

Entry 0865

Question:

How To Set Up Life Insurance?

Answer:

It all starts with a conversation with a life insurance professional who can explain the process , educate you on what 's possible , engage in fact finding to perform a needs analysis to customize a plan for you and your family . Normally , a formal application for life insurance , which answers questions the insurer needs from you is a key step and consent is given with signatures by the owner and proposed insured . In it you indicate policy owner , insured -LRB- who may also be the owner -RRB- , beneficiary and other instructions . A paramedical exam will be scheduled where vitals , blood and urine and medical history will be collected from you . The life insurer uses all the information collected to underwrite the policy . An offer will be made through the life insurance professional which you may accept . A policy is delivered to you after payment is made -LRB- sometimes not on delivery but at time of application -RRB- . The policy will be in effect at that point .

Entry 0866

Question:

Can A Landlord Make You Get Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Notwithstanding state peculiar legislation , a landlord can insist that a tenant have a renters policy . The landlord does this to clarify the relationship he has with the tenant . The landlord is not responsible for your property , even if it is destroyed along with his building . He is not responsible for personal injury and physical damage that comes from someone coming onto the property that you have rented . That is your responsibility and you would be the one sued . This problem goes away for a small premium .

Entry 0867

Question:

What Is The Effective Date Of Health Insurance?

Answer:

The effective date of a health insurance plan is the date your coverage starts . It will be different for each person because it depends on when you applied for the coverage and what your requested/approved effective date for coverage is . You can view your plan 's effective date inside your policy . If you 're unsure what coverage you have and/or what your effective date is , you should contact an experienced health insurance broker who can review these items with and help you find out if there is a plan that will be more suitable to your specific needs . I hope the information is helpful - please feel free to contact me for help and if you have any other questions . Thanks very much .

Entry 0868

Question:

How Much Is Yearly Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Every insurance policy is individualized to meet the needs and desires of the insured . This typically makes the rate for each policy different . Getting a quote from a local agent is typically free . Contact a local agent to discuss your coverage needs and concerns so that they can provide you with availability and pricing in your area .

Entry 0869

Question:

Does Health Insurance Cover NICU?

Answer:

If you have a "hospitalization" policy which may also be referred to as Health Insurance coverage all the policies typically has a section in which they state how much they pay for a semi-private room , ICU , and NICU . This type of policy also provides coverage for all other services that would be covered while an inpatient at the hospital . These coverages are typically stated like "so much per day" or "at a % of total charges" . There are "indemnity policies" that pay an amount for the room which is typically chosen by the applicant at the time of applying for the coverage . There is another policy referred to as a "critical care policy" which is also an indemnity type policy that states they pay some flat amount for a given number of days if you are an inpatient in the hospital .

Entry 0870

Question:

Does Subway Offer Health Insurance?

Answer:

This is a good Question . With any Company , whether they provide employee health coverage or not will depend on many factors . Whether you are Part time or Full time , if there is a waiting period , etc etc. . It is important to know that even if your employer does not offer health benefits , you can apply for your OWN individual plan that you pay for and manage on your own . This may also be a good option because if you happen to leave that job , you wo n't have to worry about loosing your health coverage .

Entry 0871

Question:

Why Are Republicans Against Medicare?

Answer:

Republicans are overwhelmingly in favor of protecting Medicare and ensuring it is available for many additional generations . And Democrats feel the same way . Republicans seem more willing to accept the belief that Medicare needs to be tweaked in order to maintain continuous and effective coverage in the future . Their view on Medicare Advantage plans also seems to be different than many of their counterparts . But in fairness , both parties seem committed to saving Medicare benefits for everyone 's future . Their methods are a bit different , but there is still plenty of common ground that should allow both parties to effectively work together .

Entry 0872

Question:

What Do I Need In My 401K To Retire?

Answer:

Its going to be based on your total life time income projection . Generally speaking ! The best way to determine is go to some of the insurance companies or investment firms . Most all have on their sight a retirement calculator that you can play around with adding different combination of figures . That gives you a fare estimation of how much to plan for in retirement .

Entry 0873

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover A Security Deposit?

Answer:

No . Renters insurance provides coverage for your personal property up to the policy limits for covered perils . Your security deposit is money that is provided to the landlord to help protect the landlord against any damages to the premise that were not taken care of properly by the tenant before moving out . Renters insurance has nothing to do with this .

Entry 0874

Question:

How Much Can I Expect To Pay For Health Insurance?

Answer:

The cost of health insurance is determined by your age only under the new ACA law . However , the premiums vary among companies mainly because of differences in deductibles and some benefits . In South Carolina there are only four companies available to shop on the federal exchange and they are Blue Cross/Blue Shield , Blue Choice , Coventry , and Consumer Choice , the last two having weak networks . By going through the exchange to get coverage with one of these carriers you may qualify for a subsidy which would lower the premium . Outside of the federal exchange United Health One offers more flexible plans that are compliant with the ACA laws and offer the only HSA qualified plans . If you choose to go through United Health One you are eliminated from obtaining a subsidy if you qualify but they offer some very competitive pricing . For those of you who are boycotting the federal plans entirely or have missed the open enrollment period , there are short term medical plans and non-qualified plans available to purchase as an alternative . For many these plans offer great coverage at a much lower premium . If you have any questions or would like further information on alternative plans please contact me , Ronald G Hinch at 843-450-9879 .

Entry 0875

Question:

How Much Is Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

The cost will depend upon several things - the company , the length of the term , the amount of coverage , your age , health , etc. . I 'd advise that you contact some local agents with some specific details , and shop around for some quotes . If you would like some help with this , please hit the ` contact me ' button , and I 'll happily help . Thanks for asking !

Entry 0876

Question:

Can You Visit A Doctor Without Health Insurance?

Answer:

Unless there is legislative restrictions that I am unaware of you can see a doctor without health insurance . If you do see a doctor and you do not have health insurance you will be expected to pay the full cost of the visit out of your own pocket though . This can be very costly .

Entry 0877

Question:

Is It Illegal To Buy Life Insurance On Someone Else?

Answer:

As long as you have the consent of the individual and there is insurable interest you can purchase insurance on another party . A family member such as brother sister , spouse child , parent or grandparent . A business partner . An insurable interest means that you may have the potential for financial loss should that person die .

Entry 0878

Question:

Can You Get Life Insurance If You Are Diabetic?

Answer:

It depends upon the age of onset , whether its type 1 or 2 , whether its managed with insulin , diet and exercise . But generally yes , you should be able to secure coverage , unless you also have additional complications like obesity and high blood , which can rate your condition or a declination . The key is to diabetic underwriting is management , taking care of yourself and receiving regular checkups to track your stability .

Entry 0879

Question:

Can A Fixed Annuity Be An IRA?

Answer:

Most IRA 's are fixed annuities but not all fixed annuities are IRA 's . All that this means is that a fixed annuity can be a fixed annuity . A fixed annuity as an IRA is not subject to the direct effect of market risks because the account assets are not held in separate accounts and then invested in marketable securities . Instead , an IRA is invested in high quality instruments by the carrier and the carrier assumes the risk to the IRA capital and to the rate of interest promised to you . The IRA pays interest at fixed rates . A variation of this arrangement is an IRA that is coupled with market investments that have more upside potential for gain without becoming variable products . These are called `` fixed index annuities " -LRB- FIA -RRB- that are based upon one or another of the market indexes and one of several interest and gain crediting methods . The caveat is that the IRA is guaranteed by the underwriting company -LRB- usually insurance -RRB- and invested similarly to those of most IRA annuities . In FIA accounts , the client shares in the upside potential for gain with the underwriting company and has better upside chances to earn better than the minimum performance guarantees the carriers provides for their IRA with you . This enables you to have performance that more closely matches your interest rate performance to stock and bond market performance . All insurance underwriters of IRA annuities guarantee a fixed minimum rate of return . Performance above the minimum in a FIA is credited to you when market conditions permit and you share with the carrier in these additional returns . Regardless of performance , the minimum rate of return is still owed and paid and the insurance carrier bears this risk of performance . Variable annuities , on the other hand , have no guarantee of performance and may pay nothing at all . Of course , with a greater risk in a variable annuity , performance can be stronger too but the trade off is no gain at all for the possible upside potential . Hope this explanation helps you understand that a fixed annuity can work perfectly well for an IRA .

Entry 0880

Question:

My Husband Just Broke His Arm, Can I Get Insurance To Cover It?

Answer:

Is this a serious question ? Really ? Insurance -LRB- in general -RRB- is designed to protect you and `` put you back in relatively the same place you were BEFORE an event happened -RRB- for UNSEEN incidents . Since the arm is already broken , the event has already taken place ... so , you CAN NOT purchase insurance that would cover the broken arm . Put another way ... would you want to insure your house if the kitchen was on fire ? Of course not . What if a tornado was coming and on the ground ... would you want to insure the mobilehome ? You can buy insurance now to protect his OTHER arm , but , I 'm afraid this one is on you .

Entry 0881

Question:

How Long Does It Take To Get Life Insurance Money?

Answer:

The longest part of getting the death benefit from a life insurance policy is often the time it takes to receive the certified death certificate . One you have the claim form filled out and are able to submit it with the death certificate , it does n't take long , provided the address is correct , etc

Entry 0882

Question:

When Should You File An Auto Insurance Claim?

Answer:

Filing an auto claim is extremely important . Take as many pictures as you can of the incident . Pictures are almost as important as witness statements . Let your agent or your company know as soon as possible . There is a temptation to try and deal with the other drivers insurance company and that rarely yields satisfactory results .

Entry 0883

Question:

Is National Benefit Life Insurance Company Legitimate?

Answer:

They are one of many insurance companies owned by Primerica . As a result , they carry a superior A + rating with AM Best -LRB- go to ambest.com for more information -RRB- . It is not a company with whom I have done any business but it is part of a corporate enterprise which is well known .

Entry 0884

Question:

How Much Should Health Insurance Cost?

Answer:

How much you should be paying is a hard figure to try and quantify . The average cost in the country for a health insurance plan is $ 328 per month - however , this is only reflective upon a silver level plan -LRB- not all 2014 state figure averages are available yet -RRB- . While you can try to come up with an `` average " cost , there 's too many factors that go into premium pricing to say how in relation that compares to you . In short , an `` average " premium is a rather useless figure to the individual . It 's only representative to a large group - you could have people paying a small nominal amount -LRB- after factoring in subsidies -RRB- per month to several thousand dollars per month . Even for that there 's a ton of information to sift through to get an accurate representation . Under the Affordable Care Act , you have the options for bronze , silver , gold , and platinum level plans -LRB- as you go up in metal , the price goes up , but provides better benefits -RRB- - some areas also have a catastrophic plan available . In addition , your age is a big factor as well . The younger you are , the cheaper your premium - the older you are , the higher your premium . Also , if you use tobacco products , your premium can be increased up to 50 % as well . You may be able to qualify for a subsidy that can be used to reduce the cost of your health insurance premiums . I always recommend consulting with an experienced broker . We can help you determine the plan that 's going to be most suitable for your needs and budget . Please feel free to contact me for further assistance . Thanks very much .

Entry 0885

Question:

What Is The Best Retirement Plan For Me?

Answer:

In order to determine what is the best retirement plan , you first need to clarify what you are trying to accomplish . What does a successful retirement look like for you ? Once you have an idea what that means then you will be able to calculate what it will cost to fund it . The would will be able to determine what is best for you . Additional information on retirement planning is available on my website www.jpw.ca If you would like to work with a local Retirement Planner , you could start with a Google search . For example if you search for : retirement planner Halifax or retirement planning Halifax , my name along with several others will come up . You can use the same method to find Retirement Planners in your community . If you have further questions , or feel that I could be of assistance , please do not hesitate to contact me .

Entry 0886

Question:

Can I Get Life Insurance After A Stroke?

Answer:

If you have had one stroke that had minimal effects and several years have passed since having the stroke , you may be able to get a medically underwritten policy of any amount for which you financially qualify , with immediate death benefit . If your stroke impacted your health enough that you needed to go on Disability but you are still able to do all your own activities of daily living and walk without personal assistance -LRB- can or walker is OK -RRB- , then there are a number of simplified issue policies that may or not be graded , that you can get . If your stroke caused you to require use of a wheelchair , home health or nursing home care -LRB- inability to do your own ADL 's -RRB- , or causes significant confusion , then guaranteed issue policies are available to most people . These are more restrictive in features than the other policies , but are available for final expense purposes . Contact an impaired risk underwriting agency that carries all these types of policies and understands life insurance underwriting for stroke , and you will get your best price .

Entry 0887

Question:

When Is Renters Insurance Required?

Answer:

The only time renters insurance is actually required is if the landlord makes it a condition of the rental agreement . Landlords may do this in order to protect themselves from a potential law suit brought on by the tenants negligence . Other then that a renter is free to chose whether they wish to purchase renters insurance to protect their belonging , loss of use and liability or self insure and assume all the risk themselves by not having renters insurance . Renters insurance is so remarkably inexpensive for the protection you get I do not see why anyone would not obtain renters insurance .

Entry 0888

Question:

When Can You Change A Medigap Policy?

Answer:

The Medigap policy also know as Medical Supplement policy can be cancelled any time you wish . However since your first time getting policy at 65 is considered guaranteed policy . Meaning you can not be turndown regardless of health issue . But after you cancell you must now meet the underwriting process and qualify for the policy .

Entry 0889

Question:

Can A Grandchild Be Added To Health Insurance?

Answer:

The PPACA or Obamacare as it 's know , allows children to remain on their parents medical insurance until age 26 . There is no provision in the health care legislation to accommodate grandchildren , a major oversight of it 's designers . But if grandparents are the legal guardians of their grandchildren , it is possible that a join them on a policy .

Entry 0890

Question:

How To Qualify For Disability Insurance?

Answer:

In order to qualify for Disability Insurance , you must first have an income . Secondly , your health must be reasonably good , but does not have to be perfect by any means . A Disability Insurance broker can help you find the best priced policy based on your health . Once you identify which policy you should qualify for , you apply for the policy , take the exam , and provide any documentation or information that is requested . At the end of the process , your policy is issued .

Entry 0891

Question:

How Much Does Long Term Care Insurance Cover?

Answer:

A quality long-term care insurance policy from a well-capitalized , highly rated insurance company will include at least the following : Facility careHome care Domestic care -LRB- housework , yard work , cleaning chores -RRB- Assisted living or residential living careAdult Day CareRespite care -LRB- time off for the primary family care giver -RRB- Home modifications so that insured can stay at home for as long as possible , the costs of which are not deducted from the pool of money available for daily care.There may be additional coverage offered by the carrier . Ask to see a `` specimen policy " for the exact language of the benefits , features , and riders of the policy you are considering . Look for language that takes into account the possibility of future medical or technological advances that may become available but which are not yet known or invented yet . For example , `` assisted living " facilities were not even available 25 years ago , but , people that bought quality policies before that time with contract language that allowed for future developments in the field of elder care are now in such facilities and being paid for those expenses .

Entry 0892

Question:

Can Illegal Aliens Get Auto Insurance?

Answer:

Yes . There are not many companies that offer this type of insurance but there are a few companies who will insure drivers with an International Drivers license . Once you have a policy some companies require a valid US license after a certain period of time and others will continue to insure you with a International License for as long as you want .

Entry 0893

Question:

Where Can I Buy Life Insurance On My Parents?

Answer:

Particularly in traditional communities the cost of a funeral can be very high . It isnt unusual for people to discuss this situation with their parents . The life insurance can be looked as an installment purchase . Everyone knows how much final expenses will be . Those responsible can use a life insurance policy to make sure that the money will be there when it is required .

Entry 0894

Question:

Where Can I Buy Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Disability insurance can be purchased from a variety of companies . You may apply online , call a company direct or purchase it from your local insurance agent . However , it truly is one of the complex insurance policies on the market . I recommend using an experienced disability insurance broker to shop the market to find the best product at the best price for your unique situation .

Entry 0895

Question:

Is Group Life Insurance Subject To Erisa?

Answer:

Yes , group Life Insurance plans are subject to ERISA , the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 . Group life insurance is a wonderful benefit , but it is often a good idea to have an individual policy along with your group policy . That way you can be sure to have it for as long as you need it , and it will not be subject to ERISA .

Entry 0896

Question:

Is Term Life Insurance An Asset?

Answer:

Term life insurance is not considered an asset on income tax or when applying for Medicaid or financial aid . The only life insurance that is usually considered an asset is the cash value of permanent insurance , and then the face amount of the Whole or Universal Life is not the asset , but the cash value only .

Entry 0897

Question:

Can You Get Car Insurance With A Suspended Drivers License?

Answer:

That is a great question ! While it will be difficult to get insurance , it is possible . What you will need to do is contact your agent , and find out what they will need to issue you a policy . In most cases , that will mean satisfying the requirements to get your license reinstated - fines paid , classes taken , whatever was required of you . Having your license suspended is bad , but it will be infinitely worse for you if you get caught driving on it , and you are uninsured . Please do n't even consider it ! Good luck , and thanks for asking !

Entry 0898

Question:

Which Car Should I Buy For Cheap Insurance?

Answer:

Typically , the lower the sticker price , the cheaper it is to insure the vehicle . In fairness , it is not that simple , but it 's a great starting point . Sports and luxury cars will be the most expensive to cover while smaller vehicles loaded with safety equipment will tend to cost the least .

Entry 0899

Question:

What Kind Of Auto Insurance Rates Can I Get With A Suspended License Due To Non Payment Of A Ticket?

Answer:

You ca n't get insurance if your license is suspended . However , if you have a restrictive license -LRB- the one court activates for you to drive to and from work -RRB- the rates will be about the same - shop with multiple carriers to find a best deal . And if you have already cleared the ticket and your license is back to the active status , same like above , you should be able to find coverage with regular rates . The carrier will increase rates when you have points on your record and/or property damage / injuries during the last 3 years of your driving history . You can get your driving record at any DMV in your state . You can also buy your driving report online . Usually DMV charges $ 3 - $ 10 , whereas online vendors charge $ 19.99 + .

Entry 0900

Question:

How Good Is Gerber Life Insurance?

Answer:

Your question can mean many things . Gerber has an `` A " rating by A.M.Best , the company most recognized by the life insurance industry . Gerber 's products are generally at the lower end of need for most people as they mainly sell final expense type products . Premiums are generally competitive , and a good independent agent will guide you to the best value for your needs .

Entry 0901

Question:

Is Wind Damage Covered By Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Under most circumstances wind damage would be covered under your homeowners insurance policy possibly less your policy deductible . Remember every policy is different . Please read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and any exclusions that there may be or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0902

Question:

How Can I Find Out If A Person Has Auto Insurance?

Answer:

Ask the person to show you his policy . An insurance company is obliged to provide evidence of insurance whenever the person insured requests it . If you have an interest in the vehicle being insured you can demand evidence from the owner . Although it is a state requirement , some cars are operated without insurance . Others operate with inadequate insurance .

Entry 0903

Question:

Can An 88 Year Old Get Life Insurance?

Answer:

I actually had a case for an 88-year-old a couple of years ago . It was rather interesting . What we had going for us was the following : A number of companies will issue a policy up to age 90 . Out of these , some will specialize in ages over 65 . The insured had a number of medical issues , but they were well-controlled . The challenge was getting the money to pay for the coverage . Since the family would benefit , efforts were made to have the family help pay the premium . This is where things got a little tough . Assuming the money is there , this can be done .

Entry 0904

Question:

When Are You Exempt From Medicare Levy?

Answer:

You are exempt from Medicare levy in Australia when you are not eligible for Medicare at all , if you meet one of the medical conditions outlined by the Australian Taxation Office , or if you were a foreign resident or a resident of Norfolk Island for a full year -LRB- 365 days -RRB- .

Entry 0905

Question:

Does Life Insurance Cover Overdose Death?

Answer:

It 's going to depend `` when " . Most life insurance policies include a two year contestability clause that allows an insurance carrier to contest payment on a claim if it occurs within that two year window . After twoyears any cause of death is covered without question , so even an overdose , accidental or intentional would be covered .

Entry 0906

Question:

What Is The Waiting Period For Disability Insurance?

Answer:

The waiting period , also known as the elimination period , varies from plan to plan . For short term disability insurance , the common elimination periods are 7 and 14 days . For long term disability insurance , the most favorable ep is 90 days , but some policies are written with 180 or even 365 eps . The longer eps are usually to offset the cost as it 's cheaper when the waiting period is longer .

Entry 0907

Question:

Do I Need To File A Claim If Damage Is Only To Another Persons Car?

Answer:

A report should always be filed with the police and your insurance company anytime there is an accident . This will help protect you against fraudulent claims in the future . If the accident is documented properly , after the investigation of the accident is completed there should not be any surprises that show up later .

Entry 0908

Question:

Is Classic Car Insurance Cheaper?

Answer:

In many cases it will be . This is mostly due to the fact that they are less of a risk b/c they are only driven for shows or on weekends . Companies who insure classic cars may also require that you garage them , as well as agree on value due to the huge disparity between the value as a 50 yr old car vs. to a collector/at auction .

Entry 0909

Question:

How Much Does 1 Point Affect Car Insurance In Michigan?

Answer:

In the state of Michigan most insurance companies depending on what the ticket is for will not charge you extra for one point with it being just one point most of the insurance companies will disregard the one point . What you need to do is make sure you call a independent agent they write for more then one company Call A-1 Insurance 734-525-2345

Entry 0910

Question:

Can Young People Buy Annuities?

Answer:

Yes , but should they ? Any investment or savings product should be purchased on the basis of a persons risk profile and financial suitability . Defining what is young , may or may not be the issue . Most profiles that identify a low tolerance for risk and a long term financial strategic goal for ultimate income , should consider fixed or indexed annuities . Those with higher investment risk threshold may want to consider variable annuities .

Entry 0911

Question:

Can I Keep Life Insurance On My Ex Husband?

Answer:

Whether or not you can keep life insurance on your ex husband will be up to you , your ex husband , and the court . The life insurance company does not have a say in whether you keep your policy on your ex husband . If you own the policy , you are the one who makes those decisions .

Entry 0912

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Blood Pressure Monitors?

Answer:

Medicare Part B covers most DME -LRB- durable medical equipment -RRB- including blood pressure monitors , but only in certain situations . If you are covered by Medicare and having home dialysis , Medicare Part B may cover your blood pressure monitor . If your doctor believes you suffer from `` white coat syndrome " Medicare may cover an ambulatory BP monitor .

Entry 0913

Question:

Does Medicare Cover Sleep Apnea?

Answer:

People who have been diagnosed with obstructive sleep apnea can be eligible for three months of CPAP -LRB- Continuous Positive Airway Pressure -RRB- if that is determined medically necessary . If the CPAP therapy is helpful , Medicare may extend the length of time that the machine rental and purchase of related supplies -LRB- mask , tubing -RRB- is covered .

Entry 0914

Question:

How Does A Health Insurance Policy Work?

Answer:

Each carrier that offers health insurance has a plan which includes such things as ; 1 -RRB- Benefits - what they will and will not cover 2 -RRB- Deductible - what you will need to pay before the benefits kick in 3 -RRB- Co Insurance - what portion you will be responsible for outside of the benefits you receive from the insurer 4 -RRB- Cost - how much the policy will cost you on a monthly , quarterly or annual basis There are a lot of factors involved in choosing an insurance policy that is best for you and your family . Contact a Health Agent and discuss your needs , budget and what you want in a policy . You can also access online sites to put in your info and get a quote .

Entry 0915

Question:

Can I Use The Insurance Policy To Cover Accident While Driving A Friends Car?

Answer:

Insurance follows the vehicle in Ohio . Your insurance would only apply if the vehicle you were operating was uninsured . It is my understanding that most states follow this logic . If you were injured you may be compelled to seek injury coverage from your own insurance . In Michigan under their no-fault law everyone seeks protection from their own insurance first .

Entry 0916

Question:

Does Home Insurance Cover Fallen Trees?

Answer:

If you are asking if homeowners insurance covers a tree falling on your home . The answer is more than likely yes if the tree falling was caused by a covered peril . Bear in mind that there are exclusions within every policy . If you are asking about damage to the tree itself . Once again if the tree falling is because of a covered peril there may be some coverage for the tree itself . As always read over your policy completely or give your local agent a call and discuss your questions or concerns to ensure that you understand your coverages .

Entry 0917

Question:

What Does It Mean To Have Money In A Tax Deferred Annuity?

Answer:

A deferred annuity is a type of annuity contract that delays payments of income , installments or a lump sum until the investor elects to receive them . This type of annuity has two main phases , the savings phase in which you invest money into the account , and the income phase in which the plan is converted into an annuity and payments are received . It can be either variable or fixed .

Entry 0918

Question:

Does Home Insurance Cover Flood?

Answer:

The short and direct answer is no , a Homeowners ' Insurance policy does noit cover for a flood . Flood Insurance must be obtained separately . FEMA administers the plans and they can be written through a number of different insurance companies . Check their website and look for Flood Certified Agents who would be happy to answer your questions and help you through the process .

Entry 0919

Question:

Where Should I Buy Long Term Care Insurance In Michigan?

Answer:

There are local career agencies and brokerage shops in Michigan that offer long term care insurance . But you may also want to use online brokerage firms that offer an inventory of companies , sometimes with side by side comparison spreadsheets to understand which company is most competitive . Genworth is one of the leading long term care insurance companies in the market place .

Entry 0920

Question:

Will Medicare Pay For Any Dental Work?

Answer:

Original Medicare does not pay for dental work that is part of routine care of the teeth , such as exam , cleanings , fluoride treatments , or fillings . It also will not pay for dentures . Some Medicare Supplement plans will cover some dental work . Medicare will cover oral work that done to protect or treat the patient 's general health , or to prepare the patient for surgery , radiation , etc that will be performed for a health condition . It will also cover jaw surgery for a broken jaw , or follow up to an infection after an extraction . If the dental patient has a life threatening condition , Medicare may pay for the cost of hospitalization but not the dental work itself .

Entry 0921

Question:

Is Cancer Insurance Worth The Money?

Answer:

I believe so , as I both own one , and sell them to my clients . They can help make up the deductables and co-pays that are not paid by the health insurance companies . They can also bring in extra income when the insured or family member is not working due to treatments . Remember that these payments from a cancer policy are paid directly to the insured or beneficiary , not the doctors or hospitals . The statistics say that 1 out of 2 men and 1 out of 3 women will contract some form of cancer in their lifetime , the odds are unfortunately good that you will also . Most cancer policys ' also have a wellness provision that will reimburse the insured if they have a mammogram or a pap test or other cancer related tests done , even if they have health insurance coverage . One company , Allstate Benefits , expanded their cancer wellness program to cover blood tests for cholesteral , chest xrays , EKG 's and other non cancer related tests . generally these reimbursements have maximum amounts that they will pay on an annual basis .

Entry 0922

Question:

Why Is Disability Insurance Important?

Answer:

Disability insurance is important because incurring a disability is not uncommon . Some estimate that up to one in three persons will be unable to work for an extended period of time during their working years . Disability insurance is also important because most people could not live without their income for an extended period of time without having their lives drastically disrupted . Disability is one of the leading causes of foreclosures in the US .

Entry 0923

Question:

Will Homeowners Insurance Cover Tornado Damage?

Answer:

Depending on the state you live in most policies include coverage for Wind and Hail . Some states have separate wind pools where you have to purchase a separate policy for this coverage to apply . You also want to check your deductible because a lot of insurance companies have separate Wind/Hail deductibles that are a percentage of your dwelling . For example , a home insured for $ 400,000 with a 2 % Wind/Hail deductible would have to pay $ 8,000 before the insurance policy would kick in .

Entry 0924

Question:

Does Renters Insurance Cover Sewage Backup?

Answer:

Renters insurance does not cover sewage backup on its own . There is an endorsement available to add this coverage , usually for just a few dollars per month . It 's worth remembering that endorsements must be made before a loss occurs . You can not call your insurance agent and add the water and sewage backup endorsement after you discover the problem , there will be no coverage because the endorsement was not applied at the time the loss occurred .

Entry 0925

Question:

What Does Renters Insurance Usually Cover?

Answer:

A renters policy covers your personal property . The limits and exclusions are similar to those in a homeowners policy . The homeowners policy includes the residence . The renters policy covers your personal liability and pays to the limit of the policy for bodily injury or property damage for which you are legally liable . In addition the policy provides medical payments when someone is injured in your rented space .

Entry 0926

Question:

How Much Is A Home Insurance A Month?

Answer:

Just as homes vary in location , cost and condition , so the homeowners policies also vary . The premium is determined generally by these basic factors , address , cost to reconstruct , age of the residence , and available fire protection . Aside from these factors , though , underwriters look at many other aspects of the residence and occupants to determine whether they will even insure the home .

Entry 0927

Question:

How Long Do I Need Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Typically you need disability insurance to cover the risk of losing your ability to earn a living . Once you achieve the point of not needing to earn income to live you would no longer need disability insurance . This could be from earning a residual income for life , an inheritance , large sell of assets or simply retiring from work with an ongoing retirement income .

Entry 0928

Question:

Is AAA Good Car Insurance?

Answer:

There are alot of good insurance companies out there . In fact they all strive to be the best in customer service and claims . One of the things you can do is some online research to see what feed back there is on any particular company . However no matter how good thecompany is it almost always comes down to the agent . I recommend when searching for a company you look for an agency who will know you personally and can assist you with your needs for the long run .

Entry 0929

Question:

How Does Life Insurance Profit?

Answer:

That 's a question many have wondered about , but it 's really quite simple . First the premiums collected are invested in diversified investments and provide the basis of any dividends that are paid out . Additionally , particularly on the Term policies that the provider issues , there are a large percentage of clients who never collect on the death benefit , because they either out live the policy or let the policy lapse . Finally there are those who allow their whole life policies lapse without having accumulated cash or surrender value . So those premiums that had been paid stay with the provider and are invested .

Entry 0930

Question:

How To Find Life Insurance Policy For Deceased?

Answer:

In addition to what David and Peggy stated , you can also pay to run a search with the Medical Information Bureau . The last time I referred someone to it , I believe it cost around $ 75.00 to do . Before paying for this service though I would exhaust the ideas from David and Peggy .

Entry 0931

Question:

Does Medicare Have A Yearly Deductible?

Answer:

Original Medicare has a yearly deductible for Part B , the outpatient and doctor portion . Every year the deductible amount changes based on decisions by Congress . Medicare Part A also has a hospital deductible , but it is a per admission deductible -LRB- in Medicare terminology , per benefit period -RRB- . Some Medicare Part C and D plans also have yearly deductibles .

Entry 0932

Question:

What Year Did Disability Insurance Start?

Answer:

Disability Insurance started in the mid 19th century . At that time , commercial insurance companies called the policies accident and/or sickness policies . Group disability insurance started to be offered in 1911 . Back then , plans were similar to health insurance plans . WEBSITELINK

Entry 0933

Question:

What Is Typical Renters Insurance?

Answer:

A typical renters insurance policy will provide some personal liability and personal property coverage for the insured and the insured 's immediate family that reside at the same premise as the insured . Remember every policy is different . Please read your policy completely to understand the coverage provided and any exclusions that there may be or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0934

Question:

What Would Happen If We Cut Medicare?

Answer:

Medicare funding has been cut every year for several years now and even more cuts are coming under Obamacare . Between now and 2020 Medicare funding will be reduced by more than $ 700 billion in order to fund health insurance subsidies for individuals and families under age 65 , especially those that are not currently insured .

Entry 0935

Question:

Is Life Insurance Eligible For Cobra?

Answer:

No , unfortunately , life insurance is not eligible for Cobra . The continuation of group benefits offered by the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act only applies to health insurance benefits for employees and their families . It does not provide for continuation of life insurance or disability insurance group policies .

Entry 0936

Question:

Can You Drive A New Car Without Insurance?

Answer:

If you currently have existing auto insurance , most insurance companies have a `` grace " coverage period before you need to tell your agent or the company you brought a new car . I would check with your agent to see if your policy as this feature . If you do n't have insurance , you should get it before you can drive off into the sun set , or rather off the dealership lot .

Entry 0937

Question:

Who Is Foresters Life Insurance?

Answer:

Forester 's Life Insurance is offered through the Foresters fraternal benefits society . They sell insurance in the United States , Canada and the United Kingdom . Policyholders become members in their organization and become eligible for member benefits . To compare Foresters Life Insurance quotes , company information and policy features with other companies , contact a website that offers free quotes or consult your local agent .

Entry 0938

Question:

What Is The Elimination Period For Disability Insurance?

Answer:

The elimination period is basically the policy deductible . It is typically the number of days from the onset of disability for which no benefits are payable . The standard elimination period is 90 days -LRB- as Steve mentioned , that how much the typical American has in cash reserves -RRB- , but your agent can also adjust the EP to 30 , 90 , 180 and even 365 days .

Entry 0939

Question:

How To Cash Out A Universal Life Insurance Policy?

Answer:

There is generally a form for the policyowner to complete to cash out a policy . Your agent or the carrier -LRB- generally a representative in the policyholders ' department -RRB- can send you this form . The exact requirements may vary by company . Before cashing out a policy , you want to find out whether or not there are any remaining surrender charges left on the policy . Cashing out a policy may not always be the best course of action - talk to your agent before taking any actions to make sure cashing out the policy is the best option for you .

Entry 0940

Question:

How Much Does Homeowners Insurance Go Up After A Claim?

Answer:

Great question . I believe everyone should have an agent they can all and discuss options on filling or not filling a claim the 1800 numbers will not discuss this with you . First if there is a large loss , a fire for instance there is no question a claim needs to be filled . If the damages for what your considering filling a claim are less than five thousand dollars you should contact your insurance agent and discuss your options . One aspect that will determine the amount your insurance will go up after a claim is how long you 've been with a company , if you 've been with them -LRB- loyal -RRB- five years or greater likely your rates will not go up much if at all , this of course is with the premium carriers . If you shop and hop insurance companies often I am afraid the rates will be very high . There are rewards to staying with a carrier .

Entry 0941

Question:

What Is The Most Popular Medigap Policy?

Answer:

The most popular Medicare Supplement insurance policy is Medigap Plan F ; however , Medigap Plan G is right on the heels of Plan F. Plan F is popular because of the comprehensive health care coverage it provides . It will cover all your Medicare approved charges not paid by Original Medicare Part A and Part B . This means you do not have to worry about co-insurance , deductibles or co-pays . Plan G is gaining popularity because it strongly resembles Plan F . The only difference is you have to satisfy the annual Part B deductible -LRB- $ 147 2014 -RRB- before your Part B benefits kick in . Once you 've met the deductible , your Plan G acts just like Plan F . Why would someone choose Plan G over Plan F ? Price . You can often find Plan G at a lower premium ... even when you include the cost of the Part B deductible . To determine which Medigap Plan is right for you it 's a great idea to speak with an independent agent specializing in Medicare Supplement insurance . There are a number of insurance companies that offer Medigap Plan F and Plan G. Often , the best premiums are with the companies you do not see online . If I can be of assistance with your specific situation , please feel free to contact me .

Entry 0942

Question:

Does USAA Offer Short Term Disability Insurance?

Answer:

USAA does not offer private short term disability insurance plans . The only companies that I am aware of that offers this type of coverage are Mutual of Omaha and Assurity Life . Please contact me to assist you in determining the best face amount and features for your particular situation .

Entry 0943

Question:

How To Become A Home Insurance Broker?

Answer:

In order to become an insurance agent you would first need to become licensed . After that you will need to find an insurance carrier or agent who will hire you and train you in the business . After several years if you feel you are up to it you can try going at it on your own .

Entry 0944

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Foundation Issues?

Answer:

Unless the issue is caused by a covered peril your homeowners insurance would not pay for any of the repairs to correct the foundation issues . A foundation issue is typically considered a maintenance issue . Please read your policy completely to know what is covered and what exclusions there may be or contact your local agent to have them go over the policy with you .

Entry 0945

Question:

How Much Does Veterans Group Life Insurance Cost?

Answer:

You can go to the following link to see how much Veterans Group Life Insurance costs : WEBSITELINK . Unlike SGLI , which has a set price per thousand dollars of coverage , VGLI costs vary according to age , so I am unable to provide one set answer for you .

Entry 0946

Question:

Will Homeowners Insurance Cover Water Heater?

Answer:

The homeowners policy will provide coverage for damage caused by a ruptured hot water heater . It will not replace the hot water heater , itself . It is very important to get assistance urgently as water damage never improves , it only gets worse . It is particularly critical if carpets or wood floors are involved .

Entry 0947

Question:

How Much Is A Health Insurance For An Individual?

Answer:

Health insurance for an individual costs much less than you may realize . As an experienced health insurance broker -LRB- more than 33 years -RRB- , I am asked and answer this question daily . As a broker , our job is to find the lowest available rates and the best coverage for that price . Specifically , rates vary , depending greatly upon where you live , how old you are and the type of coverage you need . Also , the Obamacare federal subsidy can dramatically reduce your premium . If you qualify , your rate could reduce by $ 1,000 per month -LRB- family -RRB- or more . And yes , it is possible that the subsidy will be more than your premium ! You can choose among four Metal plans -LRB- and a low-cost catastrophic plan if you qualify -RRB- .

Entry 0948

Question:

What Are Disability Insurance Programs?

Answer:

Disability insurance programs can be employer sponsored group , executive benefit and individual plans . The plans can be short or long term disability plans . The benefits are generally tax free , but under approved business applications , can be taxable if the company can expense the disability insurance premiums . Disability insurance is one of the most important defensive planning components and the most neglected protection .

Entry 0949

Question:

Why Should Someone Buy Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

The cost of care keeps rising . If you need a nursing home it would not be uncommon to see the cost of care to be $ 7,000 - $ 8000 per month and it is expected to keep increasing . The question becomes if you do n't get a Long Term Care policy what assets are you prepared to liquidate to pay for the care . At $ 7,000 a month for 3 years that comes out to a cost of $ 252,000 based on today 's cost . What will the cost be when you need it in 10 , 20 or 30 years ? We can assume it will be much more . The yearly premium will be only a fraction of the cost if you did n't have a policy . A good Long Term Care policy will include assisted living , home healthcare and nursing home care . The chance of you needing one or all of those at some point in your life is pretty high .

Entry 0950

Question:

Do You Need Insurance On A Mobile Home?

Answer:

If you are not financing the mobile home or the local homeowners association or mobile home park do n't require it ,
nope , you do n't need it . But if you do n't want to pay out of pocket for damage or destruction to your home and your personal belongings , do n't want to haved to pay for you own defense when someone sues you for accidental injury , then yes , you do need it . So it becomes a question of what do you want .

Entry 0951

Question:

How Much Does Renters Insurance Cost In Georgia?

Answer:

Renters insurance rates in Georgia are typically very affordable . Since you do not own the dwelling , you are only insuring your personal property , along with liability and loss of use coverage -LRB- Thereare also additional benefits -RRB- . The annual cost , depending on your amounts of personal property coverage and zip code , can vary between about $ 110 and $ 240 per year . Replacement cost and much higher coverage will of course increase the rate . As experienced brokers , we shop all of the major carriers so you are presented with the best options .

Entry 0952

Question:

How To Find Life Insurance Policies For A Deceased Person?

Answer:

To find life insurance policies for a deceased person , start by looking through their records and files . If you ca n't find any policy numbers that way , ask an insurance agency that handled their auto , car , etc insurance , to see if they purchased their life insurance there , as well . You could try calling a couple companies that you know they liked . If all else fails , you may need to wait a couple of years for the life insurance to show up as unclaimed property for that state .

Entry 0953

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Cover Underground Pipes?

Answer:

A homeowners policy covers the residence . There is coverage for sudden bursting of pipes inside the home but I can not locate any coverage for pipes outside and underground . Most homeowners policies exclude coverage for sewer backup , unless that coverage is provided as an option . Even that coverage isnt for the pipes ; rather it is for the damage to the residence .

Entry 0954

Question:

Does Homeowners Insurance Go Up After Making A Claim?

Answer:

Rates going up for making your first claim can vary by carrier . Many insurance carriers offer a claim free discount so making a claim can remove this discount which looks to the consumer as a rate increase . Also the type of claim can make a difference if the rates are effected or not . There are many variables and so I recommend you always consult with your local agent on how a claim may effect your rates or eligibility .

Entry 0955

Question:

What Is LMRP For Medicare?

Answer:

LMRP stand for Local Medical Review Policy . LMRP 's outline how contractors will review Medicare claims to make sure they meet Medicare coverage requirements . As such , LMRP 's assists Medicare providers , physicians and suppliers in submitting correct claims for payment . Starting in December 2003 , Medicare contractors were required to convert their LMRP 's to LCD 's , or `` Local Coverage Determinations " . LCD 's are limited to provisions that establish clinical circumstances when services are considered to be reasonable and necessary .

Entry 0956

Question:

Can I Keep Insurance Money And Not Fix My Car?

Answer:

The answer to that depends on whether or not you own your car outright . If you are making payments to purchase or lease your vehicle than an insurance payout will most likely go directly to the repair facility . If you own your vehicle than you have the right to do whatever you wish with the money you receive from the auto insurance payout . That being said , it is strongly recommended to ensure your vehilce is safe to operate -LRB- For the benefit of you and yourpassengers as well as others on the road too -RRB- . Joel Guilbert Liberty Mutual Insurance 4806857309

Entry 0957

Question:

When Is It Illegal To Not Have Health Insurance?

Answer:

It will not be "illegal" not to have health insurance. However starting 2014 the federal government will start levying penalties on businesses that have over 50 full time equivalent employees and on individuals who do not have health insurance either through their spouse, work, individual coverage, or are listed as a covered dependent on someone else's insurance policy.

Entry 0958

Question:

Why Get Short Term Disability Insurance?

Answer:

Social Security disability benefits can generate some income during a prolonged sickness and/or recovery from an injury . Some employer group plans also offer short term disability . But if your employer does n't offer disability benefits , then most advisers recommend having at least short term disability insurance if you ca n't afford long term disability premiums .

Entry 0959

Question:

When Is Disability Insurance Needed?

Answer:

Assuming the question at what age or circumstance is disability insurance needed , most advisers recommend the day you start working full time . Most American workers have 90 days in cash reserves to pay household expenditures . The average long term disability is around 30 months and the odds of a disability event during your working years is significant . And while Social security disability is available , its benefits may not be enough , so purchasing individual disability insurance is necessary and part of your defensive financial plan .

Entry 0960

Question:

When Does Everyone Get Health Insurance?

Answer:

Starting in 2014 most all US citizens will be required to have an approved form of health insurance . Some exceptions are made for those with religious convictions . Most will receive health insurance through their employer or from the taxpayer -LRB- Medicare , Medicaid , SCHIP , etc. -RRB- . If you do not have an employer group health insurance plan or a taxpayer funded plan you will be required to purchase individual health insurance . Low income individuals may qualify for a premium subsidy if they purchase through a health insurance exchange . You may also purchase an approved policy off exchange through a health insurance agent or direct from a carrier .

Entry 0961

Question:

What are my options for life insurance if I have chronic hepatitis b and mild cirrhosis?

Answer:

I do have a life insurance policy that you can get with chronic hepatitis B and mild cirrhosis , if it is available in your state . Ironically , there will be more policies available to you when you are over the age of 40 , but this one is available at age 29 . Unfortunately , you will not be able to get a medically underwritten policy with the presence of cirrhosis . I have tried this before and it would be a futile and disheartening experience for you . Please feel free to contact me for details of the policy that you can get .

Entry 0962

Question:

What Is A Good Amount For Life Insurance?

Answer:

With nothing else to go on , a good amount for life insurance is 10 times your annual income . To get a more accurate assessment of what is a good amount for you , there are life insurance calculators that will allow you to put in any number of variables to come up with the amount that will best meet your needs .

Entry 0963

Question:

My father passed in 2007 i recently found his life policy, where do i start?

Answer:

The best place to start is to call the life insurance company through which he took out the policy . If the company has changed hands , you can google the name of the old company and the company that bought it will come up in some results . Look at the Contact tab on the company website for Customer Service .

Entry 0964

Question:

How Does A Fixed Annuity Work?

Answer:

A fixed annuity is all about guarantees . The insurance company guarantees to pay a specific amount of money every month for the rest of your life , in exchange for a fixed amount of money . The company guarantees both the principal and the interest making it an absolutely stress free program for you . It addresses the number one concern of retirees , that of living too long .

Entry 0965

Question:

Who Is The Biggest Life Insurance Company?

Answer:

The world 's biggest life insurance company , measured by assets , is Japan Post Insurance Company , Inc , according to WEBSITELINK The next largest is AXA S. A. -LRB- France -RRB- , then Allianz -LRB- Germany -RRB- . The largest insurance carrier in the United States is MetLife per this chart . Assets were measured 3/2011 .

Entry 0966

Question:

Does Each Person Need Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Some companies will cover unrelated individuals living together under the same contract as long as they are each listed in the policy declarations . Some will not . Ask you agent or broker about your specific situation . It is a safe bet that if you take on an unrelated roommate , he or she will NOT be covered unless specifically added to the tenants package policy .

Entry 0967

Question:

What Happens To Life Insurance When You Divorce?

Answer:

Life insurance will remain in force as long as premiums are paid . In divorce situations you may need to change ownership of the policy if it is owned by the spouse and you may also need to change the beneficiary . Sit down with your agent or contact a good local agent and discuss your individual needs and options .

Entry 0968

Question:

How Long After Buying A Car Do I Need Insurance In Massachusetts?

Answer:

Responsibility for injury or damage resulting from the ownership of a car and the risk of damage to the car itself begins when you take title . In Massachusetts , you are required to have the required liability insurance before the car can be operated on the roads of the Commonwealth .

Entry 0969

Question:

Do Health Insurance Companies Drug Test?

Answer:

No . Health insurance companies do no conduct any physical/medical exams in order to obtain health insurance . The health care reform law -LRB- ObamaCare -RRB- now requires that health insurance plans be guaranteed to be issued and that they ca n't have pre-existing condition exclusions , waiting periods or limitations . In the individual health insurance market and in some group insurance situations you may be asked about tobacco consumption as this is the one vice that ObamaCare allows a rate risk adjustment for . In the employment environment , drug testing may be a condition of pre-employment screening and/or employment but it is not a health insurance coverage requirement .

Entry 0970

Question:

Is Auto Insurance Expensive In North Carolina?

Answer:

Looking at car insurance rates by state , the 2014 model shows North Carolina as the 6th most competitively priced state for auto insurance premiums . Put another way , North Carolina was 46th out of 51 for most expensive auto rates . The North Carolina Auto Insurance Premium was $ 1060 which was based off of the average of all 855 vehicles surveyed in the study . The only states cheaper were Iowa , Idaho , New Hampshire , Maine and Ohio .

Entry 0971

Question:

Why Is It So Hard To Sell Life Insurance?

Answer:

The vast majority of consumer centered advisers sell the appropriate life insurance product to meet the prospective purchasers personal suitability requirements . Providing good financial advice is not selling , it is more like a stewardship vocation or family consultant that uses the highest best practices in fiduciary trust . Product suitability trumps just selling a product .

Entry 0972

Question:

Who Governs Homeowners Insurance?

Answer:

Insurance carriers are typically overseen in each state by the commissioner of insurance for that state . You can do an internet search to find the website of your states commissioner . On this site you will find a vast amount of information about the many insurance carriers in your state along with insurance tips and tricks .

Entry 0973

Question:

How Much Is Mcdonalds Health Insurance?

Answer:

You may already understand this but for our readers who may not , when we think about McDonald 's or some similar organization , we are really thinking about two distinct & separate entities that we put together in our minds . There is the big corporate McDonalds , which does n't really sell hamburgers , they sell franchises to sell hamburgers . Then there is your local McDonald 's restaurant , which is usually a locally or regionally owned franchise . Corporate McDonalds is a major corporation and provides the kinds of employee benefits one would expect in a Fortune 500 environment . That is totally separate and distinct from your local franchise owner who may own just a few McDonalds locations and is a small business person . This is the public face you see but associate with the corporate marketing imprint from decades of market presence and lots of advertising . Benefit decisions are an individual franchise owner 's issue not so much for the corporate McDonalds -LRB- though they do provide some guidance and access -RRB- to be involved with . This is a question you need to ask at the local employer level . Employee benefits in the fast food industry are the exception rather than the rule for reasons such as the income levels of the employees , lots of part-time employees , high turnover and relatively slim profit margins for many franchise owners , especially in the early years of their businesses .

Entry 0974

Question:

How Long Do You Pay Premiums For Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Premiums for long term care insurance are paid until the insurance is needed . There is no such thing as a `` paid up " policy with traditional long term care -LRB- LTC -RRB- insurance . However , if someone purchases a permanent life insurance policy that includes chronic illness benefits , or has a rider that provides long term care type benefits , then one might be able to pay premiums ahead so that the policy is paid up and ready to use when needed .

Entry 0975

Question:

Can Car Insurance Be Paid Monthly?

Answer:

Each insurance carrier has its own payment options . Most of the carriers do allow monthly payments , but charge installment fees . The amount of the installment fee may vary depending on the payment option : check , EFT , credit card . In some cases , you may be required to pay in full . For example , when in the past , you have allowed your policy to be cancelled for non-payment of premium more than once or twice per policy period .

Entry 0976

Question:

Is Private Disability Insurance Taxable?

Answer:

Since you pay for private Disability Insurance with after tax dollars , the benefits are not taxable . While there are mostly likely some exceptions to this , this is the general rule . Employer provided Disability benefits can be taxable if the employer took a tax deduction when paying the premium . So this is a nice advantage of private Disability Insurance .

Entry 0977

Question:

Does Nationwide Offer Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Yes , indeed Nationwide does offer Renters Insurance . We have represented Nationwide in Connecticut since 1985 and regularly discuss the need for Renters Insurance with our clients who have that sort of need . The coverage is comprehensive and we work to customize a plan to best suit our clients need for protection at a reasonable and affordable price .

Entry 0978

Question:

Can You Add A Car To Your Insurance Over The Phone?

Answer:

In Florida , you should be able to add a car to your policy over the telephone . If you are purchasing a vehicle you must have insurance on that vehicle before you can drive it . Therefore , most dealerships will request that you call your insurance agent to add the newly purchased vehicle to your policy . That way , your insurance agent can verify the fact that you are purchasing the vehicle and verify the condition , make , model , year , VIN and purchase price . If they do not let you add a vehicle over the telephone , you may want to look at a different company .

Entry 0979

Question:

Does Long Term Care Insurance Cover In Home Care?

Answer:

This is an exciting new feature with most long term care policies and riders on life and annuity products . Assisted home living is the preferred care by seniors and stretch the benefits of a plan before nursing home confinement is necessary . The ability to service a seniors personal needs from home may extend their motivation to enjoy their lifestyle and extend their life expectancy .

Entry 0980

Question:

What Is The Best Medicare Advantage Plan In Arizona?

Answer:

There is no `` best " Advantage plan . The one that fits your needs and budget is the best for you . Medicare Advantage plans are similar to traditional major medical plans in that they have copay 's and deductibles . But the difference stops there . Most Advantage plans have networks . Some networks are local while others are regional . Some Advantage plans only include coverage if you are treated by a network provider while others will include out of network coverage but with a higher -LRB- and usually separate -RRB- deductible , higher copay 's and higher out of pocket . Exceptions are made to the out of network penalty for true medical emergencies . Make sure you understand all details of the policy , especially your out of pocket maximum . The out of pocket limit does not include non-network benefits or Rx . It also does not include any non-covered medical treatment . In most areas less than half the doctors accept ANY Medicare Advantage plans . Even if your doctor does accept Advantage patients they may not participate in your particular plan .

Entry 0981

Question:

What Equipment Is Covered By Medicare?

Answer:

Medicare will cover medically necessary Durable Medical Equipment . the key here is Medically necessary . Medicare may pay for a wheelchair for one person but not another , for example , depending on the reason for the wheelchair . It will pay for diabetic monitors . It may pay for lift chairs if there is a medical necessity . You need to have a doctors prescription and any DME must go through an approval process by Medicare .

Entry 0982

Question:

Can You Get Health Insurance As A Real Estate Agent?

Answer:

My sick sense of humor almost tempts me to say `` No , real estate agents are specifically excluded from getting health insurance by law " but I wo n't do that . Yes , you can get health insurance . What you do for a living has no bearing on your eligibility for health insurance , especially now that ObamaCare is in full effect regarding guaranteed issuance of policies . In my experience , most real estate agents are self-employed/1099 contractor status people and not W2 employees of an agency . So , this probably means that you will need to get individual health insurance either through your state 's government health insurance marketplace or outside of it . So , just like you would tell those `` For Sale By Owner " folks , you need to seek out an experienced health insurance agent who can assist you in obtaining coverage . If you have been without health insurance for more than 60-days and have n't had what is called a `` change of life status event " -LRB- marriage , divorce , childbirth/adoption , loss of other coverage -RRB- then you are in a time frame where you would be ineligible for enrollment in true major medical insurance until the next annual open enrollment period begins on November 15th , 2014 and the earliest your coverage could go into effect would be for January 1st , 2015 . I hate to be the one to deliver this news but that is how ObamaCare works . Your only coverage option to carry you through until then would be to take out a Short Term Medical insurance plan . There are a variety of short term medical plan options available . However , you need to be aware that short term medical plans do still use limited underwriting questions , can decline a person for coverage and they do not cover pre-existing conditions . Please feel free to contact me if you need advice or assistance in this matter .

Entry 0983

Question:

Does Auto Insurance Cover Broken Windshields?

Answer:

Great Question . Auto insurance covers broken windshield if you carry comprehensive insurance . Please check with your insurance company or broker for more detail . If you have comp insurance and your windshield was broken from an accident or a fallen rock that could be covered under your auto insurance policy . Good Luck

Entry 0984

Question:

Who Has The Best Term Life Insurance?

Answer:

The best term life insurance is , of course , the plan that provides the cheapest rates for the time period you need , from a major A-rated company . OK ... So how do you find these companies and prices ? With more than 33 years of experience as a life insurance broker , I 'll tell you ! Shopping the right way is critical , and using an experienced broker -LRB- and their website -RRB- we 'll save you hours of time and research , and ensure you are getting the best available rates from a top-rated company . That 's our job , and we find the best offers . The company could vary , depending on many factors , including your age , face amount of coverage , your health , and number of years of guaranteed premiums .

Entry 0985

Question:

Does Medicare Pay For Hep C Treatment?

Answer:

Medicare Part D will pay for some Hepatitis C medications and treatments such as Rebetol , Ribapak , ribavirin , interferon alfacon-1 , and peginterferon alfa-2b . However , there is a complicated grid of `` if this , then that " one must adhere to in order have the drug or treatment covered . Call your Medigap or Medicare Advantage agent to find out if you qualify for Hep C treatment through Medicare .

Entry 0986

Question:

What If I Can't Afford Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

There are some other options . Some newer Life Insurance policies have long term care riders available that are very affordable . Another option would be to consider a Short Term Care Policy to help pay expenses until you can qualify for government aid . A good independent agent who specializes in Care Resource Planning can help you determine your best options based on your affordability .

Entry 0987

Question:

How Much Long Term Health Care Insurance Do I Need?

Answer:

Most married couples who purchase long term care in their early 60s are opting to purchase the maximum benefit with at least a 3 % inflation rider . The total benefits generally run $ 7,000 a calendar month with max benefits of around $ 400,000 to $ 420,000 for two 60 year old non-smokers on a joint policy .

Entry 0988

Question:

What Does Surrender Value Mean On Life Insurance?

Answer:

Surrender value on life insurance is the amount of cash that you would receive if you were to cancel your policy . It usually only applies to permanent life insurance , since term life insurance does not usually have cash value . It is the amount of cash value in the policy , minus fees and surrenders charges .

Entry 0989

Question:

What Is A Group Universal Life Insurance Policy?

Answer:

Group universal life is similar to individual universal life . Group policies involve the plan sponsor , often an employer , holding the master policy while the individual participants receive a certificate of insurance . It is a convenient and voluntary way to acquire cash value life insurance through the workplace . Usually the employee pays all premiums in which case all benefits would be immediately and fully vested . At employment termination portability features in these products generally allow for coverage to be taken by the participant as an individual policy .

Entry 0990

Question:

What Are Pensions And Annuities?

Answer:

There can be a little leeway in the definitions of a pension , but heres mine . The traditional quailed pension of the past was a basic defined benefit plan investing in the market or a more conservative portfolio of fixed instruments paying a fixed ongoing payment either for the life of the pensioner or a fixed time certain period . The benefits are taxed as ordinary income . A tax deferred annuity is a non-qualified insurance product that can pay as similarly stated above , except the distribution of basis is tax free .

Entry 0991

Question:

Can A Lien Be Placed On Life Insurance?

Answer:

NO ... a lien can not be placed on Life Insurance . UNLESS you have given or using the cash value and/or the policy as collateral . If the loan which the collateral is being used to secure gets defaulted on , then yes , the collector can take the policy/cash value to pay off any balance . Life Insurance by nature is outside the reach of creditors such as your 401 -LRB- k -RRB- .

Entry 0992

Question:

How To Take Advantage Of Health Insurance?

Answer:

That is a great question ! The best way to take advantage of your health insurance is to use it . Find out what free preventative services are covered by your plan , and take advantage of them . Get those things checked that bother you , but you never feel like going to have looked at . You are going to pay for it anyway , get as much out of it as you can ! Thanks for asking !

Entry 0993

Question:

How To Get Really Cheap Car Insurance?

Answer:

Really cheap auto insurance pays a claim completely . Anything else is really expensive auto insurance . For example if someone is injured in an accident for which you are at fault , the expense of care and treatment could be above the legal insurance limits in your state . That amount that exceeds your insurance coverage is your expense .

Entry 0994

Question:

How Much Coverage Should I Have For Renters Insurance?

Answer:

Renters insurance covers you and your property along with liability , coverage for living expenses you may need if because of a covered loss you can not live there any longer and a few other coverage . You should consult with your agent on the amount of coverage but I would start with taking a guess of how much you think it would take to replace all of your stuff if the worst happened . Remember the landlord or owner of the property does not have any financial interest in your property so make sure you get a renters policy . One last thing there are policies that will pay you replacement cost and others that do not make sure you ask if the policy you are thinking about purchasing has replacement cost for you personal property .

Entry 0995

Question:

Who Should Not Purchase Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

Long term care insurance is a necessary part of retirement planning for nearly everyone . If your family has a predisposition for short life expectancy before retirement age , then long term care insurance may not be a priority . If you have liquid assets that can be set aside to the tune of $ 500,000 for assisted living and/or nursing home care , then long term care insurance may not be a consideration .

Entry 0996

Question:

Can Nursing Homes Take Whole Life Insurance?

Answer:

To the extent that your whole life insurance has enough cash value , you may borrow to pay bills for whatever reason you wish . However , if you are concerned about paying for long term care , and who is n't , your best alternative to having a long term care policy is to investigate those permanent policies with a long term care rider . There are also other methods to pay for care as well , so contact an independent agent for help and some suggestions .

Entry 0997

Question:

How Is Life Insurance Taxed?

Answer:

Video Transcript : Today 's question is , How is life insurance taxed ? Well , if you use life insurance just for a death benefit and the death benefit proceeds are paid directly to the beneficiaries , generally speaking it 's tax free . If you 're using life insurance as an income play , as long as you keep the contract enforced for the life of the policy insured , those proceeds , whether it 's withdrawals to basis or policy loans to gain , also will be tax free . But if you are able to go ahead and use a permanent product , a cash value permanent product and you actually surrender the contract or it lapsed and there was gain in the contract , you will pay ordinary income tax on that contract on all the gain of the policy . So it 's important whether you use it for indemnification , to know the rules of engagement on taxes as well as if you 're using it for income .

Entry 0998

Question:

Does A Veteran Need Long Term Care Insurance?

Answer:

A veteran needs Long Term Care Insurance if he/she does not want to utilize long term health care provided by the Veterans Administration . This may be due to location or some other bias the veteran has about receiving VA medical care . Or a veteran might want Long Term Care Insurance in case he/she can not qualify for full benefits or full compensation for care offered by the VA. .

Entry 0999

Question:

Does Car Insurance Cover Engine Replacement?

Answer:

No , it does not . Auto insurance does not cover maintenance issues . Unless the engine was damaged by a collision , or a tree fell on it and damaged it , or something like that -LRB- something that applies to a claim -RRB- . if there is a situation where a collision cause enough damage for the engine to be replaced , the vehicle will probably be totaled out anyways .

Entry 1000

Question:

Can I Have Two Homeowners Insurance Policies?

Answer:

You can have as many homeowners policies as you have homes . If you own a house that you are leasing to others , then a fire policy would be the more appropriate choice -LRB- it has only limited coverage for personal propertycontents . -RRB- You can not , however , have two homeowners policies on the same home and hope to claim damages from both policies .
